Subsections (3) and (4) of Rule 12-3.0012, F.A.C., have been changed so that, when adopted, these subsections will read:

12-3.0012 Definitions.

(3) "Adequate records" means books, accounts, and other records sufficient to permit a reliable determination of a tax deficiency or overpayment. Incomplete records can be determined to be adequate.

(a) To be sufficient to make a reliable determination, adequate records, including supporting documentation, must be:

1. Accurate, that is, the records must be free from material error;
2. Inclusive, that is, the records must capture transactions that are needed to determine a tax deficiency or overpayment;
3. Authentic, that is, the records must be worthy of acceptance as based on fact; and
4. Systematic, that is, the records must organize transactions in an orderly manner.

(b) The nature of the taxpayer's business, the nature of the industry, materiality, third-party confirmations and other corroborating evidence such as related supporting documentation, and the audit methods that are suitable for use in the audit, will be used to establish that the taxpayer has adequate records.

(d) Section 212.12(6)(b), F.S., does not allow the Department to use a sample to project an overpayment when the records are inadequate.

(4) "Voluminous records" means records maintained by the taxpayer that are so numerous and extensive that their provision by the taxpayer and review by the Department would not be practical under the circumstances of the time, space, and other logistical constraints of the taxpayer and the Department.

Rule 12-3.0017, F.A.C., has been changed so that, when adopted, this rule will read:

12-3.0017 Adoption of Materials that Contain Departmental Procedures.
