For all other IT projects, Cabinet Agencies are required to either adopt these standards or adopt alternative standards based on best practices and industry standards. (See 282.00515, F.S.). ~~These standards are documented in Rule 74-1.001, F.A.C., through 74-1.008, F.A.C.~~

1. Operations and Maintenance (O&M) activities that support an existing product or service to keep it in conformance with its originally intended specifications, functionality, and service levels are exempt from these standards. O& M activities include:

a. Adaptive Maintenance - the modification of a product, performed after delivery, to keep a product usable in a changed or changing environment.

b. Corrective Maintenance - the reactive modification of a product performed after delivery to correct discovered problems.

c. Perfective Maintenance - the modification of a product after delivery to detect and correct latent faults in the product before they are manifested as failures.

d. Preventive Maintenance - the modification of a product after delivery to detect and correct latent faults in the product before they become operational faults.

The terms above originate from the International Organization for Standardization standard No.: ISO/IEC 14764:2006, which may be found at: <https://www.iso.org/obp/ui/#iso:std:iso-iec:14764:ed-2:v1:en>.

The quarterly report will follow the same process and format as the monthly review. Following the same process as the monthly review described in (3)(e) above, the quarterly report will include a discussion of the risk assessment, including fiscal risks associated with proceeding to the next stage of the project, and a recommendation for corrective actions required, up to and including suspension or termination of the project. Agencies will review and acknowledge the quarterly report (or provide feedback or response) in writing to AST within 5 business days.

~~(6)(5) Any project meeting the criteria for AST oversight must adhere to the requirements of a Risk and Complexity (R&C) Category 4 project.~~

~~(7)(6) The Agency must use a PMP® Certified Project Manager for any project meeting the criteria for AST oversight. The PMP® Certified Project Manager must oversee the entire project scope. If the Agency designates a PMP® Certified third party or vendor Project Manager, the Agency must also designate an Agency employee in a Project Manager role that is ultimately responsible for the ensuring compliance with the rule and the successful execution of the entire project effort. The designated Agency project manager and that will serves as the primary point of contact for AST.~~

The Agency will purchase IV&V services in compliance with section 287.056, F.S., or procure such services in a manner consistent with Florida procurement laws. The Agency will collaborate with AST when creating solicitations and contracts for IV&V services, and when identifying the amount of funding to be requested for IV&V as part of the project's Legislative Budget Request (LBR). IV&V contract deliverables, including invoices, will be provided to AST at or around the time they are delivered by the IV&V vendor to the agency.~~
