NOTICE TO CONSTRUCTION MANAGERS:

The University of Florida Board of Trustees, announces that construction management services will be required for the project listed below:

Project No.: UF-214

Project Name: The Center for Marine Studies

Location: The Whitney Laboratory, Marineland, Florida

The project consists of the construction of a 16,145 square foot education facility for The Whitney Laboratory of the University of Florida. The facility will house teaching laboratories, classrooms, an auditorium, interactive exhibits and displays, and will provide access to the diverse coastal ecosystems surrounding the community of Marineland. Site work will low impact and with utility connections coordinated with existing facilities. The budgeted construction cost is $2,613,500.

The contract for construction management services will consist of two phases. Phase one is pre-construction services, for which the construction manager will be paid a fixed fee. Phase one services include value engineering, constructability analysis, development of a cost model, estimating, and the development of a Guaranteed Maximum Price (GMP) at 60% Construction Document phase. If the GMP is accepted, phase two, the construction phase, will be implemented. In phase two of the contract, the construction manager becomes the single point of responsibility for performance of the construction of the project and shall publicly bid trade contracts. Failure to negotiate an acceptable fixed fee for phase one of the contract, or to arrive at an acceptable GMP within the time provided in the agreement may result in the termination of the construction manager's contract.

Selection of finalists for interviews will be made on the basis of construction manager qualifications, including but not limited to experience and ability; past experience; bonding capacity; record-keeping/administrative ability, critical path scheduling expertise; cost estimating; cost control ability; quality control capability; qualification of the firm's personnel, staff and consultants. Finalists will be provided with a copy of
