If you think that this action is incorrect, your Benefit Recovery worker will be glad to discuss it with you. The following information is about making a repayment agreement with us.

BVPFBI FORM: CF-ES 128 12 2008

VOLUNTARY REPAYMENT AGREEMENT

We intend to collect this overpayment from all persons who were adults and part of the household group when the overpayment occurred. If you were an adult in the household group when the overpayment occurred and either applied for benefits on behalf of the household or applied for and received benefits as a part of the household you are legally responsible for repaying the full amount of the overpayment. If you are currently receiving food assistance benefits, we will reduce your food assistance benefits by 20% or $20, whichever is greater, effective September 01, 2011. If your household stops receiving benefits, you have 30 days from the last month you received benefits to make an acceptable repayment agreement with us to repay the remaining balance of the claim. If you are not currently receiving food assistance benefits, we will forward this matter to a collection agency and/or the federal government for federal collection action. Before this happens, you or a member of your household can make a repayment agreement with us. You may also be subject to additional processing charges authorized by law if collection activity is initiated.

If you want to make a repayment agreement with us, o	check either options 1 or 2 below for full or partial repayments.
