

Florida Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services
Division of Plant Industry

APPLICATION AND PERMIT TO PLANT
CITRUS PATHOGEN INFECTED STOCK

WILTON SIMPSON COMMISSIONER

Section 581.031(16)(26), F.S. / Rules 5B-62.005, .026(5), F.A.C.

Bureau of Budwood Registration
3027 Lake Alfred Rd. (Hwy 17), Winter Haven, FL 33881-1438 / PH: 863-298-3041 / FAX 863-298-3050

Name and Address _____
Phone No. _____	FAX No. _____
Signature of Applicant: _____	Date: _____
Check One: <input type="checkbox"/> Pathogen <input type="checkbox"/> Scion/Rootstock Trial Planting <input type="checkbox"/> Escape Trees

Pathogen Trial Planting:

1. State general purpose of request. (Answer may be provided on a separate sheet of paper)
2. What are the benefits of this planting? (Answer may be provided on a separate sheet of paper)
3. Pathogen(s) to be used. If known, list isolate(s), origin of pathogen, and distribution in Florida. _____
4. Type of pathogen virus _____ viroid _____ other _____
5. Insect vectored? _____ If yes indicate vector: _____ Mechanically transmitted? _____
6. Sanitary procedures to be used in the planting and nursery _____
7. Conditions at the planting site (posted? fenced?) _____
8. Host Plant (Orange, grapefruit, etc) _____
9. Location of planting _____
10. Similar pathogens in same area? _____
11. Distance to adjacent citrus _____ Distance to nearest citrus nurseries _____
12. Approximate date of planting _____ Estimated duration of planting _____
13. Size of planting _____

Other conditions _____

Scion/Rootstock Early Evaluation (EE) Trial Plantings or (ES) Escape Tree Trial APlantings
Restrictions for breeding program scion and rootstock trials:

1. The permit only for endemic pathogens and allows propagation and planting of trees under the following conditions.
2. Trials limit of ten acres per cultivar.
3. Ten location maximum for reach cultivar.
4. Trees cannot be grown in the same greenhouse area as commercial nursery stock.
5. Record of propagation of EE or ES material must be submitted on a Bud Cutting Report, FDACS 08172, Rev. 03/14.
6. Write the trial planting location on the Record of Planting portion of the Bud Cutting Report.
7. Mark the Bud Cutting Report clearly For EE Trial or ES Trial.
8. The Bud Cutting Report is the limited permit for each planting.

Permit
Signature Division Director _____	Date _____
Conditions of Approval:	