- d. ~~Employees’ procedures for handling ready to eat foods, which must also include how cross contamination from touching raw animal food and ready to eat food is precluded.~~

2. ~~Identified employee positions whose duties may include handling of ready to eat foods with their bare hands must receive professional hygiene training in accordance with subsection 61C-4.023(4)(a), F.A.C., prior to any food handling activity. ~~compliance with Sections 2-201.11, 2-201.12, and 2-201.13 of the Food Code, as adopted by reference in Rule 61C-1.001, F.A.C., as those sections relate to employee health status, exclusions, and restrictions.~~

The written alternative operating procedure must also describe the corrective actions the operator must take when the procedure is not followed. All food service employees, including the operator, manager, or any supervisory position, who handle ready to eat foods with bare hands must comply with all requirements of the Food Code, as adopted by reference in Rule 61C-1.001, F.A.C., and the public food service establishment's written alternative operating procedures.~~

~~(e) A copy of the written alternative operating procedure must be maintained and made available in each food establishment at all times for use by the person in charge and for review by the regulatory authority upon request. ~~(g)~~ If the division or other food regulatory authority is notified of a suspected foodborne illness outbreak in any public food service establishment which utilizes bare hand contact with ready-to-eat foods, the division will temporarily enforce no bare hand contact in the establishment ~~in accordance with Section 3-301.11(B) of the Food Code, as adopted by reference in Rule 61C-1.001, F.A.C., until the health authority determines whether a foodborne illness outbreak exists or until such time~~ as the origin of the foodborne illness outbreak is confirmed. If the origin of the foodborne illness, specific to the implicated establishment, is determined to be a food service employee associated outbreak, the division shall ~~pursue enforcement action in accordance with Section 509.261, F.S., and continue to enforce no bare hand contact compliance with Section 3-301.11(B) of the Food Code, as adopted by reference in Rule 61C-1.001, F.A.C., until the establishment operator verifies completion of corrective action, including remedial training of all food preparation employees.~~
