

Income, of the Florida Corporate Income/Franchise and Emergency Tax Return (Form F-1120, incorporated by reference in Rule 12C-1.051, F.A.C.) and any subtractions on Schedule II, Subtractions from Federal Taxable Income, of the return for the applicable tax year. Partnerships filing a Florida Partnership Information Return (Form F-1065, incorporated by reference in Rule 12C-1.051, F.A.C.) are required to make the adjustments required by Section 220.13(1)(e), F.S., on Part I of Form F-1065.

(5) Basis of Property: The adjustments required by Section 220.13(1)(e)1. and 2., F.S., (relating to excess IRC section 179 expense and bonus depreciation), do not affect the basis of the underlying property. The basis of the property for Florida corporate income tax purposes is the same as the basis of the property for federal income tax purposes. If the property is sold or otherwise disposed of, the gain or loss for Florida corporate income tax purposes is the same as the gain or loss for federal income tax purposes and is included in federal taxable income apportioned to Florida. Differences in the apportionment fraction from one year to the next are disregarded. The applicable depreciation conventions, methods, and recovery periods are computed in the same manner as they are computed in determining federal taxable income.

(6) Amended Returns and Section 220.13(1)(e), F.S. Taxpayers that filed their Florida corporate income tax returns in a manner inconsistent with these changes in law are required to amend their Florida corporate income tax return(s) to conform to the new law. To the extent that any tax is due and paid on an amended return(s) as a result of these changes in law for the differences between the additions and subtractions required by Section 220.13(1)(e), F.S., and the adjustments required by Section 220.13(1)(e), F.S., reasonable cause exists under Rule 12-13.007, F.A.C., for a waiver of the resulting penalty. The provisions of this rule do not relieve a taxpayer of its obligation to file a Florida corporate income tax return and report the adjustments required by Section 220.13(1)(e), F.S.

(7) The subtractions allowed by Section 220.13(1)(e), F.S., are the means by which the additions required by Section 220.13(1)(e), F.S., are reconciled and recovered. If a taxpayer does not claim a deduction for bonus depreciation or a deduction for IRC section 179 expense in excess of $250,000 (for tax years beginning in 2010) and $128,000 (for tax years beginning in 2011), no add-back is required or subtraction allowed for Florida corporate income tax purposes. Similarly, if a taxpayer did not add back bonus depreciation or excess section 179 expense because, for example, it was not subject to the Florida corporate income tax in that year, no subtraction is allowed for Florida corporate income tax purposes.

(8) Bonus depreciation claimed for assets placed in service after December 31, 2012, is not required to be added back under Section 220.13(1)(e), F.S. IRC section 179 expense claimed in tax years beginning after December 31, 2012, is not required to be added back. No subtraction is allowed for bonus depreciation or IRC section 179 expense unless it has been added back in computing Florida taxable income under Section 220.13(1)(e), F.S.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that on July 20, 2011, the Criminal Justice Standards and Training Commission, received a petition for a permanent waiver of subsection 11B-27.00212(14), F.A.C., from Miramar Police Department. The rule requires officers to requalify with a firearm every two years on a course of fire mandated by Commission rule. The petition supports the requested waiver by stating that the officers for whom the waiver is sought did successfully complete the course of fire, however, the instructors who supervised the mandatory shoots were not fully certified as a CJSTC firearms instructors at the time of the officers' requalifications. Petitioner states that the officers will suffer a substantial hardship if their certifications are rendered inactive as a result of this situation. Petitioner further states that it would violate the principles of fairness to fail to recognize that the officers affected by this situation did successfully complete the requirement simply because the instructors had not submitted all of their paperwork to become CJSTC certified firearms instructors.

A copy of the Petition for Variance or Waiver may be obtained by contacting: Grace A. Jaye, Assistant General Counsel, Florida Department of Law Enforcement, P. O. Box 1489, Tallahassee, FL 32302.

The Agency for Persons with Disabilities hereby gives notice: that on July 13, 2011, A Final Order was issued Denying the Petition for Variance from subsection 65G-7.003(4), Florida Administrative Code.

The Order concerned the Petition for Variance, received by the Agency on April 15, 2011 by Liberty Ambulance Service, Inc. The Notice of Petition for Variance was published in the Florida Administrative Weekly at page 1128 of Vol 37, No. 17, published on April 29, 2011.

The Petitioner requested a Variance from subsection 65G-7.003(4), F.A.C., which implements Section 393.506, Florida Statutes. This rule states that only registered nurses or Advanced Registered Practitioners may conduct training courses for medication administration assistance certification. The Petition sought a Variance that would allow paramedics to teach the course.

The Agency denied this request and issued a Final Order on the Petition on July 13, 2011. The basis for the Agency's denial of the petition is the failure of the Petitioner to establish that the requirements for a Variance under Section 120.542(2), F.S. would be met. The Petitioner failed to establish substantial hardship or that the underlying purpose of the authorizing statute would be met or that the Agency's decision would violate the principles of fairness.
