Section II
 Proposed Rules

COMMISSION ON ETHICS

RULE NO.: RULE TITLE:
 34-5.0015 Jurisdiction of the Commission

PURPOSE AND EFFECT: The purpose of the proposed amendment is to clarify language concerning the jurisdiction of the Commission regarding the complaint process. Rule 34-5.0015, F.A.C., is amended to clarify that a complaint concerning breach of public trust is any complaint, filed with the Commission in accordance with the rules of this chapter, which alleges that a public officer or employee has violated a provision of the State Constitution, or of Part III, Chapter 112, F.S., or any other statutory provision within the jurisdiction of the Commission.

SUMMARY: This rulemaking amends Rule 34-5.0015, F.A.C., to clarify that a complaint concerning breach of public trust is any complaint, filed with the Commission in accordance with the rules of this chapter, which alleges that a public officer or employee has violated a provision of the State Constitution, or of Part III, Chapter 112, F.S., or any other statutory provision within the jurisdiction of the Commission.

SUMMARY OF STATEMENT OF ESTIMATED REGULATORY COSTS AND LEGISLATIVE RATIFICATION: The Agency has determined that this will not have an adverse impact on small business or likely increase directly or indirectly regulatory costs in excess of $200,000 in the aggregate within one year after the implementation of the rule. A SERC has not been prepared by the Agency.

The Agency has determined that the proposed rule is not expected to require legislative ratification based on the statement of estimated regulatory costs or if no SERC is required, the information expressly relied upon and described herein: based on past experiences with complaint procedures and rules of this nature, the adverse impact of the regulatory costs, if any, do not exceed nor would be expected to exceed any one of the economic analysis criteria set forth in Section 120.541(2)(a), F.S.

Any person who wishes to provide information regarding a statement of estimated regulatory costs, or provide a proposal for a lower cost regulatory alternative must do so in writing within 21 days of this notice.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY: 112.322(9) FS.

LAW IMPLEMENTED: Art. II, Section 8(f), (h), Fla. Const., 112.322, 112.324 FS.

A HEARING WILL BE HELD AT THE DATE, TIME AND PLACE SHOWN BELOW:

DATE AND TIME: October 23, 2015, 8:30 a.m.

PLACE: Third Floor Courtroom, First District Court of Appeal, 2000 Drayton Drive, Tallahassee, FL

Pursuant to the provisions of the Americans with Disabilities Act, any person requiring special accommodations to participate in this workshop/meeting is asked to advise the agency at least 3 days before the workshop/meeting by contacting: Lindsey Smith, Executive Secretary, Commission on Ethics. THE PERSON TO BE CONTACTED REGARDING THE PROPOSED RULE IS: Caroline Klancke, Attorney, Commission on Ethics

THE FULL TEXT OF THE PROPOSED RULE IS:

34-5.0015 Jurisdiction of the Commission.

Article II, Section 8(f) Florida Constitution, requires the Commission on Ethics “to conduct investigations and make public reports on all complaints concerning breach of public trust by public officers or employees not within the jurisdiction of the judicial qualifications commission.” The rules of this chapter have been promulgated by the Commission to provide the practices and procedures under which the Commission shall exercise this constitutional function. A complaint concerning breach of public trust is any complaint, filed with the Commission in accordance with the rules of this chapter, which alleges that a public officer or employee has violated a provision of the State Constitution, or of Part III, Chapter 112, F.S., or any other statutory provision within the jurisdiction of the Commission which establishes a standard of ethical conduct, a disclosure requirement, or a prohibition applicable to public officers or employees in order to avoid conflicts between public duties and private interests, including without limitation, a violation of Art. II, Sec. 8,

~~Florida Constitution, or of Part III, Chapter 112, F.S.~~ The rules of this chapter also have been promulgated by the Commission to provide the practices and procedures under which the Commission shall exercise its statutory function of investigating complaints of violations of the Code of Ethics for Public Officers and Employees contained in Part III, Chapter 112, F.S.

PROPOSED EFFECTIVE DATE January 1, 2016.

THE FULL TEXT OF THE PROPOSED RULE IS:

34-6.002 Persons Who May Receive an Advisory Opinion – Standing.

(1) No change.

(2) A public officer or employee having the power to hire or terminate employees may request an advisory opinion about how the Code of Ethics applies to any such employee or applicant for employment. A public officer having the authority to appoint a person to public office may request an advisory opinion under the Code of Ethics with respect to any such person; where an appointment is made by a commission, council, or board rather than by an individual public officer, the commission, council, or board ~~or any member thereof~~ may request an advisory opinion with respect to any such appointee.

(3) through (5) No change.

~~(6) An attorney may request an advisory opinion in behalf of a client if the client would have standing to request that opinion under subsection (1), (2), (3), (4) or (5) above, and where such standing clearly appears in the written request. An employee of a person or body having standing under subsection (1), (2), (3), (4) or (5) above, may request an opinion in behalf of that person or body when directed to do so by that person or body and where such standing and direction clearly appear in the written request. In these cases, the opinion shall be issued to the attorney or employee who requested the opinion. An elected official may request an advisory opinion in behalf of a constituent if the constituent would have standing under subsection (1), (2), (3), (4) or (5) above, and if the constituent has requested the legislator to seek the opinion from the Commission, where such standing and the fact of the constituent's request clearly appear in the written request. However, in order to avoid any appearance of impropriety or undue influence, such opinions shall be issued directly to and in the name of the constituent.~~

RULE NO.:           RULE TITLE:

34-7.010           List of Forms and Instructions

PURPOSE AND EFFECT: The rule is being amended to update three forms which are incorporated by reference in the rule. CE Form 2 is being amended to update a statutory reference. CE Form 10 is being amended to delete a named agency position pursuant to a statutory change. CE Form 30 is being amended to add a category of filers pursuant to a statutory change.

SUMMARY: This rulemaking affects the CE Form 2 -- Quarterly Client Disclosure; CE Form 10 -- Annual Disclosure of Gifts from Governmental Entities and Direct Support Organizations and Honorarium Event Related Expenses; CE Form 30 -- Donor's Quarterly Gift Disclosure. The rulemaking affects instructions for filing the forms.

SUMMARY OF STATEMENT OF ESTIMATED REGULATORY COSTS AND LEGISLATIVE RATIFICATION: The Agency has determined that this will not have an adverse impact on small business or likely increase directly or indirectly regulatory costs in excess of $200,000 in the aggregate within one year after the implementation of the rule. A SERC has not been prepared by the Agency.

The Agency has determined that the proposed rule is not expected to require legislative ratification based on the statement of estimated regulatory costs or if no SERC is required, the information expressly relied upon and described herein: Fewer than 100 gift donors and only a small fraction of the 40,000 persons who file financial disclosure will be required to file one or more of the three incorporated forms being amended. Other than the time they expend to complete the forms, any economic impact on these filers is nominal. The Commission absorbs in its annual budget the costs of printing and distributing its forms.

Any person who wishes to provide information regarding a statement of estimated regulatory costs, or provide a proposal for a lower cost regulatory alternative must do so in writing within 21 days of this notice.

RULE NOS.:      RULE TITLES:
34-12.200      Registration Requirements
34-12.330      Annual Renewals
34-12.700      Complaint Proceedings, Generally
PURPOSE AND EFFECT: The purpose of the proposed amendment is to update information pertaining to the classification system used by individuals registering to lobby the executive branch, to update and readopt the registration renewal form adopted by reference in Chapter 34-12, F.A.C., and to update the language describing the firm compensation reports.

SUMMARY: This rulemaking amends Rule 34-12.200(3), F.A.C., to remove the reference to the 2012 version of the North American Industry Classification System which has been updated; amends Rule 34-12.330(2), F.A.C., to update and readopt the CE Form 20-R-Executive Branch Lobbyist Registration Renewal Form; and amends Rule 34-12.700, F.A.C., to update the language describing firm compensation reports.

SUMMARY OF STATEMENT OF ESTIMATED REGULATORY COSTS AND LEGISLATIVE RATIFICATION: The Agency has determined that this will not have an adverse impact on small business or likely increase directly or indirectly regulatory costs in excess of $200,000 in the aggregate within one year after the implementation of the rule. A SERC has not been prepared by the Agency.

The Agency has determined that the proposed rule is not expected to require legislative ratification based on the statement of estimated regulatory costs or if no SERC is required, the information expressly relied upon and described herein: based on past experiences with rules of this nature, the adverse impact of the regulatory costs, if any, do not exceed nor would be expected to exceed and one of the economic analysis criteria set forth in Section 120.541(2)(a), F.S.

Any person who wishes to provide information regarding a statement of estimated regulatory costs, or provide a proposal for a lower cost regulatory alternative must do so in writing within 21 days of this notice.

RULE NO.: 65C-16.021      RULE TITLE: Adoption Benefits for Qualifying Adoptive Employees of State Agencies

PURPOSE AND EFFECT: Section 409.1664, F.S., became effective July 1, 2015. The statute provides for adoption benefits for qualifying adoptive employees of state agencies. The Department intends to create a new rule to administer the section and provide for an application process.

SUMMARY: The rule incorporates an application for adoption benefits and establishes a procedure for review.

SUMMARY OF STATEMENT OF ESTIMATED REGULATORY COSTS AND LEGISLATIVE RATIFICATION: The Agency has determined that this will not have an adverse impact on small business or likely increase directly or indirectly regulatory costs in excess of $200,000 in the aggregate within one year after the implementation of the rule. A SERC has not been prepared by the Agency.

The Agency has determined that the proposed rule is not expected to require legislative ratification based on the statement of estimated regulatory costs or if no SERC is required, the information expressly relied upon and described herein: The Department used a checklist to conduct an economic analysis and determine if there is an adverse impact or regulatory costs associated with this rule that exceeds the criteria in section 120.541(2)(a), F.S. Based upon this analysis, the Department has determined that the proposed rule is not expected to require legislative ratification.

Any person who wishes to provide information regarding a statement of estimated regulatory costs, or provide a proposal for a lower cost regulatory alternative must do so in writing within 21 days of this notice.

(15) through (22) No change.

(23) “Special Circumstances” refer to instances in which an individual is unable to assume full or partial responsibility for a caseload, or is unable to be involved as required in pre-service or in service training due to unforeseen conditions beyond his or her control, which limit the individual’s ability to perform some or all required job functions.

(24) through (25) are renumbered (23) through (24) No change.

(25)(26) “Training Entity” refers to the employing agency of each child welfare trainer, which is responsible for the delivery of pre-service and continuing education in-service training to a particular circuit, region or geographical area.

(27) through (29) are renumbered (26) through (28) No change.

65C-33.002 Certification for Child Protection Professionals.

~~(1) It is the responsibility of each employing agency to ensure employee compliance with this Rule and establish agency policies that require timely child welfare certification as a condition of employment for those positions requiring certification.~~

~~(2) On an on going basis, the supervisor must assess the individual’s level of job related knowledge, skills, abilities and priorities and must identify, arrange for, or provide additional assistance as necessary to help enhance the individual’s overall development as a proficient Child Welfare Professional.~~

~~(1)(3) Absent special circumstances, Every Child Welfare Professional is required to be certified within one (1) year of the date of having successfully completed either the post-test or the waiver test for his or her position classification.~~

~~(4) Accommodations.~~

~~(a) Arrangements shall be made to accommodate an individual’s special circumstances in those cases in which the individual is unable to assume full or partial responsibility for a caseload, or fulfill the attendance requirements of pre-service or in service training due to a medical, personal, family, or other emergency situation beyond the individual’s control.~~

~~(b) Accommodations include extending the individual’s pre service or in service training period, approving limited additional time within which the individual can become certified or have his or her certification renewed, or effecting such other accommodation based upon the individual’s situation.~~

~~(c) Accommodation of an individual’s special circumstances may be restricted to a specified time frame, or may extend until such time as the individual is able to fully resume his or her regular duties; the individual no longer occupies a position requiring certification; the individual is no longer employed by the agency; or the agency can no longer provide the accommodation.~~

~~(5) It is the responsibility of the employing agency to ensure that the Trainee or Child Welfare Professional has access to the resources and supports necessary for his or her successful completion of the certification process.~~

~~(2)(6)~~ Certification is based upon meeting the standards and successfully completing the professional requirements established by the Third Party Credentialing Entity, successful completion of both the pre service curriculum component, including successfully passing the post test, and completion of the required on the job training and supervision, as well as additional specific established requirements for each position classification, if any.

~~(3)(7)~~ Each type of child welfare certification has a training, testing and certification requirement, ~~all of which are established by the Department.~~

(8) through (12) are renumbered (4) through (8) No change.

~~(9)(13)~~ ~~Absent special circumstances, C~~certification is valid for a period of two (2) years. ~~The Third Party Credentialing Entity that administered the certification is responsible for determining whether an extension will be granted.~~

65C-33.005 Phase II of Child Welfare Training

(1)(a) through (2)(d) No change.

~~(3)~~ After ~~30~~ calendar days of having passed the waiver test or post test, the caseload of a new Child Welfare Professional may be increased gradually over time, based upon the ongoing assessment of the individual's developing knowledge, skills, abilities and priorities by the supervisor or other designated individuals within the employing agency. Rulemaking Authority 402.40 FS. Law Implemented 402.40; ~~402.731(1)~~ FS. History–New 10-14-10,_____.

65C-33.006 No change.

65C-33.008 Recertification.

(1) No change.

(2) In order to be eligible for certification renewal, a certified Child Welfare Professional must continue to fulfill his or her job requirements and participate in a minimum of 40 hours of continuing education in service training every two (2) years from the date of his or her most recent certification. Unless accommodations are made by the Third Party Credentialing Entity to address an individual's special circumstances, an individual must be removed from ~~in~~ a position requiring certification if certification renewal is not achieved within two (2) years.

~~(3)~~ ~~The employing agency shall ensure certification renewal every two (2) years through the fulfillment of job requirements and documented in service training is included as a performance standard for each certified Child Welfare Professional, and that each individual employed in a position requiring certification is made aware of the ramifications of not meeting the requirement.~~

~~(4)(a)~~ The employing agency shall ensure that each certified Child Welfare Professional is notified of and encouraged to attend and participate in a variety of in service training opportunities in order to help enhance each individual's professional evolution on an on going basis, as well as to meet certification renewal requirements.

(5) through (6) are renumbered (3) through (4) No change.

(6)(a)-(c) [now (4)(a)-(c)] No change.

(6)(d) [now (4)(d)] Participates in and maintains his or her own documentation of a minimum of 40 hours of continuing education in service training every two (2) years.

(7) is renumbered (5) No change.

~~(8)~~ ~~The employing agency shall to validate in service training course content as to subject relevance, with regard to each individual's position classification, job requirements, and identified or observed needs.~~

~~(6)(9) Continuing education must meet the requirements set by the Third Party Credentialing Entity and shall include. Although there are no specific course requirements for the mandatory 40 hours of in-service training required, employing agencies shall provide or make available training opportunities which address a wide variety of core competency elements (e.g., interpersonal skills, conflict resolution, law and policy issues, cultural diversity, and investigative and casework related processes) in order to help expand the knowledge, proficiency and awareness of each certified Child Welfare Professional. In addition, continuing education shall be administered by qualified providers approved by the Third Party Credentialing Entity.~~

~~(a) In-service training hours may be obtained by attending relevant workshops, conferences, other trainings, or participating in pertinent on-line learning opportunities approved by the employing agency. In some cases whereby individuals are pursuing undergraduate or graduate degrees, certain courses may be pre-approved by the Third Party Credentialing Entity to count as a portion of the individual's in-service training hours, as long as the course and the degree sought are relevant to the individual's current position classification.~~

~~1. In-service training hours obtained through Third Party Credentialing Entity approved college or graduate level courses shall be credited as the number of total credit hours for the course; for example, a three (3) credit hour course shall be credited as three (3) in-service training hours toward certification renewal.~~

~~2. No more than 10 training hours required for certification renewal may come from college or graduate level courses in which the individual is enrolled.~~

~~(b) No individual may take the post-test or waiver test in lieu of all or any part of the required 40-48 hours of in-service training hours.~~

~~(c) No individual may attend pre-service classes that he or she previously attended as part of the pre-service curriculum or waiver plan in order to obtain any in-service training hours.~~

~~(d) Pre-service curriculum courses that are new, or in which the individual has not previously participated, including relevant on-line instruction that may be a new part of the pre-service curriculum, but was not included in the individual's previous pre-service experience, may be considered as in-service training hours which count toward meeting the requirement for certification renewal.~~

~~(e) Training provided by the Department on updated statutory, administrative code and policy requirements may be considered as in-service training hours which count toward meeting the requirement for certification renewal.~~

Rulemaking Authority 402.40 FS. Law Implemented 402.40; 402.731(4) FS. History—New 10-14-10, _____.

65C-33.010 Waiver Process.

~~(1) The waiver process is the procedure by which individuals who already meet criteria established by the Third Party Credentialing Agency as set forth in this rule and as determined by the employing agency are eligible to take a waiver test and enter into an individualized waiver plan in lieu of participating in the training requirements to achieve provisional certification.~~

~~(2) A waiver test may only be given in the following situations:~~

~~(a) When a previously certified individual's certification has expired due to having failed to maintain the required 40 hours of in-service training every two (2) years, and employed in any position classification or certification designation after experiencing no break in service or a break in service for any period of up to one (1) year; or~~

~~(b) When an individual in any position classification or certification designation successfully became provisionally certified prior to achieving full certification, experienced a break in service for any period of up to one (1) year and his or her provisional certification has expired; or~~

~~(c) When an individual achieved full certification and has a break in service greater than one (1) year and up to three (3) years, regardless of whether the certification has expired.~~

~~(d) When an individual was actively engaged in relevant training, education or comparable employment in child welfare, human services, investigations, or law enforcement in Florida or another state for at least one (1) year during the two (2) year period immediately preceding the individual's date of hire.~~

~~(2)(3) A waiver test shall never be given if the individual whose certification was previously revoked for cause by the Third Party Credentialing Entity, pursuant to subparagraph 65C 33.011(1)(b), F.A.C. Any individual hired after having his or her certification previously revoked for cause must successfully complete all pre-service training requirements.~~

~~(4) through (5) are renumbered (3) through (4).~~

~~(6) Any individual for whom the waiver process is utilized must:~~

~~(a) Pass the waiver test on his or her first attempt, and~~

~~(b) Enter into a waiver plan with his or her supervisor and a child welfare trainer prior to the assignment of primary responsibility for any investigation, child, family or case.~~

~~(7) is renumbered (5)~~

~~(7)(a) [now (5)(a)] No change.~~

~~(7)(b) [now (5)(b)] (b) Training staff at the Department, sheriff's offices, community based care lead or subcontracted agencies, or any other agency providing child welfare training or services may only conduct waiver test preparation classes in emergency staffing situations, and only then with the prior written approval of the Office of Child Welfare.~~

(7)(c) through (13) are renumbered (5)(c) through (11) No change.

~~(12)(14)~~ There is no waiver procedure for the full certification portion of the certification process, or for the 40 continuing education in service training hours required every two (2) years for certification renewal.

Rulemaking Authority 402.40 FS. Law Implemented 402.40; 402.731(1)-FS. History—New 10-14-10.

65C-33.011 Decertification.

(1) The Third-Party Credentialing Entity is responsible for certification revocation.

~~(a) Regardless of any additional action taken by the employing agency, the Third Party Credentialing Entity shall revoke the certification of a child protection professional when he or she no longer meets the qualifications for certification.~~

~~(b) The Third Party Credentialing Entity shall also revoke the certification of a child protection professional for cause, which is defined as: incompetence, negligence, or serious personal, professional, or ethical misconduct, including failure to responsibly discharge assigned duties; falsification of records; use of professional authority to exploit others; engaging in conduct punishable under Florida law by more than one (1) year in jail, whether or not criminally charged or convicted of such conduct; insubordination; theft or misuse of agency property; or violation of agency rules and regulations.~~

~~1. When an individual is concurrently certified in more than one (1) certification designation and his or her certification is revoked for cause, all other certifications held shall also be revoked.~~

~~2. The period of certification revocation for cause shall be three (3) years. After three (3) years, the individual can petition for a reinstatement hearing with the Third Party Credentialing Entity.~~

~~3. When a certification revocation for cause becomes final Third Party Credentialing Entity action, the individual whose certification was revoked shall immediately be removed from any position requiring child protection professional certification.~~

~~(2) Within five (5) days of an individual's certification revocation becoming final Third Party Credentialing Entity action, the Third Party Credentialing Entity shall provide written notification of the effective date of the revocation to the employing agency's Training Manager or designee and to the Office of Child Welfare. Within two (2) business days of providing the notification, the Third Party Credentialing Entity will update the individual's status in the Third Party Credentialing Entity's on line database for tracking certification.~~

~~(3) The Third Party Credentialing Entity shall send the individual written notification of the decision to revoke his or her certification within five (5) business days of the decision to revoke his or her certification. The written notice must include the reason for the certification revocation, and must advise the individual of his or her option to challenge the certification revocation decision as provided in Chapter 120, F.S.~~

(4) is renumbered (2) No change.
