RULE NO.: 33-501.401
 RULE TITLE: Admissible Reading Material
 NOTICE OF CHANGE

Notice is hereby given that the following changes have been made to the proposed rule in accordance with subparagraph 120.54(3)(d)1., F.S., published in Vol. 25, No. 43, October 29, 1999, issue of the Florida Administrative Weekly:

33-501.401 Admissible Reading Material.

(1) The provisions of this section shall apply to all publications, including, books, novels, educational reference and correspondence study materials, religious materials, legal materials, newspapers, magazines, brochures, flyers and catalogues, calendars and any other printed materials addressed to a specific inmate or found in the personal property of an inmate.

(2) through (7)(b) No change.

(c) If the inmate fails to file within 15 calendar days, fails to provide the impoundment or rejection notice as an attachment to his or her appeal, ~~fails to provide a copy of DC Form DC6-220 as an attachment to his or her appeal when appealing the impoundment of rejected publications found in the inmate's property~~, addresses more than one impounded or rejected publication or in any other way violates the grievance procedure as described in chapter 33-103, his or her appeal shall be returned without response to the issue raised.

(7)(d) through (10)(a) No change.

(b) No inmate shall be allowed to receive or keep more than one copy of any volume, issue or edition of any book, periodical or other publication. For example, an inmate will be allowed to keep the January and February 1994 issues of a specific magazine, but will not be allowed to keep two copies of the January 1994 issue. No inmate shall be issued admissible reading material if he or she can not store it in his or her personal living area without creating a fire, safety, or sanitation hazard. ~~Effective July 1, 1998, Inmates shall be limited to no more than 2 4 singles issues of a daily or weekly newspaper title and 8 single issues of a periodical or newspaper title.~~ Inmates shall be allowed to order single issues of periodicals and newspapers from publishers' wholesale or mail-order distributors and bookstores in lieu of purchasing subscriptions; however, all of the above-referenced limits shall still apply inmates shall still be limited to possession of not more than four issues of a single general circulation newspaper title, and not more than four issues of any single periodical title (maximum of four titles, including those received by subscription).

(c) No change.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in rules 33-601.801-601.813, effective July 1, 1998, inmates shall be limited to the possession of 4 books. Religious testaments, correspondence study materials and law books not in the institution's law library collection shall not be counted against this limit. Religious testaments include sacred texts, prayer books and devotionals.

(11) through (15) No change.
