

Section I
Notice of Development of Proposed Rules and Negotiated Rulemaking

STATE BOARD OF ADMINISTRATION

RULE NOS.:	RULE TITLES:
19-11.002	Beneficiary Designations and Distributions for FRS Investment Plan
19-11.014	Benefits Payable for Investment Plan Member Disability and In-Line-Of-Duty Death Benefits

PURPOSE AND EFFECT: To set forth proposed amendments to Rule 19-11.002 which serve to adopt the latest version of the beneficiary designation form. Further, the rule is being amended to indicate that if a Special Risk Class Investment Plan member is killed in the line of duty, such member's family will be entitled to a monthly survivor benefit as outlined in detail by new Rule 19-11.014. The rule also is being amended to make reference to the latest versions of the applicable enrollment forms. The rule amendments further indicate that an incomplete beneficiary designation form will not be processed. Finally, the rule amendments state that if a member designates the same person/entity as both a primary and a contingent beneficiary, the person or entity designated will be deemed to be only a primary beneficiary. Rule 19-11.014 is being created to provide information to Investment Plan members regarding two potential benefit options. First, information is set forth in the new rule regarding the fact that an Investment Plan member is entitled, if eligible, to apply for disability benefits which are in lieu of benefits otherwise payable to the member under Section 121.591(1) Florida Statutes. If the member's disability benefit application is approved, the member becomes a member of the FRS Pension Plan and the member's entire Investment Plan balance is transferred to the Pension Plan. Second, special "In Line of Duty" death benefits may be paid to the families of those Special Risk Class Investment Plan members who are killed in the line of duty. In lieu of receiving the member's vested Investment Plan account balance, the spouse and unmarried children of each such Special Risk class member may receive monthly survivor benefits equal to 100% of the member's salary at the time of death. Monthly benefits payable will be paid to the surviving spouse for his or her lifetime, and upon his or her death, to any surviving children where each such child is either under age 18 or under age 25 if each such child is a full-time student and unmarried. This Special Risk Class In Line of Duty Death Benefit was recently enacted during the 2016 Legislative Session.

SUBJECT AREA TO BE ADDRESSED: To describe the new In-Line of Duty death benefit that may be available to survivors of Special Risk Class Investment Plan members who are killed in the line of duty; to clarify certain information regarding what happens if a member files an incomplete beneficiary designation form; to specify that the same person/entity cannot be both a primary and a contingent beneficiary; to adopt the latest version of the beneficiary designation form.

FISH AND WILDLIFE CONSERVATION COMMISSION

Marine Fisheries

RULE NOS.: RULE TITLES:
68B-41.003 Regional Recreational Size Limit;
 Commercial Size Limits; Landed in Whole
 Conditional Requirement

68B-41.007 Prohibited Sale; Vessel for Hire Exception

PURPOSE AND EFFECT: In general, state and federal regulations require most marine fish to be landed whole (e.g., fish may not be possessed as fillets on the water). In January 2016, the South Atlantic Fishery Management Council created an exemption allowing recreational anglers to transit Atlantic federal waters with fillets of recreationally harvested dolphin from The Bahamas provided specific conditions were met. The Commission is considering rules that are consistent with recent changes for federal waters. Specifically, these proposed rules would create an exception in state rule allowing anglers to land dolphin as fillets instead of as whole fish, provided the dolphin were recreationally harvested in The Bahamas and anglers adhere to several conditions.

To qualify for this exception, anglers would be required to keep skin on fillets for the purpose of species identification. Anglers would also be required to comply with South Atlantic federal bag and possession limits. For the purpose of these rules, two fillets would count as one fish towards the dolphin bag and possession limits. To serve as proof that the fish were harvested in Bahamian waters, the vessel would be required to have valid Bahamian fishing and cruising permits and each passenger aboard the vessel would be required to possess a valid government passport with current stamps and dates from The Bahamas. When transiting state waters, the vessel would be required to maintain a continuous course with all fishing gear stowed. The final condition would prohibit sale and purchase of dolphin transited to Florida under this exception.

The proposed rule changes would benefit Florida residents and tourists who depart from Florida ports to fish in The Bahamas, because it would allow them to return to Florida with their Bahamian-caught dolphin as fillets. Aboard small recreational fishing vessels, it is more practical to store fish as fillets, rather than as whole fish, and doing so can help minimize food safety risks. Additionally, implementing these proposed rules would create consistency with federal regulations off Florida's Atlantic coast and make rule compliance simpler for recreational anglers.

The effect of the proposed rules would be an exception allowing recreational anglers to land dolphin as fillets, rather than as whole fish, when returning to Florida by boat with dolphin caught in Bahamian waters. Creating this exception would benefit Florida residents and tourists by offering them an alternative means to safely store and transport their Bahamian catch and by creating consistent regulations with adjacent federal waters.

SUMMARY: These proposed rules would create an exception allowing recreational anglers to land dolphin as fillets instead of as whole fish, provided the dolphin were recreationally harvested in The Bahamas and specific conditions are met. The conditions would require (1) skin to remain on the fillets; (2) anglers to comply with South Atlantic federal bag and possession limits; (3) the vessel to possess valid Bahamian fishing and cruising permits; and (4) each passenger to possess valid government passports with current Bahamian stamps and travel dates. For the purpose of the proposed rules, two fillets would count as one fish towards dolphin bag and possession limits. Vessels transporting filleted dolphin from The Bahamas would be required to maintain direct and continuous transit through state waters with all fishing gear stowed. Finally, the proposed rules would prohibit the sale and purchase of dolphin transported to Florida under this exception.

SUMMARY OF STATEMENT OF ESTIMATED REGULATORY COSTS AND LEGISLATIVE RATIFICATION: The Agency has determined that this will not have an adverse impact on small business or likely increase directly or indirectly regulatory costs in excess of $200,000 in the aggregate within one year after the implementation of the rule. A SERC has not been prepared by the Agency.

The Agency has determined that the proposed rule is not expected to require legislative ratification based on the statement of estimated regulatory costs or if no SERC is required, the information expressly relied upon and described herein: the nature of the rule and the preliminary analysis conducted to determine whether a SERC was required.

Any person who wishes to provide information regarding a statement of estimated regulatory costs, or provide a proposal for a lower cost regulatory alternative must do so in writing within 21 days of this notice.

Marine Fisheries

RULE NOS.: RULE TITLES:

68B-57.003 Landed in Whole Condition Requirement

68B-57.007 Prohibited Sale

PURPOSE AND EFFECT: In general, state and federal regulations require most marine fish to be landed whole (e.g., fish may not be possessed as fillets on the water). In January 2016, the South Atlantic Fishery Management Council created an exemption allowing recreational anglers to transit Atlantic federal waters with fillets of recreationally harvested wahoo from The Bahamas provided specific conditions were met. The Commission is considering rules that are consistent with recent changes for federal waters. Specifically, these proposed rules would create an exception in state rule allowing anglers to land wahoo as fillets instead of as whole fish, provided the wahoo were recreationally harvested in The Bahamas and anglers adhere to several conditions.

To qualify for this exception, anglers would be required to keep skin on fillets for the purpose of species identification. Anglers would also be required to comply with South Atlantic federal bag and possession limits. For the purpose of these rules, two fillets would count as one fish towards the wahoo bag and possession limits. To serve as proof that the fish were harvested in Bahamian waters, the vessel would be required to have valid Bahamian fishing and cruising permits and each passenger aboard the vessel would be required to possess a valid government passport with current stamps and dates from The Bahamas. When transiting state waters, the vessel would be required to maintain a continuous course with all fishing gear stowed. The final condition would prohibit sale and purchase of wahoo transited to Florida under this exception.

The proposed rule changes would benefit Florida residents and tourists who depart from Florida ports to fish in The Bahamas, because it would allow them to return to Florida with their Bahamian-caught wahoo as fillets. Aboard small recreational fishing vessels, it is more practical to store fish as fillets, rather than as whole fish, and doing so can help minimize food safety risks. Additionally, implementing these proposed rules would create consistency with federal regulations off Florida's Atlantic coast and make rule compliance simpler for recreational anglers.

The effect of the proposed rules would be an exception allowing recreational anglers to land wahoo as fillets, rather than as whole fish, when returning to Florida by boat with wahoo caught in Bahamian waters. Creating this exception would benefit Florida residents and tourists by offering them an alternative means to safely store and transport their Bahamian catch and by creating consistent regulations with adjacent federal waters.

SUMMARY: These proposed rules would create an exception allowing recreational anglers to land wahoo as fillets instead of as whole fish, provided the wahoo were recreationally harvested in The Bahamas and specific conditions are met. The conditions would require (1) skin to remain on the fillets; (2) anglers to comply with South Atlantic federal bag and possession limits; (3) the vessel to possess valid Bahamian fishing and cruising permits; and (4) each passenger to possess valid government passports with current Bahamian stamps and travel dates. For the purpose of the proposed rules, two fillets would count as one fish towards wahoo bag and possession limits. Vessels transporting filleted wahoo from The Bahamas would be required to maintain direct and continuous transit through state waters with all fishing gear stowed. Finally, the proposed rules would prohibit the sale and purchase of wahoo transported to Florida under this exception.

SUMMARY OF STATEMENT OF ESTIMATED REGULATORY COSTS AND LEGISLATIVE RATIFICATION: The Agency has determined that this will not have an adverse impact on small business or likely increase directly or indirectly regulatory costs in excess of $200,000 in the aggregate within one year after the implementation of the rule. A SERC has not been prepared by the Agency.

The Agency has determined that the proposed rule is not expected to require legislative ratification based on the statement of estimated regulatory costs or if no SERC is required, the information expressly relied upon and described herein: the nature of the rule and the preliminary analysis conducted to determine whether a SERC was required.

Any person who wishes to provide information regarding a statement of estimated regulatory costs, or provide a proposal for a lower cost regulatory alternative must do so in writing within 21 days of this notice.
