The purpose of this course is to enable students to develop and use advanced writing and language skills for advanced creative expression in a variety of literary forms. Emphasis will be on development of a personal writing style. Studying and modeling a variety of genres will be emphasized at this level of creative writing.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Arts is not a discrete set of skills, but a rich discipline with meaningful, significant content, the knowledge of which helps all students actively and fully participate in our society. Standards should not stand alone as a separate focus for instruction, but should be combined purposefully.

The content should include, but not be limited to, the following:

- a thorough and in-depth examination of a variety of short literary collections, including poetry, which includes a variety of professional, peer, and/or teacher examples in order to examine
  - effects of figurative, denotative, and connotative language choice
  - power and impact of appropriate voice and/or tone
  - story structure, sentence structure, and grammatical choices
  - reciprocal nature of content and form in development of a personal style
- writing for varied purposes and in varied genres, including
  - personal and dramatic narratives
  - various poetic forms
  - screenplays and multimedia productions
  - multi-genre and creative non-fiction selections
  - digital writing platforms
- collaboration amongst peers, especially regarding peer reviews of multiple drafts

Important Note: Reading and writing courses should not be used in place of English language arts courses; reading and writing courses are intended to be used to supplement further study in English language arts.

Honors and Advanced Level Course Note: Advanced courses require a greater demand on students through increased academic rigor. Academic rigor is obtained through the application, analysis, evaluation, and creation of complex ideas that are often abstract and multi-faceted. Students are challenged to think and collaborate critically on the content they are learning. Honors level rigor will be achieved by increasing text complexity through text selection, focus on high-level qualitative measures, and complexity of task. Instruction will be structured to give students a deeper understanding of conceptual themes and organization within and across disciplines. Academic rigor is more than simply assigning to students a greater quantity of work.

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. LAFS.1112.W.2.4:	Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in standards 1–3 above.)
LAFS.1112.W.2.5:	Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on addressing what is most significant for a specific purpose and audience.
LAFS.1112.W.2.6:	Use technology, including the Internet, to produce, publish, and update individual or shared writing products in response to ongoing feedback, including new arguments or information.
LAFS.1112.W.4.10:	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences.
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this course is to enable students to develop and use grade 11-12 writing and language skills for advanced creative expression in a variety of literary forms. Emphasis will be on development of a personal writing style.

GENERAL NOTES

complexity through text selection, focus on high-level qualitative measures, and complexity of task. Instruction will be structured to give students a deeper understanding of conceptual themes and organization within and across disciplines. Academic rigor is more than simply assigning to students a greater quantity of work.

General Notes:

The content should include, but not be limited to, the following:

- a thorough and in-depth examination of a variety of short literary collections, including poetry, which includes a variety of professional, peer, and/or teacher examples in order to examine
  - text craft and structure, including line length and placement
  - effects of figurative, denotative, and connotative language choice
  - power and impact of appropriate voice and/or tone
  - story structure, sentence structure, and grammatical choices
  - reciprocal nature of content and form in development of a personal style
- writing for varied purposes and in varied genres, including
  - personal and dramatic narratives
  - various poetic forms
  - screenplays and multimedia productions
  - multi-genre and creative non-fiction selections
  - digital writing platforms
- effective listening, speaking, and viewing strategies with emphasis on the use of evidence to support or refute a claim in multimedia presentations, class discussions, and extended text discussions
- collaboration amongst peers, especially regarding peer reviews of multiple drafts

Important Note: Reading and writing courses should not be used in place of English language arts courses; reading and writing courses are intended to be used to supplement further study in English language arts.

Special Notes:

Instructional Practices: Teaching from well-written, grade-level instructional materials enhances students' content area knowledge and also strengthens their ability to comprehend longer, complex reading passages on any topic for any purpose. Using the following instructional practices also helps student learning.

1. Reading assignments from longer text passages, as well as shorter ones when text is extremely complex.
2. Making close reading and rereading of texts central to lessons.
3. Asking high-level, text-specific questions and requiring high-level, complex tasks and assignments.
4. Requiring students to support answers with evidence from the text.
5. Providing extensive text-based research and writing opportunities (claims and evidence).

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. ## Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.12.C.1.2:	Write complex narratives using appropriate techniques to establish multiple perspectives and convey universal themes. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Narrative Techniques.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.12.C.1.3:	Write arguments to support claims based on an in-depth analysis of topics or texts using valid reasoning and credible evidence from sources, elaboration, and demonstrating a thorough understanding of the subject. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques.  Clarification 2: These written works will take longer and are meant to reflect thorough research and analysis.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.12.C.1.4:	Write an in-depth analysis of complex texts using logical organization and appropriate tone and voice, demonstrating a thorough understanding of the subject. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.12.C.1.5:	Improve writing by considering feedback from adults, peers, and/or online editing tools, revising to enhance purpose, clarity, structure, and style.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.12.C.2.1:	Present information orally, with a logical organization, coherent focus, and credible evidence while employing effective rhetorical devices where appropriate. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: At this grade level, the emphasis is on the content, but students are still expected to follow earlier expectations: appropriate volume, pronunciation, and pacing. Students will be using rhetorical devices as introduced in the 11th grade benchmark. Added to this grade level is a responsiveness to the needs of the audience and adapting to audience response. Students will read the nonverbal cues of the audience to do this. Students first learned nonverbal cues in elementary for this benchmark.  Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Secondary Oral Communication Rubric.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.12.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.12.C.4.1:	Conduct research on a topical issue to answer a question and synthesize information from a variety of sources. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: While the benchmark does require that students consult multiple sources, there is no requirement that they use every source they consult. Part of the skill in researching is discernment—being able to tell which information is relevant and which sources are trustworthy enough to include.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.12.C.5.1:	Design and evaluate digital presentations for effectiveness. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: The presentation may be delivered live or delivered as a stand-alone digital experience.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.12.C.5.2:	Create, publish, and share multimedia texts through a variety of digital formats.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.12.R.1.1:	Evaluate how key elements enhance or add layers of meaning and/or style in a literary text and explain the functional significance of those elements in interpreting the text. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Key elements of a literary text are setting, plot, characterization, conflict, point of view, theme, and tone.  Clarification 2: For layers of meaning, any methodology or model may be used as long as students understand that text may have multiple layers and that authors use techniques to achieve those layers. A very workable model for looking at layers of meaning is that of I.A. Richards:            Layer 1) the literal level, what the words actually mean            Layer 2) mood, those feelings that are evoked in the reader            Layer 3) tone, the author’s attitude            Layer 4) author’s purpose (interpretation of author’s purpose as it is often inferred)

Clarification 3: Style is the way in which the writer uses techniques for effect. It is distinct from meaning, but can be used to make the author's message more effective. The components of style are diction, syntax, grammar, and use of figurative language. Style helps to create the author's voice.

Clarification 4: Functional significance refers to the role each element plays in creating meaning or effect for the reader.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Analyze two or more themes and evaluate their development throughout a literary text.

Clarifications:

ELA.12.R.1.2:

Clarification 1: For the purposes of this benchmark, theme is not a one- or two-word topic, but a complete thought that communicates the author's message.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Evaluate the development of character perspective, including conflicting perspectives.

Clarifications:

ELA.12.R.1.3:

Clarification 1: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something." The term point of view is used when referring to the person of the narrator. This is to prevent confusion and conflation.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Evaluate works of major poets in their historical context.

Clarifications:

Sample poets for this benchmark include:

- Emily Dickinson
- Langston Hughes
- Robert Frost
- Phillis Wheatley
- Edna St. Vincent Millay
- Countee Cullen
- Robert Burns
- Percy Bysshe Shelley

ELA.12.R.1.4:

Clarification 1: A poet's historical context is the period in which the writing occurred, not when it was discovered or became resurgent.

Clarification 2: Evaluation of a poet in context may include similarity to or differences from the work of contemporaries and the literary period, critical reception at the time, and scope of work.

Clarification 3: For more information, see Literary Periods.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Evaluate an author's use of figurative language.

Clarifications:

ELA.12.R.3.1:

Clarification 1: Figurative language use that students will evaluate are metaphor, simile, alliteration, onomatopoeia, personification, hyperbole, meiosis (understatement), allusion, and idiom. Other examples can be used in instruction.

Clarification 2: See Secondary Figurative Language.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Paraphrase content from grade-level texts.

Clarifications:

ELA.12.R.3.2:

Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Analyze the influence of classic literature on contemporary world texts.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Classic literature for this benchmark should be drawn from and representative of the following periods:

- Classical Period (1200 BCE–455 CE)
- Medieval Period (455 CE–1485 CE)
- Renaissance Period (1300–1600)
- Restoration and 18th Century (1660–1790) British Literature
- Colonial and Early National Period (1600–1830) American Literature
- Romantic Period (1790–1870)
- Realism and Naturalism Period (1870–1930)
- Modernist Period (1910–1945)

ELA.12.R.3.3:

Clarification 2: Contemporary world texts are those written after World War II that, through quality of form and expression, convey ideas of permanent or universal interest.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Evaluate rhetorical choices across multiple texts.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Students will evaluate the appropriateness of appeals and the effectiveness of devices. In this grade level, students are using and responsible for all four appeals; kairos was added in 11th grade. This differs from the 11th grade benchmark in that it is comparing the effectiveness of multiple texts.

ELA.12.R.3.4:	Clarification 2: Rhetorical devices for the purposes of this benchmark are the figurative language devices from 11.R.3.1 with the addition of irony, rhetorical question, antithesis, zeugma, metonymy, synecdoche, asyndeton, and chiasmus. Clarification 3: See Secondary Figurative Language. Clarification 4: See Rhetorical Appeals and Rhetorical Devices. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.12.V.1.1:	Integrate academic vocabulary appropriate to grade level in speaking and writing. Clarifications: Clarification 1: To integrate vocabulary, students will apply the vocabulary they have learned to authentic speaking and writing tasks independently. This use should be intentional, beyond responding to a prompt to use a word in a sentence. Clarification 2: Academic vocabulary appropriate to grade level refers to words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.12.V.1.2:	Apply knowledge of etymology, derivations, and commonly used foreign phrases to determine meanings of words and phrases in grade-level content. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Etymology refers to the study of word origins and the ways that words have changed over time. Clarification 2: Derivation refers to making new words from an existing word by adding affixes. Clarification 3: See Foreign Words and Phrases for a list of commonly used foreign phrases. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.12.V.1.3:	Apply knowledge of context clues, figurative language, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the connotative and denotative meaning of words and phrases, appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships. Clarification 3: See ELA.12.R.3.1 and Secondary Figurative Language. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K12.EE.1.1:	Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning. Clarifications: K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing. 2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations. 4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they've directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor. 6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation. 9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.2.1:	Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently. Clarifications: See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.3.1:	Make inferences to support comprehension. Clarifications: Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like "Why is the girl smiling?" or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.4.1:	Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations. Clarifications: In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully. In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: "I think _____ because _____." The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations. In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence.

	Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.5.1:	Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work. Clarifications: Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.6.1:	Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing. Clarifications: In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

VERSION DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this course is to enable students to develop and use complex writing and language skills for advanced creative expression in a variety of literary forms. Emphasis will be on development of a personal writing style. Studying and modeling a variety of genres will be emphasized at this level of creative writing.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Arts is not a discrete set of skills, but a rich discipline with meaningful, significant content, the knowledge of which helps all students actively and fully participate in our society. Standards should not stand alone as a separate focus for instruction, but should be combined purposefully.

The content should include, but not be limited to, the following:

- a thorough and in-depth examination of a variety of short literary collections, including poetry, which includes a variety of professional, peer, and/or teacher examples in order to examine
  - effects of figurative, denotative, and connotative language choice
  - power and impact of appropriate voice and/or tone
  - story structure, sentence structure, and grammatical choices
  - reciprocal nature of content and form in development of a personal style
- writing for varied purposes and in varied genres, including
  - personal and dramatic narratives
  - various poetic forms
  - screenplays and multimedia productions
  - multi-genre and creative non-fiction selections
  - digital writing platforms
- collaboration amongst peers, especially regarding peer reviews of multiple drafts

Important Note: Reading and writing courses should not be used in place of English language arts courses; reading and writing courses are intended to be used to supplement further study in English language arts.

Honors and Advanced Level Course Note: Advanced courses require a greater demand on students through increased academic rigor. Academic rigor is obtained through the application, analysis, evaluation, and creation of complex ideas that are often abstract and multi-faceted. Students are challenged to think and collaborate critically on the content they are learning. Honors level rigor will be achieved by increasing text complexity through text selection, focus on high-level qualitative measures, and complexity of task. Instruction will be structured to give students a deeper understanding of conceptual themes and organization within and across disciplines. Academic rigor is more than simply assigning to students a greater quantity of work.

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. Important Note: Reading and writing courses should not be used in place of English language arts courses; reading and writing courses are intended to be used to supplement further study in English language arts.

Special Notes:

Instructional Practices: Teaching from well-written, grade-level instructional materials enhances students' content area knowledge and also strengthens their ability to comprehend longer, complex reading passages on any topic for any purpose. Using the following instructional practices also helps student learning.

1. Reading assignments from longer text passages, as well as shorter ones when text is extremely complex.
2. Making close reading and rereading of texts central to lessons.
3. Asking high-level, text-specific questions and requiring The alphanumeric coding scheme has changed – high-level, complex tasks and assignments.
4. Requiring students to support answers with evidence from the text.
5. Providing extensive text-based research and writing opportunities (claims and evidence).

Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.11.C.1.2:	Write complex narratives using appropriate techniques to establish multiple perspectives. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Narrative Techniques. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.1.3:	Write literary analyses to support claims, using logical reasoning, credible evidence from sources, and elaboration, demonstrating an understanding of literary elements. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques. Clarification 2: Appropriate tone is expected to continue from 9th and 10th. Use narrative techniques to strengthen argument writing where appropriate. Clarification 3: These written works will take longer and are meant to reflect thorough research and analysis. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.1.4:	Write an analysis of complex texts using logical organization and a tone and voice appropriate to the task and audience, demonstrating an understanding of the subject. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.1.5:	Improve writing by considering feedback from adults, peers, and/or online editing tools, revising to improve clarity, structure, and style. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.2.1:	Present information orally, with a logical organization, coherent focus, and credible evidence, while employing effective rhetorical devices where appropriate. Clarifications: Clarification 1: At this grade level, the emphasis is on the content, but students are still expected to follow earlier expectations: appropriate volume, pronunciation, and pacing. This benchmark introduces rhetorical devices to the benchmark, building on what students have learned in R.3.2 and giving them a chance to apply it.  Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Secondary Oral Communication Rubric. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Use knowledge of usage rules to create flow in writing and presenting.</li></ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.4.1:	Conduct literary research to answer a question, refining the scope of the question to align with interpretations of texts, and synthesizing information from primary and secondary sources. Clarifications: Clarification 1: While the benchmark does require that students consult multiple sources, there is no requirement that they use every source they consult. Part of the skill in researching is discernment—being able to tell which information is relevant and which sources are trustworthy enough to include. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.5.1:	Create digital presentations to improve the experience of the audience. Clarifications: Clarification 1: At this grade level, students are using multiple elements. The presentation may be delivered live or delivered as a stand-alone digital experience. The elements should be of different types. The elements should relate directly to the presentation and be incorporated in a way that engages the audience. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.5.2:	Create and export quality writing tailored to a specific audience, integrating multimedia elements, publishing to an online or LAN site. Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Evaluate how key elements enhance or add layers of meaning and/or style in a literary text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Key elements of a literary text are setting, plot, characterization, conflict, point of view, theme, and tone. Clarification 2: For layers of meaning, any methodology or model may be used as long as students understand that text may have multiple layers and that authors use techniques to achieve those layers. A very workable model for looking at layers of meaning is that of I. A. Richards:

ELA.11.R.1.1:	Layer 1) the literal level, what the words actually mean  Layer 2) mood, those feelings that are evoked in the reader  Layer 3) tone, the author’s attitude  Layer 4) author’s purpose (interpretation of author’s purpose as it is often inferred)  Clarification 3: Style is the way in which the writer uses techniques for effect. It is distinct from meaning but can be used to make the author’s message more effective. The components of style are diction, syntax, grammar, and use of figurative language. Style helps to create the author’s voice. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.1.2:	Track and analyze universal themes in literary texts from different times and places. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: A universal theme is an idea that applies to anyone, anywhere, regardless of cultural differences. Examples include but are not limited to an individual’s or a community’s confrontation with nature; an individual’s struggle toward understanding, awareness, and/or spiritual enlightenment; the tension between the ideal and the real; the conflict between human beings and advancements in technology/science; the impact of the past on the present; the inevitability of fate; the struggle for equality; and the loss of innocence. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.1.3:	Analyze the author’s choices in using juxtaposition to define character perspective. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Juxtaposition is the technique of putting two or more elements side by side to invite comparison or contrast.  Clarification 2: The term perspective means “a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something.” Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.1.4:	Analyze ways in which poetry reflects themes and issues of its time period. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Poetry for this benchmark should be selected from one of the following literary periods. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Classical Period (1200 BCE–455 CE)</li> <li>• Medieval Period (455 CE–1485 CE)</li> <li>• Renaissance Period (130–1600)</li> <li>• Restoration and 18th Century (1660–1790) British Literature</li> <li>• Colonial and Early National Period (1600–1830) American Literature</li> <li>• Romantic Period (1790–1870)</li> <li>• Realism and Naturalism Period (1870–1930)</li> <li>• Modernist Period (1910–1945)</li> <li>• Contemporary Period (1945–present)</li> </ul> Clarification 2: For more information, see Literary Periods. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.3.1:	Analyze the author’s use of figurative language and explain examples of allegory. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Examples of allegory should be taken from the following periods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Classical Period (1200 BCE–455 CE)</li> <li>• Medieval Period (455 CE–1485 CE)</li> <li>• Renaissance Period (1300–1600)</li> <li>• Restoration and 18th Century (1660–1790) British Literature</li> <li>• Colonial and Early National Period (1600–1830) American Literature</li> <li>• Romantic Period (1790–1870)</li> <li>• Realism and Naturalism Period (1870–1930)</li> <li>• Modernist Period (1910–1945)</li> </ul> Clarification 2: Figurative language use that students will analyze are metaphor, simile, alliteration, onomatopoeia, personification, hyperbole, meiosis (understatement), allusion, and idiom. Other examples can be used in instruction.  Clarification 3: See Secondary Figurative Language. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.3.2:	Paraphrase content from grade-level texts. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.3.3:	Compare and contrast how contemporaneous authors address related topics, comparing the authors’ use of reasoning, and analyzing the texts within the context of the time period. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Contemporaneous authors here refers to authors who are contemporaries of each other writing within any of the following literary periods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Classical Period (1200 BCE–455 CE)</li> <li>• Medieval Period (455 CE–1485 CE)</li> <li>• Renaissance Period (1300–1600)</li> <li>• Restoration and 18th Century (1660–1790) British Literature</li> <li>• Colonial and Early National Period (1600–1830) American Literature</li> <li>• Romantic Period (1790–1870)</li> </ul>

- Realism and Naturalism Period (1870–1930)
- Modernist Period (1910–1945)

Clarification 2: For more information on types of reasoning, see Types of Logical Reasoning.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Evaluate an author's use of rhetoric in text.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Students will evaluate the appropriateness of appeals and the effectiveness of devices. In this grade level, students are using and responsible for all four appeals; kairos is added at this grade level.

ELA.11.R.3.4:

Clarification 2: Rhetorical devices for the purposes of this benchmark are the figurative language devices from 11.R.3.1 with the addition of irony, rhetorical question, antithesis, zeugma, metonymy, synecdoche, asyndeton, and chiasmus.

Clarification 3: See Secondary Figurative Language.

Clarification 4: See Rhetorical Appeals and Rhetorical Devices.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Integrate academic vocabulary appropriate to grade level in speaking and writing.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: To integrate vocabulary, students will apply the vocabulary they have learned to authentic speaking and writing tasks independently. This use should be intentional, beyond responding to a prompt to use a word in a sentence.

ELA.11.V.1.1:

Clarification 2: Academic vocabulary appropriate to grade level refers to words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Apply knowledge of etymology and derivations to determine meanings of words and phrases in grade-level content.

Clarifications:

ELA.11.V.1.2:

Clarification 1: Etymology refers to the study of word origins and the ways that words have changed over time.

Clarification 2: Derivation refers to making new words from an existing word by adding affixes.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Apply knowledge of context clues, figurative language, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the connotative and denotative meaning of words and phrases, appropriate to grade level.

Clarifications:

ELA.11.V.1.3:

Clarification 1: Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary.

Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships.

Clarification 3: See ELA.11.R.3.1 and Secondary Figurative Language.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning.

Clarifications:

ELA.K12.EE.1.1:

K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing.

2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations.

4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they've directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor.

6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation.

9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently.

Clarifications:

ELA.K12.EE.2.1:

See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

Make inferences to support comprehension.

Clarifications:

ELA.K12.EE.3.1:

Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like "Why is the girl smiling?" or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations.

Clarifications:

	In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully.
ELA.K12.EE.4.1:	In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: "I think _____ because _____." The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations.  In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence.  Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
	Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work. Clarifications:
ELA.K12.EE.5.1:	Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
	Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing. Clarifications:
ELA.K12.EE.6.1:	In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
TH.912.C.1.3:	Justify a response to a theatrical experience through oral or written analysis, using correct theatre terminology. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
	Research and define the physical/visual elements necessary to create theatrical reality for a specific historical and/or geographical play. Clarifications:
TH.912.C.1.4:	e.g., architectural details; period costumes, furnishings, and hair; attire appropriate to climate and time of year; props appropriate to economic level Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
TH.912.C.1.5:	Make and defend conscious choices in the creation of a character that will fulfill anticipated audience response. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
	Construct imaginative, complex scripts and revise them in collaboration with actors to convey story and meaning to an audience. Clarifications:

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this course is to enable students to develop and use writing and language skills for play writing in a variety of public performance formats.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Arts is not a discrete set of skills, but a rich discipline with meaningful, significant content, the knowledge of which helps all students actively and fully participate in our society. Standards should not stand alone as a separate focus for instruction, but should be combined purposefully.

The content should include, but not be limited to, the following:

- examination of a variety of plays in order to examine
  - modes of staging directions of power and impact of appropriate voice and/or tone and persona
  - reciprocal nature of content and form in development of writing for performance
  - literary theory associated with play writing
- writing for varied purposes including
  - personal and dramatic narratives
  - poetic oral performance formats
  - screenplay and multimedia productions
  - digital writing platforms
- collaboration amongst peers, especially regarding peer reviews of multiple drafts and/or performances

Important Note: Reading and writing courses should not be used in place of English language arts courses; reading and writing courses are intended to be used to supplement further study in English language arts.

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. ## General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

This course is targeted for students who are not "college-ready" in writing. This course incorporates language study, the practice of writing craft strategies, and the analysis of writing selections to develop critical writing skills necessary for success in college courses, preparing students for successful completion of Florida college English courses requiring extensive grade-level writing. The benchmarks reflect the Florida College Competencies necessary for entry-level college courses.

GENERAL NOTES

The content should include, but not be limited to, the following: writing effective sentence structures; effectively implementing patterns of paragraph development; recognizing and solving common sentence development problems; reading and modeling mentor essays; and understanding and using language, grammar, and mechanics effectively.

Instructional Practices: Teaching from well-written, grade-level instructional materials enhances students' content area knowledge and also strengthens their ability to comprehend longer, complex reading passages on any topic for any purpose. Using the following instructional practices also helps student learning.

1. Reading assignments from longer text passages, as well as shorter ones when text is extremely complex.
2. Making close reading and rereading of texts central to lessons.
3. Asking high-level, text-specific questions and requiring high-level, complex tasks and assignments.
4. Requiring students to support answers with evidence from the text.
5. Providing extensive text-based research and writing opportunities (claims and evidence).

Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.11.C.1.2:	Write complex narratives using appropriate techniques to establish multiple perspectives. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Narrative Techniques.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.1.3:	Write literary analyses to support claims, using logical reasoning, credible evidence from sources, and elaboration, demonstrating an understanding of literary elements. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques.  Clarification 2: Appropriate tone is expected to continue from 9th and 10th. Use narrative techniques to strengthen argument writing where appropriate.  Clarification 3: These written works will take longer and are meant to reflect thorough research and analysis.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.1.4:	Write an analysis of complex texts using logical organization and a tone and voice appropriate to the task and audience, demonstrating an understanding of the subject. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.1.5:	Improve writing by considering feedback from adults, peers, and/or online editing tools, revising to improve clarity, structure, and style. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.2.1:	Present information orally, with a logical organization, coherent focus, and credible evidence, while employing effective rhetorical devices where appropriate. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: At this grade level, the emphasis is on the content, but students are still expected to follow earlier expectations: appropriate volume, pronunciation, and pacing. This benchmark introduces rhetorical devices to the benchmark, building on what students have learned in R.3.2 and giving them a chance to apply it.  Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Secondary Oral Communication Rubric.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use knowledge of usage rules to create flow in writing and presenting.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.4.1:	Conduct literary research to answer a question, refining the scope of the question to align with interpretations of texts, and synthesizing information from primary and secondary sources. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: While the benchmark does require that students consult multiple sources, there is no requirement that they use every source they consult. Part of the skill in researching is discernment—being able to tell which information is relevant and which sources are trustworthy enough to include.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.5.1:	Create digital presentations to improve the experience of the audience. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: At this grade level, students are using multiple elements. The presentation may be delivered live or delivered as a stand-alone digital experience. The elements should be of different types. The elements should relate directly to the presentation and be incorporated in a way that engages the audience.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.5.2:	Create and export quality writing tailored to a specific audience, integrating multimedia elements, publishing to an online or LAN site. Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Evaluate how key elements enhance or add layers of meaning and/or style in a literary text. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Key elements of a literary text are setting, plot, characterization, conflict, point of view, theme, and tone.  Clarification 2: For layers of meaning, any methodology or model may be used as long as students understand that text may have multiple layers and that authors use techniques to achieve those layers. A very workable model for looking at layers of meaning is that of I. A. Richards:

ELA.11.R.1.1:	Layer 1) the literal level, what the words actually mean  Layer 2) mood, those feelings that are evoked in the reader  Layer 3) tone, the author’s attitude  Layer 4) author’s purpose (interpretation of author’s purpose as it is often inferred)  Clarification 3: Style is the way in which the writer uses techniques for effect. It is distinct from meaning but can be used to make the author’s message more effective. The components of style are diction, syntax, grammar, and use of figurative language. Style helps to create the author’s voice. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.1.2:	Track and analyze universal themes in literary texts from different times and places.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: A universal theme is an idea that applies to anyone, anywhere, regardless of cultural differences. Examples include but are not limited to an individual’s or a community’s confrontation with nature; an individual’s struggle toward understanding, awareness, and/or spiritual enlightenment; the tension between the ideal and the real; the conflict between human beings and advancements in technology/science; the impact of the past on the present; the inevitability of fate; the struggle for equality; and the loss of innocence. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.1.3:	Analyze the author’s choices in using juxtaposition to define character perspective.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Juxtaposition is the technique of putting two or more elements side by side to invite comparison or contrast.  Clarification 2: The term perspective means “a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something.” Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.1.4:	Analyze ways in which poetry reflects themes and issues of its time period.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Poetry for this benchmark should be selected from one of the following literary periods. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Classical Period (1200 BCE–455 CE)</li> <li>• Medieval Period (455 CE–1485 CE)</li> <li>• Renaissance Period (130–1600)</li> <li>• Restoration and 18th Century (1660–1790) British Literature</li> <li>• Colonial and Early National Period (1600–1830) American Literature</li> <li>• Romantic Period (1790–1870)</li> <li>• Realism and Naturalism Period (1870–1930)</li> <li>• Modernist Period (1910–1945)</li> <li>• Contemporary Period (1945–present)</li> </ul> Clarification 2: For more information, see Literary Periods. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.2.1:	Evaluate the structure(s) and features in texts.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Students will evaluate the use of the following structures: description, problem/solution, chronological, compare and contrast, cause and effect, and sequence.  Clarification 2: Students will evaluate the use of the following features: table of contents, headings, captions, photographs, graphs, charts, illustrations, glossary, footnotes, annotations, and appendix. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.2.2:	Analyze the central idea(s) of speeches and essays from the Classical Period.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Rhetorical Appeals and Rhetorical Devices. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.2.3:	Analyze an author’s choices in establishing and achieving purpose(s) in speeches and essays from the Classical Period. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.2.4:	Compare the development of multiple arguments on the same topic, evaluating the effectiveness and validity of the claims, the authors’ reasoning, and the ways in which the authors use the same information to achieve different ends.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Validity refers to the soundness of the arguments.  Clarification 2: For more information on types of reasoning, see Types of Logical Reasoning. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.3.1:	Analyze the author’s use of figurative language and explain examples of allegory.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Examples of allegory should be taken from the following periods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Classical Period (1200 BCE–455 CE)</li> <li>• Medieval Period (455 CE–1485 CE)</li> <li>• Renaissance Period (1300–1600)</li> <li>• Restoration and 18th Century (1660–1790) British Literature</li> <li>• Colonial and Early National Period (1600–1830) American Literature</li> <li>• Romantic Period (1790–1870)</li> <li>• Realism and Naturalism Period (1870–1930)</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Modernist Period (1910–1945)</li> </ul> Clarification 2: Figurative language use that students will analyze are metaphor, simile, alliteration, onomatopoeia, personification, hyperbole, meiosis (understatement), allusion, and idiom. Other examples can be used in instruction. Clarification 3: See Secondary Figurative Language. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.3.2:	Paraphrase content from grade-level texts. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.3.3:	Compare and contrast how contemporaneous authors address related topics, comparing the authors' use of reasoning, and analyzing the texts within the context of the time period. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Contemporaneous authors here refers to authors who are contemporaries of each other writing within any of the following literary periods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Classical Period (1200 BCE–455 CE)</li> <li>• Medieval Period (455 CE–1485 CE)</li> <li>• Renaissance Period (1300–1600)</li> <li>• Restoration and 18th Century (1660–1790) British Literature</li> <li>• Colonial and Early National Period (1600–1830) American Literature</li> <li>• Romantic Period (1790–1870)</li> <li>• Realism and Naturalism Period (1870–1930)</li> <li>• Modernist Period (1910–1945)</li> </ul> Clarification 2: For more information on types of reasoning, see Types of Logical Reasoning. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.3.4:	Evaluate an author's use of rhetoric in text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students will evaluate the appropriateness of appeals and the effectiveness of devices. In this grade level, students are using and responsible for all four appeals; kairos is added at this grade level. Clarification 2: Rhetorical devices for the purposes of this benchmark are the figurative language devices from 11.R.3.1 with the addition of irony, rhetorical question, antithesis, zeugma, metonymy, synecdoche, asyndeton, and chiasmus. Clarification 3: See Secondary Figurative Language. Clarification 4: See Rhetorical Appeals and Rhetorical Devices. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.V.1.1:	Integrate academic vocabulary appropriate to grade level in speaking and writing. Clarifications: Clarification 1: To integrate vocabulary, students will apply the vocabulary they have learned to authentic speaking and writing tasks independently. This use should be intentional, beyond responding to a prompt to use a word in a sentence. Clarification 2: Academic vocabulary appropriate to grade level refers to words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.V.1.2:	Apply knowledge of etymology and derivations to determine meanings of words and phrases in grade-level content. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Etymology refers to the study of word origins and the ways that words have changed over time. Clarification 2: Derivation refers to making new words from an existing word by adding affixes. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.V.1.3:	Apply knowledge of context clues, figurative language, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the connotative and denotative meaning of words and phrases, appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships. Clarification 3: See ELA.11.R.3.1 and Secondary Figurative Language. Standard Relation to Course: Major

	they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations.
ELA.K12.EE.1.1:	4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they've directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor. 6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation. 9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.2.1:	Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently. Clarifications: See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.3.1:	Make inferences to support comprehension. Clarifications: Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like "Why is the girl smiling?" or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.4.1:	Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations. Clarifications: In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully. In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: "I think _____ because _____." The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations. In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.5.1:	Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work. Clarifications: Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.6.1:	Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing. Clarifications: In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
SS.912.C.2.8:	Analyze the impact of citizen participation as a means of achieving political and social change. Clarifications: Examples are e-mail campaigns, boycotts, blogs, podcasts, protests, demonstrations, letters to editors.
SS.912.C.3.13:	Illustrate examples of how government affects the daily lives of citizens at the local, state, and national levels. Clarifications: Examples are education, transportation, crime prevention, funding of services.

VERSION DESCRIPTION

This course is targeted for students who are not "college-ready" in writing. This course incorporates language study, the practice of writing craft strategies, and the analysis of writing selections to develop critical writing skills necessary for success in college courses, preparing students for successful completion of Florida college English courses requiring extensive grade-level writing. The benchmarks reflect the Florida College Competencies necessary for entry-level college courses.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Arts is not a discrete set of skills, but a rich discipline with meaningful, significant content, the knowledge of which helps all students actively and fully participate in our society. Standards should not stand alone as a separate focus for instruction, but should be combined purposefully.

The content should include, but not be limited to, the following:

- writing effective sentence structures;
- effectively implementing patterns of paragraph development;
- recognizing and solving common sentence development problems;
- reading and modeling mentor essays; and
- understanding and using language, grammar, and mechanics effectively.

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL’s need for communication and social skills. ## Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.11.C.1.2:	Write complex narratives using appropriate techniques to establish multiple perspectives. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Narrative Techniques.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.1.3:	Write literary analyses to support claims, using logical reasoning, credible evidence from sources, and elaboration, demonstrating an understanding of literary elements. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques.  Clarification 2: Appropriate tone is expected to continue from 9th and 10th. Use narrative techniques to strengthen argument writing where appropriate.  Clarification 3: These written works will take longer and are meant to reflect thorough research and analysis.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.1.4:	Write an analysis of complex texts using logical organization and a tone and voice appropriate to the task and audience, demonstrating an understanding of the subject. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.1.5:	Improve writing by considering feedback from adults, peers, and/or online editing tools, revising to improve clarity, structure, and style. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.2.1:	Present information orally, with a logical organization, coherent focus, and credible evidence, while employing effective rhetorical devices where appropriate. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: At this grade level, the emphasis is on the content, but students are still expected to follow earlier expectations: appropriate volume, pronunciation, and pacing. This benchmark introduces rhetorical devices to the benchmark, building on what students have learned in R.3.2 and giving them a chance to apply it.  Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Secondary Oral Communication Rubric.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use knowledge of usage rules to create flow in writing and presenting.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.4.1:	Conduct literary research to answer a question, refining the scope of the question to align with interpretations of texts, and synthesizing information from primary and secondary sources. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: While the benchmark does require that students consult multiple sources, there is no requirement that they use every source they consult. Part of the skill in researching is discernment—being able to tell which information is relevant and which sources are trustworthy enough to include.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.5.1:	Create digital presentations to improve the experience of the audience. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: At this grade level, students are using multiple elements. The presentation may be delivered live or delivered as a stand-alone digital experience. The elements should be of different types. The elements should relate directly to the presentation and be incorporated in a way that engages the audience.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.5.2:	Create and export quality writing tailored to a specific audience, integrating multimedia elements, publishing to an online or LAN site. Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Evaluate how key elements enhance or add layers of meaning and/or style in a literary text. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Key elements of a literary text are setting, plot, characterization, conflict, point of view, theme, and tone.  Clarification 2: For layers of meaning, any methodology or model may be used as long as students understand that text may have multiple layers and that authors use techniques to achieve those layers. A very workable model for looking at layers of meaning is that of I. A. Richards:

ELA.11.R.1.1:	Layer 1) the literal level, what the words actually mean  Layer 2) mood, those feelings that are evoked in the reader  Layer 3) tone, the author’s attitude  Layer 4) author’s purpose (interpretation of author’s purpose as it is often inferred)  Clarification 3: Style is the way in which the writer uses techniques for effect. It is distinct from meaning but can be used to make the author’s message more effective. The components of style are diction, syntax, grammar, and use of figurative language. Style helps to create the author’s voice. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.1.2:	Track and analyze universal themes in literary texts from different times and places.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: A universal theme is an idea that applies to anyone, anywhere, regardless of cultural differences. Examples include but are not limited to an individual’s or a community’s confrontation with nature; an individual’s struggle toward understanding, awareness, and/or spiritual enlightenment; the tension between the ideal and the real; the conflict between human beings and advancements in technology/science; the impact of the past on the present; the inevitability of fate; the struggle for equality; and the loss of innocence. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.1.3:	Analyze the author’s choices in using juxtaposition to define character perspective.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Juxtaposition is the technique of putting two or more elements side by side to invite comparison or contrast.  Clarification 2: The term perspective means “a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something.” Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.1.4:	Analyze ways in which poetry reflects themes and issues of its time period.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Poetry for this benchmark should be selected from one of the following literary periods. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Classical Period (1200 BCE–455 CE)</li> <li>• Medieval Period (455 CE–1485 CE)</li> <li>• Renaissance Period (130–1600)</li> <li>• Restoration and 18th Century (1660–1790) British Literature</li> <li>• Colonial and Early National Period (1600–1830) American Literature</li> <li>• Romantic Period (1790–1870)</li> <li>• Realism and Naturalism Period (1870–1930)</li> <li>• Modernist Period (1910–1945)</li> <li>• Contemporary Period (1945–present)</li> </ul> Clarification 2: For more information, see Literary Periods. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.2.1:	Evaluate the structure(s) and features in texts.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Students will evaluate the use of the following structures: description, problem/solution, chronological, compare and contrast, cause and effect, and sequence.  Clarification 2: Students will evaluate the use of the following features: table of contents, headings, captions, photographs, graphs, charts, illustrations, glossary, footnotes, annotations, and appendix. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.2.2:	Analyze the central idea(s) of speeches and essays from the Classical Period.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Rhetorical Appeals and Rhetorical Devices. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.2.3:	Analyze an author’s choices in establishing and achieving purpose(s) in speeches and essays from the Classical Period.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.2.4:	Compare the development of multiple arguments on the same topic, evaluating the effectiveness and validity of the claims, the authors’ reasoning, and the ways in which the authors use the same information to achieve different ends.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Validity refers to the soundness of the arguments.  Clarification 2: For more information on types of reasoning, see Types of Logical Reasoning. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.3.1:	Analyze the author’s use of figurative language and explain examples of allegory.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Examples of allegory should be taken from the following periods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Classical Period (1200 BCE–455 CE)</li> <li>• Medieval Period (455 CE–1485 CE)</li> <li>• Renaissance Period (1300–1600)</li> <li>• Restoration and 18th Century (1660–1790) British Literature</li> <li>• Colonial and Early National Period (1600–1830) American Literature</li> <li>• Romantic Period (1790–1870)</li> <li>• Realism and Naturalism Period (1870–1930)</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Modernist Period (1910–1945)</li> </ul> Clarification 2: Figurative language use that students will analyze are metaphor, simile, alliteration, onomatopoeia, personification, hyperbole, meiosis (understatement), allusion, and idiom. Other examples can be used in instruction. Clarification 3: See Secondary Figurative Language. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.3.2:	Paraphrase content from grade-level texts. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.3.3:	Compare and contrast how contemporaneous authors address related topics, comparing the authors' use of reasoning, and analyzing the texts within the context of the time period. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Contemporaneous authors here refers to authors who are contemporaries of each other writing within any of the following literary periods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Classical Period (1200 BCE–455 CE)</li> <li>• Medieval Period (455 CE–1485 CE)</li> <li>• Renaissance Period (1300–1600)</li> <li>• Restoration and 18th Century (1660–1790) British Literature</li> <li>• Colonial and Early National Period (1600–1830) American Literature</li> <li>• Romantic Period (1790–1870)</li> <li>• Realism and Naturalism Period (1870–1930)</li> <li>• Modernist Period (1910–1945)</li> </ul> Clarification 2: For more information on types of reasoning, see Types of Logical Reasoning. Standard Relation to Course: Major

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. ## General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

This course is designed to teach students literary Braille and a basic awareness of aspects of visual disabilities.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Arts is not a discrete set of skills, but a rich discipline with meaningful, significant content, the knowledge of which helps all students actively and fully participate in our society. Standards should not stand alone as a separate focus for instruction, but should be combined purposefully.

The content should include, but not be limited to:

- transcription of print to Braille
- presentation of emotional, social, legal, and cultural aspects of visual disabilities
- demonstration of writing of Braille on a braillewriter

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. LAFS.1112.RI.1.1:	Cite strong and thorough textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text, including determining where the text leaves matters uncertain.
LAFS.1112.RI.1.2:	Determine two or more central ideas of a text and analyze their development over the course of the text, including how they interact and build on one another to provide a complex analysis; provide an objective summary of the text.
LAFS.1112.RI.1.3:	Analyze a complex set of ideas or sequence of events and explain how specific individuals, ideas, or events interact and develop over the course of the text.
LAFS.1112.RI.2.4:	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative, connotative, and technical meanings; analyze how an author uses and refines the meaning of a key term or terms over the course of a text (e.g., how Madison defines faction in Federalist No. 10).
LAFS.1112.RI.2.5:	Analyze and evaluate the effectiveness of the structure an author uses in his or her exposition or argument, including whether the structure makes points clear, convincing, and engaging.
LAFS.1112.RI.2.6:	Determine an author's point of view or purpose in a text in which the rhetoric is particularly effective, analyzing how style and content contribute to the power, persuasiveness or beauty of the text.
LAFS.1112.RI.3.7:	Integrate and evaluate multiple sources of information presented in different media or formats (e.g., visually, quantitatively) as well as in words in order to address a question or solve a problem.
LAFS.1112.RI.3.8:	Delineate and evaluate the reasoning in seminal U.S. texts, including the application of constitutional principles and use of legal reasoning (e.g., in U.S. Supreme Court majority opinions and dissents) and the premises, purposes, and arguments in works of public advocacy (e.g., The Federalist, presidential addresses).
LAFS.1112.RI.3.9:	Analyze seventeenth-, eighteenth-, and nineteenth-century foundational U.S. documents of historical and literary significance (including The Declaration of Independence, the Preamble to the Constitution, the Bill of Rights, and Lincoln's Second

	Inaugural Address) for their themes, purposes, and rhetorical features.
LAFS.1112.RL.4.10:	By the end of grade 11, read and comprehend literary nonfiction in the grades 11–CCR text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range. By the end of grade 12, read and comprehend literary nonfiction at the high end of the grades 11–CCR text complexity band independently and proficiently.
LAFS.1112.RL.1.1:	Cite strong and thorough textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text, including determining where the text leaves matters uncertain.
LAFS.1112.RL.1.2:	Determine two or more themes or central ideas of a text and analyze their development over the course of the text, including how they interact and build on one another to produce a complex account; provide an objective summary of the text.
LAFS.1112.RL.1.3:	Analyze the impact of the author’s choices regarding how to develop and relate elements of a story or drama (e.g., where a story is set, how the action is ordered, how the characters are introduced and developed).
LAFS.1112.RL.2.4:	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in the text, including figurative and connotative meanings; analyze the impact of specific word choices on meaning and tone, including words with multiple meanings or language that is particularly fresh, engaging, or beautiful. (Include Shakespeare as well as other authors.)
LAFS.1112.RL.2.5:	Analyze how an author’s choices concerning how to structure specific parts of a text (e.g., the choice of where to begin or end a story, the choice to provide a comedic or tragic resolution) contribute to its overall structure and meaning as well as its aesthetic impact.
LAFS.1112.RL.2.6:	Analyze a case in which grasping a point of view requires distinguishing what is directly stated in a text from what is really meant (e.g., satire, sarcasm, irony, or understatement).
LAFS.1112.RL.3.7:	Analyze multiple interpretations of a story, drama, or poem (e.g., recorded or live production of a play or recorded novel or poetry), evaluating how each version interprets the source text. (Include at least one play by Shakespeare and one play by an American dramatist.)
LAFS.1112.RL.3.9:	Demonstrate knowledge of eighteenth-, nineteenth- and early-twentieth-century foundational works of American literature, including how two or more texts from the same period treat similar themes or topics.
LAFS.1112.RL.4.10:	By the end of grade 11, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poems, in the grades 11–CCR text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range. By the end of grade 12, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poems, at the high end of the grades 11–CCR text complexity band independently and proficiently.
LAFS.1112.SL.1.1:	Initiate and participate effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with diverse partners on grades 11–12 topics, texts, and issues, building on others’ ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Come to discussions prepared, having read and researched material under study; explicitly draw on that preparation by referring to evidence from texts and other research on the topic or issue to stimulate a thoughtful, well-reasoned exchange of ideas.</li> <li>b. Work with peers to promote civil, democratic discussions and decision-making, set clear goals and deadlines, and establish individual roles as needed.</li> <li>c. Propel conversations by posing and responding to questions that probe reasoning and evidence; ensure a hearing for a full range of positions on a topic or issue; clarify, verify, or challenge ideas and conclusions; and promote divergent and creative perspectives.</li> <li>d. Respond thoughtfully to diverse perspectives; synthesize comments, claims, and evidence made on all sides of an issue; resolve contradictions when possible; and determine what additional information or research is required to deepen the investigation or complete the task.</li> </ul>
LAFS.1112.SL.1.2:	Integrate multiple sources of information presented in diverse formats and media (e.g., visually, quantitatively, orally) in order to make informed decisions and solve problems, evaluating the credibility and accuracy of each source and noting any discrepancies among the data.
LAFS.1112.SL.1.3:	Evaluate a speaker’s point of view, reasoning, and use of evidence and rhetoric, assessing the stance, premises, links among ideas, word choice, points of emphasis, and tone used.
LAFS.1112.SL.2.4:	Present information, findings, and supporting evidence, conveying a clear and distinct perspective, such that listeners can follow the line of reasoning, alternative or opposing perspectives are addressed, and the organization, development, substance, and style are appropriate to purpose, audience, and a range of formal and informal tasks.
LAFS.1112.SL.2.5:	Make strategic use of digital media (e.g., textual, graphical, audio, visual, and interactive elements) in presentations to enhance understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence and to add interest.
LAFS.1112.SL.2.6:	Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating a command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.
LAFS.1112.W.1.1:	Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts, using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Introduce precise, knowledgeable claim(s), establish the significance of the claim(s), distinguish the claim(s) from alternate or opposing claims, and create an organization that logically sequences claim(s), counterclaims, reasons, and evidence.</li> <li>b. Develop claim(s) and counterclaims fairly and thoroughly, supplying the most relevant evidence for each while pointing out the strengths and limitations of both in a manner that anticipates the audience’s knowledge level, concerns, values, and possible biases.</li> <li>c. Use words, phrases, and clauses as well as varied syntax to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships between claim(s) and reasons, between reasons and evidence, and between claim(s) and counterclaims.</li> </ul>

LAFS.1112.W.1.2:	Write informative/explanatory texts to examine and convey complex ideas, concepts, and information clearly and accurately through the effective selection, organization, and analysis of content. a. Introduce a topic; organize complex ideas, concepts, and information so that each new element builds on that which precedes it to create a unified whole; include formatting (e.g., headings), graphics (e.g., figures, tables), and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension. b. Develop the topic thoroughly by selecting the most significant and relevant facts, extended definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples appropriate to the audience's knowledge of the topic. c. Use appropriate and varied transitions and syntax to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships among complex ideas and concepts. d. Use precise language, domain-specific vocabulary, and techniques such as metaphor, simile, and analogy to manage the complexity of the topic. e. Establish and maintain a formal style and objective tone while attending to the norms and conventions of the discipline in which they are writing. f. Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the information or explanation presented (e.g., articulating implications or the significance of the topic).
LAFS.1112.W.1.3:	Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, well-chosen details, and well-structured event sequences. a. Engage and orient the reader by setting out a problem, situation, or observation and its significance, establishing one or multiple point(s) of view, and introducing a narrator and/or characters; create a smooth progression of experiences or events. b. Use narrative techniques, such as dialogue, pacing, description, reflection, and multiple plot lines, to develop experiences, events, and/or characters. c. Use a variety of techniques to sequence events so that they build on one another to create a coherent whole and build toward a particular tone and outcome (e.g., a sense of mystery, suspense, growth, or resolution). d. Use precise words and phrases, telling details, and sensory language to convey a vivid picture of the experiences, events, setting, and/or characters. e. Provide a conclusion that follows from and reflects on what is experienced, observed, or resolved over the course of the narrative.
LAFS.1112.W.2.4:	Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in standards 1–3 above.)
LAFS.1112.W.2.5:	Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on addressing what is most significant for a specific purpose and audience.
LAFS.1112.W.2.6:	Use technology, including the Internet, to produce, publish, and update individual or shared writing products in response to ongoing feedback, including new arguments or information.
LAFS.1112.W.3.7:	Conduct short as well as more sustained research projects to answer a question (including a self-generated question) or solve a problem; narrow or broaden the inquiry when appropriate; synthesize multiple sources on the subject, demonstrating understanding of the subject under investigation.
LAFS.1112.W.3.8:	Gather relevant information from multiple authoritative print and digital sources, using advanced searches effectively; assess the strengths and limitations of each source in terms of the task, purpose, and audience; integrate information into the text selectively to maintain the flow of ideas, avoiding plagiarism and overreliance on any one source and following a standard format for citation.
LAFS.1112.W.3.9:	Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research. a. Apply grades 11–12 Reading standards to literature (e.g., “Demonstrate knowledge of eighteenth-, nineteenth- and early-twentieth-century foundational works of American literature, including how two or more texts from the same period treat similar themes or topics”). b. Apply grades 11–12 Reading standards to literary nonfiction (e.g., “Delineate and evaluate the reasoning in seminal U.S. texts, including the application of constitutional principles and use of legal reasoning [e.g., in U.S. Supreme Court Case majority opinions and dissents] and the premises, purposes, and arguments in works of public advocacy [e.g., The Federalist, presidential addresses]”).
LAFS.1112.W.4.10:	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences.
HE.912.B.4.3:	Demonstrate strategies to prevent, manage, or resolve interpersonal conflicts without harming self or others. Clarifications: Effective verbal and nonverbal communication, compromise, and conflict-resolution.
HE.912.B.5.1:	Determine the value of applying a thoughtful decision-making process in health-related situations. Clarifications: Defining healthy boundaries and relationships, sexual activity, alcohol consumption, organ-donor decisions, child care, protection against infectious agents, wellness promotion, and first-aid-treatment options.
HE.912.C.1.2:	Interpret the significance of interrelationships in mental/emotional, physical, and social health. Clarifications: Substance abuse, eating disorders, sexual behaviors, healthy/unhealthy relationships, self-esteem, stress/anger

	management, and regular exercise.
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.
SS.912.C.2.8:	Analyze the impact of citizen participation as a means of achieving political and social change. Clarifications: Examples are e-mail campaigns, boycotts, blogs, podcasts, protests, demonstrations, letters to editors.
SS.912.C.3.13:	Illustrate examples of how government affects the daily lives of citizens at the local, state, and national levels. Clarifications: Examples are education, transportation, crime prevention, funding of services.

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this course is to enable students, using texts of high complexity, to develop knowledge of American literature through advanced integrated educational experiences of reading, writing, speaking and listening, and language. Emphasis will be on representative American literature, with its varied cultural influences, from the Colonial Period to the present, highlighting the major genres, themes, subjects, and historical influences associated with each literary period, including pertinent foundational documents in United States history.

Honors and Advanced Level Course Note: Advanced courses require a greater demand on students through increased academic rigor. Academic rigor is obtained through the application, analysis, evaluation, and creation of complex ideas that are often abstract and multi-faceted. Students are challenged to think and collaborate critically on the content they are learning. Honors level rigor will be achieved by increasing text complexity through text selection, focus on high-level qualitative measures, and complexity of task. Instruction will be structured to give students a deeper understanding of conceptual themes and organization within and across disciplines. Academic rigor is more than simply assigning to students a greater quantity of work.

GENERAL NOTES

The content should include, but not be limited to, the following:

- active reading of texts of high literary merit for what they say explicitly, as well as the logical inferences that can be drawn
- analysis of literature and informational texts from varied literary periods to examine:
  - text craft and structure
  - elements of literature
  - arguments, themes, and claims supported by textual evidence
  - power and impact of language
  - influence of history, culture, and setting on language
  - personal critical and aesthetic response
- writing for varied purposes
  - developing and supporting argumentative claims
  - crafting coherent, supported informative/expository texts
  - responding to literature for personal and analytical purposes
  - writing narratives to develop real or imagined events
  - writing to sources (short and longer research) using text based claims and evidence
- effective listening, speaking, and viewing strategies with emphasis on the use of evidence to support or refute a claim in multimedia presentations, class discussions, and extended text discussions
- collaboration amongst peers

Special Notes:

Instructional Practices: Teaching from well-written, grade-level instructional materials enhances students' content area knowledge and also strengthens their ability to comprehend longer, complex reading passages on any topic for any purpose. Using the following instructional practices also helps student learning.

1. Reading assignments from longer text passages, as well as shorter ones when text is extremely complex.
2. Making close reading and rereading of texts central to lessons.
3. Asking high-level, text-specific questions and requiring high-level, complex tasks and assignments.
4. Requiring students to support answers with evidence from the text.
5. Providing extensive text-based research and writing opportunities (claims and evidence).

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. ## Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.10.C.1.2:	Write narratives using an appropriate pace to create tension, mood, and/or tone. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Narrative Techniques.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.1.3:	Write to argue a position, supporting claims using logical reasoning and credible evidence from multiple sources, rebutting counterclaims with relevant evidence, using a logical organizational structure, elaboration, purposeful transitions, and maintaining a formal and objective tone. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques.  Clarification 2: The tone should be both formal and objective, relying more on argument and rhetorical appeals rather than on propaganda techniques. Use narrative techniques to strengthen writing where appropriate.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.1.4:	Write expository texts to explain and analyze information from multiple sources, using a logical organization, purposeful transitions, and a tone and voice appropriate to the task. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.1.5:	Improve writing by considering feedback from adults, peers, and/or online editing tools, revising to address the needs of a specific audience.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.2.1:	Present information orally, with a logical organization and coherent focus, with credible evidence, creating a clear perspective. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: At this grade level, the emphasis is on the content, but students are still expected to follow earlier expectations: volume, pronunciation, and pacing. A clear perspective is the through-line that unites the elements of the presentation.  Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Secondary Oral Communication Rubric.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Add variety to writing or presentations by using parallel structure and various types of phrases and clauses.</li> </ul> Skills to be implemented but not yet mastered are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use knowledge of usage rules to create flow in writing and presenting.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.4.1:	Conduct research to answer a question, refining the scope of the question to align with findings, and synthesizing information from multiple reliable and valid sources. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: While the benchmark does require that students consult multiple sources, there is no requirement that they use every source they consult. Part of the skill in researching is discernment—being able to tell which information is relevant and which sources are trustworthy enough to include.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.5.1:	Create digital presentations to improve understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: The presentation may be delivered live or delivered as a stand-alone digital experience.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.5.2:	Use online collaborative platforms to create and export publication-ready quality writing tailored to a specific audience, integrating multimedia elements.  Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.10.R.1.1:	Clarification 2: For layers of meaning, any methodology or model may be used as long as students understand that text may have multiple layers and that authors use techniques to achieve those layers. A very workable model for looking at layers of meaning is that of I.A. Richards:  Layer 1) the literal level, what the words actually mean  Layer 2) mood, those feelings that are evoked in the reader  Layer 3) tone, the author’s attitude  Layer 4) author’s purpose (interpretation of author’s purpose as it is often inferred). Clarification 3: Style is the way in which the writer uses techniques for effect. It is distinct from meaning but can be used to make the author’s message more effective. The components of style are diction, syntax, grammar, and use of figurative language. Style helps to create the author’s voice. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.1.2:	Analyze and compare universal themes and their development throughout a literary text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: A universal theme is an idea that applies to anyone, anywhere, regardless of cultural differences. Examples include but are not limited to an individual’s or a community’s confrontation with nature; an individual’s struggle toward understanding, awareness, and/or spiritual enlightenment; the tension between the ideal and the real; the conflict between human beings and advancements in technology/science; the impact of the past on the present; the inevitability of fate; the struggle for equality; and the loss of innocence. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.1.3:	Analyze coming of age experiences reflected in a text and how the author represents conflicting perspectives. Clarifications: Clarification 1: For more information, see Literary Periods. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.1.4:	Analyze how authors create multiple layers of meaning and/or ambiguity in a poem. Clarifications: Clarification 1: For more information, see Literary Periods. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.2.1:	Analyze the impact of multiple text structures and the use of features in text(s). Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students will evaluate the use of the following structures: description, problem/solution, chronological, compare and contrast, cause and effect, and sequence. Clarification 2: Students will evaluate the use of the following features: table of contents, headings, captions, photographs, graphs, charts, illustrations, glossary, footnotes, annotations, and appendix. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.2.2:	Analyze the central idea(s) of historical American speeches and essays. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.2.3:	Analyze an author’s choices in establishing and achieving purpose(s) in historical American speeches and essays. Clarifications: Clarification 1: In this grade level, students are using and responsible for the appeals of logos, ethos, and pathos. Clarification 2: See Rhetorical Appeals and Rhetorical Devices. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.2.4:	Compare the development of two opposing arguments on the same topic, evaluating the effectiveness and validity of the claims, and analyzing the ways in which the authors use the same information to achieve different ends. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Validity refers to the soundness of the arguments. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.3.1:	Analyze how figurative language creates mood in text(s). Clarifications: Clarification 1: Figurative language use that students will analyze are metaphor, simile, alliteration, onomatopoeia, personification, hyperbole, meiosis (understatement), allusion, and idiom. Other examples can be used in instruction. Clarification 2: See Secondary Figurative Language. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.3.2:	Paraphrase content from grade-level texts. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.3.3:	Analyze how mythical, classical, or religious texts have been adapted. Clarifications: Clarification 1: The classical source texts for this benchmark should be from ancient Greece or Rome’s Classical period (1200 BCE–455 CE). Mythical texts for this benchmark can be from any civilization’s early history. Religious texts for this benchmark include works such as the Bible. Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Analyze an author’s use of rhetoric in a text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students will analyze the appropriateness of appeals and the effectiveness of devices. In this grade level,

students are using and responsible for the appeals of logos, ethos, and pathos.

ELA.10.R.3.4:

Clarification 2: Rhetorical devices for the purposes of this benchmark are the figurative language devices from 10.R.3.1 with the addition of irony, rhetorical question, antithesis, zeugma, metonymy, synecdoche, and asyndeton.

Clarification 3: See Secondary Figurative Language.

Clarification 4: See Rhetorical Appeals and Rhetorical Devices.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Integrate academic vocabulary appropriate to grade level in speaking and writing.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: To integrate vocabulary, students will apply the vocabulary they have learned to authentic speaking and writing tasks independently. This use should be intentional, beyond responding to a prompt to use a word in a sentence.

ELA.10.V.1.1:

Clarification 2: Academic vocabulary appropriate to grade level refers to words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Apply knowledge of etymology and derivations to determine meanings of words and phrases in grade-level content.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Etymology refers to the study of word origins and the ways that words have changed over time.

ELA.10.V.1.2:

Clarification 2: Derivation refers to making new words from an existing word by adding affixes.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Apply knowledge of context clues, figurative language, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the connotative and denotative meaning of words and phrases, appropriate to grade level.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary.

Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships.

ELA.10.V.1.3:

Clarification 3: See ELA.10.R.3.1 and Secondary Figurative Language.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning.

Clarifications:

K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing.

2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations.

ELA.K12.EE.1.1:

4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they've directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor.

6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation.

9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently.

Clarifications:

See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

ELA.K12.EE.2.1:

Make inferences to support comprehension.

Clarifications:

Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like "Why is the girl smiling?" or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

ELA.K12.EE.3.1:

Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations.

Clarifications:

In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully.

In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: "I think _____ because _____." The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations.

ELA.K12.EE.4.1:

In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

	Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work. Clarifications:
ELA.K12.EE.5.1:	Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
	Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing. Clarifications:
ELA.K12.EE.6.1:	In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
SS.912.C.2.8:	Analyze the impact of citizen participation as a means of achieving political and social change. Clarifications: Examples are e-mail campaigns, boycotts, blogs, podcasts, protests, demonstrations, letters to editors. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
SS.912.C.3.13:	Illustrate examples of how government affects the daily lives of citizens at the local, state, and national levels. Clarifications: Examples are education, transportation, crime prevention, funding of services. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

VERSION DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this course is to enable students, using texts of high complexity, to develop knowledge of American literature through advanced integrated educational experiences. Emphasis will be on representative American literature, highlighting the major genres, themes, subjects, and historical influences associated with each literary period, including pertinent foundational documents in United States history.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Arts is not a discrete set of skills, but a rich discipline with meaningful, significant content, the knowledge of which helps all students actively and fully participate in our society. Standards should not stand alone as a separate focus for instruction, but should be combined purposefully.

The content should include, but not be limited to, the following:

- active reading of texts of varied American literary texts for what they say explicitly, as well as the logical inferences that can be drawn
- analysis of literature and informational texts from varied literary periods to examine:
  - elements of literature
  - arguments and claims supported by textual evidence
  - power and impact of language
  - influence of history, culture, and setting on language
  - personal critical and aesthetic response
- writing for varied purposes
  - developing and supporting argumentative claims
  - crafting coherent, supported expository texts
  - responding to literature for personal and analytical purposes
- collaboration amongst peers

Honors and Advanced Level Course Note: Advanced courses require a greater demand on students through increased academic rigor. Academic rigor is obtained through the application, analysis, evaluation, and creation of complex ideas that are often abstract and multi-faceted. Students are challenged to think and collaborate critically on the content they are learning. Honors level rigor will be achieved by increasing text complexity through text selection, focus on high-level qualitative measures, and complexity of task. Instruction will be structured to give students a deeper understanding of conceptual themes and organization within and across disciplines. Academic rigor is more than simply assigning to students a greater quantity of work.

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. ## Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.10.C.1.2:	Write narratives using an appropriate pace to create tension, mood, and/or tone. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Narrative Techniques.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.1.3:	Write to argue a position, supporting claims using logical reasoning and credible evidence from multiple sources, rebutting counterclaims with relevant evidence, using a logical organizational structure, elaboration, purposeful transitions, and maintaining a formal and objective tone. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques.  Clarification 2: The tone should be both formal and objective, relying more on argument and rhetorical appeals rather than on propaganda techniques. Use narrative techniques to strengthen writing where appropriate.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.1.4:	Write expository texts to explain and analyze information from multiple sources, using a logical organization, purposeful transitions, and a tone and voice appropriate to the task. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.1.5:	Improve writing by considering feedback from adults, peers, and/or online editing tools, revising to address the needs of a specific audience.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.2.1:	Present information orally, with a logical organization and coherent focus, with credible evidence, creating a clear perspective. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: At this grade level, the emphasis is on the content, but students are still expected to follow earlier expectations: volume, pronunciation, and pacing. A clear perspective is the through-line that unites the elements of the presentation.  Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Secondary Oral Communication Rubric.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Add variety to writing or presentations by using parallel structure and various types of phrases and clauses.</li> </ul> Skills to be implemented but not yet mastered are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use knowledge of usage rules to create flow in writing and presenting.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.4.1:	Conduct research to answer a question, refining the scope of the question to align with findings, and synthesizing information from multiple reliable and valid sources. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: While the benchmark does require that students consult multiple sources, there is no requirement that they use every source they consult. Part of the skill in researching is discernment—being able to tell which information is relevant and which sources are trustworthy enough to include.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.5.1:	Create digital presentations to improve understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: The presentation may be delivered live or delivered as a stand-alone digital experience.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.5.2:	Use online collaborative platforms to create and export publication-ready quality writing tailored to a specific audience, integrating multimedia elements.            Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.10.R.1.1:	Clarification 2: For layers of meaning, any methodology or model may be used as long as students understand that text may have multiple layers and that authors use techniques to achieve those layers. A very workable model for looking at layers of meaning is that of I.A. Richards:  Layer 1) the literal level, what the words actually mean  Layer 2) mood, those feelings that are evoked in the reader  Layer 3) tone, the author’s attitude  Layer 4) author’s purpose (interpretation of author’s purpose as it is often inferred). Clarification 3: Style is the way in which the writer uses techniques for effect. It is distinct from meaning but can be used to make the author’s message more effective. The components of style are diction, syntax, grammar, and use of figurative language. Style helps to create the author’s voice. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.1.2:	Analyze and compare universal themes and their development throughout a literary text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: A universal theme is an idea that applies to anyone, anywhere, regardless of cultural differences. Examples include but are not limited to an individual’s or a community’s confrontation with nature; an individual’s struggle toward understanding, awareness, and/or spiritual enlightenment; the tension between the ideal and the real; the conflict between human beings and advancements in technology/science; the impact of the past on the present; the inevitability of fate; the struggle for equality; and the loss of innocence. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.1.3:	Analyze coming of age experiences reflected in a text and how the author represents conflicting perspectives. Clarifications: Clarification 1: For more information, see Literary Periods. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.1.4:	Analyze how authors create multiple layers of meaning and/or ambiguity in a poem. Clarifications: Clarification 1: For more information, see Literary Periods. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.2.1:	Analyze the impact of multiple text structures and the use of features in text(s). Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students will evaluate the use of the following structures: description, problem/solution, chronological, compare and contrast, cause and effect, and sequence. Clarification 2: Students will evaluate the use of the following features: table of contents, headings, captions, photographs, graphs, charts, illustrations, glossary, footnotes, annotations, and appendix. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.2.2:	Analyze the central idea(s) of historical American speeches and essays. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.2.3:	Analyze an author’s choices in establishing and achieving purpose(s) in historical American speeches and essays. Clarifications: Clarification 1: In this grade level, students are using and responsible for the appeals of logos, ethos, and pathos. Clarification 2: See Rhetorical Appeals and Rhetorical Devices. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.2.4:	Compare the development of two opposing arguments on the same topic, evaluating the effectiveness and validity of the claims, and analyzing the ways in which the authors use the same information to achieve different ends. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Validity refers to the soundness of the arguments. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.3.1:	Analyze how figurative language creates mood in text(s). Clarifications: Clarification 1: Figurative language use that students will analyze are metaphor, simile, alliteration, onomatopoeia, personification, hyperbole, meiosis (understatement), allusion, and idiom. Other examples can be used in instruction. Clarification 2: See Secondary Figurative Language. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.3.2:	Paraphrase content from grade-level texts. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.3.3:	Analyze how mythical, classical, or religious texts have been adapted. Clarifications: Clarification 1: The classical source texts for this benchmark should be from ancient Greece or Rome’s Classical period (1200 BCE–455 CE). Mythical texts for this benchmark can be from any civilization’s early history. Religious texts for this benchmark include works such as the Bible. Standard Relation to Course: Major

students are using and responsible for the appeals of logos, ethos, and pathos.

ELA.10.R.3.4:

Clarification 2: Rhetorical devices for the purposes of this benchmark are the figurative language devices from 10.R.3.1 with the addition of irony, rhetorical question, antithesis, zeugma, metonymy, synecdoche, and asyndeton.

Clarification 3: See Secondary Figurative Language.

Clarification 4: See Rhetorical Appeals and Rhetorical Devices.

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this course is to enable students, using texts of high complexity, to develop knowledge of American literature through advanced integrated educational experiences. Emphasis will be on representative American literature, highlighting the major genres, themes, subjects, and historical influences associated with each literary period, including pertinent foundational documents in United States history.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Arts is not a discrete set of skills, but a rich discipline with meaningful, significant content, the knowledge of which helps all students actively and fully participate in our society. Standards should not stand alone as a separate focus for instruction, but should be combined purposefully.

The content should include, but not be limited to, the following:

- active reading of texts of varied American literary texts for what they say explicitly, as well as the logical inferences that can be drawn
- analysis of literature and informational texts from varied literary periods to examine:
  - elements of literature
  - arguments and claims supported by textual evidence
  - power and impact of language
  - influence of history, culture, and setting on language
  - personal critical and aesthetic response
- writing for varied purposes
  - developing and supporting argumentative claims
  - crafting coherent, supported expository texts
  - responding to literature for personal and analytical purposes
- collaboration amongst peers

Honors and Advanced Level Course Note: Advanced courses require a greater demand on students through increased academic rigor. Academic rigor is obtained through the application, analysis, evaluation, and creation of complex ideas that are often abstract and multi-faceted. Students are challenged to think and collaborate critically on the content they are learning. Honors level rigor will be achieved by increasing text complexity through text selection, focus on high-level qualitative measures, and complexity of task. Instruction will be structured to give students a deeper understanding of conceptual themes and organization within and across disciplines. Academic rigor is more than simply assigning to students a greater quantity of work.

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. LAFS.1112.L.2.3:	Apply knowledge of language to understand how language functions in different contexts, to make effective choices for meaning or style, and to comprehend more fully when reading or listening. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Vary syntax for effect, consulting references (e.g., Tufte's Artful Sentences) for guidance as needed; apply an understanding of syntax to the study of complex texts when reading.</li> </ol>
LAFS.1112.L.3.4:	Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grades 11–12 reading and content , choosing flexibly from a range of strategies. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Use context (e.g., the overall meaning of a sentence, paragraph, or text; a word's position or function in a sentence) as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase.</li> <li>Identify and correctly use patterns of word changes that indicate different meanings or parts of speech (e.g., conceive, conception, conceivable).</li> <li>Consult general and specialized reference materials (e.g., dictionaries, glossaries, thesauruses), both print and digital, to find the pronunciation of a word or determine or clarify its precise meaning, its part of speech, its etymology, or its standard usage.</li> <li>Verify the preliminary determination of the meaning of a word or phrase (e.g., by checking the inferred meaning in context or in a dictionary).</li> </ol>
LAFS.1112.L.3.5:	Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Interpret figures of speech (e.g., hyperbole, paradox) in context and analyze their role in the text.</li> <li>Analyze nuances in the meaning of words with similar denotations.</li> </ol>
LAFS.1112.L.3.6:	Acquire and use accurately general academic and domain-specific words and phrases, sufficient for reading, writing, speaking, and listening at the college and career readiness level; demonstrate independence in gathering vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression.
LAFS.1112.RI.1.1:	Cite strong and thorough textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text, including determining where the text leaves matters uncertain.
LAFS.1112.RI.1.2:	Determine two or more central ideas of a text and analyze their development over the course of the text, including how they interact and build on one another to provide a complex analysis; provide an objective summary of the text.
LAFS.1112.RI.1.3:	Analyze a complex set of ideas or sequence of events and explain how specific individuals, ideas, or events interact and develop over the course of the text.
LAFS.1112.RI.2.4:	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative, connotative, and technical meanings; analyze how an author uses and refines the meaning of a key term or terms over the course of a text (e.g., how Madison defines faction in Federalist No. 10 ).
LAFS.1112.RI.2.5:	Analyze and evaluate the effectiveness of the structure an author uses in his or her exposition or argument, including whether the structure makes points clear, convincing, and engaging.
LAFS.1112.RI.2.6:	Determine an author's point of view or purpose in a text in which the rhetoric is particularly effective, analyzing how style and content contribute to the power, persuasiveness or beauty of the text.
LAFS.1112.RI.3.7:	Integrate and evaluate multiple sources of information presented in different media or formats (e.g., visually, quantitatively) as well as in words in order to address a question or solve a problem.
LAFS.1112.RI.3.8:	Delineate and evaluate the reasoning in seminal U.S. texts, including the application of constitutional principles and use of legal reasoning (e.g., in U.S. Supreme Court majority opinions and dissents) and the premises, purposes, and arguments in works of public advocacy (e.g., The Federalist , presidential addresses).
LAFS.1112.RI.3.9:	Analyze seventeenth-, eighteenth-, and nineteenth-century foundational U.S. documents of historical and literary significance (including The Declaration of Independence , the Preamble to the Constitution, the Bill of Rights, and Lincoln's Second Inaugural Address) for their themes, purposes, and rhetorical features.

LAFS.1112.RL.4.10:	By the end of grade 11, read and comprehend literary nonfiction in the grades 11–CCR text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range. By the end of grade 12, read and comprehend literary nonfiction at the high end of the grades 11–CCR text complexity band independently and proficiently.
LAFS.1112.RL.1.1:	Cite strong and thorough textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text, including determining where the text leaves matters uncertain.
LAFS.1112.RL.1.2:	Determine two or more themes or central ideas of a text and analyze their development over the course of the text, including how they interact and build on one another to produce a complex account; provide an objective summary of the text.
LAFS.1112.RL.1.3:	Analyze the impact of the author’s choices regarding how to develop and relate elements of a story or drama (e.g., where a story is set, how the action is ordered, how the characters are introduced and developed).
LAFS.1112.RL.2.4:	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in the text, including figurative and connotative meanings; analyze the impact of specific word choices on meaning and tone, including words with multiple meanings or language that is particularly fresh, engaging, or beautiful. (Include Shakespeare as well as other authors.)
LAFS.1112.RL.2.5:	Analyze how an author’s choices concerning how to structure specific parts of a text (e.g., the choice of where to begin or end a story, the choice to provide a comedic or tragic resolution) contribute to its overall structure and meaning as well as its aesthetic impact.
LAFS.1112.RL.2.6:	Analyze a case in which grasping a point of view requires distinguishing what is directly stated in a text from what is really meant (e.g., satire, sarcasm, irony, or understatement).
LAFS.1112.RL.3.7:	Analyze multiple interpretations of a story, drama, or poem (e.g., recorded or live production of a play or recorded novel or poetry), evaluating how each version interprets the source text. (Include at least one play by Shakespeare and one play by an American dramatist.)
LAFS.1112.RL.3.9:	Demonstrate knowledge of eighteenth-, nineteenth- and early-twentieth-century foundational works of American literature, including how two or more texts from the same period treat similar themes or topics.
LAFS.1112.RL.4.10:	By the end of grade 11, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poems, in the grades 11–CCR text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range. By the end of grade 12, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poems, at the high end of the grades 11–CCR text complexity band independently and proficiently.
LAFS.1112.SL.1.1:	Initiate and participate effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with diverse partners on grades 11–12 topics, texts, and issues, building on others’ ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Come to discussions prepared, having read and researched material under study; explicitly draw on that preparation by referring to evidence from texts and other research on the topic or issue to stimulate a thoughtful, well-reasoned exchange of ideas.</li> <li>b. Work with peers to promote civil, democratic discussions and decision-making, set clear goals and deadlines, and establish individual roles as needed.</li> <li>c. Propel conversations by posing and responding to questions that probe reasoning and evidence; ensure a hearing for a full range of positions on a topic or issue; clarify, verify, or challenge ideas and conclusions; and promote divergent and creative perspectives.</li> <li>d. Respond thoughtfully to diverse perspectives; synthesize comments, claims, and evidence made on all sides of an issue; resolve contradictions when possible; and determine what additional information or research is required to deepen the investigation or complete the task.</li> </ul>
LAFS.1112.SL.1.2:	Integrate multiple sources of information presented in diverse formats and media (e.g., visually, quantitatively, orally) in order to make informed decisions and solve problems, evaluating the credibility and accuracy of each source and noting any discrepancies among the data.
LAFS.1112.SL.1.3:	Evaluate a speaker’s point of view, reasoning, and use of evidence and rhetoric, assessing the stance, premises, links among ideas, word choice, points of emphasis, and tone used.
LAFS.1112.SL.2.4:	Present information, findings, and supporting evidence, conveying a clear and distinct perspective, such that listeners can follow the line of reasoning, alternative or opposing perspectives are addressed, and the organization, development, substance, and style are appropriate to purpose, audience, and a range of formal and informal tasks.
LAFS.1112.SL.2.5:	Make strategic use of digital media (e.g., textual, graphical, audio, visual, and interactive elements) in presentations to enhance understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence and to add interest.
LAFS.1112.SL.2.6:	Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating a command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.
LAFS.1112.W.1.1:	Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts, using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Introduce precise, knowledgeable claim(s), establish the significance of the claim(s), distinguish the claim(s) from alternate or opposing claims, and create an organization that logically sequences claim(s), counterclaims, reasons, and evidence.</li> <li>b. Develop claim(s) and counterclaims fairly and thoroughly, supplying the most relevant evidence for each while pointing out the strengths and limitations of both in a manner that anticipates the audience’s knowledge level, concerns, values, and possible biases.</li> <li>c. Use words, phrases, and clauses as well as varied syntax to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships between claim(s) and reasons, between reasons and evidence, and between claim(s) and counterclaims.</li> </ul>

LAFS.1112.W.1.2:	Write informative/explanatory texts to examine and convey complex ideas, concepts, and information clearly and accurately through the effective selection, organization, and analysis of content. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Introduce a topic; organize complex ideas, concepts, and information so that each new element builds on that which precedes it to create a unified whole; include formatting (e.g., headings), graphics (e.g., figures, tables), and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension.</li> <li>b. Develop the topic thoroughly by selecting the most significant and relevant facts, extended definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples appropriate to the audience's knowledge of the topic.</li> <li>c. Use appropriate and varied transitions and syntax to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships among complex ideas and concepts.</li> <li>d. Use precise language, domain-specific vocabulary, and techniques such as metaphor, simile, and analogy to manage the complexity of the topic.</li> <li>e. Establish and maintain a formal style and objective tone while attending to the norms and conventions of the discipline in which they are writing.</li> <li>f. Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the information or explanation presented (e.g., articulating implications or the significance of the topic).</li> </ul>
LAFS.1112.W.1.3:	Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, well-chosen details, and well-structured event sequences. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Engage and orient the reader by setting out a problem, situation, or observation and its significance, establishing one or multiple point(s) of view, and introducing a narrator and/or characters; create a smooth progression of experiences or events.</li> <li>b. Use narrative techniques, such as dialogue, pacing, description, reflection, and multiple plot lines, to develop experiences, events, and/or characters.</li> <li>c. Use a variety of techniques to sequence events so that they build on one another to create a coherent whole and build toward a particular tone and outcome (e.g., a sense of mystery, suspense, growth, or resolution).</li> <li>d. Use precise words and phrases, telling details, and sensory language to convey a vivid picture of the experiences, events, setting, and/or characters.</li> <li>e. Provide a conclusion that follows from and reflects on what is experienced, observed, or resolved over the course of the narrative.</li> </ul>
LAFS.1112.W.2.4:	Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in standards 1–3 above.)
LAFS.1112.W.2.5:	Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on addressing what is most significant for a specific purpose and audience.
LAFS.1112.W.2.6:	Use technology, including the Internet, to produce, publish, and update individual or shared writing products in response to ongoing feedback, including new arguments or information.
LAFS.1112.W.3.7:	Conduct short as well as more sustained research projects to answer a question (including a self-generated question) or solve a problem; narrow or broaden the inquiry when appropriate; synthesize multiple sources on the subject, demonstrating understanding of the subject under investigation.
LAFS.1112.W.3.8:	Gather relevant information from multiple authoritative print and digital sources, using advanced searches effectively; assess the strengths and limitations of each source in terms of the task, purpose, and audience; integrate information into the text selectively to maintain the flow of ideas, avoiding plagiarism and overreliance on any one source and following a standard format for citation.
LAFS.1112.W.3.9:	Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Apply grades 11–12 Reading standards to literature (e.g., “Demonstrate knowledge of eighteenth-, nineteenth- and early-twentieth-century foundational works of American literature, including how two or more texts from the same period treat similar themes or topics”).</li> <li>b. Apply grades 11–12 Reading standards to literary nonfiction (e.g., “Delineate and evaluate the reasoning in seminal U.S. texts, including the application of constitutional principles and use of legal reasoning [e.g., in U.S. Supreme Court Case majority opinions and dissents] and the premises, purposes, and arguments in works of public advocacy [e.g., The Federalist, presidential addresses]”).</li> </ul>
LAFS.1112.W.4.10:	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences.
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.
SS.912.C.2.8:	Analyze the impact of citizen participation as a means of achieving political and social change. Clarifications: Examples are e-mail campaigns, boycotts, blogs, podcasts, protests, demonstrations, letters to editors.
SS.912.C.3.13:	Illustrate examples of how government affects the daily lives of citizens at the local, state, and national levels. Clarifications: Examples are education, transportation, crime prevention, funding of services.

Clarifications:

Some examples may include binge drinking, eating disorders, sexual relationships, healthy relationships, sexual abstinence/risk reduction behaviors.

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this course is to enable students, using texts of high complexity, to develop knowledge of classical literature through advanced integrated educational experiences of reading, writing, speaking and listening, and language. Emphasis will be on representative classical literature, with its varied cultural influences, highlighting the major genres, themes, issues, and influences associated with the literary period.

Honors and Advanced Level Course Note: Advanced courses require a greater demand on students through increased academic rigor. Academic rigor is obtained through the application, analysis, evaluation, and creation of complex ideas that are often abstract and multi-faceted. Students are challenged to think and collaborate critically on the content they are learning. Honors level rigor will be achieved by increasing text complexity through text selection, focus on high-level qualitative measures, and complexity of task. Instruction will be structured to give students a deeper understanding of conceptual themes and organization within and across disciplines. Academic rigor is more than simply assigning to students a greater quantity of work.

GENERAL NOTES

The content should include, but not be limited to, the following:

- active reading of texts of high literary merit for what they say explicitly, as well as the logical inferences that can be drawn
- analysis of literature and informational texts from varied literary periods to examine:
  - text craft and structure
  - elements of literature
  - arguments, themes, and claims supported by textual evidence
  - power and impact of language
  - influence of history, culture, and setting on language
  - personal critical and aesthetic response
- writing for varied purposes
  - developing and supporting argumentative claims
  - crafting coherent, supported informative/expository texts
  - responding to literature for personal and analytical purposes
  - writing narratives to develop real or imagined events
  - writing to sources (short and longer research) using text based claims and evidence
- effective listening, speaking, and viewing strategies with emphasis on the use of evidence to support or refute a claim in multimedia presentations, class discussions, and extended text discussions
- collaboration amongst peers

Special Notes:

Instructional Practices: Teaching from well-written, grade-level instructional materials enhances students' content area knowledge and also strengthens their ability to comprehend longer, complex reading passages on any topic for any purpose. Using the following instructional practices also helps student learning.

1. Reading assignments from longer text passages, as well as shorter ones when text is extremely complex.
2. Making close reading and rereading of texts central to lessons.
3. Asking high-level, text-specific questions and requiring high-level, complex tasks and assignments.
4. Requiring students to support answers with evidence from the text.
5. Providing extensive text-based research and writing opportunities (claims and evidence).

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. ## Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.11.C.1.2:	Write complex narratives using appropriate techniques to establish multiple perspectives. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Narrative Techniques.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.1.3:	Write literary analyses to support claims, using logical reasoning, credible evidence from sources, and elaboration, demonstrating an understanding of literary elements. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques.  Clarification 2: Appropriate tone is expected to continue from 9th and 10th. Use narrative techniques to strengthen argument writing where appropriate.  Clarification 3: These written works will take longer and are meant to reflect thorough research and analysis.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.1.4:	Write an analysis of complex texts using logical organization and a tone and voice appropriate to the task and audience, demonstrating an understanding of the subject. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.2.1:	Present information orally, with a logical organization, coherent focus, and credible evidence, while employing effective rhetorical devices where appropriate. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: At this grade level, the emphasis is on the content, but students are still expected to follow earlier expectations: appropriate volume, pronunciation, and pacing. This benchmark introduces rhetorical devices to the benchmark, building on what students have learned in R.3.2 and giving them a chance to apply it.  Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Secondary Oral Communication Rubric.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use knowledge of usage rules to create flow in writing and presenting.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.4.1:	Conduct literary research to answer a question, refining the scope of the question to align with interpretations of texts, and synthesizing information from primary and secondary sources. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: While the benchmark does require that students consult multiple sources, there is no requirement that they use every source they consult. Part of the skill in researching is discernment—being able to tell which information is relevant and which sources are trustworthy enough to include.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.5.1:	Create digital presentations to improve the experience of the audience. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: At this grade level, students are using multiple elements. The presentation may be delivered live or delivered as a stand-alone digital experience. The elements should be of different types. The elements should relate directly to the presentation and be incorporated in a way that engages the audience.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.5.2:	Create and export quality writing tailored to a specific audience, integrating multimedia elements, publishing to an online or LAN site.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.1.1:	Evaluate how key elements enhance or add layers of meaning and/or style in a literary text. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Key elements of a literary text are setting, plot, characterization, conflict, point of view, theme, and tone.  Clarification 2: For layers of meaning, any methodology or model may be used as long as students understand that text may have multiple layers and that authors use techniques to achieve those layers. A very workable model for looking at layers of meaning is that of I. A. Richards: Layer 1) the literal level, what the words actually mean            Layer 2) mood, those feelings that are evoked in the reader            Layer 3) tone, the author’s attitude

Layer 4) author's purpose (interpretation of author's purpose as it is often inferred)

Clarification 3: Style is the way in which the writer uses techniques for effect. It is distinct from meaning but can be used to make the author's message more effective. The components of style are diction, syntax, grammar, and use of figurative language. Style helps to create the author's voice.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Track and analyze universal themes in literary texts from different times and places.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: A universal theme is an idea that applies to anyone, anywhere, regardless of cultural differences. Examples include but are not limited to an individual's or a community's confrontation with nature; an individual's struggle toward understanding, awareness, and/or spiritual enlightenment; the tension between the ideal and the real; the conflict between human beings and advancements in technology/science; the impact of the past on the present; the inevitability of fate; the struggle for equality; and the loss of innocence.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.11.R.1.2:

Analyze the author's choices in using juxtaposition to define character perspective.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Juxtaposition is the technique of putting two or more elements side by side to invite comparison or contrast.

Clarification 2: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something."

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Analyze ways in which poetry reflects themes and issues of its time period.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Poetry for this benchmark should be selected from one of the following literary periods.

- Classical Period (1200 BCE–455 CE)
- Medieval Period (455 CE–1485 CE)
- Renaissance Period (130–1600)
- Restoration and 18th Century (1660–1790) British Literature
- Colonial and Early National Period (1600–1830) American Literature
- Romantic Period (1790–1870)
- Realism and Naturalism Period (1870–1930)
- Modernist Period (1910–1945)
- Contemporary Period (1945–present)

Clarification 2: For more information, see Literary Periods.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.11.R.1.4:

Evaluate the structure(s) and features in texts.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Students will evaluate the use of the following structures: description, problem/solution, chronological, compare and contrast, cause and effect, and sequence.

Clarification 2: Students will evaluate the use of the following features: table of contents, headings, captions, photographs, graphs, charts, illustrations, glossary, footnotes, annotations, and appendix.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.11.R.2.1:

Analyze the central idea(s) of speeches and essays from the Classical Period.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: See Rhetorical Appeals and Rhetorical Devices.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.11.R.2.2:

Analyze an author's choices in establishing and achieving purpose(s) in speeches and essays from the Classical Period.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.11.R.2.3:

Compare the development of multiple arguments on the same topic, evaluating the effectiveness and validity of the claims, the authors' reasoning, and the ways in which the authors use the same information to achieve different ends.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Validity refers to the soundness of the arguments.

Clarification 2: For more information on types of reasoning, see Types of Logical Reasoning.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.11.R.2.4:

Analyze the author's use of figurative language and explain examples of allegory.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Examples of allegory should be taken from the following periods:

- Classical Period (1200 BCE–455 CE)
- Medieval Period (455 CE–1485 CE)
- Renaissance Period (1300–1600)
- Restoration and 18th Century (1660–1790) British Literature
- Colonial and Early National Period (1600–1830) American Literature
- Romantic Period (1790–1870)
- Realism and Naturalism Period (1870–1930)
- Modernist Period (1910–1945)

Clarification 2: Figurative language use that students will analyze are metaphor, simile, alliteration, onomatopoeia,

ELA.11.R.3.1:

personification, hyperbole, meiosis (understatement), allusion, and idiom. Other examples can be used in instruction.

Clarification 3: See Secondary Figurative Language.

SS.912.C.3.13:	Illustrate examples of how government affects the daily lives of citizens at the local, state, and national levels. Clarifications: Examples are education, transportation, crime prevention, funding of services. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this course is to enable students, using texts of high complexity, to develop knowledge of classical literature through advanced integrated educational experiences of reading, writing, collaboration, and language. Emphasis will be on representative classical literature, with its varied cultural influences, highlighting the major genres, themes, issues, and influences associated with the literary period.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Arts is not a discrete set of skills, but a rich discipline with meaningful, significant content, the knowledge of which helps all students actively and fully participate in our society. Standards should not stand alone as a separate focus for instruction, but should be combined purposefully.

The content should include, but not be limited to, the following:

- active reading of texts of high literary merit for what they say explicitly, as well as the logical inferences that can be drawn
- analysis of literature and informational texts from varied literary periods to examine:

- elements of literature
- arguments and claims supported by textual evidence
- power and impact of language
- influence of history, culture, and setting on language
- personal critical and aesthetic response
- writing for varied purposes
  - developing and supporting argumentative claims
  - crafting coherent, supported expository texts
  - responding to literature for personal and analytical purposes
  - writing narratives to develop real or imagined events
- collaboration amongst peers

Honors and Advanced Level Course Note: Advanced courses require a greater demand on students through increased academic rigor. Academic rigor is obtained through the application, analysis, evaluation, and creation of complex ideas that are often abstract and multi-faceted. Students are challenged to think and collaborate critically on the content they are learning. Honors level rigor will be achieved by increasing text complexity through text selection, focus on high-level qualitative measures, and complexity of task. Instruction will be structured to give students a deeper understanding of conceptual themes and organization within and across disciplines. Academic rigor is more than simply assigning to students a greater quantity of work.

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL’s need for communication and social skills. To access an ELL supporting document which delineates performance definitions and descriptors, please click on the following link:

VERSION REQUIREMENTS

One-third of the Sample Book and Civics lists, or selections by the authors represented on the list(s), should be included in instructional materials, augmented with selections of similar quality that will reinforce the concepts, vocabulary and skills.

Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.11.C.1.2:	Write complex narratives using appropriate techniques to establish multiple perspectives. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Narrative Techniques. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.1.3:	Write literary analyses to support claims, using logical reasoning, credible evidence from sources, and elaboration, demonstrating an understanding of literary elements. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques. Clarification 2: Appropriate tone is expected to continue from 9th and 10th. Use narrative techniques to strengthen argument writing where appropriate. Clarification 3: These written works will take longer and are meant to reflect thorough research and analysis. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.1.4:	Write an analysis of complex texts using logical organization and a tone and voice appropriate to the task and audience, demonstrating an understanding of the subject. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.2.1:	Present information orally, with a logical organization, coherent focus, and credible evidence, while employing effective rhetorical devices where appropriate. Clarifications: Clarification 1: At this grade level, the emphasis is on the content, but students are still expected to follow earlier expectations: appropriate volume, pronunciation, and pacing. This benchmark introduces rhetorical devices to the benchmark, building on what students have learned in R.3.2 and giving them a chance to apply it. Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Secondary Oral Communication Rubric. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use knowledge of usage rules to create flow in writing and presenting.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.4.1:	Conduct literary research to answer a question, refining the scope of the question to align with interpretations of texts, and synthesizing information from primary and secondary sources. Clarifications: Clarification 1: While the benchmark does require that students consult multiple sources, there is no requirement that they use every source they consult. Part of the skill in researching is discernment—being able to tell which information is relevant and which sources are trustworthy enough to include. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.5.1:	Create digital presentations to improve the experience of the audience. Clarifications: Clarification 1: At this grade level, students are using multiple elements. The presentation may be delivered live or delivered as a stand-alone digital experience. The elements should be of different types. The elements should relate directly to the presentation and be incorporated in a way that engages the audience. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.5.2:	Create and export quality writing tailored to a specific audience, integrating multimedia elements, publishing to an online or LAN site. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.1.1:	Evaluate how key elements enhance or add layers of meaning and/or style in a literary text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Key elements of a literary text are setting, plot, characterization, conflict, point of view, theme, and tone. Clarification 2: For layers of meaning, any methodology or model may be used as long as students understand that text may have multiple layers and that authors use techniques to achieve those layers. A very workable model for looking at layers of meaning is that of I. A. Richards: Layer 1) the literal level, what the words actually mean Layer 2) mood, those feelings that are evoked in the reader Layer 3) tone, the author’s attitude

Clarification 3: Style is the way in which the writer uses techniques for effect. It is distinct from meaning but can be used to make the author's message more effective. The components of style are diction, syntax, grammar, and use of figurative language. Style helps to create the author's voice.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Track and analyze universal themes in literary texts from different times and places.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: A universal theme is an idea that applies to anyone, anywhere, regardless of cultural differences. Examples include but are not limited to an individual's or a community's confrontation with nature; an individual's struggle toward understanding, awareness, and/or spiritual enlightenment; the tension between the ideal and the real; the conflict between human beings and advancements in technology/science; the impact of the past on the present; the inevitability of fate; the struggle for equality; and the loss of innocence.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.11.R.1.2:

Analyze the author's choices in using juxtaposition to define character perspective.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Juxtaposition is the technique of putting two or more elements side by side to invite comparison or contrast.

Clarification 2: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something."

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Analyze ways in which poetry reflects themes and issues of its time period.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Poetry for this benchmark should be selected from one of the following literary periods.

- Classical Period (1200 BCE–455 CE)
- Medieval Period (455 CE–1485 CE)
- Renaissance Period (130–1600)
- Restoration and 18th Century (1660–1790) British Literature
- Colonial and Early National Period (1600–1830) American Literature
- Romantic Period (1790–1870)
- Realism and Naturalism Period (1870–1930)
- Modernist Period (1910–1945)
- Contemporary Period (1945–present)

Clarification 2: For more information, see Literary Periods.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.11.R.1.4:

Evaluate the structure(s) and features in texts.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Students will evaluate the use of the following structures: description, problem/solution, chronological, compare and contrast, cause and effect, and sequence.

Clarification 2: Students will evaluate the use of the following features: table of contents, headings, captions, photographs, graphs, charts, illustrations, glossary, footnotes, annotations, and appendix.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.11.R.2.1:

Analyze the central idea(s) of speeches and essays from the Classical Period.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: See Rhetorical Appeals and Rhetorical Devices.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.11.R.2.2:

Analyze an author's choices in establishing and achieving purpose(s) in speeches and essays from the Classical Period.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.11.R.2.3:

Compare the development of multiple arguments on the same topic, evaluating the effectiveness and validity of the claims, the authors' reasoning, and the ways in which the authors use the same information to achieve different ends.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Validity refers to the soundness of the arguments.

Clarification 2: For more information on types of reasoning, see Types of Logical Reasoning.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.11.R.2.4:

Analyze the author's use of figurative language and explain examples of allegory.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Examples of allegory should be taken from the following periods:

- Classical Period (1200 BCE–455 CE)
- Medieval Period (455 CE–1485 CE)
- Renaissance Period (1300–1600)
- Restoration and 18th Century (1660–1790) British Literature
- Colonial and Early National Period (1600–1830) American Literature
- Romantic Period (1790–1870)
- Realism and Naturalism Period (1870–1930)
- Modernist Period (1910–1945)

Clarification 2: Figurative language use that students will analyze are metaphor, simile, alliteration, onomatopoeia,

ELA.11.R.3.1:

personification, hyperbole, meiosis (understatement), allusion, and idiom. Other examples can be used in instruction.

Clarification 3: See Secondary Figurative Language.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.11.R.3.2:	Paraphrase content from grade-level texts. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark. Standard Relation to Course: Major

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. To access an ELL supporting document which delineates performance definitions and descriptors, please click on the following link:

LAFS.1112.L.3.4:	Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grades 11–12 reading and content , choosing flexibly from a range of strategies. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Use context (e.g., the overall meaning of a sentence, paragraph, or text; a word's position or function in a sentence) as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase.</li> <li>Identify and correctly use patterns of word changes that indicate different meanings or parts of speech (e.g., conceive, conception, conceivable).</li> <li>Consult general and specialized reference materials (e.g., dictionaries, glossaries, thesauruses), both print and digital, to find the pronunciation of a word or determine or clarify its precise meaning, its part of speech, its etymology, or its standard usage.</li> <li>Verify the preliminary determination of the meaning of a word or phrase (e.g., by checking the inferred meaning in context or in a dictionary).</li> </ol>
LAFS.1112.L.3.5:	Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Interpret figures of speech (e.g., hyperbole, paradox) in context and analyze their role in the text.</li> <li>Analyze nuances in the meaning of words with similar denotations.</li> </ol>
LAFS.1112.L.3.6:	Acquire and use accurately general academic and domain-specific words and phrases, sufficient for reading, writing, speaking, and listening at the college and career readiness level; demonstrate independence in gathering vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression.
LAFS.1112.RI.1.1:	Cite strong and thorough textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text, including determining where the text leaves matters uncertain.
LAFS.1112.RI.1.2:	Determine two or more central ideas of a text and analyze their development over the course of the text, including how they interact and build on one another to provide a complex analysis; provide an objective summary of the text.
LAFS.1112.RI.1.3:	Analyze a complex set of ideas or sequence of events and explain how specific individuals, ideas, or events interact and develop over the course of the text.
LAFS.1112.RI.2.4:	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative, connotative, and technical meanings; analyze how an author uses and refines the meaning of a key term or terms over the course of a text (e.g., how Madison defines faction in Federalist No. 10 ).
LAFS.1112.RI.2.5:	Analyze and evaluate the effectiveness of the structure an author uses in his or her exposition or argument, including whether the structure makes points clear, convincing, and engaging.
LAFS.1112.RI.2.6:	Determine an author's point of view or purpose in a text in which the rhetoric is particularly effective, analyzing how style and content contribute to the power, persuasiveness or beauty of the text.
LAFS.1112.RI.3.7:	Integrate and evaluate multiple sources of information presented in different media or formats (e.g., visually, quantitatively) as well as in words in order to address a question or solve a problem.
LAFS.1112.RI.3.8:	Delineate and evaluate the reasoning in seminal U.S. texts, including the application of constitutional principles and use of legal reasoning (e.g., in U.S. Supreme Court majority opinions and dissents) and the premises, purposes, and arguments in works of public advocacy (e.g., The Federalist , presidential addresses).
LAFS.1112.RI.3.9:	Analyze seventeenth-, eighteenth-, and nineteenth-century foundational U.S. documents of historical and literary significance (including The Declaration of Independence , the Preamble to the Constitution, the Bill of Rights, and Lincoln's Second Inaugural Address) for their themes, purposes, and rhetorical features.

LAFS.1112.RL.4.10:	By the end of grade 11, read and comprehend literary nonfiction in the grades 11–CCR text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range. By the end of grade 12, read and comprehend literary nonfiction at the high end of the grades 11–CCR text complexity band independently and proficiently.
LAFS.1112.RL.1.1:	Cite strong and thorough textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text, including determining where the text leaves matters uncertain.
LAFS.1112.RL.1.2:	Determine two or more themes or central ideas of a text and analyze their development over the course of the text, including how they interact and build on one another to produce a complex account; provide an objective summary of the text.
LAFS.1112.RL.1.3:	Analyze the impact of the author’s choices regarding how to develop and relate elements of a story or drama (e.g., where a story is set, how the action is ordered, how the characters are introduced and developed).
LAFS.1112.RL.2.4:	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in the text, including figurative and connotative meanings; analyze the impact of specific word choices on meaning and tone, including words with multiple meanings or language that is particularly fresh, engaging, or beautiful. (Include Shakespeare as well as other authors.)
LAFS.1112.RL.2.5:	Analyze how an author’s choices concerning how to structure specific parts of a text (e.g., the choice of where to begin or end a story, the choice to provide a comedic or tragic resolution) contribute to its overall structure and meaning as well as its aesthetic impact.
LAFS.1112.RL.2.6:	Analyze a case in which grasping a point of view requires distinguishing what is directly stated in a text from what is really meant (e.g., satire, sarcasm, irony, or understatement).
LAFS.1112.RL.3.7:	Analyze multiple interpretations of a story, drama, or poem (e.g., recorded or live production of a play or recorded novel or poetry), evaluating how each version interprets the source text. (Include at least one play by Shakespeare and one play by an American dramatist.)
LAFS.1112.RL.3.9:	Demonstrate knowledge of eighteenth-, nineteenth- and early-twentieth-century foundational works of American literature, including how two or more texts from the same period treat similar themes or topics.
LAFS.1112.RL.4.10:	By the end of grade 11, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poems, in the grades 11–CCR text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range.  By the end of grade 12, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poems, at the high end of the grades 11–CCR text complexity band independently and proficiently.
LAFS.1112.SL.1.1:	Initiate and participate effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with diverse partners on grades 11–12 topics, texts, and issues, building on others’ ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Come to discussions prepared, having read and researched material under study; explicitly draw on that preparation by referring to evidence from texts and other research on the topic or issue to stimulate a thoughtful, well-reasoned exchange of ideas.</li> <li>b. Work with peers to promote civil, democratic discussions and decision-making, set clear goals and deadlines, and establish individual roles as needed.</li> <li>c. Propel conversations by posing and responding to questions that probe reasoning and evidence; ensure a hearing for a full range of positions on a topic or issue; clarify, verify, or challenge ideas and conclusions; and promote divergent and creative perspectives.</li> <li>d. Respond thoughtfully to diverse perspectives; synthesize comments, claims, and evidence made on all sides of an issue; resolve contradictions when possible; and determine what additional information or research is required to deepen the investigation or complete the task.</li> </ul>
LAFS.1112.SL.1.2:	Integrate multiple sources of information presented in diverse formats and media (e.g., visually, quantitatively, orally) in order to make informed decisions and solve problems, evaluating the credibility and accuracy of each source and noting any discrepancies among the data.
LAFS.1112.SL.1.3:	Evaluate a speaker’s point of view, reasoning, and use of evidence and rhetoric, assessing the stance, premises, links among ideas, word choice, points of emphasis, and tone used.
LAFS.1112.SL.2.4:	Present information, findings, and supporting evidence, conveying a clear and distinct perspective, such that listeners can follow the line of reasoning, alternative or opposing perspectives are addressed, and the organization, development, substance, and style are appropriate to purpose, audience, and a range of formal and informal tasks.
LAFS.1112.SL.2.5:	Make strategic use of digital media (e.g., textual, graphical, audio, visual, and interactive elements) in presentations to enhance understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence and to add interest.
LAFS.1112.SL.2.6:	Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating a command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.
LAFS.1112.W.1.1:	Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts, using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Introduce precise, knowledgeable claim(s), establish the significance of the claim(s), distinguish the claim(s) from alternate or opposing claims, and create an organization that logically sequences claim(s), counterclaims, reasons, and evidence.</li> <li>b. Develop claim(s) and counterclaims fairly and thoroughly, supplying the most relevant evidence for each while pointing out the strengths and limitations of both in a manner that anticipates the audience’s knowledge level, concerns, values, and possible biases.</li> <li>c. Use words, phrases, and clauses as well as varied syntax to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships between claim(s) and reasons, between reasons and evidence, and between claim(s) and counterclaims.</li> </ul>

	d. Establish and maintain a formal style and objective tone while attending to the norms and conventions of the discipline in which they are writing. e. Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the argument presented.
LAFS.1112.W.1.2:	Write informative/explanatory texts to examine and convey complex ideas, concepts, and information clearly and accurately through the effective selection, organization, and analysis of content. a. Introduce a topic; organize complex ideas, concepts, and information so that each new element builds on that which precedes it to create a unified whole; include formatting (e.g., headings), graphics (e.g., figures, tables), and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension. b. Develop the topic thoroughly by selecting the most significant and relevant facts, extended definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples appropriate to the audience's knowledge of the topic. c. Use appropriate and varied transitions and syntax to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships among complex ideas and concepts. d. Use precise language, domain-specific vocabulary, and techniques such as metaphor, simile, and analogy to manage the complexity of the topic. e. Establish and maintain a formal style and objective tone while attending to the norms and conventions of the discipline in which they are writing. f. Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the information or explanation presented (e.g., articulating implications or the significance of the topic).
LAFS.1112.W.1.3:	Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, well-chosen details, and well-structured event sequences. a. Engage and orient the reader by setting out a problem, situation, or observation and its significance, establishing one or multiple point(s) of view, and introducing a narrator and/or characters; create a smooth progression of experiences or events. b. Use narrative techniques, such as dialogue, pacing, description, reflection, and multiple plot lines, to develop experiences, events, and/or characters. c. Use a variety of techniques to sequence events so that they build on one another to create a coherent whole and build toward a particular tone and outcome (e.g., a sense of mystery, suspense, growth, or resolution). d. Use precise words and phrases, telling details, and sensory language to convey a vivid picture of the experiences, events, setting, and/or characters. e. Provide a conclusion that follows from and reflects on what is experienced, observed, or resolved over the course of the narrative.
LAFS.1112.W.2.4:	Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in standards 1–3 above.)
LAFS.1112.W.2.5:	Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on addressing what is most significant for a specific purpose and audience.
LAFS.1112.W.2.6:	Use technology, including the Internet, to produce, publish, and update individual or shared writing products in response to ongoing feedback, including new arguments or information.
LAFS.1112.W.3.7:	Conduct short as well as more sustained research projects to answer a question (including a self-generated question) or solve a problem; narrow or broaden the inquiry when appropriate; synthesize multiple sources on the subject, demonstrating understanding of the subject under investigation.
LAFS.1112.W.3.8:	Gather relevant information from multiple authoritative print and digital sources, using advanced searches effectively; assess the strengths and limitations of each source in terms of the task, purpose, and audience; integrate information into the text selectively to maintain the flow of ideas, avoiding plagiarism and overreliance on any one source and following a standard format for citation.
LAFS.1112.W.3.9:	Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research. a. Apply grades 11–12 Reading standards to literature (e.g., “Demonstrate knowledge of eighteenth-, nineteenth- and early-twentieth-century foundational works of American literature, including how two or more texts from the same period treat similar themes or topics”). b. Apply grades 11–12 Reading standards to literary nonfiction (e.g., “Delineate and evaluate the reasoning in seminal U.S. texts, including the application of constitutional principles and use of legal reasoning [e.g., in U.S. Supreme Court Case majority opinions and dissents] and the premises, purposes, and arguments in works of public advocacy [e.g., The Federalist, presidential addresses]”).
LAFS.1112.W.4.10:	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences.
HE.912.B.4.1:	Explain skills needed to communicate effectively with family, peers, and others to enhance health. Clarifications: Using "I" messages, voice pitch/volume, eye contact, journal experiences, writing letters, persuasive speech, and assertive communication.
HE.912.B.4.4:	Analyze the validity of ways to ask for and offer assistance to enhance the health of self and others. Clarifications: Verbal and written communication, active listening, and how to seek help for a friend.
HE.912.C.1.2:	Interpret the significance of interrelationships in mental/emotional, physical, and social health. Clarifications: Substance abuse, eating disorders, sexual behaviors, healthy/unhealthy relationships, self-esteem, stress/anger

	management, and regular exercise.
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.
SS.912.C.2.8:	Analyze the impact of citizen participation as a means of achieving political and social change. Clarifications: Examples are e-mail campaigns, boycotts, blogs, podcasts, protests, demonstrations, letters to editors.
SS.912.C.3.13:	Illustrate examples of how government affects the daily lives of citizens at the local, state, and national levels. Clarifications: Examples are education, transportation, crime prevention, funding of services.

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this course is to enable students, using texts of high complexity, to develop knowledge of contemporary literature through advanced integrated educational experiences of reading, writing, speaking and listening, and language. Emphasis will be on representative contemporary literature, with its varied cultural influences, highlighting the major genres, themes, issues, and influences associated throughout the literary period.

Honors and Advanced Level Course Note: Advanced courses require a greater demand on students through increased academic rigor. Academic rigor is obtained through the application, analysis, evaluation, and creation of complex ideas that are often abstract and multi-faceted. Students are challenged to think and collaborate critically on the content they are learning. Honors level rigor will be achieved by increasing text complexity through text selection, focus on high-level qualitative measures, and complexity of task. Instruction will be structured to give students a deeper understanding of conceptual themes and organization within and across disciplines. Academic rigor is more than simply assigning to students a greater quantity of work.

GENERAL NOTES

The content should include, but not be limited to, the following:

- active reading of texts of high literary merit for what they say explicitly, as well as the logical inferences that can be drawn
- analysis of varied contemporary literature and informational texts to examine:
  - text craft and structure
  - elements of literature
  - arguments, themes, and claims supported by textual evidence
  - power and impact of language
  - influence of history, culture, and setting on language
  - personal critical and aesthetic response
- writing for varied purposes
  - developing and supporting argumentative claims
  - crafting coherent, supported informative/expository texts
  - responding to literature for personal and analytical purposes
  - writing narratives to develop real or imagined events
  - writing to sources (short and longer research) using text based claims and evidence
- effective listening, speaking, and viewing strategies with emphasis on the use of evidence to support or refute a claim in multimedia presentations, class discussions, and extended text discussions
- collaboration amongst peers

Special Notes:

Instructional Practices: Teaching from well-written, grade-level instructional materials enhances students' content area knowledge and also strengthens their ability to comprehend longer, complex reading passages on any topic for any purpose. Using the following instructional practices also helps student learning.

1. Reading assignments from longer text passages, as well as shorter ones when text is extremely complex.
2. Making close reading and rereading of texts central to lessons.
3. Asking high-level, text-specific questions and requiring high-level, complex tasks and assignments.
4. Requiring students to support answers with evidence from the text.
5. Providing extensive text-based research and writing opportunities (claims and evidence).

Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.11.C.1.2:	Write complex narratives using appropriate techniques to establish multiple perspectives. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Narrative Techniques.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.1.3:	Write literary analyses to support claims, using logical reasoning, credible evidence from sources, and elaboration, demonstrating an understanding of literary elements. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques.  Clarification 2: Appropriate tone is expected to continue from 9th and 10th. Use narrative techniques to strengthen argument writing where appropriate.  Clarification 3: These written works will take longer and are meant to reflect thorough research and analysis.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.1.4:	Write an analysis of complex texts using logical organization and a tone and voice appropriate to the task and audience, demonstrating an understanding of the subject. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.1.5:	Improve writing by considering feedback from adults, peers, and/or online editing tools, revising to improve clarity, structure, and style. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.2.1:	Present information orally, with a logical organization, coherent focus, and credible evidence, while employing effective rhetorical devices where appropriate. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: At this grade level, the emphasis is on the content, but students are still expected to follow earlier expectations: appropriate volume, pronunciation, and pacing. This benchmark introduces rhetorical devices to the benchmark, building on what students have learned in R.3.2 and giving them a chance to apply it.  Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Secondary Oral Communication Rubric.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use knowledge of usage rules to create flow in writing and presenting.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.4.1:	Conduct literary research to answer a question, refining the scope of the question to align with interpretations of texts, and synthesizing information from primary and secondary sources. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: While the benchmark does require that students consult multiple sources, there is no requirement that they use every source they consult. Part of the skill in researching is discernment—being able to tell which information is relevant and which sources are trustworthy enough to include.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.5.1:	Create digital presentations to improve the experience of the audience. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: At this grade level, students are using multiple elements. The presentation may be delivered live or delivered as a stand-alone digital experience. The elements should be of different types. The elements should relate directly to the presentation and be incorporated in a way that engages the audience.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.5.2:	Create and export quality writing tailored to a specific audience, integrating multimedia elements, publishing to an online or LAN site. Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Evaluate how key elements enhance or add layers of meaning and/or style in a literary text. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Key elements of a literary text are setting, plot, characterization, conflict, point of view, theme, and tone.  Clarification 2: For layers of meaning, any methodology or model may be used as long as students understand that text may have multiple layers and that authors use techniques to achieve those layers. A very workable model for looking at layers of meaning is that of I. A. Richards:

ELA.11.R.1.1:	Layer 1) the literal level, what the words actually mean  Layer 2) mood, those feelings that are evoked in the reader  Layer 3) tone, the author’s attitude  Layer 4) author’s purpose (interpretation of author’s purpose as it is often inferred)  Clarification 3: Style is the way in which the writer uses techniques for effect. It is distinct from meaning but can be used to make the author’s message more effective. The components of style are diction, syntax, grammar, and use of figurative language. Style helps to create the author’s voice. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.1.2:	Track and analyze universal themes in literary texts from different times and places.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: A universal theme is an idea that applies to anyone, anywhere, regardless of cultural differences. Examples include but are not limited to an individual’s or a community’s confrontation with nature; an individual’s struggle toward understanding, awareness, and/or spiritual enlightenment; the tension between the ideal and the real; the conflict between human beings and advancements in technology/science; the impact of the past on the present; the inevitability of fate; the struggle for equality; and the loss of innocence. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.1.3:	Analyze the author’s choices in using juxtaposition to define character perspective.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Juxtaposition is the technique of putting two or more elements side by side to invite comparison or contrast.  Clarification 2: The term perspective means “a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something.” Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.1.4:	Analyze ways in which poetry reflects themes and issues of its time period.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Poetry for this benchmark should be selected from one of the following literary periods. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Classical Period (1200 BCE–455 CE)</li> <li>• Medieval Period (455 CE–1485 CE)</li> <li>• Renaissance Period (130–1600)</li> <li>• Restoration and 18th Century (1660–1790) British Literature</li> <li>• Colonial and Early National Period (1600–1830) American Literature</li> <li>• Romantic Period (1790–1870)</li> <li>• Realism and Naturalism Period (1870–1930)</li> <li>• Modernist Period (1910–1945)</li> <li>• Contemporary Period (1945–present)</li> </ul> Clarification 2: For more information, see Literary Periods. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.2.1:	Evaluate the structure(s) and features in texts.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Students will evaluate the use of the following structures: description, problem/solution, chronological, compare and contrast, cause and effect, and sequence.  Clarification 2: Students will evaluate the use of the following features: table of contents, headings, captions, photographs, graphs, charts, illustrations, glossary, footnotes, annotations, and appendix. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.2.2:	Analyze the central idea(s) of speeches and essays from the Classical Period.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Rhetorical Appeals and Rhetorical Devices. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.2.3:	Analyze an author’s choices in establishing and achieving purpose(s) in speeches and essays from the Classical Period.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.2.4:	Compare the development of multiple arguments on the same topic, evaluating the effectiveness and validity of the claims, the authors’ reasoning, and the ways in which the authors use the same information to achieve different ends.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Validity refers to the soundness of the arguments.  Clarification 2: For more information on types of reasoning, see Types of Logical Reasoning. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.3.1:	Analyze the author’s use of figurative language and explain examples of allegory.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Examples of allegory should be taken from the following periods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Classical Period (1200 BCE–455 CE)</li> <li>• Medieval Period (455 CE–1485 CE)</li> <li>• Renaissance Period (1300–1600)</li> <li>• Restoration and 18th Century (1660–1790) British Literature</li> <li>• Colonial and Early National Period (1600–1830) American Literature</li> <li>• Romantic Period (1790–1870)</li> <li>• Realism and Naturalism Period (1870–1930)</li> </ul>

Other examples can be used in instruction. Clarification 3: See Secondary Figurative Language. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.3.2:	Paraphrase content from grade-level texts. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.3.3:	Compare and contrast how contemporaneous authors address related topics, comparing the authors' use of reasoning, and analyzing the texts within the context of the time period. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Contemporaneous authors here refers to authors who are contemporaries of each other writing within any of the following literary periods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Classical Period (1200 BCE–455 CE)</li> <li>• Medieval Period (455 CE–1485 CE)</li> <li>• Renaissance Period (1300–1600)</li> <li>• Restoration and 18th Century (1660–1790) British Literature</li> <li>• Colonial and Early National Period (1600–1830) American Literature</li> <li>• Romantic Period (1790–1870)</li> <li>• Realism and Naturalism Period (1870–1930)</li> <li>• Modernist Period (1910–1945)</li> </ul> Clarification 2: For more information on types of reasoning, see Types of Logical Reasoning. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.3.4:	Evaluate an author's use of rhetoric in text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students will evaluate the appropriateness of appeals and the effectiveness of devices. In this grade level, students are using and responsible for all four appeals; kairos is added at this grade level. Clarification 2: Rhetorical devices for the purposes of this benchmark are the figurative language devices from 11.R.3.1 with the addition of irony, rhetorical question, antithesis, zeugma, metonymy, synecdoche, asyndeton, and chiasmus. Clarification 3: See Secondary Figurative Language. Clarification 4: See Rhetorical Appeals and Rhetorical Devices. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.V.1.1:	Integrate academic vocabulary appropriate to grade level in speaking and writing. Clarifications: Clarification 1: To integrate vocabulary, students will apply the vocabulary they have learned to authentic speaking and writing tasks independently. This use should be intentional, beyond responding to a prompt to use a word in a sentence. Clarification 2: Academic vocabulary appropriate to grade level refers to words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.V.1.2:	Apply knowledge of etymology and derivations to determine meanings of words and phrases in grade-level content. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Etymology refers to the study of word origins and the ways that words have changed over time. Clarification 2: Derivation refers to making new words from an existing word by adding affixes. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.V.1.3:	Apply knowledge of context clues, figurative language, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the connotative and denotative meaning of words and phrases, appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships. Clarification 3: See ELA.11.R.3.1 and Secondary Figurative Language. Standard Relation to Course: Major

	they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations.
ELA.K12.EE.1.1:	4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they've directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor. 6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation. 9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.2.1:	Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently. Clarifications: See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.3.1:	Make inferences to support comprehension. Clarifications: Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like "Why is the girl smiling?" or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.4.1:	Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations. Clarifications: In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully. In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: "I think _____ because _____." The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations. In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.5.1:	Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work. Clarifications: Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.6.1:	Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing. Clarifications: In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
SS.912.C.2.8:	Analyze the impact of citizen participation as a means of achieving political and social change. Clarifications: Examples are e-mail campaigns, boycotts, blogs, podcasts, protests, demonstrations, letters to editors. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
SS.912.C.3.13:	Illustrate examples of how government affects the daily lives of citizens at the local, state, and national levels. Clarifications: Examples are education, transportation, crime prevention, funding of services. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

VERSION DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this course is to enable students, using texts of high complexity, to develop knowledge of contemporary literature through advanced integrated educational experiences of reading, writing, speaking and listening, and language. Emphasis will be on representative contemporary literature, with its varied cultural influences, highlighting the major genres, themes, issues, and influences associated throughout the literary period.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Arts is not a discrete set of skills, but a rich discipline with meaningful, significant content, the knowledge of which helps all students actively and fully participate in our society. Standards should not stand alone as a separate focus for instruction, but should be combined purposefully.

The content should include, but not be limited to, the following:

- active reading of texts of high literary merit for what they say explicitly, as well as the logical inferences that can be drawn
- analysis of varied contemporary literature and informational texts to examine
- elements of literature
- arguments, themes, and claims supported by textual evidence
- power and impact of language
- influence of history, culture, and setting on language
- personal critical and aesthetic response
- writing for varied purposes
  - developing and supporting argumentative claims
  - crafting coherent, supported expository texts
  - responding to literature for personal and analytical purposes
  - writing narratives to develop real or imagined events
  - writing to sources (short and longer research) using text based claims and evidence
- effective listening, speaking, and viewing strategies with emphasis on the use of evidence to support or refute a claim in multimedia presentations, class discussions, and extended text discussions
- collaboration amongst peers

Honors and Advanced Level Course Note: Advanced courses require a greater demand on students through increased academic rigor. Academic rigor is obtained through the application, analysis, evaluation, and creation of complex ideas that are often abstract and multi-faceted. Students are challenged to think and collaborate critically on the content they are learning. Honors level rigor will be achieved by increasing text complexity through text selection, focus on high-level qualitative measures, and complexity of task. Instruction will be structured to give students a deeper understanding of conceptual themes and organization within and across disciplines. Academic rigor is more than simply assigning to students a greater quantity of work.

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. ## Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.11.C.1.2:	Write complex narratives using appropriate techniques to establish multiple perspectives. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Narrative Techniques.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.1.3:	Write literary analyses to support claims, using logical reasoning, credible evidence from sources, and elaboration, demonstrating an understanding of literary elements. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques.  Clarification 2: Appropriate tone is expected to continue from 9th and 10th. Use narrative techniques to strengthen argument writing where appropriate.  Clarification 3: These written works will take longer and are meant to reflect thorough research and analysis.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.1.4:	Write an analysis of complex texts using logical organization and a tone and voice appropriate to the task and audience, demonstrating an understanding of the subject. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.1.5:	Improve writing by considering feedback from adults, peers, and/or online editing tools, revising to improve clarity, structure, and style. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.2.1:	Present information orally, with a logical organization, coherent focus, and credible evidence, while employing effective rhetorical devices where appropriate. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: At this grade level, the emphasis is on the content, but students are still expected to follow earlier expectations: appropriate volume, pronunciation, and pacing. This benchmark introduces rhetorical devices to the benchmark, building on what students have learned in R.3.2 and giving them a chance to apply it.  Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Secondary Oral Communication Rubric.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use knowledge of usage rules to create flow in writing and presenting.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.4.1:	Conduct literary research to answer a question, refining the scope of the question to align with interpretations of texts, and synthesizing information from primary and secondary sources. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: While the benchmark does require that students consult multiple sources, there is no requirement that they use every source they consult. Part of the skill in researching is discernment—being able to tell which information is relevant and which sources are trustworthy enough to include.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.5.1:	Create digital presentations to improve the experience of the audience. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: At this grade level, students are using multiple elements. The presentation may be delivered live or delivered as a stand-alone digital experience. The elements should be of different types. The elements should relate directly to the presentation and be incorporated in a way that engages the audience.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.5.2:	Create and export quality writing tailored to a specific audience, integrating multimedia elements, publishing to an online or LAN site. Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Evaluate how key elements enhance or add layers of meaning and/or style in a literary text. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Key elements of a literary text are setting, plot, characterization, conflict, point of view, theme, and tone.  Clarification 2: For layers of meaning, any methodology or model may be used as long as students understand that text may have multiple layers and that authors use techniques to achieve those layers. A very workable model for looking at layers of meaning is that of I. A. Richards:

ELA.11.R.1.1:	Layer 1) the literal level, what the words actually mean  Layer 2) mood, those feelings that are evoked in the reader  Layer 3) tone, the author’s attitude  Layer 4) author’s purpose (interpretation of author’s purpose as it is often inferred)  Clarification 3: Style is the way in which the writer uses techniques for effect. It is distinct from meaning but can be used to make the author’s message more effective. The components of style are diction, syntax, grammar, and use of figurative language. Style helps to create the author’s voice. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.1.2:	Track and analyze universal themes in literary texts from different times and places.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: A universal theme is an idea that applies to anyone, anywhere, regardless of cultural differences. Examples include but are not limited to an individual’s or a community’s confrontation with nature; an individual’s struggle toward understanding, awareness, and/or spiritual enlightenment; the tension between the ideal and the real; the conflict between human beings and advancements in technology/science; the impact of the past on the present; the inevitability of fate; the struggle for equality; and the loss of innocence. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.1.3:	Analyze the author’s choices in using juxtaposition to define character perspective.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Juxtaposition is the technique of putting two or more elements side by side to invite comparison or contrast.  Clarification 2: The term perspective means “a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something.” Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.1.4:	Analyze ways in which poetry reflects themes and issues of its time period.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Poetry for this benchmark should be selected from one of the following literary periods. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Classical Period (1200 BCE–455 CE)</li> <li>• Medieval Period (455 CE–1485 CE)</li> <li>• Renaissance Period (130–1600)</li> <li>• Restoration and 18th Century (1660–1790) British Literature</li> <li>• Colonial and Early National Period (1600–1830) American Literature</li> <li>• Romantic Period (1790–1870)</li> <li>• Realism and Naturalism Period (1870–1930)</li> <li>• Modernist Period (1910–1945)</li> <li>• Contemporary Period (1945–present)</li> </ul> Clarification 2: For more information, see Literary Periods. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.2.1:	Evaluate the structure(s) and features in texts.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Students will evaluate the use of the following structures: description, problem/solution, chronological, compare and contrast, cause and effect, and sequence.  Clarification 2: Students will evaluate the use of the following features: table of contents, headings, captions, photographs, graphs, charts, illustrations, glossary, footnotes, annotations, and appendix. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.2.2:	Analyze the central idea(s) of speeches and essays from the Classical Period.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Rhetorical Appeals and Rhetorical Devices. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.2.3:	Analyze an author’s choices in establishing and achieving purpose(s) in speeches and essays from the Classical Period. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.2.4:	Compare the development of multiple arguments on the same topic, evaluating the effectiveness and validity of the claims, the authors’ reasoning, and the ways in which the authors use the same information to achieve different ends.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Validity refers to the soundness of the arguments.  Clarification 2: For more information on types of reasoning, see Types of Logical Reasoning. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.3.1:	Analyze the author’s use of figurative language and explain examples of allegory.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Examples of allegory should be taken from the following periods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Classical Period (1200 BCE–455 CE)</li> <li>• Medieval Period (455 CE–1485 CE)</li> <li>• Renaissance Period (1300–1600)</li> <li>• Restoration and 18th Century (1660–1790) British Literature</li> <li>• Colonial and Early National Period (1600–1830) American Literature</li> <li>• Romantic Period (1790–1870)</li> <li>• Realism and Naturalism Period (1870–1930)</li> </ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Modernist Period (1910–1945)</li> </ul> Clarification 2: Figurative language use that students will analyze are metaphor, simile, alliteration, onomatopoeia, personification, hyperbole, meiosis (understatement), allusion, and idiom. ## General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this course is to enable students, using texts of high complexity, to develop knowledge of contemporary literature through advanced integrated educational experiences of reading, writing, speaking and listening, and language. Emphasis will be on representative contemporary literature, with its varied cultural influences, highlighting the major genres, themes, issues, and influences associated throughout the literary period.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Arts is not a discrete set of skills, but a rich discipline with meaningful, significant content, the knowledge of which helps all students actively and fully participate in our society. Standards should not stand alone as a separate focus for instruction, but should be combined purposefully.

The content should include, but not be limited to, the following:

- active reading of texts of high literary merit for what they say explicitly, as well as the logical inferences that can be drawn
- analysis of varied contemporary literature and informational texts to examine
- elements of literature
- arguments, themes, and claims supported by textual evidence
- power and impact of language
- influence of history, culture, and setting on language
- personal critical and aesthetic response
- writing for varied purposes
  - developing and supporting argumentative claims
  - crafting coherent, supported expository texts
  - responding to literature for personal and analytical purposes
  - writing narratives to develop real or imagined events
  - writing to sources (short and longer research) using text based claims and evidence
- effective listening, speaking, and viewing strategies with emphasis on the use of evidence to support or refute a claim in multimedia presentations, class discussions, and extended text discussions
- collaboration amongst peers

Honors and Advanced Level Course Note: Advanced courses require a greater demand on students through increased academic rigor. Academic rigor is obtained through the application, analysis, evaluation, and creation of complex ideas that are often abstract and multi-faceted. Students are challenged to think and collaborate critically on the content they are learning. Honors level rigor will be achieved by increasing text complexity through text selection, focus on high-level qualitative measures, and complexity of task. Instruction will be structured to give students a deeper understanding of conceptual themes and organization within and across disciplines. Academic rigor is more than simply assigning to students a greater quantity of work.

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. ## Course Standards

Reading Literature

Standard Notes: These reading literature standards offer a focus for instruction each year and help ensure that students gain adequate exposure to a range of texts and tasks. Rigor is also infused through the requirement that students read increasingly complex texts through the grades. Students advancing through the grades are expected to meet each year's grade-specific standards and retain or further develop skills and understandings mastered in preceding grades.

Reading Informational Text

Standard Notes: These reading informational text standards offer a focus for instruction each year and help ensure that students gain adequate exposure to a range of texts and tasks. Rigor is also infused through the requirement that students read increasingly complex texts through the grades.

Writing

Standards Notes: Each year in their writing, students should demonstrate increasing sophistication in all aspects of language use, from vocabulary and syntax to the development and organization of ideas, and they should address increasingly demanding content and sources. Students advancing through the grades are expected to meet each succeeding year's grade-specific writing standards and retain or further develop skills and understandings mastered in preceding grades.

Speaking and Listening

Standards Notes: The following speaking and listening standards offer a focus for instruction each year to help ensure that students gain adequate mastery of a range of communication skills and applications.

Language

Standards Notes: The following language standards offer a focus for instruction each year to help ensure that students gain adequate mastery of a range of language skills and applications. Students advancing through the grades are expected to meet each succeeding year's grade-specific benchmarks and retain or further develop skills and understandings mastered in preceding grades.

Name	Description
LAFS.1112.L.1.1:	Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English grammar and usage when writing or speaking. a. Apply the understanding that usage is a matter of convention, can change over time, and is sometimes contested. b. Resolve issues of complex or contested usage, consulting references (e.g., Merriam-Webster's Dictionary of English Usage, Garner's Modern American Usage) as needed.
LAFS.1112.L.1.2:	Demonstrate command of the conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling when writing. a. Observe hyphenation conventions. b. Spell correctly.
LAFS.1112.L.2.3:	Apply knowledge of language to understand how language functions in different contexts, to make effective choices for meaning or style, and to comprehend more fully when reading or listening. a. Vary syntax for effect, consulting references (e.g., Tufte's Artful Sentences) for guidance as needed; apply an understanding of syntax to the study of complex texts when reading.
LAFS.1112.L.3.4:	Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning words and phrases based on grades 11–12 reading and content, choosing flexibly from a range of strategies. a. Use context (e.g., the overall meaning of a sentence, paragraph, or text; a word's position or function in a sentence) as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase. b. Identify and correctly use patterns of word changes that indicate different meanings or parts of speech (e.g., conceive, conception, conceivable). c. Consult general and specialized reference materials (e.g., dictionaries, glossaries, thesauruses), both print and digital, to find the pronunciation of a word or determine or clarify its precise meaning, its part of speech, its etymology, or its standard usage. d. Verify the preliminary determination of the meaning of a word or phrase (e.g., by checking the inferred meaning in context or in a dictionary).
LAFS.1112.L.3.5:	Demonstrate understanding of figurative language, word relationships, and nuances in word meanings. a. Interpret figures of speech (e.g., hyperbole, paradox) in context and analyze their role in the text. b. Analyze nuances in the meaning of words with similar denotations.

LAFS.1112.L.3.6:	Acquire and use accurately general academic and domain-specific words and phrases, sufficient for reading, writing, speaking, and listening at the college and career readiness level; demonstrate independence in gathering vocabulary knowledge when considering a word or phrase important to comprehension or expression.
LAFS.1112.RI.1.1:	Cite strong and thorough textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text, including determining where the text leaves matters uncertain.
LAFS.1112.RI.1.2:	Determine two or more central ideas of a text and analyze their development over the course of the text, including how they interact and build on one another to provide a complex analysis; provide an objective summary of the text.
LAFS.1112.RI.1.3:	Analyze a complex set of ideas or sequence of events and explain how specific individuals, ideas, or events interact and develop over the course of the text.
LAFS.1112.RI.2.4:	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative, connotative, and technical meanings; analyze how an author uses and refines the meaning of a key term or terms over the course of a text (e.g., how Madison defines faction in Federalist No. 10).
LAFS.1112.RI.2.5:	Analyze and evaluate the effectiveness of the structure an author uses in his or her exposition or argument, including whether the structure makes points clear, convincing, and engaging.
LAFS.1112.RI.2.6:	Determine an author's point of view or purpose in a text in which the rhetoric is particularly effective, analyzing how style and content contribute to the power, persuasiveness or beauty of the text.
LAFS.1112.RI.3.9:	Analyze seventeenth-, eighteenth-, and nineteenth-century foundational U.S. documents of historical and literary significance (including The Declaration of Independence, the Preamble to the Constitution, the Bill of Rights, and Lincoln's Second Inaugural Address) for their themes, purposes, and rhetorical features.
LAFS.1112.RI.4.10:	By the end of grade 11, read and comprehend literary nonfiction in the grades 11–CCR text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range. By the end of grade 12, read and comprehend literary nonfiction at the high end of the grades 11–CCR text complexity band independently and proficiently.
LAFS.1112.RL.1.1:	Cite strong and thorough textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text, including determining where the text leaves matters uncertain.
LAFS.1112.RL.1.2:	Determine two or more themes or central ideas of a text and analyze their development over the course of the text, including how they interact and build on one another to produce a complex account; provide an objective summary of the text.
LAFS.1112.RL.1.3:	Analyze the impact of the author's choices regarding how to develop and relate elements of a story or drama (e.g., where a story is set, how the action is ordered, how the characters are introduced and developed).
LAFS.1112.RL.2.4:	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in the text, including figurative and connotative meanings; analyze the impact of specific word choices on meaning and tone, including words with multiple meanings or language that is particularly fresh, engaging, or beautiful. (Include Shakespeare as well as other authors.)
LAFS.1112.RL.2.5:	Analyze how an author's choices concerning how to structure specific parts of a text (e.g., the choice of where to begin or end a story, the choice to provide a comedic or tragic resolution) contribute to its overall structure and meaning as well as its aesthetic impact.
LAFS.1112.RL.2.6:	Analyze a case in which grasping a point of view requires distinguishing what is directly stated in a text from what is really meant (e.g., satire, sarcasm, irony, or understatement).
LAFS.1112.RL.3.7:	Analyze multiple interpretations of a story, drama, or poem (e.g., recorded or live production of a play or recorded novel or poetry), evaluating how each version interprets the source text. (Include at least one play by Shakespeare and one play by an American dramatist.)
LAFS.1112.RL.3.9:	Demonstrate knowledge of eighteenth-, nineteenth- and early-twentieth-century foundational works of American literature, including how two or more texts from the same period treat similar themes or topics.
LAFS.1112.RL.4.10:	By the end of grade 11, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poems, in the grades 11–CCR text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range. By the end of grade 12, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poems, at the high end of the grades 11–CCR text complexity band independently and proficiently.
LAFS.1112.SL.1.1:	Initiate and participate effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with diverse partners on grades 11–12 topics, texts, and issues, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Come to discussions prepared, having read and researched material under study; explicitly draw on that preparation by referring to evidence from texts and other research on the topic or issue to stimulate a thoughtful, well-reasoned exchange of ideas.</li> <li>b. Work with peers to promote civil, democratic discussions and decision-making, set clear goals and deadlines, and establish individual roles as needed.</li> <li>c. Propel conversations by posing and responding to questions that probe reasoning and evidence; ensure a hearing for a full range of positions on a topic or issue; clarify, verify, or challenge ideas and conclusions; and promote divergent and creative perspectives.</li> <li>d. Respond thoughtfully to diverse perspectives; synthesize comments, claims, and evidence made on all sides of an issue; resolve contradictions when possible; and determine what additional information or research is required to deepen the investigation or complete the task.</li> </ul>
LAFS.1112.SL.1.2:	Integrate multiple sources of information presented in diverse formats and media (e.g., visually, quantitatively, orally) in order to make informed decisions and solve problems, evaluating the credibility and accuracy of each source and noting any discrepancies among the data.
LAFS.1112.SL.1.3:	Evaluate a speaker's point of view, reasoning, and use of evidence and rhetoric, assessing the stance, premises, links among ideas, word choice, points of emphasis, and tone used.

LAFS.1112.SL.2.4:	Present information, findings, and supporting evidence, conveying a clear and distinct perspective, such that listeners can follow the line of reasoning, alternative or opposing perspectives are addressed, and the organization, development, substance, and style are appropriate to purpose, audience, and a range of formal and informal tasks.
LAFS.1112.SL.2.5:	Make strategic use of digital media (e.g., textual, graphical, audio, visual, and interactive elements) in presentations to enhance understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence and to add interest.
LAFS.1112.SL.2.6:	Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating a command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.
LAFS.1112.W.1.1:	Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts, using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Introduce precise, knowledgeable claim(s), establish the significance of the claim(s), distinguish the claim(s) from alternate or opposing claims, and create an organization that logically sequences claim(s), counterclaims, reasons, and evidence.</li> <li>Develop claim(s) and counterclaims fairly and thoroughly, supplying the most relevant evidence for each while pointing out the strengths and limitations of both in a manner that anticipates the audience's knowledge level, concerns, values, and possible biases.</li> <li>Use words, phrases, and clauses as well as varied syntax to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships between claim(s) and reasons, between reasons and evidence, and between claim(s) and counterclaims.</li> <li>Establish and maintain a formal style and objective tone while attending to the norms and conventions of the discipline in which they are writing.</li> <li>Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the argument presented.</li> </ol>
LAFS.1112.W.1.2:	Write informative/explanatory texts to examine and convey complex ideas, concepts, and information clearly and accurately through the effective selection, organization, and analysis of content. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Introduce a topic; organize complex ideas, concepts, and information so that each new element builds on that which precedes it to create a unified whole; include formatting (e.g., headings), graphics (e.g., figures, tables), and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension.</li> <li>Develop the topic thoroughly by selecting the most significant and relevant facts, extended definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples appropriate to the audience's knowledge of the topic.</li> <li>Use appropriate and varied transitions and syntax to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships among complex ideas and concepts.</li> <li>Use precise language, domain-specific vocabulary, and techniques such as metaphor, simile, and analogy to manage the complexity of the topic.</li> <li>Establish and maintain a formal style and objective tone while attending to the norms and conventions of the discipline in which they are writing.</li> <li>Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the information or explanation presented (e.g., articulating implications or the significance of the topic).</li> </ol>
LAFS.1112.W.1.3:	Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, well-chosen details, and well-structured event sequences. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Engage and orient the reader by setting out a problem, situation, or observation and its significance, establishing one or multiple point(s) of view, and introducing a narrator and/or characters; create a smooth progression of experiences or events.</li> <li>Use narrative techniques, such as dialogue, pacing, description, reflection, and multiple plot lines, to develop experiences, events, and/or characters.</li> <li>Use a variety of techniques to sequence events so that they build on one another to create a coherent whole and build toward a particular tone and outcome (e.g., a sense of mystery, suspense, growth, or resolution).</li> <li>Use precise words and phrases, telling details, and sensory language to convey a vivid picture of the experiences, events, setting, and/or characters.</li> <li>Provide a conclusion that follows from and reflects on what is experienced, observed, or resolved over the course of the narrative.</li> </ol>
LAFS.1112.W.2.4:	Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in standards 1–3 above.)
LAFS.1112.W.2.5:	Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on addressing what is most significant for a specific purpose and audience.
LAFS.1112.W.2.6:	Use technology, including the Internet, to produce, publish, and update individual or shared writing products in response to ongoing feedback, including new arguments or information.
LAFS.1112.W.3.7:	Conduct short as well as more sustained research projects to answer a question (including a self-generated question) or solve a problem; narrow or broaden the inquiry when appropriate; synthesize multiple sources on the subject, demonstrating understanding of the subject under investigation.
LAFS.1112.W.3.8:	Gather relevant information from multiple authoritative print and digital sources, using advanced searches effectively; assess the strengths and limitations of each source in terms of the task, purpose, and audience; integrate information into the text selectively to maintain the flow of ideas, avoiding plagiarism and overreliance on any one source and following a standard format for citation.
	Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Apply grades 11–12 Reading standards to literature (e.g., “Demonstrate knowledge of eighteenth-, nineteenth- and early-twentieth-century foundational works of American literature, including how two or more texts from the same</li> </ol>

Apply grades 11–12 Reading standards to literary nonfiction (e.g., “Delineate and evaluate the reasoning in seminal U.S. texts, including the application of constitutional principles and use of legal reasoning [e.g., in U.S. Supreme Court Case majority opinions and dissents] and the premises, purposes, and arguments in works of public advocacy [e.g., The Federalist, presidential addresses]”).
LAFS.1112.W.4.10:	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences.
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.
SS.912.C.2.8:	Analyze the impact of citizen participation as a means of achieving political and social change. Clarifications: Examples are e-mail campaigns, boycotts, blogs, podcasts, protests, demonstrations, letters to editors.
SS.912.C.3.13:	Illustrate examples of how government affects the daily lives of citizens at the local, state, and national levels. Clarifications: Examples are education, transportation, crime prevention, funding of services.
HE.912.B.4.1:	Explain skills needed to communicate effectively with family, peers, and others to enhance health. Clarifications: Using "I" messages, voice pitch/volume, eye contact, journal experiences, writing letters, persuasive speech, and assertive communication.

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this course is to enable students, using texts of high complexity, to develop knowledge of world literature through integrated educational experiences of reading, writing, speaking and listening, and language. Emphasis will be on representative world literature, with its varied cultural influences, highlighting the major genres, themes, issues, and influences associated with the selections

Honors and Advanced Level Course Note: Advanced courses require a greater demand on students through increased academic rigor. Academic rigor is obtained through the application, analysis, evaluation, and creation of complex ideas that are often abstract and multi-faceted. Students are challenged to think and collaborate critically on the content they are learning. Honors level rigor will be achieved by increasing text complexity through text selection, focus on high-level qualitative measures, and complexity of task. Instruction will be structured to give students a deeper understanding of conceptual themes and organization within and across disciplines. Academic rigor is more than simply assigning to students a greater quantity of work.

GENERAL NOTES

The content should include, but not be limited to, the following:

- active reading of texts of high literary merit for what they say explicitly, as well as the logical inferences that can be drawn
- analysis of literature and informational texts from varied literary periods to examine:
  - text craft and structure
  - elements of literature
  - arguments, themes, and claims supported by textual evidence
  - power and impact of language
  - influence of history, culture, and setting on language
  - personal critical and aesthetic response
- writing for varied purposes
  - developing and supporting argumentative claims
  - crafting coherent, supported informative/expository texts
  - responding to literature for personal and analytical purposes
  - writing narratives to develop real or imagined events
  - writing to sources (short and longer research) using text based claims and evidence
- effective listening, speaking, and viewing strategies with emphasis on the use of evidence to support or refute a claim in multimedia presentations, class discussions, and extended text discussions
- collaboration amongst peers

Special Notes:

Instructional Practices: Teaching from well-written, grade-level instructional materials enhances students' content area knowledge and also strengthens their ability to comprehend longer, complex reading passages on any topic for any purpose. Using the following instructional practices also helps student learning.

1. Reading assignments from longer text passages, as well as shorter ones when text is extremely complex.
2. Making close reading and rereading of texts central to lessons.
3. Asking high-level, text-specific questions and requiring high-level, complex tasks and assignments.
4. Requiring students to support answers with evidence from the text.
5. Providing extensive text-based research and writing opportunities (claims and evidence).

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. Name	Description
ELA.10.C.1.2:	Write narratives using an appropriate pace to create tension, mood, and/or tone. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Narrative Techniques.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.1.3:	Write to argue a position, supporting claims using logical reasoning and credible evidence from multiple sources, rebutting counterclaims with relevant evidence, using a logical organizational structure, elaboration, purposeful transitions, and maintaining a formal and objective tone. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques.  Clarification 2: The tone should be both formal and objective, relying more on argument and rhetorical appeals rather than on propaganda techniques. Use narrative techniques to strengthen writing where appropriate.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.1.4:	Write expository texts to explain and analyze information from multiple sources, using a logical organization, purposeful transitions, and a tone and voice appropriate to the task. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.1.5:	Improve writing by considering feedback from adults, peers, and/or online editing tools, revising to address the needs of a specific audience.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.2.1:	Present information orally, with a logical organization and coherent focus, with credible evidence, creating a clear perspective. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: At this grade level, the emphasis is on the content, but students are still expected to follow earlier expectations: volume, pronunciation, and pacing. A clear perspective is the through-line that unites the elements of the presentation.  Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Secondary Oral Communication Rubric.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Add variety to writing or presentations by using parallel structure and various types of phrases and clauses.</li> </ul> Skills to be implemented but not yet mastered are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use knowledge of usage rules to create flow in writing and presenting.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.4.1:	Conduct research to answer a question, refining the scope of the question to align with findings, and synthesizing information from multiple reliable and valid sources. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: While the benchmark does require that students consult multiple sources, there is no requirement that they use every source they consult. Part of the skill in researching is discernment—being able to tell which information is relevant and which sources are trustworthy enough to include.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.5.1:	Create digital presentations to improve understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: The presentation may be delivered live or delivered as a stand-alone digital experience.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.5.2:	Use online collaborative platforms to create and export publication-ready quality writing tailored to a specific audience, integrating multimedia elements.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Analyze how key elements enhance or add layers of meaning and/or style in a literary text. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Key elements of a literary text are setting, plot, characterization, conflict, point of view, theme, and tone.

ELA.10.R.1.1:	Clarification 2: For layers of meaning, any methodology or model may be used as long as students understand that text may have multiple layers and that authors use techniques to achieve those layers. A very workable model for looking at layers of meaning is that of I.A. Richards:  Layer 1) the literal level, what the words actually mean  Layer 2) mood, those feelings that are evoked in the reader  Layer 3) tone, the author’s attitude  Layer 4) author’s purpose (interpretation of author’s purpose as it is often inferred). Clarification 3: Style is the way in which the writer uses techniques for effect. It is distinct from meaning but can be used to make the author’s message more effective. The components of style are diction, syntax, grammar, and use of figurative language. Style helps to create the author’s voice. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.1.2:	Analyze and compare universal themes and their development throughout a literary text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: A universal theme is an idea that applies to anyone, anywhere, regardless of cultural differences. Examples include but are not limited to an individual’s or a community’s confrontation with nature; an individual’s struggle toward understanding, awareness, and/or spiritual enlightenment; the tension between the ideal and the real; the conflict between human beings and advancements in technology/science; the impact of the past on the present; the inevitability of fate; the struggle for equality; and the loss of innocence. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.1.3:	Analyze coming of age experiences reflected in a text and how the author represents conflicting perspectives. Clarifications: Clarification 1: For more information, see Literary Periods. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.1.4:	Analyze how authors create multiple layers of meaning and/or ambiguity in a poem. Clarifications: Clarification 1: For more information, see Literary Periods. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.2.1:	Analyze the impact of multiple text structures and the use of features in text(s). Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students will evaluate the use of the following structures: description, problem/solution, chronological, compare and contrast, cause and effect, and sequence. Clarification 2: Students will evaluate the use of the following features: table of contents, headings, captions, photographs, graphs, charts, illustrations, glossary, footnotes, annotations, and appendix. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.2.2:	Analyze the central idea(s) of historical American speeches and essays. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.2.3:	Analyze an author’s choices in establishing and achieving purpose(s) in historical American speeches and essays. Clarifications: Clarification 1: In this grade level, students are using and responsible for the appeals of logos, ethos, and pathos. Clarification 2: See Rhetorical Appeals and Rhetorical Devices. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.2.4:	Compare the development of two opposing arguments on the same topic, evaluating the effectiveness and validity of the claims, and analyzing the ways in which the authors use the same information to achieve different ends. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Validity refers to the soundness of the arguments. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.3.1:	Analyze how figurative language creates mood in text(s). Clarifications: Clarification 1: Figurative language use that students will analyze are metaphor, simile, alliteration, onomatopoeia, personification, hyperbole, meiosis (understatement), allusion, and idiom. Other examples can be used in instruction. Clarification 2: See Secondary Figurative Language. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.3.2:	Paraphrase content from grade-level texts. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.3.3:	Analyze how mythical, classical, or religious texts have been adapted. Clarifications: Clarification 1: The classical source texts for this benchmark should be from ancient Greece or Rome’s Classical period (1200 BCE–455 CE). Mythical texts for this benchmark can be from any civilization’s early history. Religious texts for this benchmark include works such as the Bible. Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Analyze an author’s use of rhetoric in a text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students will analyze the appropriateness of appeals and the effectiveness of devices. In this grade level,

students are using and responsible for the appeals of logos, ethos, and pathos.

ELA.10.R.3.4:

Clarification 2: Rhetorical devices for the purposes of this benchmark are the figurative language devices from 10.R.3.1 with the addition of irony, rhetorical question, antithesis, zeugma, metonymy, synecdoche, and asyndeton.

Clarification 3: See Secondary Figurative Language.

Clarification 4: See Rhetorical Appeals and Rhetorical Devices.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Integrate academic vocabulary appropriate to grade level in speaking and writing.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: To integrate vocabulary, students will apply the vocabulary they have learned to authentic speaking and writing tasks independently. This use should be intentional, beyond responding to a prompt to use a word in a sentence.

ELA.10.V.1.1:

Clarification 2: Academic vocabulary appropriate to grade level refers to words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Apply knowledge of etymology and derivations to determine meanings of words and phrases in grade-level content.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Etymology refers to the study of word origins and the ways that words have changed over time.

ELA.10.V.1.2:

Clarification 2: Derivation refers to making new words from an existing word by adding affixes.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Apply knowledge of context clues, figurative language, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the connotative and denotative meaning of words and phrases, appropriate to grade level.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary.

Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships.

ELA.10.V.1.3:

Clarification 3: See ELA.10.R.3.1 and Secondary Figurative Language.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning.

Clarifications:

K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing.

2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations.

ELA.K12.EE.1.1:

4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they've directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor.

6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation.

9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently.

Clarifications:

See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

ELA.K12.EE.2.1:

Make inferences to support comprehension.

Clarifications:

Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like "Why is the girl smiling?" or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

ELA.K12.EE.3.1:

Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations.

Clarifications:

In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully.

In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: "I think _____ because _____." The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations.

ELA.K12.EE.4.1:

In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

	Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work. Clarifications:
ELA.K12.EE.5.1:	Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
	Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing. Clarifications:
ELA.K12.EE.6.1:	In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
	Analyze the impact of citizen participation as a means of achieving political and social change. Clarifications:
SS.912.C.2.8:	Examples are e-mail campaigns, boycotts, blogs, podcasts, protests, demonstrations, letters to editors. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
	Illustrate examples of how government affects the daily lives of citizens at the local, state, and national levels. Clarifications:
SS.912.C.3.13:	Examples are education, transportation, crime prevention, funding of services. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this course is to enable students, using texts of high complexity, to develop knowledge of world literature while honing their reading skills and increasing their knowledge base. Emphasis will be on representative world literature, with its varied cultural influences, highlighting the major genres, themes, issues, and influences associated with the selections

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Arts is not a discrete set of skills, but a rich discipline with meaningful, significant content, the knowledge of which helps all students actively and fully participate in our society. Standards should not stand alone as a separate focus for instruction, but should be combined purposefully.

The content should include, but not be limited to, the following:

- active reading of texts of high literary merit for what they say explicitly, as well as the logical inferences that can be drawn
- analysis of literature and informational texts from varied literary periods to examine:
  - text craft and structure
  - elements of literature
  - arguments, themes, and claims supported by textual evidence
  - power and impact of language
  - influence of history, culture, and setting on language
  - personal critical and aesthetic response
- writing for varied purposes
  - crafting coherent, supported informative/expository texts
  - responding to literature for personal and analytical purposes
- effective listening, speaking, and viewing strategies with emphasis on the use of evidence to support or refute a claim in multimedia presentations, class discussions, and extended text discussions
- collaboration amongst peers

Honors and Advanced Level Course Note: Advanced courses require a greater demand on students through increased academic rigor. Academic rigor is obtained through the application, analysis, evaluation, and creation of complex ideas that are often abstract and multi-faceted. Students are challenged to think and collaborate critically on the content they are learning. Honors level rigor will be achieved by increasing text complexity through text selection, focus on high-level qualitative measures, and complexity of task. Instruction will be structured to give students a deeper understanding of conceptual themes and organization within and across disciplines. Academic rigor is more than simply assigning to students a greater quantity of work.

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. ## Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.10.C.1.2:	Write narratives using an appropriate pace to create tension, mood, and/or tone. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Narrative Techniques.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.1.3:	Write to argue a position, supporting claims using logical reasoning and credible evidence from multiple sources, rebutting counterclaims with relevant evidence, using a logical organizational structure, elaboration, purposeful transitions, and maintaining a formal and objective tone. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques.  Clarification 2: The tone should be both formal and objective, relying more on argument and rhetorical appeals rather than on propaganda techniques. Use narrative techniques to strengthen writing where appropriate.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.1.4:	Write expository texts to explain and analyze information from multiple sources, using a logical organization, purposeful transitions, and a tone and voice appropriate to the task. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.1.5:	Improve writing by considering feedback from adults, peers, and/or online editing tools, revising to address the needs of a specific audience.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.2.1:	Present information orally, with a logical organization and coherent focus, with credible evidence, creating a clear perspective. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: At this grade level, the emphasis is on the content, but students are still expected to follow earlier expectations: volume, pronunciation, and pacing. A clear perspective is the through-line that unites the elements of the presentation.  Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Secondary Oral Communication Rubric.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Add variety to writing or presentations by using parallel structure and various types of phrases and clauses.</li> </ul> Skills to be implemented but not yet mastered are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use knowledge of usage rules to create flow in writing and presenting.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.4.1:	Conduct research to answer a question, refining the scope of the question to align with findings, and synthesizing information from multiple reliable and valid sources. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: While the benchmark does require that students consult multiple sources, there is no requirement that they use every source they consult. Part of the skill in researching is discernment—being able to tell which information is relevant and which sources are trustworthy enough to include.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.5.1:	Create digital presentations to improve understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: The presentation may be delivered live or delivered as a stand-alone digital experience.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.C.5.2:	Use online collaborative platforms to create and export publication-ready quality writing tailored to a specific audience, integrating multimedia elements.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Analyze how key elements enhance or add layers of meaning and/or style in a literary text. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Key elements of a literary text are setting, plot, characterization, conflict, point of view, theme, and tone.

ELA.10.R.1.1:	Clarification 2: For layers of meaning, any methodology or model may be used as long as students understand that text may have multiple layers and that authors use techniques to achieve those layers. A very workable model for looking at layers of meaning is that of I.A. Richards:  Layer 1) the literal level, what the words actually mean  Layer 2) mood, those feelings that are evoked in the reader  Layer 3) tone, the author’s attitude  Layer 4) author’s purpose (interpretation of author’s purpose as it is often inferred). Clarification 3: Style is the way in which the writer uses techniques for effect. It is distinct from meaning but can be used to make the author’s message more effective. The components of style are diction, syntax, grammar, and use of figurative language. Style helps to create the author’s voice. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.1.2:	Analyze and compare universal themes and their development throughout a literary text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: A universal theme is an idea that applies to anyone, anywhere, regardless of cultural differences. Examples include but are not limited to an individual’s or a community’s confrontation with nature; an individual’s struggle toward understanding, awareness, and/or spiritual enlightenment; the tension between the ideal and the real; the conflict between human beings and advancements in technology/science; the impact of the past on the present; the inevitability of fate; the struggle for equality; and the loss of innocence. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.1.3:	Analyze coming of age experiences reflected in a text and how the author represents conflicting perspectives. Clarifications: Clarification 1: For more information, see Literary Periods. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.1.4:	Analyze how authors create multiple layers of meaning and/or ambiguity in a poem. Clarifications: Clarification 1: For more information, see Literary Periods. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.2.1:	Analyze the impact of multiple text structures and the use of features in text(s). Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students will evaluate the use of the following structures: description, problem/solution, chronological, compare and contrast, cause and effect, and sequence. Clarification 2: Students will evaluate the use of the following features: table of contents, headings, captions, photographs, graphs, charts, illustrations, glossary, footnotes, annotations, and appendix. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.2.2:	Analyze the central idea(s) of historical American speeches and essays. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.2.3:	Analyze an author’s choices in establishing and achieving purpose(s) in historical American speeches and essays. Clarifications: Clarification 1: In this grade level, students are using and responsible for the appeals of logos, ethos, and pathos. Clarification 2: See Rhetorical Appeals and Rhetorical Devices. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.2.4:	Compare the development of two opposing arguments on the same topic, evaluating the effectiveness and validity of the claims, and analyzing the ways in which the authors use the same information to achieve different ends. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Validity refers to the soundness of the arguments. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.3.1:	Analyze how figurative language creates mood in text(s). Clarifications: Clarification 1: Figurative language use that students will analyze are metaphor, simile, alliteration, onomatopoeia, personification, hyperbole, meiosis (understatement), allusion, and idiom. Other examples can be used in instruction. Clarification 2: See Secondary Figurative Language. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.3.2:	Paraphrase content from grade-level texts. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.10.R.3.3:	Analyze how mythical, classical, or religious texts have been adapted. Clarifications: Clarification 1: The classical source texts for this benchmark should be from ancient Greece or Rome’s Classical period (1200 BCE–455 CE). Mythical texts for this benchmark can be from any civilization’s early history. Religious texts for this benchmark include works such as the Bible. Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Analyze an author’s use of rhetoric in a text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students will analyze the appropriateness of appeals and the effectiveness of devices. In this grade level,

students are using and responsible for the appeals of logos, ethos, and pathos.

ELA.10.R.3.4:

Clarification 2: Rhetorical devices for the purposes of this benchmark are the figurative language devices from 10.R.3.1 with the addition of irony, rhetorical question, antithesis, zeugma, metonymy, synecdoche, and asyndeton.

Clarification 3: See Secondary Figurative Language.

Clarification 4: See Rhetorical Appeals and Rhetorical Devices.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Integrate academic vocabulary appropriate to grade level in speaking and writing.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: To integrate vocabulary, students will apply the vocabulary they have learned to authentic speaking and writing tasks independently. This use should be intentional, beyond responding to a prompt to use a word in a sentence.

ELA.10.V.1.1:

Clarification 2: Academic vocabulary appropriate to grade level refers to words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Apply knowledge of etymology and derivations to determine meanings of words and phrases in grade-level content.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Etymology refers to the study of word origins and the ways that words have changed over time.

ELA.10.V.1.2:

Clarification 2: Derivation refers to making new words from an existing word by adding affixes.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Apply knowledge of context clues, figurative language, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the connotative and denotative meaning of words and phrases, appropriate to grade level.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary.

Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships.

ELA.10.V.1.3:

Clarification 3: See ELA.10.R.3.1 and Secondary Figurative Language.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning.

Clarifications:

K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing.

2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations.

ELA.K12.EE.1.1:

4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they've directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor.

6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation.

9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently.

Clarifications:

See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

ELA.K12.EE.2.1:

Make inferences to support comprehension.

Clarifications:

Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like "Why is the girl smiling?" or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

ELA.K12.EE.3.1:

Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations.

Clarifications:

In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully.

In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: "I think _____ because _____." The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations.

ELA.K12.EE.4.1:

In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence.

  - crafting coherent, supported informative/expository texts
  - responding to literature for personal and analytical purposes
- effective listening, speaking, and viewing strategies with emphasis on the use of evidence to support or refute a claim in multimedia presentations, class discussions, and extended text discussions
- collaboration amongst peers

Honors and Advanced Level Course Note: Advanced courses require a greater demand on students through increased academic rigor. Academic rigor is obtained through the application, analysis, evaluation, and creation of complex ideas that are often abstract and multi-faceted. Students are challenged to think and collaborate critically on the content they are learning. Honors level rigor will be achieved by increasing text complexity through text selection, focus on high-level qualitative measures, and complexity of task. Instruction will be structured to give students a deeper understanding of conceptual themes and organization within and across disciplines. Academic rigor is more than simply assigning to students a greater quantity of work.

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. ## Course Standards

Reading Literature

Standard Notes: These reading literature standards offer a focus for instruction each year and help ensure that students gain adequate exposure to a range of texts and tasks. Rigor is also infused through the requirement that students read increasingly complex texts through the grades. Students advancing through the grades are expected to meet each year's grade-specific standards and retain or further develop skills and understandings mastered in preceding grades.

Reading Informational Text

Standard Notes: These reading informational text standards offer a focus for instruction each year and help ensure that students gain adequate exposure to a range of texts and tasks. Rigor is also infused through the requirement that students read increasingly complex texts through the grades.

Writing

Standards Notes: Each year in their writing, students should demonstrate increasing sophistication in all aspects of language use, from vocabulary and syntax to the development and organization of ideas, and they should address increasingly demanding content and sources. Students advancing through the grades are expected to meet each succeeding year's grade-specific writing standards and retain or further develop skills and understandings mastered in preceding grades.

Speaking and Listening

Standards Notes: The following speaking and listening standards offer a focus for instruction each year to help ensure that students gain adequate mastery of a range of communication skills and applications.

Language

Standards Notes: The following language standards offer a focus for instruction each year to help ensure that students gain adequate mastery of a range of language skills and applications. Students advancing through the grades are expected to meet each succeeding year's grade-specific benchmarks and retain or further develop skills and understandings mastered in preceding grades.

(Include Shakespeare as well as other authors.)
LAFS.1112.RL.2.5:	Analyze how an author's choices concerning how to structure specific parts of a text (e.g., the choice of where to begin or end a story, the choice to provide a comedic or tragic resolution) contribute to its overall structure and meaning as well as its aesthetic impact.
LAFS.1112.RL.2.6:	Analyze a case in which grasping a point of view requires distinguishing what is directly stated in a text from what is really meant (e.g., satire, sarcasm, irony, or understatement).
LAFS.1112.RL.3.7:	Analyze multiple interpretations of a story, drama, or poem (e.g., recorded or live production of a play or recorded novel or poetry), evaluating how each version interprets the source text. (Include at least one play by Shakespeare and one play by an American dramatist.)
LAFS.1112.RL.3.9:	Demonstrate knowledge of eighteenth-, nineteenth- and early-twentieth-century foundational works of American literature, including how two or more texts from the same period treat similar themes or topics.
LAFS.1112.RL.4.10:	By the end of grade 11, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poems, in the grades 11–CCR text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range. By the end of grade 12, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poems, at the high end of the grades 11–CCR text complexity band independently and proficiently.
LAFS.1112.SL.1.1:	Initiate and participate effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with diverse partners on grades 11–12 topics, texts, and issues, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Come to discussions prepared, having read and researched material under study; explicitly draw on that preparation by referring to evidence from texts and other research on the topic or issue to stimulate a thoughtful, well-reasoned exchange of ideas.</li> <li>b. Work with peers to promote civil, democratic discussions and decision-making, set clear goals and deadlines, and establish individual roles as needed.</li> <li>c. Propel conversations by posing and responding to questions that probe reasoning and evidence; ensure a hearing for a full range of positions on a topic or issue; clarify, verify, or challenge ideas and conclusions; and promote divergent and creative perspectives.</li> <li>d. Respond thoughtfully to diverse perspectives; synthesize comments, claims, and evidence made on all sides of an issue; resolve contradictions when possible; and determine what additional information or research is required to deepen the investigation or complete the task.</li> </ul>

LAFS.1112.SL.1.2:	Integrate multiple sources of information presented in diverse formats and media (e.g., visually, quantitatively, orally) in order to make informed decisions and solve problems, evaluating the credibility and accuracy of each source and noting any discrepancies among the data.
LAFS.1112.SL.1.3:	Evaluate a speaker's point of view, reasoning, and use of evidence and rhetoric, assessing the stance, premises, links among ideas, word choice, points of emphasis, and tone used.
LAFS.1112.SL.2.4:	Present information, findings, and supporting evidence, conveying a clear and distinct perspective, such that listeners can follow the line of reasoning, alternative or opposing perspectives are addressed, and the organization, development, substance, and style are appropriate to purpose, audience, and a range of formal and informal tasks.
LAFS.1112.SL.2.5:	Make strategic use of digital media (e.g., textual, graphical, audio, visual, and interactive elements) in presentations to enhance understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence and to add interest.
LAFS.1112.SL.2.6:	Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating a command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.
LAFS.1112.W.1.1:	Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts, using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Introduce precise, knowledgeable claim(s), establish the significance of the claim(s), distinguish the claim(s) from alternate or opposing claims, and create an organization that logically sequences claim(s), counterclaims, reasons, and evidence.</li> <li>Develop claim(s) and counterclaims fairly and thoroughly, supplying the most relevant evidence for each while pointing out the strengths and limitations of both in a manner that anticipates the audience's knowledge level, concerns, values, and possible biases.</li> <li>Use words, phrases, and clauses as well as varied syntax to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships between claim(s) and reasons, between reasons and evidence, and between claim(s) and counterclaims.</li> <li>Establish and maintain a formal style and objective tone while attending to the norms and conventions of the discipline in which they are writing.</li> <li>Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the argument presented.</li> </ol>
LAFS.1112.W.1.2:	Write informative/explanatory texts to examine and convey complex ideas, concepts, and information clearly and accurately through the effective selection, organization, and analysis of content. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Introduce a topic; organize complex ideas, concepts, and information so that each new element builds on that which precedes it to create a unified whole; include formatting (e.g., headings), graphics (e.g., figures, tables), and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension.</li> <li>Develop the topic thoroughly by selecting the most significant and relevant facts, extended definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples appropriate to the audience's knowledge of the topic.</li> <li>Use appropriate and varied transitions and syntax to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships among complex ideas and concepts.</li> <li>Use precise language, domain-specific vocabulary, and techniques such as metaphor, simile, and analogy to manage the complexity of the topic.</li> <li>Establish and maintain a formal style and objective tone while attending to the norms and conventions of the discipline in which they are writing.</li> <li>Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the information or explanation presented (e.g., articulating implications or the significance of the topic).</li> </ol>
LAFS.1112.W.1.3:	Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, well-chosen details, and well-structured event sequences. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Engage and orient the reader by setting out a problem, situation, or observation and its significance, establishing one or multiple point(s) of view, and introducing a narrator and/or characters; create a smooth progression of experiences or events.</li> <li>Use narrative techniques, such as dialogue, pacing, description, reflection, and multiple plot lines, to develop experiences, events, and/or characters.</li> <li>Use a variety of techniques to sequence events so that they build on one another to create a coherent whole and build toward a particular tone and outcome (e.g., a sense of mystery, suspense, growth, or resolution).</li> <li>Use precise words and phrases, telling details, and sensory language to convey a vivid picture of the experiences, events, setting, and/or characters.</li> <li>Provide a conclusion that follows from and reflects on what is experienced, observed, or resolved over the course of the narrative.</li> </ol>
LAFS.1112.W.2.4:	Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in standards 1–3 above.)
LAFS.1112.W.2.5:	Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on addressing what is most significant for a specific purpose and audience.
LAFS.1112.W.2.6:	Use technology, including the Internet, to produce, publish, and update individual or shared writing products in response to ongoing feedback, including new arguments or information.
LAFS.1112.W.3.7:	Conduct short as well as more sustained research projects to answer a question (including a self-generated question) or solve a problem; narrow or broaden the inquiry when appropriate; synthesize multiple sources on the subject, demonstrating understanding of the subject under investigation.
	Gather relevant information from multiple authoritative print and digital sources, using advanced searches effectively;

LAFS.1112.W.3.8:	assess the strengths and limitations of each source in terms of the task, purpose, and audience; integrate information into the text selectively to maintain the flow of ideas, avoiding plagiarism and overreliance on any one source and following a standard format for citation.
LAFS.1112.W.3.9:	Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research. a. Apply grades 11–12 Reading standards to literature (e.g., “Demonstrate knowledge of eighteenth-, nineteenth- and early-twentieth-century foundational works of American literature, including how two or more texts from the same period treat similar themes or topics”). b. Apply grades 11–12 Reading standards to literary nonfiction (e.g., “Delineate and evaluate the reasoning in seminal U.S. texts, including the application of constitutional principles and use of legal reasoning [e.g., in U.S. Supreme Court Case majority opinions and dissents] and the premises, purposes, and arguments in works of public advocacy [e.g., The Federalist, presidential addresses]”).
LAFS.1112.W.4.10:	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences.
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this course is to enable students, using texts of high complexity, to develop knowledge of great literature through advanced integrated educational experiences of reading, writing, speaking and listening, and language. Emphasis will be on representative "great books," including ones with varied cultural influences, highlighting the major genres, themes, issues, and influences associated throughout the literary period.

Honors and Advanced Level Course Note: Advanced courses require a greater demand on students through increased academic rigor. Academic rigor is obtained through the application, analysis, evaluation, and creation of complex ideas that are often abstract and multi-faceted. Students are challenged to think and collaborate critically on the content they are learning. Honors level rigor will be achieved by increasing text complexity through text selection, focus on high-level qualitative measures, and complexity of task. Instruction will be structured to give students a deeper understanding of conceptual themes and organization within and across disciplines. Academic rigor is more than simply assigning to students a greater quantity of work.

GENERAL NOTES

The content should include, but not be limited to, the following:

- active reading of texts of high literary merit for what they say explicitly, as well as the logical inferences that can be drawn
- analysis of literary and informational texts from varied literary periods to examine:
  - text craft and structure
  - elements of literature
  - arguments, themes, and claims supported by textual evidence
  - power and impact of language
  - influence of history, culture, and setting on language
  - personal critical and aesthetic response
- writing for varied purposes
  - developing and supporting argumentative claims
  - crafting coherent, supported informative/expository texts
  - responding to literature for personal and analytical purposes
  - writing narratives to develop real or imagined events
  - writing to sources (short and longer research) using text based claims and evidence
- effective listening, speaking, and viewing strategies with emphasis on the use of evidence to support or refute a claim in multimedia presentations, class discussions, and extended text discussions

- collaboration amongst peers

Special Notes:

Instructional Practices: Teaching from well-written, grade-level instructional materials enhances students' content area knowledge and also strengthens their ability to comprehend longer, complex reading passages on any topic for any purpose. Using the following instructional practices also helps student learning.

1. Reading assignments from longer text passages, as well as shorter ones when text is extremely complex.
2. Making close reading and rereading of texts central to lessons.
3. Asking high-level, text-specific questions and requiring high-level, complex tasks and assignments.
4. Requiring students to support answers with evidence from the text.
5. Providing extensive text-based research and writing opportunities (claims and evidence).

Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.11.C.1.2:	Write complex narratives using appropriate techniques to establish multiple perspectives. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Narrative Techniques.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.1.3:	Write literary analyses to support claims, using logical reasoning, credible evidence from sources, and elaboration, demonstrating an understanding of literary elements. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques.  Clarification 2: Appropriate tone is expected to continue from 9th and 10th. Use narrative techniques to strengthen argument writing where appropriate.  Clarification 3: These written works will take longer and are meant to reflect thorough research and analysis.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.1.4:	Write an analysis of complex texts using logical organization and a tone and voice appropriate to the task and audience, demonstrating an understanding of the subject. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.1.5:	Improve writing by considering feedback from adults, peers, and/or online editing tools, revising to improve clarity, structure, and style. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.2.1:	Present information orally, with a logical organization, coherent focus, and credible evidence, while employing effective rhetorical devices where appropriate. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: At this grade level, the emphasis is on the content, but students are still expected to follow earlier expectations: appropriate volume, pronunciation, and pacing. This benchmark introduces rhetorical devices to the benchmark, building on what students have learned in R.3.2 and giving them a chance to apply it.  Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Secondary Oral Communication Rubric.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use knowledge of usage rules to create flow in writing and presenting.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.4.1:	Conduct literary research to answer a question, refining the scope of the question to align with interpretations of texts, and synthesizing information from primary and secondary sources. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: While the benchmark does require that students consult multiple sources, there is no requirement that they use every source they consult. Part of the skill in researching is discernment—being able to tell which information is relevant and which sources are trustworthy enough to include.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.5.1:	Create digital presentations to improve the experience of the audience. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: At this grade level, students are using multiple elements. The presentation may be delivered live or delivered as a stand-alone digital experience. The elements should be of different types. The elements should relate directly to the presentation and be incorporated in a way that engages the audience.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.5.2:	Create and export quality writing tailored to a specific audience, integrating multimedia elements, publishing to an online or LAN site.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Evaluate how key elements enhance or add layers of meaning and/or style in a literary text. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Key elements of a literary text are setting, plot, characterization, conflict, point of view, theme, and tone.  Clarification 2: For layers of meaning, any methodology or model may be used as long as students understand that text may have multiple layers and that authors use techniques to achieve those layers. A very workable model for looking at layers of meaning is that of I. A. Richards:

ELA.11.R.1.1:	Layer 1) the literal level, what the words actually mean  Layer 2) mood, those feelings that are evoked in the reader  Layer 3) tone, the author’s attitude  Layer 4) author’s purpose (interpretation of author’s purpose as it is often inferred)  Clarification 3: Style is the way in which the writer uses techniques for effect. It is distinct from meaning but can be used to make the author’s message more effective. The components of style are diction, syntax, grammar, and use of figurative language. Style helps to create the author’s voice. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.1.2:	Track and analyze universal themes in literary texts from different times and places. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: A universal theme is an idea that applies to anyone, anywhere, regardless of cultural differences. Examples include but are not limited to an individual’s or a community’s confrontation with nature; an individual’s struggle toward understanding, awareness, and/or spiritual enlightenment; the tension between the ideal and the real; the conflict between human beings and advancements in technology/science; the impact of the past on the present; the inevitability of fate; the struggle for equality; and the loss of innocence. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.1.3:	Analyze the author’s choices in using juxtaposition to define character perspective. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Juxtaposition is the technique of putting two or more elements side by side to invite comparison or contrast.  Clarification 2: The term perspective means “a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something.” Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.1.4:	Analyze ways in which poetry reflects themes and issues of its time period. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Poetry for this benchmark should be selected from one of the following literary periods. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Classical Period (1200 BCE–455 CE)</li> <li>• Medieval Period (455 CE–1485 CE)</li> <li>• Renaissance Period (130–1600)</li> <li>• Restoration and 18th Century (1660–1790) British Literature</li> <li>• Colonial and Early National Period (1600–1830) American Literature</li> <li>• Romantic Period (1790–1870)</li> <li>• Realism and Naturalism Period (1870–1930)</li> <li>• Modernist Period (1910–1945)</li> <li>• Contemporary Period (1945–present)</li> </ul> Clarification 2: For more information, see Literary Periods. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.2.1:	Evaluate the structure(s) and features in texts. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Students will evaluate the use of the following structures: description, problem/solution, chronological, compare and contrast, cause and effect, and sequence.  Clarification 2: Students will evaluate the use of the following features: table of contents, headings, captions, photographs, graphs, charts, illustrations, glossary, footnotes, annotations, and appendix. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.2.2:	Analyze the central idea(s) of speeches and essays from the Classical Period. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Rhetorical Appeals and Rhetorical Devices. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.2.3:	Analyze an author’s choices in establishing and achieving purpose(s) in speeches and essays from the Classical Period. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.2.4:	Compare the development of multiple arguments on the same topic, evaluating the effectiveness and validity of the claims, the authors’ reasoning, and the ways in which the authors use the same information to achieve different ends. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Validity refers to the soundness of the arguments.  Clarification 2: For more information on types of reasoning, see Types of Logical Reasoning. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.3.1:	Analyze the author’s use of figurative language and explain examples of allegory. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Examples of allegory should be taken from the following periods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Classical Period (1200 BCE–455 CE)</li> <li>• Medieval Period (455 CE–1485 CE)</li> <li>• Renaissance Period (1300–1600)</li> <li>• Restoration and 18th Century (1660–1790) British Literature</li> <li>• Colonial and Early National Period (1600–1830) American Literature</li> <li>• Romantic Period (1790–1870)</li> </ul>

- Realism and Naturalism Period (1870–1930)
- Modernist Period (1910–1945)

Clarification 2: Figurative language use that students will analyze are metaphor, simile, alliteration, onomatopoeia, personification, hyperbole, meiosis (understatement), allusion, and idiom. Other examples can be used in instruction.

Clarification 3: See Secondary Figurative Language.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.11.R.3.2:

Paraphrase content from grade-level texts.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.11.R.3.3:

Compare and contrast how contemporaneous authors address related topics, comparing the authors' use of reasoning, and analyzing the texts within the context of the time period.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Contemporaneous authors here refers to authors who are contemporaries of each other writing within any of the following literary periods:

- Classical Period (1200 BCE–455 CE)
- Medieval Period (455 CE–1485 CE)
- Renaissance Period (1300–1600)
- Restoration and 18th Century (1660–1790) British Literature
- Colonial and Early National Period (1600–1830) American Literature
- Romantic Period (1790–1870)
- Realism and Naturalism Period (1870–1930)
- Modernist Period (1910–1945)

Clarification 2: For more information on types of reasoning, see Types of Logical Reasoning.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.11.R.3.4:

Evaluate an author's use of rhetoric in text.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Students will evaluate the appropriateness of appeals and the effectiveness of devices. In this grade level, students are using and responsible for all four appeals; kairos is added at this grade level.

Clarification 2: Rhetorical devices for the purposes of this benchmark are the figurative language devices from 11.R.3.1 with the addition of irony, rhetorical question, antithesis, zeugma, metonymy, synecdoche, asyndeton, and chiasmus.

Clarification 3: See Secondary Figurative Language.

Clarification 4: See Rhetorical Appeals and Rhetorical Devices.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.11.V.1.1:

Integrate academic vocabulary appropriate to grade level in speaking and writing.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: To integrate vocabulary, students will apply the vocabulary they have learned to authentic speaking and writing tasks independently. This use should be intentional, beyond responding to a prompt to use a word in a sentence.

Clarification 2: Academic vocabulary appropriate to grade level refers to words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.11.V.1.2:

Apply knowledge of etymology and derivations to determine meanings of words and phrases in grade-level content.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Etymology refers to the study of word origins and the ways that words have changed over time.

Clarification 2: Derivation refers to making new words from an existing word by adding affixes.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.11.V.1.3:

Apply knowledge of context clues, figurative language, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the connotative and denotative meaning of words and phrases, appropriate to grade level.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary.

Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships.

Clarification 3: See ELA.11.R.3.1 and Secondary Figurative Language.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning.

Clarifications:

K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing.

	2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations.
ELA.K12.EE.1.1:	4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they've directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor.  6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation.  9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ.  Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.2.1:	Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently. Clarifications: See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.3.1:	Make inferences to support comprehension. Clarifications: Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like "Why is the girl smiling?" or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.4.1:	Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations. Clarifications: In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully.  In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: "I think _____ because _____." The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations.  In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.5.1:	Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work. Clarifications: Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.6.1:	Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing. Clarifications: In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
SS.912.C.2.8:	Analyze the impact of citizen participation as a means of achieving political and social change. Clarifications: Examples are e-mail campaigns, boycotts, blogs, podcasts, protests, demonstrations, letters to editors.
SS.912.C.3.13:	Illustrate examples of how government affects the daily lives of citizens at the local, state, and national levels. Clarifications: Examples are education, transportation, crime prevention, funding of services.

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this course is to enable students, using texts of high complexity, to develop knowledge of great literature through advanced integrated educational experiences of reading, writing, and language. Emphasis will be on representative "great books," including ones with varied cultural influences, highlighting the major genres, themes, issues, and influences associated throughout the literary period.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Arts is not a discrete set of skills, but a rich discipline with meaningful, significant content, the knowledge of which helps all students actively and fully participate in our society. Standards should not stand alone as a separate focus for instruction, but should be combined purposefully.

The content should include, but not be limited to, the following:

- active reading of texts of high literary merit for what they say explicitly, as well as the logical inferences that can be drawn
- analysis of literature and informational texts from varied literary periods to examine:
  - elements of literature
  - arguments and claims supported by textual evidence
  - power and impact of language
  - influence of history, culture, and setting on language
  - personal critical and aesthetic response
- writing for varied purposes
  - developing and supporting argumentative claims
  - crafting coherent, supported expository texts
  - responding to literature for personal and analytical purposes
- collaboration amongst peers

Honors and Advanced Level Course Note: Advanced courses require a greater demand on students through increased academic rigor. Academic rigor is obtained through the application, analysis, evaluation, and creation of complex ideas that are often abstract and multi-faceted. Students are challenged to think and collaborate critically on the content they are learning. Honors level rigor will be achieved by increasing text complexity through text selection, focus on high-level qualitative measures, and complexity of task. Instruction will be structured to give students a deeper understanding of conceptual themes and organization within and across disciplines. Academic rigor is more than simply assigning to students a greater quantity of work.

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. ## Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.11.C.1.2:	Write complex narratives using appropriate techniques to establish multiple perspectives. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Narrative Techniques. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.1.3:	Write literary analyses to support claims, using logical reasoning, credible evidence from sources, and elaboration, demonstrating an understanding of literary elements. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques. Clarification 2: Appropriate tone is expected to continue from 9th and 10th. Use narrative techniques to strengthen argument writing where appropriate. Clarification 3: These written works will take longer and are meant to reflect thorough research and analysis. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.1.4:	Write an analysis of complex texts using logical organization and a tone and voice appropriate to the task and audience, demonstrating an understanding of the subject. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.1.5:	Improve writing by considering feedback from adults, peers, and/or online editing tools, revising to improve clarity, structure, and style. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.2.1:	Present information orally, with a logical organization, coherent focus, and credible evidence, while employing effective rhetorical devices where appropriate. Clarifications: Clarification 1: At this grade level, the emphasis is on the content, but students are still expected to follow earlier expectations: appropriate volume, pronunciation, and pacing. This benchmark introduces rhetorical devices to the benchmark, building on what students have learned in R.3.2 and giving them a chance to apply it.  Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Secondary Oral Communication Rubric. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Use knowledge of usage rules to create flow in writing and presenting.</li></ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.4.1:	Conduct literary research to answer a question, refining the scope of the question to align with interpretations of texts, and synthesizing information from primary and secondary sources. Clarifications: Clarification 1: While the benchmark does require that students consult multiple sources, there is no requirement that they use every source they consult. Part of the skill in researching is discernment—being able to tell which information is relevant and which sources are trustworthy enough to include. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.5.1:	Create digital presentations to improve the experience of the audience. Clarifications: Clarification 1: At this grade level, students are using multiple elements. The presentation may be delivered live or delivered as a stand-alone digital experience. The elements should be of different types. The elements should relate directly to the presentation and be incorporated in a way that engages the audience. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.C.5.2:	Create and export quality writing tailored to a specific audience, integrating multimedia elements, publishing to an online or LAN site. Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Evaluate how key elements enhance or add layers of meaning and/or style in a literary text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Key elements of a literary text are setting, plot, characterization, conflict, point of view, theme, and tone. Clarification 2: For layers of meaning, any methodology or model may be used as long as students understand that text may have multiple layers and that authors use techniques to achieve those layers. A very workable model for looking at layers of meaning is that of I. A. Richards:

ELA.11.R.1.1:	Layer 1) the literal level, what the words actually mean  Layer 2) mood, those feelings that are evoked in the reader  Layer 3) tone, the author’s attitude  Layer 4) author’s purpose (interpretation of author’s purpose as it is often inferred)  Clarification 3: Style is the way in which the writer uses techniques for effect. It is distinct from meaning but can be used to make the author’s message more effective. The components of style are diction, syntax, grammar, and use of figurative language. Style helps to create the author’s voice. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.1.2:	Track and analyze universal themes in literary texts from different times and places.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: A universal theme is an idea that applies to anyone, anywhere, regardless of cultural differences. Examples include but are not limited to an individual’s or a community’s confrontation with nature; an individual’s struggle toward understanding, awareness, and/or spiritual enlightenment; the tension between the ideal and the real; the conflict between human beings and advancements in technology/science; the impact of the past on the present; the inevitability of fate; the struggle for equality; and the loss of innocence. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.1.3:	Analyze the author’s choices in using juxtaposition to define character perspective.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Juxtaposition is the technique of putting two or more elements side by side to invite comparison or contrast.  Clarification 2: The term perspective means “a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something.” Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.1.4:	Analyze ways in which poetry reflects themes and issues of its time period.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Poetry for this benchmark should be selected from one of the following literary periods. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Classical Period (1200 BCE–455 CE)</li> <li>• Medieval Period (455 CE–1485 CE)</li> <li>• Renaissance Period (130–1600)</li> <li>• Restoration and 18th Century (1660–1790) British Literature</li> <li>• Colonial and Early National Period (1600–1830) American Literature</li> <li>• Romantic Period (1790–1870)</li> <li>• Realism and Naturalism Period (1870–1930)</li> <li>• Modernist Period (1910–1945)</li> <li>• Contemporary Period (1945–present)</li> </ul> Clarification 2: For more information, see Literary Periods. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.2.1:	Evaluate the structure(s) and features in texts.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Students will evaluate the use of the following structures: description, problem/solution, chronological, compare and contrast, cause and effect, and sequence.  Clarification 2: Students will evaluate the use of the following features: table of contents, headings, captions, photographs, graphs, charts, illustrations, glossary, footnotes, annotations, and appendix. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.2.2:	Analyze the central idea(s) of speeches and essays from the Classical Period.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Rhetorical Appeals and Rhetorical Devices. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.2.3:	Analyze an author’s choices in establishing and achieving purpose(s) in speeches and essays from the Classical Period.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.2.4:	Compare the development of multiple arguments on the same topic, evaluating the effectiveness and validity of the claims, the authors’ reasoning, and the ways in which the authors use the same information to achieve different ends.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Validity refers to the soundness of the arguments.  Clarification 2: For more information on types of reasoning, see Types of Logical Reasoning. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.11.R.3.1:	Analyze the author’s use of figurative language and explain examples of allegory.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Examples of allegory should be taken from the following periods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Classical Period (1200 BCE–455 CE)</li> <li>• Medieval Period (455 CE–1485 CE)</li> <li>• Renaissance Period (1300–1600)</li> <li>• Restoration and 18th Century (1660–1790) British Literature</li> <li>• Colonial and Early National Period (1600–1830) American Literature</li> <li>• Romantic Period (1790–1870)</li> <li>• Realism and Naturalism Period (1870–1930)</li> </ul>

VERSION DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this course is to enable students, using texts of high complexity, to develop knowledge of great literature through advanced integrated educational experiences of reading, writing, and language. Emphasis will be on representative "great books," including ones with varied cultural influences, highlighting the major genres, themes, issues, and influences associated throughout the literary period.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Arts is not a discrete set of skills, but a rich discipline with meaningful, significant content, the knowledge of which helps all students actively and fully participate in our society. Standards should not stand alone as a separate focus for instruction, but should be combined purposefully.

The content should include, but not be limited to, the following:

- active reading of texts of high literary merit for what they say explicitly, as well as the logical inferences that can be drawn
- analysis of literature and informational texts from varied literary periods to examine:
  - elements of literature
  - arguments and claims supported by textual evidence
  - power and impact of language
  - influence of history, culture, and setting on language
  - personal critical and aesthetic response
- writing for varied purposes
  - developing and supporting argumentative claims
  - crafting coherent, supported expository texts
  - responding to literature for personal and analytical purposes
- collaboration amongst peers

Honors and Advanced Level Course Note: Advanced courses require a greater demand on students through increased academic rigor. Academic rigor is obtained through the application, analysis, evaluation, and creation of complex ideas that are often abstract and multi-faceted. Students are challenged to think and collaborate critically on the content they are learning. Honors level rigor will be achieved by increasing text complexity through text selection, focus on high-level qualitative measures, and complexity of task. Instruction will be structured to give students a deeper understanding of conceptual themes and organization within and across disciplines. Academic rigor is more than simply assigning to students a greater quantity of work.

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. LAFS.1112.RI.1.1:	Cite strong and thorough textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text, including determining where the text leaves matters uncertain.
LAFS.1112.RI.1.2:	Determine two or more central ideas of a text and analyze their development over the course of the text, including how they interact and build on one another to provide a complex analysis; provide an objective summary of the text.
LAFS.1112.RI.1.3:	Analyze a complex set of ideas or sequence of events and explain how specific individuals, ideas, or events interact and develop over the course of the text.
LAFS.1112.RI.2.4:	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative, connotative, and technical meanings; analyze how an author uses and refines the meaning of a key term or terms over the course of a text (e.g., how Madison defines faction in Federalist No. 10).
LAFS.1112.RI.2.5:	Analyze and evaluate the effectiveness of the structure an author uses in his or her exposition or argument, including whether the structure makes points clear, convincing, and engaging.
LAFS.1112.RI.2.6:	Determine an author's point of view or purpose in a text in which the rhetoric is particularly effective, analyzing how style and content contribute to the power, persuasiveness or beauty of the text.
LAFS.1112.RI.3.7:	Integrate and evaluate multiple sources of information presented in different media or formats (e.g., visually, quantitatively) as well as in words in order to address a question or solve a problem.
LAFS.1112.RI.3.8:	Delineate and evaluate the reasoning in seminal U.S. texts, including the application of constitutional principles and use of legal reasoning (e.g., in U.S. Supreme Court majority opinions and dissents) and the premises, purposes, and arguments in works of public advocacy (e.g., The Federalist, presidential addresses).
LAFS.1112.RI.4.10:	By the end of grade 11, read and comprehend literary nonfiction in the grades 11–CCR text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range. By the end of grade 12, read and comprehend literary nonfiction at

	the high end of the grades 11–CCR text complexity band independently and proficiently.
LAFS.1112.RL.1.1:	Cite strong and thorough textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text, including determining where the text leaves matters uncertain.
LAFS.1112.RL.1.2:	Determine two or more themes or central ideas of a text and analyze their development over the course of the text, including how they interact and build on one another to produce a complex account; provide an objective summary of the text.
LAFS.1112.RL.1.3:	Analyze the impact of the author’s choices regarding how to develop and relate elements of a story or drama (e.g., where a story is set, how the action is ordered, how the characters are introduced and developed).
LAFS.1112.RL.2.4:	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in the text, including figurative and connotative meanings; analyze the impact of specific word choices on meaning and tone, including words with multiple meanings or language that is particularly fresh, engaging, or beautiful. (Include Shakespeare as well as other authors.)
LAFS.1112.RL.2.5:	Analyze how an author’s choices concerning how to structure specific parts of a text (e.g., the choice of where to begin or end a story, the choice to provide a comedic or tragic resolution) contribute to its overall structure and meaning as well as its aesthetic impact.
LAFS.1112.RL.2.6:	Analyze a case in which grasping a point of view requires distinguishing what is directly stated in a text from what is really meant (e.g., satire, sarcasm, irony, or understatement).
LAFS.1112.RL.3.7:	Analyze multiple interpretations of a story, drama, or poem (e.g., recorded or live production of a play or recorded novel or poetry), evaluating how each version interprets the source text. (Include at least one play by Shakespeare and one play by an American dramatist.)
LAFS.1112.RL.4.10:	By the end of grade 11, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poems, in the grades 11–CCR text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range.  By the end of grade 12, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poems, at the high end of the grades 11–CCR text complexity band independently and proficiently.
LAFS.1112.SL.1.1:	Initiate and participate effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with diverse partners on grades 11–12 topics, texts, and issues, building on others’ ideas and expressing their own clearly and persuasively.  a. Come to discussions prepared, having read and researched material under study; explicitly draw on that preparation by referring to evidence from texts and other research on the topic or issue to stimulate a thoughtful, well-reasoned exchange of ideas. b. Work with peers to promote civil, democratic discussions and decision-making, set clear goals and deadlines, and establish individual roles as needed. c. Propel conversations by posing and responding to questions that probe reasoning and evidence; ensure a hearing for a full range of positions on a topic or issue; clarify, verify, or challenge ideas and conclusions; and promote divergent and creative perspectives. d. Respond thoughtfully to diverse perspectives; synthesize comments, claims, and evidence made on all sides of an issue; resolve contradictions when possible; and determine what additional information or research is required to deepen the investigation or complete the task.
LAFS.1112.SL.1.2:	Integrate multiple sources of information presented in diverse formats and media (e.g., visually, quantitatively, orally) in order to make informed decisions and solve problems, evaluating the credibility and accuracy of each source and noting any discrepancies among the data.
LAFS.1112.SL.1.3:	Evaluate a speaker’s point of view, reasoning, and use of evidence and rhetoric, assessing the stance, premises, links among ideas, word choice, points of emphasis, and tone used.
LAFS.1112.SL.2.4:	Present information, findings, and supporting evidence, conveying a clear and distinct perspective, such that listeners can follow the line of reasoning, alternative or opposing perspectives are addressed, and the organization, development, substance, and style are appropriate to purpose, audience, and a range of formal and informal tasks.
LAFS.1112.SL.2.5:	Make strategic use of digital media (e.g., textual, graphical, audio, visual, and interactive elements) in presentations to enhance understanding of findings, reasoning, and evidence and to add interest.
LAFS.1112.SL.2.6:	Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and tasks, demonstrating a command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.
LAFS.1112.W.1.1:	Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts, using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence.  a. Introduce precise, knowledgeable claim(s), establish the significance of the claim(s), distinguish the claim(s) from alternate or opposing claims, and create an organization that logically sequences claim(s), counterclaims, reasons, and evidence. b. Develop claim(s) and counterclaims fairly and thoroughly, supplying the most relevant evidence for each while pointing out the strengths and limitations of both in a manner that anticipates the audience’s knowledge level, concerns, values, and possible biases. c. Use words, phrases, and clauses as well as varied syntax to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships between claim(s) and reasons, between reasons and evidence, and between claim(s) and counterclaims. d. Establish and maintain a formal style and objective tone while attending to the norms and conventions of the discipline in which they are writing. e. Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the argument presented.
	Write informative/explanatory texts to examine and convey complex ideas, concepts, and information clearly and accurately through the effective selection, organization, and analysis of content.

LAFS.1112.W.1.2:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Introduce a topic; organize complex ideas, concepts, and information so that each new element builds on that which precedes it to create a unified whole; include formatting (e.g., headings), graphics (e.g., figures, tables), and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension.</li> <li>b. Develop the topic thoroughly by selecting the most significant and relevant facts, extended definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples appropriate to the audience's knowledge of the topic.</li> <li>c. Use appropriate and varied transitions and syntax to link the major sections of the text, create cohesion, and clarify the relationships among complex ideas and concepts.</li> <li>d. Use precise language, domain-specific vocabulary, and techniques such as metaphor, simile, and analogy to manage the complexity of the topic.</li> <li>e. Establish and maintain a formal style and objective tone while attending to the norms and conventions of the discipline in which they are writing.</li> <li>f. Provide a concluding statement or section that follows from and supports the information or explanation presented (e.g., articulating implications or the significance of the topic).</li> </ul>
LAFS.1112.W.1.3:	Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, well-chosen details, and well-structured event sequences. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Engage and orient the reader by setting out a problem, situation, or observation and its significance, establishing one or multiple point(s) of view, and introducing a narrator and/or characters; create a smooth progression of experiences or events.</li> <li>b. Use narrative techniques, such as dialogue, pacing, description, reflection, and multiple plot lines, to develop experiences, events, and/or characters.</li> <li>c. Use a variety of techniques to sequence events so that they build on one another to create a coherent whole and build toward a particular tone and outcome (e.g., a sense of mystery, suspense, growth, or resolution).</li> <li>d. Use precise words and phrases, telling details, and sensory language to convey a vivid picture of the experiences, events, setting, and/or characters.</li> <li>e. Provide a conclusion that follows from and reflects on what is experienced, observed, or resolved over the course of the narrative.</li> </ul>
LAFS.1112.W.2.4:	Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in standards 1–3 above.)
LAFS.1112.W.2.5:	Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on addressing what is most significant for a specific purpose and audience.
LAFS.1112.W.3.7:	Conduct short as well as more sustained research projects to answer a question (including a self-generated question) or solve a problem; narrow or broaden the inquiry when appropriate; synthesize multiple sources on the subject, demonstrating understanding of the subject under investigation.
LAFS.1112.W.3.8:	Gather relevant information from multiple authoritative print and digital sources, using advanced searches effectively; assess the strengths and limitations of each source in terms of the task, purpose, and audience; integrate information into the text selectively to maintain the flow of ideas, avoiding plagiarism and overreliance on any one source and following a standard format for citation.
LAFS.1112.W.3.9:	Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Apply grades 11–12 Reading standards to literature (e.g., “Demonstrate knowledge of eighteenth-, nineteenth- and early-twentieth-century foundational works of American literature, including how two or more texts from the same period treat similar themes or topics”).</li> <li>b. Apply grades 11–12 Reading standards to literary nonfiction (e.g., “Delineate and evaluate the reasoning in seminal U.S. texts, including the application of constitutional principles and use of legal reasoning [e.g., in U.S. Supreme Court Case majority opinions and dissents] and the premises, purposes, and arguments in works of public advocacy [e.g., The Federalist, presidential addresses]”).</li> </ul>
LAFS.1112.W.4.10:	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences.
LAFS.K12.L.2.3:	Apply knowledge of language to understand how language functions in different contexts, to make effective choices for meaning or style, and to comprehend more fully when reading or listening.
LAFS.K12.R.1.1:	Read closely to determine what the text says explicitly and to make logical inferences from it; cite specific textual evidence when writing or speaking to support conclusions drawn from the text.
LAFS.K12.R.3.7:	Integrate and evaluate content presented in diverse media and formats, including visually and quantitatively, as well as in words.
LAFS.K12.R.3.8:	Delineate and evaluate the argument and specific claims in a text, including the validity of the reasoning as well as the relevance and sufficiency of the evidence.
LAFS.K12.W.1.1:	Write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts, using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence.
LAFS.K12.W.1.3:	Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, well-chosen details, and well-structured event sequences.
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this course is to enable students, using texts of high complexity, to develop knowledge of ancient literature through integrated educational experiences of reading, writing, speaking and listening, and language. Emphasis will be on representative ancient literature, with its varied cultural influences, highlighting the major genres, themes, issues, and influences associated with the literary period.

The content should include, but not be limited to, the following:

- active reading of varied texts for what they say explicitly, as well as the logical inferences that can be drawn
- analysis of literature and informational texts from varied literary periods to examine:
  - text craft and structure
  - elements of literature
  - arguments, themes, and claims supported by textual evidence
  - power and impact of language
  - influence of history, culture, and setting on language
  - personal critical and aesthetic response
- writing for varied purposes
  - developing and supporting argumentative claims
  - crafting coherent, supported informative/expository texts
  - responding to literature for personal and analytical purposes
  - writing narratives to develop real or imagined events
  - writing to sources (short and longer research) using text-based claims and evidence
- effective listening, speaking, and viewing strategies with emphasis on the use of evidence to support or refute a claim in multimedia presentations, class discussions, and extended text discussions.

Honors and Advanced Level Course Note: Advanced courses require a greater demand on students through increased academic rigor. Academic rigor is obtained through the application, analysis, evaluation, and creation of complex ideas that are often abstract and multi-faceted. Students are challenged to think and collaborate critically on the content they are learning. Honors level rigor will be achieved by increasing text complexity through text selection, focus on high-level qualitative measures, and complexity of task. Instruction will be structured to give students a deeper understanding of conceptual themes and organization within and across disciplines. Academic rigor is more than simply assigning to students a greater quantity of work.

SPECIAL NOTES:

Instructional Practices: Teaching from well-written, grade-level instructional materials enhances students' content area knowledge and also strengthens their ability to comprehend longer, complex reading passages on any topic for any purpose. Using the following instructional practices also helps student learning.

1. Reading assignments from longer text passages, as well as shorter ones when text is extremely complex.
2. Making closing reading and rereading of texts central to lessons.
3. Asking high-level, text-specific questions and requiring high-level, complex tasks and assignments.
4. Requiring students to support answers with evidence from the text.
5. Providing extensive text-based research and writing opportunities (claims and evidence).

English Language Development (ELD) Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. To access an ELL supporting document which delineates performance definitions and descriptors, please click on the following link: {{AzureStorageLink}}/uploads/docs/standards/eld/si.pdf.

For additional information on the development and implementation of the ELD standards, please contact the Bureau of Student Achievement through Language Acquisition at sala@fldoe.org.

Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.12.C.1.2:	Write complex narratives using appropriate techniques to establish multiple perspectives and convey universal themes. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Narrative Techniques.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.12.C.1.3:	Write arguments to support claims based on an in-depth analysis of topics or texts using valid reasoning and credible evidence from sources, elaboration, and demonstrating a thorough understanding of the subject. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques.  Clarification 2: These written works will take longer and are meant to reflect thorough research and analysis.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.12.C.1.4:	Write an in-depth analysis of complex texts using logical organization and appropriate tone and voice, demonstrating a thorough understanding of the subject. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.12.C.1.5:	Improve writing by considering feedback from adults, peers, and/or online editing tools, revising to enhance purpose, clarity, structure, and style.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.12.C.2.1:	Present information orally, with a logical organization, coherent focus, and credible evidence while employing effective rhetorical devices where appropriate. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: At this grade level, the emphasis is on the content, but students are still expected to follow earlier expectations: appropriate volume, pronunciation, and pacing. Students will be using rhetorical devices as introduced in the 11th grade benchmark. Added to this grade level is a responsiveness to the needs of the audience and adapting to audience response. Students will read the nonverbal cues of the audience to do this. Students first learned nonverbal cues in elementary for this benchmark.  Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Secondary Oral Communication Rubric.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.12.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.12.C.4.1:	Conduct research on a topical issue to answer a question and synthesize information from a variety of sources. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: While the benchmark does require that students consult multiple sources, there is no requirement that they use every source they consult. Part of the skill in researching is discernment—being able to tell which information is relevant and which sources are trustworthy enough to include.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.12.C.5.1:	Design and evaluate digital presentations for effectiveness. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: The presentation may be delivered live or delivered as a stand-alone digital experience.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.12.C.5.2:	Create, publish, and share multimedia texts through a variety of digital formats.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.12.R.1.1:	Evaluate how key elements enhance or add layers of meaning and/or style in a literary text and explain the functional significance of those elements in interpreting the text. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Key elements of a literary text are setting, plot, characterization, conflict, point of view, theme, and tone.  Clarification 2: For layers of meaning, any methodology or model may be used as long as students understand that text may have multiple layers and that authors use techniques to achieve those layers. A very workable model for looking at layers of meaning is that of I.A. Richards:            Layer 1) the literal level, what the words actually mean            Layer 2) mood, those feelings that are evoked in the reader            Layer 3) tone, the author's attitude            Layer 4) author's purpose (interpretation of author's purpose as it is often inferred)

Clarification 3: Style is the way in which the writer uses techniques for effect. It is distinct from meaning, but can be used to make the author’s message more effective. The components of style are diction, syntax, grammar, and use of figurative language. Style helps to create the author’s voice.

Clarification 4: Functional significance refers to the role each element plays in creating meaning or effect for the reader.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.12.R.1.2: Analyze two or more themes and evaluate their development throughout a literary text.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: For the purposes of this benchmark, theme is not a one- or two-word topic, but a complete thought that communicates the author’s message.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.12.R.1.3: Evaluate the development of character perspective, including conflicting perspectives.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: The term perspective means “a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something.” The term point of view is used when referring to the person of the narrator. This is to prevent confusion and conflation.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.12.R.1.4: Evaluate works of major poets in their historical context.

Clarifications:

Sample poets for this benchmark include:

- Emily Dickinson
- Langston Hughes
- Robert Frost
- Phillis Wheatley
- Edna St. Vincent Millay
- Countee Cullen

- Percy Bysshe Shelley

Clarification 1: A poet’s historical context is the period in which the writing occurred, not when it was discovered or became resurgent.

Clarification 2: Evaluation of a poet in context may include similarity to or differences from the work of contemporaries and the literary period, critical reception at the time, and scope of work.

Clarification 3: For more information, see Literary Periods.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.12.R.2.1: Evaluate the structure(s) and features in texts, identifying how the author could make the text(s) more effective.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Students will evaluate the use of the following structures: description, problem/solution, chronological, compare and contrast, cause and effect, and sequence.

Clarification 2: Students will evaluate the use of the following features: table of contents, headings, captions, photographs, graphs, charts, illustrations, glossary, footnotes, annotations, and appendix.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.12.R.2.2: Evaluate how an author develops the central idea(s), identifying how the author could make the support more effective.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.12.R.2.3: Evaluate an author’s choices in establishing and achieving purpose(s).

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.12.R.2.4: Compare the development of multiple arguments in related texts, evaluating the validity of the claims, the authors’ reasoning, use of the same information, and/or the authors’ rhetoric.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: For more information on types of reasoning, see Types of Logical Reasoning.

Clarification 2: See Rhetorical Appeals and Rhetorical Devices.

Clarification 3: Validity refers to the soundness of the arguments.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.12.R.3.1: Evaluate an author’s use of figurative language.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Figurative language use that students will evaluate are metaphor, simile, alliteration, onomatopoeia, personification, hyperbole, meiosis (understatement), allusion, and idiom. Other examples can be used in instruction.

Clarification 2: See Secondary Figurative Language.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.12.R.3.2: Paraphrase content from grade-level texts.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.12.R.3.3:	Analyze the influence of classic literature on contemporary world texts. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Classic literature for this benchmark should be drawn from and representative of the following periods: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Classical Period (1200 BCE–455 CE)</li> <li>• Medieval Period (455 CE–1485 CE)</li> <li>• Renaissance Period (1300–1600)</li> <li>• Restoration and 18th Century (1660–1790) British Literature</li> <li>• Colonial and Early National Period (1600–1830) American Literature</li> <li>• Romantic Period (1790–1870)</li> <li>• Realism and Naturalism Period (1870–1930)</li> <li>• Modernist Period (1910–1945)</li> </ul> Clarification 2: Contemporary world texts are those written after World War II that, through quality of form and expression, convey ideas of permanent or universal interest. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.12.R.3.4:	Evaluate rhetorical choices across multiple texts. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students will evaluate the appropriateness of appeals and the effectiveness of devices. In this grade level, students are using and responsible for all four appeals; kairos was added in 11th grade. This differs from the 11th grade benchmark in that it is comparing the effectiveness of multiple texts. Clarification 2: Rhetorical devices for the purposes of this benchmark are the figurative language devices from 11.R.3.1 with the addition of irony, rhetorical question, antithesis, zeugma, metonymy, synecdoche, asyndeton, and chiasmus. Clarification 3: See Secondary Figurative Language. Clarification 4: See Rhetorical Appeals and Rhetorical Devices. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.12.V.1.1:	Integrate academic vocabulary appropriate to grade level in speaking and writing. Clarifications: Clarification 1: To integrate vocabulary, students will apply the vocabulary they have learned to authentic speaking and writing tasks independently. This use should be intentional, beyond responding to a prompt to use a word in a sentence. Clarification 2: Academic vocabulary appropriate to grade level refers to words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.12.V.1.2:	Apply knowledge of etymology, derivations, and commonly used foreign phrases to determine meanings of words and phrases in grade-level content. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Etymology refers to the study of word origins and the ways that words have changed over time. Clarification 2: Derivation refers to making new words from an existing word by adding affixes. Clarification 3: See Foreign Words and Phrases for a list of commonly used foreign phrases. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.12.V.1.3:	Apply knowledge of context clues, figurative language, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the connotative and denotative meaning of words and phrases, appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships. Clarification 3: See ELA.12.R.3.1 and Secondary Figurative Language. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K12.EE.1.1:	Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning. Clarifications: K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing. 2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations. 4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they've directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor. 6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation.

9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ.

ELA.K12.EE.2.1:	Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently. Clarifications: See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.3.1:	Make inferences to support comprehension. Clarifications: Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like “Why is the girl smiling?” or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.4.1:	Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations. Clarifications: In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully.  In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: “I think _____ because _____.” The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations.  In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.5.1:	Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work. Clarifications: Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.6.1:	Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing. Clarifications: In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this course is to enable students, using texts of high complexity, to develop knowledge of ancient literature through integrated educational experiences of reading, writing, and language. Emphasis will be on representative ancient literature, with its varied cultural influences, highlighting the major genres, themes, issues, and influences associated with the literary period.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Arts is not a discrete set of skills, but a rich discipline with meaningful, significant content, the knowledge of which helps all students actively and fully participate in our society. Standards should not stand alone as a separate focus for instruction, but should be combined purposefully.

The content should include, but not be limited to, the following:

- active reading of varied texts for what they say explicitly, as well as the logical inferences that can be drawn
- analysis of literature and informational texts from varied literary periods to examine:
  - text craft and structure
  - elements of literature
  - arguments, themes, and claims supported by textual evidence
  - power and impact of language
  - influence of history, culture, and setting on language
  - personal critical and aesthetic response
- writing for varied purposes
  - developing and supporting argumentative claims

- crafting coherent, supported informative/expository texts
- responding to literature for personal and analytical purposes
- collaboration with peers regarding the use of evidence to support or refute a claim in multimedia presentations, class discussions, and extended text discussions

Honors and Advanced Level Course Note: Advanced courses require a greater demand on students through increased academic rigor. Academic rigor is obtained through the application, analysis, evaluation, and creation of complex ideas that are often abstract and multi-faceted. Students are challenged to think and collaborate critically on the content they are learning. Honors level rigor will be achieved by increasing text complexity through text selection, focus on high-level qualitative measures, and complexity of task. Instruction will be structured to give students a deeper understanding of conceptual themes and organization within and across disciplines. Academic rigor is more than simply assigning to students a greater quantity of work.

English Language Development (ELD) Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL’s need for communication and social skills. To access an ELL supporting document which delineates performance definitions and descriptors, please click on the following link: <https://cpalmsmediaprod.blob.core.windows.net/uploads/docs/standards/eld/si.pdf>.

VERSION REQUIREMENTS

One-third of the ELA Sample Book List should be used in instruction.

Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.K.C.1.1:	Print many upper- and lowercase letters. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students should attend to spacing between letters. Clarification 2: Of the many letters students need to be able to print, all vowels must be included. For example, a student who can print 22 letters, both upper- and lowercase, but not “a” or “A” has not mastered the benchmark.
ELA.K.C.1.2:	Using a combination of drawing, dictating, and/or writing, create narratives with the events in chronological order. Clarifications: Clarification 1: The product can be written, drawn, dictated, or a combination of all. Clarification 2: See Writing Types.
ELA.K.C.1.3:	Using a combination of drawing, dictating, and/or writing, express opinions about a topic or text with at least one supporting reason. Clarifications: Clarification 1: The product can be written, oral, drawn, dictated, or a combination of all. Clarification 2: See Writing Types.
ELA.K.C.1.4:	Using a combination of drawing, dictating, and/or writing, provide factual information about a topic. Clarifications: Clarification 1: The product can be written, drawn, dictated, or a combination of all. Clarification 2: Some opinion can be added to the information, but it should mostly be factual. It is important that students understand the difference between writing to explain and writing to express an opinion. Clarification 3: See Writing Types.
ELA.K.C.1.5:	With guidance and support from adults, improve drawing and writing, as needed, by planning, revising, and editing. Clarifications: Clarification 1: “As needed” refers to the fact that sometimes instruction will focus on a specific skill or part of the process. For example, a lesson may focus on planning. In those instances, only the planning step would be focused on. By the end of the year, students should have ample opportunities to engage in planning, revising, and editing.
ELA.K.C.2.1:	Present information orally using complete sentences. Clarifications: Clarification 1: For further guidance, see the Elementary Oral Communication Rubric.
ELA.K.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Begin each sentence with a capital letter and use ending punctuation.</li> <li>• Capitalize the days of the week, the months of the year, and the pronoun I.</li> <li>• Form regular plural nouns orally by adding /s/ or /es/.</li> <li>• Use interrogatives to ask questions.</li> </ul> Skills to be implemented but not yet mastered are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Capitalize proper nouns.</li> <li>• Form and use simple verb tenses for regular verbs by adding the affix -ed.</li> <li>• Form and use complete simple sentences.</li> <li>• Use possessives.</li> <li>• Use subject-verb agreement in simple sentences.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information.
ELA.K.C.4.1:	Recall information to answer a question about a single topic.
ELA.K.C.5.1:	Use a multimedia element to enhance oral or written tasks. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Multimedia elements may include, but are not limited to, a drawing, picture, artifact, audio or digital representation. Multimedia elements may include, but are not limited to, a drawing, picture, artifact, audio or digital representation. At this

grade level, the element should relate to the task but that relationship may be tangential. It does not require but can include the use of computers.

ELA.K.F.1.1:	Demonstrate knowledge of the basic concepts of print. <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>Locate a printed word on a page.</li><li>Distinguish letters from words within sentences.</li><li>Match print to speech to demonstrate that language is represented by print.</li><li>Identify parts of a book (front cover, back cover, title page).</li><li>Move top to bottom and left to right on the printed page; returning to the beginning of the next line.</li><li>Identify all upper- and lowercase letters of the alphabet.</li><li>Recognize that print conveys specific meaning and pictures may support meaning.</li></ol> Clarifications: Clarification 1: Matching print to speech involves making a one-to-one correspondence between a spoken word and the print on the page. This can be accomplished by having the child point to each word in a sentence as it is read by an adult.
ELA.K.F.1.2:	Demonstrate phonological awareness. <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>Blend and segment syllables in spoken words.</li><li>Identify and produce alliterative and rhyming words.</li><li>Blend and segment onset and rimes of single-syllable words.</li><li>Identify the initial, medial, and final sound of spoken words.</li><li>Add or delete phonemes at the beginning or end of a spoken word and say the resulting word.</li><li>Segment and blend phonemes in single-syllable spoken words.</li></ol> Clarifications: Clarification 1: Phonological awareness only refers to what can be done orally at the syllable, onset-rime, and phoneme levels. It does not involve print or letter knowledge.
ELA.K.F.1.3:	Use knowledge of grade-appropriate phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words accurately. <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>Demonstrate knowledge of the most frequent sound for each consonant.</li><li>Demonstrate knowledge of the short and long sounds for the five major vowels.</li><li>Decode consonant-vowel-consonant (CVC) words.</li><li>Encode consonant-vowel-consonant (CVC) words.</li></ol> Clarifications: Clarification 1: Phonics refers to the relationship between graphemes (letters or letter combinations) and phonemes (speech sounds). Clarification 2: Students will decode decodable high frequency words appropriate to the grade level. See K.F.1.4 and Dolch and Fry word lists. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity.
ELA.K.F.1.4:	Recognize and read with automaticity grade-level high frequency words. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Dolch and Fry word lists. Clarification 2: Many of the high frequency words at this grade level are either irregularly spelled and therefore not decodable or are temporarily irregular, meaning that students have not yet learned the phonics rule that would enable them to decode the word. Those words that are decodable should be introduced to students using appropriate phonics rules. See K.F.1.3. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity.
ELA.K.R.1.1:	Describe the main character(s), setting, and important events in a story. Clarifications: Clarification 1: In describing the main character, students can describe appearance, actions, feelings, and thoughts of the character. Students will explain what in the text their description is based on. Clarification 2: For setting, students will discuss where the events of the story are happening. The time element of setting should only be addressed in texts where it is explicitly indicated. Clarification 3: Descriptions can be oral, either in response to a question or through discussion.
ELA.K.R.1.3:	Explain the roles of author and illustrator of a story. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students will explain that the author writes the words and the illustrator creates the pictures, recognizing that sometimes one person does both jobs, as in Dr. Seuss' Hop on Pop where Dr. Seuss performs both roles. Clarification 2: Students should also explain that both authors and illustrators contribute to the meaning of the text.
ELA.K.R.1.4:	Identify rhyme in a poem. Clarifications: Clarification 1: This benchmark builds on the skills from the phonological awareness benchmark ELA.K.F.1.2(b): Identify and produce alliterative and rhyming words. The expectation is that students identify rhyming words in a poem that is read aloud. Clarification 2: Students will also note where the rhyme is coming, e.g., at the end of a line.

ELA.K.R.2.1:	Use titles, headings, and illustrations to predict and confirm the topic of texts. Clarifications: Clarification 1: The step of confirming the prediction is essential to mastery of this benchmark.
ELA.K.R.2.2:	Identify the topic of and multiple details in a text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: The topic is the general subject of the text, a word or a short phrase describing what the text is about. For example, the main topic of the book Why Should I Recycle? is recycling.
ELA.K.R.2.4:	Explain the difference between opinions and facts about a topic. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students will explain which statements are fact and which are opinion within a text.  Clarification 2: Students will orally explain that facts are things that a person knows about something and that can be proven true or false. Students will orally explain that opinions are what a person thinks about something, often related to feelings or beliefs. Opinions cannot be proven true or false.  Example: “Dogs need food and water to survive” is a fact. It can be proven to be true. “Dogs are the best pets” is an opinion. It’s what someone may think, but it can’t be proven.
ELA.K.R.3.1:	Identify and explain descriptive words in text(s). Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students will explain examples of descriptive words in text and how they add meaning.  Clarification 2: Students will be introduced to the academic vocabulary word “adjective.” However, students are not expected to use the word independently. Discussion should focus on how the descriptive words add meaning to the text.
ELA.K.R.3.2:	Retell a text orally to enhance comprehension:  a. Use main character(s), setting, and important events for a story. b. Use topic and details for an informational text.  Clarifications: Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark.
ELA.K.R.3.3:	Compare and contrast characters’ experiences in stories. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students will orally compare and contrast the experiences that characters have had, comparing them to those experienced by other characters, in the same story or a different story. Those experiences can be expressed as events, feelings, or behaviors.
ELA.K.V.1.1:	Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, are vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.
ELA.K.V.1.2:	Ask and answer questions about unfamiliar words in grade-level content.
ELA.K.V.1.3:	Identify and sort common words into basic categories, relating vocabulary to background knowledge. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level.  Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships.
ELA.K12.EE.1.1:	Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning. Clarifications: K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing.  2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations.  4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they’ve directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor.  6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation.  9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ.
ELA.K12.EE.2.1:	Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently. Clarifications: See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric.

	Make inferences to support comprehension. Clarifications:
ELA.K12.EE.3.1:	Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like “Why is the girl smiling?” or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond.
	Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations. Clarifications: In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully.
ELA.K12.EE.4.1:	In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: “I think _____ because _____.” The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations.  In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence.
	Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work. Clarifications:
ELA.K12.EE.5.1:	Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work.
	Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing. Clarifications:
ELA.K12.EE.6.1:	In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts.
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

This course supports English Language Learners' acquisition of English in order to learn and to read, write, and speak in English, including the use of appropriate forms of English for different purposes, the importance of culture in various communicative modes, and the importance of active oral language participation within the classroom setting.

This course defines what students should understand and be able to do by the end of kindergarten. The standards emphasize explicit, systematic phonics instruction as the foundation of literacy. Decoding and fluency are essential to creating proficient readers. Knowledge acquisition should be the primary purpose of any reading approach as systematic building of a wide range of knowledge across domains is a prerequisite to higher literacy.

The benchmarks in this course are mastery goals that students are expected to attain by the end of the year. To build mastery, students will continue to review and apply earlier grade-level benchmarks and expectations.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Arts is not a discrete set of skills, but a rich discipline with meaningful, significant content, the knowledge of which helps all students actively and fully participate in our society.

Standards should not stand alone as a separate focus for instruction, but should be combined purposefully.

The texts students read should be meaningful and thought-provoking, preparing them to be informed, civic-minded members of their community.

Curricular content for all subjects must integrate critical-thinking, problem-solving, and workforce-literacy skills; communication, reading, and writing skills; mathematics skills; collaboration skills; contextual and applied-learning skills; technology-literacy skills; information and media-literacy skills; and civic-engagement skills.

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. To access an ELL supporting document which delineates performance definitions and descriptors, please click on the following link: <https://cpalmsmediaprod.blob.core.windows.net/uploads/docs/standards/eld/la.pdf>

VERSION REQUIREMENTS

Build background knowledge in K-5 with a balance of approximately 50% informational texts and 50% literary texts.

Approximately one-third of the titles from the Kindergarten Sample Book List should be used in instruction.

QUALIFICATIONS

As well as the certification requirements listed on the course description, the following qualifications may also be acceptable for the course:

And Beyond (current)

Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.1.C.1.1:	Print all upper- and lowercase letters. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students should have adequate spacing between letters and/or words.
ELA.1.C.1.2:	Write narratives that retell two or more appropriately sequenced events, including relevant details and a sense of closure. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types.
ELA.1.C.1.3:	Write opinions about a topic or text with at least one supporting reason from a source and a sense of closure. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types.
ELA.1.C.1.4:	Write expository texts about a topic, using a source, providing facts and a sense of closure. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types.
ELA.1.C.1.5:	With guidance and support from adults, improve writing, as needed, by planning, revising, and editing. Clarifications: Clarification 1: As needed refers to the fact that sometimes instruction will focus on a specific skill or part of the process. In those instances, only the applicable activity will be engaged in.
ELA.1.C.2.1:	Present information orally using complete sentences and appropriate volume. Clarifications: Clarification 1: For further guidance, see the Elementary Oral Communication Rubric.
ELA.1.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Capitalize proper nouns.</li> <li>• Form and use simple verb tenses for regular verbs by adding the affix -ed.</li> <li>• Form and use complete simple sentences.</li> <li>• Use possessives.</li> <li>• Use subject-verb agreement in simple sentences.</li> </ul> Skills to be implemented but not yet mastered are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Form plurals -y to -ies.</li> <li>• Conjugate regular and irregular verb tenses.</li> <li>• Form and use regular and frequently occurring irregular plural nouns.</li> <li>• Form and use the past tense of frequently occurring irregular verbs.</li> <li>• Use apostrophes to form contractions.</li> <li>• Appropriately use pronouns.</li> <li>• Use commas in a series.</li> <li>• Use plural possessives.</li> <li>• Use interjections.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information.
ELA.1.C.4.1:	Participate in research to gather information to answer a question about a single topic. Clarifications: Clarification 1: The question could ask for an explanation or could ask how to do something, where the appropriate response could be to give a sequence of steps or instructions.
ELA.1.C.5.1:	Use a multimedia element to enhance oral or written tasks. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Multimedia elements may include, but are not limited to, a drawing, picture, artifact, audio or digital representation. At this grade level, the element should relate to the task. As long as the student is able to explain how the picture relates, the multimedia element is suitable. The element may be shared at the beginning or added on to the end instead of shared during the course of the task. There is no expectation that the element be integrated into the task.
ELA.1.C.5.2:	Identify and use digital tools to produce and publish writing individually or with peers and with support from adults.
ELA.1.F.1.1:	Locate the title, table of contents, names of author(s) and illustrator(s), and glossary of books.
	Demonstrate phonological awareness.

ELA.1.F.1.2:	a. Segment spoken words into initial, medial, and final phonemes, including words with digraphs, blends, and trigraphs. b. Orally blend initial, medial, and final phonemes together to produce a single-syllable word that includes digraphs, blends, or trigraphs. c. Blend single-syllable spoken words with at least five phonemes. d. Segment single-syllable spoken words with at least five phonemes. e. Segment and blend phonemes in multi-syllable spoken words. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Phonological awareness only refers to what can be done orally at both the sound and syllabic level. This includes isolating sounds, blending sounds, and orally segmenting words based on syllables. It does not involve print or letter knowledge.
ELA.1.F.1.3:	Use knowledge of grade-appropriate phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words accurately. a. Decode words using knowledge of spelling-sound correspondences for common consonant digraphs, trigraphs, and blends. b. Decode simple words with r-controlled vowels. c. Decode and encode regularly spelled one-syllable words. d. Decode words with inflectional endings. e. Decode two-syllable words with regular patterns by breaking the words into syllables. f. Decode words that use final –e and vowel teams to make long-vowel sound. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Phonics refers to the relationship between graphemes (letters or letter combinations) and phonemes (speech sounds).  Clarification 2: Students will decode decodable high frequency words appropriate to the grade level. See 1.F.1.4 and Dolch and Fry word lists. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity.
ELA.1.F.1.4:	Read grade-level texts with accuracy, automaticity, and appropriate prosody or expression. a. Recognize and read with automaticity the grade-level sight words. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Dolch and Fry word lists.  Clarification 2: Many of the high frequency words at this grade level are either irregularly spelled and therefore not decodable or are temporarily irregular, meaning that students have not yet learned the phonics rule that would enable them to decode the word. Those words that are decodable should be introduced to students using appropriate phonics rules. See 1.F.1.3. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity.  Clarification 3: See Fluency Norms for grade-level norms. Norms are expressed as words correct per minute (WCPM), a measure that combines accuracy with speed.  Clarification 4: “Appropriate prosody” refers to pausing patterns during oral reading that reflect the punctuation and meaning of a text. See Sample Oral Reading Fluency Rubrics for prosody.  Clarification 5: Grade-level texts, for the purposes of fluency, are those within the grade band on quantitative text complexity measures and appropriate in content and qualitative measures.
ELA.1.R.1.1:	Identify and describe the main story elements in a story. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Main story elements for the purpose of this benchmark are the setting, characters, and sequence of events of a story.  Clarification 2: In describing the characters, students can describe appearance, actions, feelings, and thoughts of the characters. Students will explain what in the text their description is based on.  Clarification 3: For setting, students will discuss where the events of the story are happening. The time element of setting should only be addressed in texts where it is explicitly indicated.
ELA.1.R.1.2:	Identify and explain the moral of a story. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: This benchmark introduces the moral of a story as a precursor to theme in 2nd grade. A moral is the lesson of a story. During instruction, let students know that not all stories have a lesson by referring to stories read that did not have a moral or a lesson.
ELA.1.R.1.3:	Explain who is telling the story using context clues. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Students will use the term “narrator” to refer to the speaker telling the story. Students will determine if the narrator is a character in the story or a speaker outside of the story. Students will give reasons why they know who is speaking.
ELA.1.R.1.4:	Identify stanzas and line breaks in poems. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: This benchmark can be paired with R.1.1, R.1.2, R.1.3 and R.3.2 for instruction with story poems.
ELA.1.R.2.1:	Use text features including titles, headings, captions, graphs, maps, glossaries, and/or illustrations to demonstrate understanding of texts.

ELA.1.R.2.2:	Identify the topic of and relevant details in a text.
ELA.1.R.2.3:	Explain similarities and differences between information provided in visuals and words in an informational text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: When explaining similarities and differences, students will also explain how the visuals and words help the reader make sense of the topic. Clarification 2: During instruction, give students opportunities to see visual representations of similarities and differences using tools such as Venn diagrams or T-charts.
ELA.1.R.2.4:	Identify an author's opinion(s) about the topic.
ELA.1.R.3.1:	Identify and explain descriptive words and phrases in text(s). Clarifications: Clarification 1: Continue to expose students to the academic vocabulary word "adjective." Discussion should focus on how the descriptive words add meaning to the text.
ELA.1.R.3.2:	Retell a text in oral or written form to enhance comprehension. a. Use main story elements at the beginning, middle, and end for a literary text. b. Use topic and important details for an informational text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark.
ELA.1.R.3.3:	Compare and contrast two texts on the same topic. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students are being asked to compare and contrast. During instruction, give students opportunities to see visual representations of similarities and differences using tools such as Venn diagrams or T-charts.
ELA.1.V.1.1:	Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, are vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.
ELA.1.V.1.2:	Identify and use frequently occurring base words and their common inflections in grade-level content. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Base Words for frequently occurring base words. Clarification 2: Inflectional endings, the inflections referred to here, are added to the end of a word to add additional information. Example: Regular verbs add the inflectional ending -ed to indicate the past tense.
ELA.1.V.1.3:	Identify and use picture clues, context clues, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the meaning of unknown words. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level. Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships.
ELA.K12.EE.1.1:	Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning. Clarifications: K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing. 2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations. 4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they've directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor. 6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation. 9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ.
ELA.K12.EE.2.1:	Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently. Clarifications: See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric.
ELA.K12.EE.3.1:	Make inferences to support comprehension. Clarifications: Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like "Why is the girl smiling?" or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond.

Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations.

Clarifications:

In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully.

ELA.K12.EE.4.1:

In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: "I think _____ because _____." The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations.

In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence.

Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work.

Clarifications:

ELA.K12.EE.5.1:

Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work.

Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing.

Clarifications:

ELA.K12.EE.6.1:

In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts.

ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:

English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.

ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:

English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

This course supports English Language Learners' acquisition of English in order to learn and to read, write, and speak in English, including the use of appropriate forms of English for different purposes, the importance of culture in various communicative modes, and the importance of active oral language participation within the classroom setting.

This course defines what students should understand and be able to do by the end of 1st grade. The standards emphasize explicit, systematic phonics instruction as the foundation of literacy. Decoding and fluency are essential to creating proficient readers. Knowledge acquisition should be the primary purpose of any reading approach as systematic building of a wide range of knowledge across domains is a prerequisite to higher literacy.

The benchmarks in this course are mastery goals that students are expected to attain by the end of the year. To build mastery, students will continue to review and apply earlier grade-level benchmarks and expectations.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Arts is not a discrete set of skills, but a rich discipline with meaningful, significant content, the knowledge of which helps all students actively and fully participate in our society.

Standards should not stand alone as a separate focus for instruction, but should be combined purposefully.

The texts students read should be meaningful and thought-provoking, preparing them to be informed, civic-minded members of their community.

Curricular content for all subjects must integrate critical-thinking, problem-solving, and workforce-literacy skills; communication, reading, and writing skills; mathematics skills; collaboration skills; contextual and applied-learning skills; technology-literacy skills; information and media-literacy skills; and civic-engagement skills.

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. To access an ELL supporting document which delineates performance definitions and descriptors, please click on the following link: <https://cpalmsmediaproduct.blob.core.windows.net/uploads/docs/standards/eld/la.pdf>

VERSION REQUIREMENTS

Build background knowledge in K-5 with a balance of approximately 50% informational texts and 50% literary texts.

Approximately one-third of the titles from the 1st Grade Sample Book List should be used in instruction.

QUALIFICATIONS

As well as the certification requirements listed on the course description, the following qualifications may also be acceptable for the course:

Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.2.C.1.1:	Demonstrate legible printing skills.
ELA.2.C.1.2:	Write personal or fictional narratives using a logical sequence of events, transitions, and an ending. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types.
ELA.2.C.1.3:	Write opinions about a topic or text with reasons supported by details from a source, use transitions, and provide a conclusion. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types.
ELA.2.C.1.4:	Write expository texts about a topic, using a source, providing an introduction, facts, transitions, and a conclusion. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types.
ELA.2.C.1.5:	Improve writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing with guidance and support from adults and feedback from peers. Clarifications: Clarification 1: "As needed" refers to the fact that sometimes instruction will focus on a specific skill or part of the process. In those instances, only the applicable activity will be engaged in.
ELA.2.C.2.1:	Present information orally using complete sentences, appropriate volume, and clear pronunciation. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Clear pronunciation shows an understanding and application of phonics rules and sight words as well as care taken in delivery. A student's speech impediment should not be considered as impeding clear pronunciation.  Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Elementary Oral Communication Rubric.
ELA.2.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Form plurals -y to -ies.</li> <li>• Use apostrophes to form contractions.</li> <li>• Appropriately use pronouns.</li> <li>• Use commas in a series.</li> <li>• Use plural possessives.</li> <li>• Use interjections.</li> </ul> Skills to be implemented but not yet mastered are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Conjugate regular and irregular verb tenses.</li> <li>• Form and use regular and frequently occurring irregular plural nouns.</li> <li>• Form and use the past tense of frequently occurring irregular verbs.</li> <li>• Maintain consistent verb tense across paragraphs.</li> <li>• Form and use irregular plural nouns.</li> <li>• Form and use the progressive and perfect verb tenses.</li> <li>• Use simple modifiers.</li> <li>• Use prepositions and prepositional phrases.</li> <li>• Form and use compound sentences.</li> <li>• Use quotation marks with dialogue and direct quotations.</li> <li>• Use commas to indicate direct address.</li> <li>• Use subject-verb agreement with intervening clauses and phrases.</li> <li>• Produce complete sentences, recognizing and correcting inappropriate fragments and run-ons.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information.
ELA.2.C.4.1:	Participate in research to gather information to answer a question about a single topic using multiple sources.
ELA.2.C.5.1:	Use one or more multimedia element(s) to enhance oral or written tasks. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Multimedia elements may include, but are not limited to, drawings, pictures, artifacts, and audio or digital representation. At this grade level, the element(s) should relate directly to the task. There is no expectation that the element(s) be integrated into the task. The student can but is not required to use more than one multimedia element.

ELA.2.C.5.2: ELA.2.F.1.3:	Use digital tools to produce and publish writing individually or with peers and with support from adults. Use knowledge of grade-appropriate phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Decode words with variable vowel teams (e.g., oo, ea, ou) and vowel diphthongs (e.g., oi, oy, ow).</li> <li>Decode regularly spelled two-syllable words with long and short vowels.</li> <li>Decode words with open (e.g., hi, baby, moment) and closed (e.g., bag, sunshine, chop) syllables and consonant -le (e.g., purple, circle, stumble).</li> <li>Decode words with common prefixes and suffixes.</li> <li>Decode words with silent letter combinations (e.g., knight, comb, island, ghost).</li> </ol> Clarifications: Clarification 1: Phonics refers to the relationship between graphemes (letters or letter combinations) and phonemes (speech sounds). Clarification 2: Students will decode decodable high frequency words appropriate to the grade level. See 2.F.1.4 and Dolch and Fry word lists. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity.
ELA.2.F.1.4:	Read grade-level texts with accuracy, automaticity, and appropriate prosody or expression. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Dolch and Fry word lists. Clarification 2: Many of the high frequency words at this grade level are either irregularly spelled and therefore not decodable or are temporarily irregular, meaning that students have not yet learned the phonics rule that would enable them to decode the word. Those words that are decodable should be introduced to students using appropriate phonics rules. See 2.F.1.3. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity. Clarification 3: See Fluency Norms for grade-level norms. Norms are expressed as words correct per minute (WCMP), a measure that combines accuracy with rate. Clarification 4: Appropriate prosody refers to pausing patterns during oral reading that reflect the punctuation and meaning of a text. See Sample Oral Reading Fluency Rubrics for prosody. Clarification 5: Grade-level texts, for the purposes of fluency, are those within the grade band on quantitative text complexity measures and appropriate in content and qualitative measures.
ELA.2.R.1.1:	Identify plot structure and describe main story elements in a literary text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Main story elements for the purpose of this benchmark are the setting, characters, and sequence of events of a story. Clarification 2: For setting, students will describe where and when the events of the story are happening. The time element of setting will be addressed even when not explicitly indicated in the text. Clarification 3: For character, student's will describe characters' traits, feelings, and behaviors.
ELA.2.R.1.2:	Identify and explain a theme of a literary text.
ELA.2.R.1.3:	Identify different characters' perspectives in a literary text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something." The term point of view is used when referring to the person of the narrator. This is to prevent confusion and conflation.
ELA.2.R.1.4:	Identify rhyme schemes in poems. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students will mark rhyme scheme and recognize rhyme scheme notation. Rhyme scheme notation uses capital letters, starting with A to mark the end of each line, repeating the letter for each line in the poem that rhymes with that line and progressing through the alphabet for each new end rhyme. Lines designated with the same letter all rhyme with each other. Examples: I never saw a Purple Cow, A  I never hope to see one; B  But I can tell you, anyhow, A  I'd rather see than be one! B –Gelett Burgess Little Miss Muffet                    A  Sat on a tuffet,                        A  Eating her curds and whey;        B  Along came a spider                 C  Who sat down beside her            C

	And frightened Miss Muffet away. B –Traditional Nursery Rhyme
ELA.2.R.2.1:	Explain how text features—including titles, headings, captions, graphs, maps, glossaries, and/or illustrations—contribute to the meaning of texts.
ELA.2.R.2.2:	Identify the central idea and relevant details in a text.
ELA.2.R.2.3:	Explain an author’s purpose in an informational text.
ELA.2.R.2.4:	Explain an author’s opinion(s) and supporting evidence.
ELA.2.R.3.1:	Identify and explain similes, idioms, and alliteration in text(s).
	Retell a text to enhance comprehension.
ELA.2.R.3.2:	a. Use main story elements in a logical sequence for a literary text. b. Use the central idea and relevant details for an informational text.  Clarifications: Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark.
ELA.2.R.3.3:	Compare and contrast important details presented by two texts on the same topic or theme. Clarifications: Clarification 1: For literary texts, students can compare and contrast story elements such as characters, illustrations, and sequence of events.  Clarification 2: The different versions may be of the same or different formats.
ELA.2.V.1.1:	Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.
ELA.2.V.1.2:	Identify and use base words and affixes to determine the meaning of unfamiliar words in grade-level content. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Base Words.
ELA.2.V.1.3:	Identify and use context clues, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the meaning of unknown words. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level.  Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships.
ELA.K12.EE.1.1:	Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning. Clarifications: K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing.  2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations.  4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they’ve directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor.  6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation.  9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ.
ELA.K12.EE.2.1:	Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently. Clarifications: See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric.
ELA.K12.EE.3.1:	Make inferences to support comprehension. Clarifications: Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like “Why is the girl smiling?” or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond.
	Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations. Clarifications: In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully.

ELA.K12.EE.4.1:	In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: "I think _____ because _____." The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations.  In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence.
ELA.K12.EE.5.1:	Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work. Clarifications: Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work.
ELA.K12.EE.6.1:	Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing. Clarifications: In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts.
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

This course supports English Language Learners' acquisition of English in order to learn and to read, write, and speak in English, including the use of appropriate forms of English for different purposes, the importance of culture in various communicative modes, and the importance of active oral language participation within the classroom setting.

This course defines what students should understand and be able to do by the end of 2nd grade. The standards emphasize explicit, systematic phonics instruction as the foundation of literacy. Decoding and fluency are essential to creating proficient readers. Knowledge acquisition should be the primary purpose of any reading approach as systematic building of a wide range of knowledge across domains is a prerequisite to higher literacy.

The benchmarks in this course are mastery goals that students are expected to attain by the end of the year. To build mastery, students will continue to review and apply earlier grade-level benchmarks and expectations.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Arts is not a discrete set of skills, but a rich discipline with meaningful, significant content, the knowledge of which helps all students actively and fully participate in our society.

Standards should not stand alone as a separate focus for instruction, but should be combined purposefully.

The texts students read should be meaningful and thought-provoking, preparing them to be informed, civic-minded members of their community.

Curricular content for all subjects must integrate critical-thinking, problem-solving, and workforce-literacy skills; communication, reading, and writing skills; mathematics skills; collaboration skills; contextual and applied-learning skills; technology-literacy skills; information and media-literacy skills; and civic-engagement skills.

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. ### VERSION REQUIREMENTS

Build background knowledge in K-5 with a balance of approximately 50% informational texts and 50% literary texts.

Approximately one-third of the titles from the 2nd Grade Sample Book List should be used in instruction.

QUALIFICATIONS

As well as the certification requirements listed on the course description, the following qualifications may also be acceptable for the course:

Any World Language certification plus English Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) Endorsement.

Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.3.C.1.1:	Write in cursive all upper- and lowercase letters.
ELA.3.C.1.2:	Write personal or fictional narratives using a logical sequence of events, appropriate descriptions, dialogue, a variety of transitional words or phrases, and an ending. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types.
ELA.3.C.1.3:	Write opinions about a topic or text, include reasons supported by details from one or more sources, use transitions, and provide a conclusion. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types.
ELA.3.C.1.4:	Write expository texts about a topic, using one or more sources, providing an introduction, facts and details, some elaboration, transitions, and a conclusion. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques.
ELA.3.C.1.5:	Improve writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing with guidance and support from adults and feedback from peers. Clarifications: Clarification 1: As needed refers to the fact that sometimes instruction will focus on a specific skill or part of the process. In those instances, only the applicable activity will be engaged in.
ELA.3.C.2.1:	Present information orally, in a logical sequence, using nonverbal cues, appropriate volume, and clear pronunciation. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Nonverbal cues appropriate to this grade level are posture, tone, and expressive delivery. Clear pronunciation should be interpreted to mean an understanding and application of phonics rules and sight words as well as care taken in delivery. A student's speech impediment should not be considered as impeding clear pronunciation. This grade level introduces an expectation that the information be presented in a logical sequence. A student may self-correct an error in sequence.  Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Elementary Oral Communication Rubric .
ELA.3.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Conjugate regular and irregular verb tenses.</li> <li>• Form and use regular and frequently occurring irregular plural nouns.</li> <li>• Form and use the past tense of frequently occurring irregular verbs. • Maintain consistent verb tense across paragraphs.</li> <li>• Form and use irregular plural nouns.</li> <li>• Form and use the progressive and perfect verb tenses.</li> <li>• Use simple modifiers.</li> <li>• Use prepositions and prepositional phrases.</li> <li>• Form and use compound sentences.</li> <li>• Use quotation marks with dialogue and direct quotations. • Use commas to indicate direct address.</li> </ul> Skills to be implemented but not yet mastered are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use subject-verb agreement with intervening clauses and phrases.</li> <li>• Produce complete sentences, recognizing and correcting inappropriate fragments and run-ons.</li> <li>• Use conjunctions.</li> <li>• Use principal modals to indicate the mood of a verb.</li> <li>• Use appositives, main clauses, and subordinate clauses.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information.
ELA.3.C.4.1:	Conduct research to answer a question, organizing information about the topic from multiple sources. Clarifications: Clarification 1: While the benchmark does require that students consult multiple sources, there is no requirement that they use every source they consult. Part of the skill in researching is discernment—being able to tell which information is relevant and which sources are trustworthy enough to include.

Use two or more multimedia elements to enhance oral or written tasks.

Clarifications:

ELA.3.C.5.1:

Clarification 1: Multimedia elements may include, but are not limited to, drawings, pictures, artifacts, and audio or digital representation. At this grade level, the elements should relate directly to the presentation. The elements can reinforce or complement the information being shared. There is no expectation that the elements be fully integrated into the presentation.

ELA.3.C.5.2:

Use digital writing tools individually or collaboratively to plan, draft, and revise writing.

Use knowledge of grade-level phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words.

- a. Decode words with common Greek and Latin roots and affixes. (See benchmark 3.V.1.2)
- b. Decode words with common derivational suffixes and describe how they turn words into different parts of speech. (e.g., -ful, -less, -est).
- c. Decode multisyllabic words.

ELA.3.F.1.3:

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: See Common Greek and Latin Roots 3-5 and Affixes.

Clarification 2: See Affixes and the Parts of Speech They Form.

Read grade-level texts with accuracy, automaticity, and appropriate prosody or expression.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: See Fluency Norms for grade-level norms. Norms are expressed as words correct per minute (WCPM), a measure that combines accuracy with rate.

Clarification 2: Appropriate prosody refers to pausing patterns during oral reading that reflect the punctuation and meaning of a text. See Sample Oral Reading Fluency Rubrics for prosody.

Clarification 3: Grade-level texts, for the purposes of fluency, are those within the grade band on quantitative text complexity measures and appropriate in content and qualitative measures.

ELA.3.F.1.4:

Explain how one or more characters develop throughout the plot in a literary text.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: When explaining character development, students will include character traits, feelings, motivations, and responses to situations.

ELA.3.R.1.1:

Explain a theme and how it develops, using details, in a literary text.

ELA.3.R.1.2:

Explain different characters' perspectives in a literary text.

ELA.3.R.1.3:

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something." The term point of view is used when referring to the person of the narrator. This is to prevent confusion and conflation.

Identify types of poems: free verse, rhymed verse, haiku, and limerick.

ELA.3.R.1.4:

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: For examples of these forms, see Appendix B.

ELA.3.R.2.1:

Explain how text features contribute to meaning and identify the text structures of chronology, comparison, and cause/effect in texts.

ELA.3.R.2.2:

Identify the central idea and explain how relevant details support that idea in a text.

ELA.3.R.2.3:

Explain the development of an author's purpose in an informational text.

ELA.3.R.2.4:

Identify an author's claim and explain how an author uses evidence to support the claim.

Identify and explain metaphors, personification, and hyperbole in text(s).

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: In addition to the types of figurative language listed in this benchmark, students are still working with types from previous grades such as simile, alliteration, and idiom. Other examples can be used in instruction.

ELA.3.R.3.1:

Clarification 2: See Elementary Figurative Language.

Summarize a text to enhance comprehension.

- a. Include plot and theme for a literary text.
- b. Use the central idea and relevant details for an informational text.

ELA.3.R.3.2:

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark.

ELA.3.R.3.3:

Compare and contrast how two authors present information on the same topic or theme.

Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.

ELA.3.V.1.1:

Identify and apply knowledge of common Greek and Latin roots, base words, and affixes to determine the meaning of unfamiliar words in grade-level content.

ELA.3.V.1.2:

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: See Common Greek and Latin Roots 3-5 and Affixes.

Use context clues, figurative language, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine

ELA.3.V.1.3:	the meaning of multiple-meaning and unknown words and phrases, appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level. Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships. Clarification 3: See ELA.3.R.3.1 and Elementary Figurative Language.
ELA.K12.EE.1.1:	Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning. Clarifications: K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing. 2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations. 4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they've directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor. 6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation. 9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ.
ELA.K12.EE.2.1:	Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently. Clarifications: See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric.
ELA.K12.EE.3.1:	Make inferences to support comprehension. Clarifications: Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like "Why is the girl smiling?" or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond.
ELA.K12.EE.4.1:	Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations. Clarifications: In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully. In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: "I think _____ because _____." The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations. In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence.
ELA.K12.EE.5.1:	Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work. Clarifications: Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work.
ELA.K12.EE.6.1:	Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing. Clarifications: In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts.
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.

Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.4.C.1.1:	Demonstrate legible cursive writing skills. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students will produce cursive writing that can be consistently read by others.
ELA.4.C.1.2:	Write personal or fictional narratives using a logical sequence of events and demonstrating an effective use of techniques such as descriptions and transitional words and phrases. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students were introduced to dialogue in 3rd grade. Although it is not mentioned specifically in this benchmark, students should continue to practice the technique and receive instruction in it. Dialogue is included for mastery in the 5th grade benchmark.  Clarification 2: See Writing Types.
ELA.4.C.1.3:	Write to make a claim supporting a perspective with logical reasons, using evidence from multiple sources, elaboration, and an organizational structure with transitions. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques.
ELA.4.C.1.4:	Write expository texts about a topic, using multiple sources, elaboration, and an organizational structure with transitions. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques.
ELA.4.C.1.5:	Improve writing by planning, revising, and editing, with guidance and support from adults and feedback from peers.
ELA.4.C.2.1:	Present information orally, in a logical sequence, using nonverbal cues, appropriate volume, and clear pronunciation. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Nonverbal cues appropriate to this grade level are posture, tone, expressive delivery, focus on the audience, and facial expression. Clear pronunciation should be interpreted to mean an understanding and application of phonics rules and sight words as well as care taken in delivery. A student's speech impediment should not be considered as impeding clear pronunciation.  Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Elementary Oral Communication Rubric.
ELA.4.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use subject-verb agreement with intervening clauses and phrases.</li> <li>• Produce complete sentences, recognizing and correcting inappropriate fragments and run-ons.</li> <li>• Use conjunctions.</li> </ul> Skills to be implemented but not yet mastered are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use principal modals to indicate the mood of a verb.</li> <li>• Use appositives, main clauses, and subordinate clauses.</li> <li>• Recognize and correct inappropriate shifts in tense and number.</li> <li>• Use conjunctions correctly to join words and phrases in a sentence.</li> <li>• Use verbals including gerunds, infinitives, and participial phrases.</li> <li>• Use pronouns correctly with regard to case, number, and person, correcting for vague pronoun reference.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information.
ELA.4.C.4.1:	Conduct research to answer a question, organizing information about the topic, using multiple valid sources. Clarifications: Clarification 1: While the benchmark does require that students consult multiple sources, there is no requirement that they use every source they consult. Part of the skill in researching is discernment—being able to tell which information is relevant and which sources are trustworthy enough to include.
ELA.4.C.5.1:	Arrange multimedia elements to create emphasis in oral or written tasks. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Multimedia elements may include, but are not limited to, drawings, pictures, artifacts, and audio or digital representation. At this grade level, students are using more than one element. The elements may be of the same type (for example, two pictures or a picture and an audio recording). The elements should relate directly to the task and emphasize a point made within the task, perhaps by showing examples or data to emphasize a point. The elements should be smoothly integrated.

ELA.4.C.5.2: Use digital writing tools individually or collaboratively to plan, draft, and revise writing.

Use knowledge of grade-level phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words.

- a. Apply knowledge of all letter-sound correspondences, syllabication patterns, and morphology to read and write unfamiliar single-syllable and multisyllabic words in and out of context.

ELA.4.F.1.3: Clarifications:
Clarification 1: At this level of reading, a student who is decoding at the phoneme level (i.e., “e-n-t-er-t-ai-n”) may decode a given text but will struggle with fluency and comprehension.
As such, phonics instruction should move toward decoding at the syllabication and morpheme level. For example, when a 4th-grader encounters the word “entertain” in text, we want him or her to segment by syllable (i.e., “en-ter-tain”) or by morphological structure (i.e., “enter-tain”).

Read grade-level texts with accuracy, automaticity, and appropriate prosody or expression.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: See Fluency Norms for grade-level norms. Norms are expressed as words correct per minute (WCPM), a measure that combines accuracy with rate.

ELA.4.F.1.4: Clarification 2: Appropriate prosody refers to pausing patterns during oral reading that reflect the punctuation and meaning of a text. See Sample Oral Reading Fluency Rubrics for prosody.

Clarification 3: Grade-level texts, for the purposes of fluency, are those within the grade band on quantitative text complexity measures and appropriate in content and qualitative measures.

ELA.4.R.1.1: Explain how setting, events, conflict, and character development contribute to the plot in a literary text.

Explain a stated or implied theme and how it develops, using details, in a literary text.

ELA.4.R.1.2: Clarifications:
Clarification 1: An explanation of how the theme develops should include how characters respond to situations and how the speaker reflects upon a topic in a literary text.

ELA.4.R.1.3: Identify the narrator’s point of view and explain the difference between a narrator’s point of view and character perspective in a literary text.
Clarifications:
Clarification 1: The term perspective means “a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something.” The term point of view is used when referring to the person of the narrator. This is to prevent confusion and conflation.

ELA.4.R.1.4: Explain how rhyme and structure create meaning in a poem.

ELA.4.R.2.1: Explain how text features contribute to the meaning and identify the text structures of problem/solution, sequence, and description in texts.

ELA.4.R.2.2: Explain how relevant details support the central idea, implied or explicit.

Explain an author’s perspective toward a topic in an informational text.

ELA.4.R.2.3: Clarifications:
Clarification 1: The term perspective means “a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something.”

ELA.4.R.2.4: Explain an author’s claim and the reasons and evidence used to support the claim.

Explain how figurative language contributes to meaning in text(s).

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Figurative language for the purposes of this benchmark refers to metaphor, simile, alliteration, personification, hyperbole, and idiom. Other examples can be used in instruction.

ELA.4.R.3.1: Clarification 2: See Elementary Figurative Language.

Summarize a text to enhance comprehension.

- a. Include plot and theme for a literary text.
- b. Include the central idea and relevant details for an informational text.

ELA.4.R.3.2: Clarifications:
Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark.

ELA.4.R.3.3: Compare and contrast accounts of the same event using primary and/or secondary sources.

Clarifications:
Clarification 1: Introduce the terms “primary sources” and “secondary sources.”

Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.

ELA.4.V.1.2: Apply knowledge of common Greek and Latin roots, base words, and affixes to determine the meaning of unfamiliar words in grade-level content.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: See Common Greek and Latin Roots 3-5 and Affixes.

Use context clues, figurative language, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine

ELA.4.V.1.3:	the meaning of multiple-meaning and unknown words and phrases, appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. ## General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

This course supports English Language Learners' acquisition of English in order to learn and to read, write, and speak in English, including the use of appropriate forms of English for different purposes, the importance of culture in various communicative modes, and the importance of active oral language participation within the classroom setting.

This course defines what students should understand and be able to do by the end of 4th grade. The standards emphasize explicit, systematic phonics instruction as the foundation of literacy. Decoding and fluency are essential to creating proficient readers. Knowledge acquisition should be the primary purpose of any reading approach as systematic building of a wide range of knowledge across domains is a prerequisite to higher literacy.

The benchmarks in this course are mastery goals that students are expected to attain by the end of the year. To build mastery, students will continue to review and apply earlier grade-level benchmarks and expectations.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Arts is not a discrete set of skills, but a rich discipline with meaningful, significant content, the knowledge of which helps all students actively and fully participate in our society.

Standards should not stand alone as a separate focus for instruction, but should be combined purposefully.

The texts students read should be meaningful and thought-provoking, preparing them to be informed, civic-minded members of their community.

Curricular content for all subjects must integrate critical-thinking, problem-solving, and workforce-literacy skills; communication, reading, and writing skills; mathematics skills; collaboration skills; contextual and applied-learning skills; technology-literacy skills; information and media-literacy skills; and civic-engagement skills.

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. ## Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.5.C.1.1:	Demonstrate fluent and legible cursive writing skills. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Students will use cursive writing to produce legible works within the same timeframe as they would use for writing in print.
ELA.5.C.1.2:	Write personal or fictional narratives using a logical sequence of events and demonstrating an effective use of techniques such as dialogue, description, and transitional words and phrases. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types.
ELA.5.C.1.3:	Write to make a claim supporting a perspective with logical reasons, relevant evidence from sources, elaboration, and an organizational structure with varied transitions. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques.
ELA.5.C.1.4:	Write expository texts about a topic using multiple sources and including an organizational structure, relevant elaboration, and varied transitions. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques.
ELA.5.C.1.5:	Improve writing by planning, revising, and editing, with guidance and support from adults and feedback from peers.
ELA.5.C.2.1:	Present information orally, in a logical sequence, using nonverbal cues, appropriate volume, clear pronunciation, and appropriate pacing. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Nonverbal cues appropriate to this grade level are posture, tone, expressive delivery, focus on the audience, and facial expression. Clear pronunciation should be interpreted to mean an understanding and application of phonics rules and sight words as well as care taken in delivery. A student's speech impediment should not be considered as impeding clear pronunciation. This is the initial grade level that introduces appropriate pacing. Appropriate pacing is adhering to the pauses dictated by punctuation and speaking at a rate that best facilitates comprehension by the audience. Too fast a pace will lose listeners and too slow can become monotonous. The element will also help students address the nervousness that may make them speak too fast during presentations. Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Elementary Oral Communication Rubric.
ELA.5.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use principal modals to indicate the mood of a verb.</li> <li>• Use appositives, main clauses, and subordinate clauses.</li> <li>• Recognize and correct inappropriate shifts in tense and number.</li> <li>• Use conjunctions correctly to join words and phrases in a sentence.</li> </ul> Skills to be implemented but not yet mastered are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use verbals including gerunds, infinitives, and participial phrases.</li> <li>• Use comparative and superlative forms of adjectives.</li> <li>• Use pronouns correctly with regard to case, number, and person, correcting for vague pronoun reference.</li> <li>• Vary sentence structure.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information.
ELA.5.C.4.1:	Conduct research to answer a question, organizing information about the topic and using multiple reliable and valid sources. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: While the benchmark does require that students consult multiple sources, there is no requirement that they use every source they consult. Part of the skill in researching is discernment—being able to tell which information is relevant and which sources are trustworthy enough to include.
	Arrange multimedia elements to create emphasis in oral or written tasks. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Multimedia elements may include, but are not limited to, drawings, pictures, artifacts, and audio or digital

ELA.5.C.5.1:	representation. At this grade level, students are using more than one element. The elements may be of the same type (for example, two pictures or a picture and an audio recording). The elements should relate directly to the task and emphasize or clarify a point made within the task, perhaps by showing examples to clarify a claim or data to emphasize a point. The elements should be smoothly integrated.
ELA.5.C.5.2:	Use digital writing tools individually or collaboratively to plan, draft, and revise writing. Use knowledge of grade-appropriate phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words.
ELA.5.F.1.3:	a. Apply knowledge of all letter-sound correspondences, syllabication patterns, and morphology to read and write unfamiliar single-syllable and multisyllabic words in and out of context.
	Read grade-level texts with accuracy, automaticity, and appropriate prosody or expression. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Fluency Norms for grade-level norms. Norms are expressed as words correct per minute (WCPM), a measure that combines accuracy with rate.
ELA.5.F.1.4:	Clarification 2: Appropriate prosody refers to pausing patterns during oral reading that reflect the punctuation and meaning of a text. See Sample Oral Reading Fluency Rubrics for prosody. Clarification 3: Grade-level texts, for the purposes of fluency, are those within the grade band on quantitative text complexity measures and appropriate in content and qualitative measures.
ELA.5.R.1.1:	Analyze how setting, events, conflict, and characterization contribute to the plot in a literary text.
	Explain the development of stated or implied theme(s) throughout a literary text. Clarifications:
ELA.5.R.1.2:	Clarification 1: Where the development of multiple themes is being explained, the themes may come from the same or multiple literary texts.
	Describe how an author develops a character's perspective in a literary text. Clarifications:
ELA.5.R.1.3:	Clarification 1: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something."
	Explain how figurative language and other poetic elements work together in a poem. Clarifications:
ELA.5.R.1.4:	Clarification 1: Figurative language for the purposes of this benchmark refers to metaphor, simile, alliteration, personification, hyperbole, imagery, and idiom. Other examples can be used in instruction. Clarification 2: Poetic elements to be used for the purposes of this benchmark are form, rhyme, meter, line breaks, and imagery.
	Explain how text structures and/or features contribute to the overall meaning of texts. Clarifications:
ELA.5.R.2.1:	Clarification 1: For more information, see Text Structures and Text Features.
ELA.5.R.2.2:	Explain how relevant details support the central idea(s), implied or explicit.
	Analyze an author's purpose and/or perspective in an informational text. Clarifications:
ELA.5.R.2.3:	Clarification 1: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something."
	Track the development of an argument, identifying the specific claim(s), evidence, and reasoning. Clarifications:
ELA.5.R.2.4:	Clarification 1: A claim is a statement that asserts something is true. A claim can either be fact or opinion. Claims can be used alone or with other claims to form a larger argument.
ELA.5.R.3.1:	Analyze how figurative language contributes to meaning in text(s).
	Summarize a text to enhance comprehension.
ELA.5.R.3.2:	a. Include plot and theme for a literary text. b. Include the central idea and relevant details for an informational text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark.
ELA.5.R.3.3:	Compare and contrast primary and secondary sources related to the same topic.
	Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing. Clarifications:
ELA.5.V.1.1:	Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.
	Apply knowledge of Greek and Latin roots and affixes, recognizing the connection between affixes and parts of speech, to determine the meaning of unfamiliar words in grade-level content. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Common Greek and Latin Roots 3-5.
ELA.5.V.1.2:	Use context clues, figurative language, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the meaning of multiple-meaning and unknown words and phrases, appropriate to grade level. Clarifications:
ELA.5.V.1.3:	Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level.

	Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships. Clarification 3: See ELA.5.R.3.1 and Elementary Figurative Language.
ELA.K12.EE.1.1:	Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning. Clarifications: K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing. 2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations. 4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they've directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor. 6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation. 9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ.
ELA.K12.EE.2.1:	Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently. Clarifications: See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric.
ELA.K12.EE.3.1:	Make inferences to support comprehension. Clarifications: Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like "Why is the girl smiling?" or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond.
ELA.K12.EE.4.1:	Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations. Clarifications: In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully. In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: "I think _____ because _____." The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations. In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence.
ELA.K12.EE.5.1:	Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work. Clarifications: Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work.
ELA.K12.EE.6.1:	Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing. Clarifications: In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts.
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.

Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.1.F.1.1:	Locate the title, table of contents, names of author(s) and illustrator(s), and glossary of books. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.F.1.2:	Demonstrate phonological awareness. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Segment spoken words into initial, medial, and final phonemes, including words with digraphs, blends, and trigraphs.</li> <li>Orally blend initial, medial, and final phonemes together to produce a single-syllable word that includes digraphs, blends, or trigraphs.</li> <li>Blend single-syllable spoken words with at least five phonemes.</li> <li>Segment single-syllable spoken words with at least five phonemes.</li> <li>Segment and blend phonemes in multi-syllable spoken words.</li> </ol> Clarifications: Clarification 1: Phonological awareness only refers to what can be done orally at both the sound and syllabic level. This includes isolating sounds, blending sounds, and orally segmenting words based on syllables. It does not involve print or letter knowledge. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.F.1.3:	Use knowledge of grade-appropriate phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words accurately. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Decode words using knowledge of spelling-sound correspondences for common consonant digraphs, trigraphs, and blends.</li> <li>Decode simple words with r-controlled vowels.</li> <li>Decode and encode regularly spelled one-syllable words.</li> <li>Decode words with inflectional endings.</li> <li>Decode two-syllable words with regular patterns by breaking the words into syllables.</li> <li>Decode words that use final –e and vowel teams to make long-vowel sound.</li> </ol> Clarifications: Clarification 1: Phonics refers to the relationship between graphemes (letters or letter combinations) and phonemes (speech sounds). Clarification 2: Students will decode decodable high frequency words appropriate to the grade level. See 1.F.1.4 and Dolch and Fry word lists. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.F.1.4:	Read grade-level texts with accuracy, automaticity, and appropriate prosody or expression. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Recognize and read with automaticity the grade-level sight words.</li> </ol> Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Dolch and Fry word lists. Clarification 2: Many of the high frequency words at this grade level are either irregularly spelled and therefore not decodable or are temporarily irregular, meaning that students have not yet learned the phonics rule that would enable them to decode the word. Those words that are decodable should be introduced to students using appropriate phonics rules. See 1.F.1.3. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity. Clarification 3: See Fluency Norms for grade-level norms. Norms are expressed as words correct per minute (WCPM), a measure that combines accuracy with speed. Clarification 4: “Appropriate prosody” refers to pausing patterns during oral reading that reflect the punctuation and meaning of a text. See Sample Oral Reading Fluency Rubrics for prosody. Clarification 5: Grade-level texts, for the purposes of fluency, are those within the grade band on quantitative text complexity measures and appropriate in content and qualitative measures. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.R.1.1:	Identify and describe the main story elements in a story. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Main story elements for the purpose of this benchmark are the setting, characters, and sequence of events of a story. Clarification 2: In describing the characters, students can describe appearance, actions, feelings, and thoughts of the characters. Students will explain what in the text their description is based on.

Clarification 3: For setting, students will discuss where the events of the story are happening. The time element of setting should only be addressed in texts where it is explicitly indicated.

ELA.1.R.1.2:	Identify and explain the moral of a story. Clarifications: Clarification 1: This benchmark introduces the moral of a story as a precursor to theme in 2nd grade. A moral is the lesson of a story. During instruction, let students know that not all stories have a lesson by referring to stories read that did not have a moral or a lesson.
ELA.1.R.1.3:	Explain who is telling the story using context clues. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students will use the term “narrator” to refer to the speaker telling the story. Students will determine if the narrator is a character in the story or a speaker outside of the story. Students will give reasons why they know who is speaking.
ELA.1.R.1.4:	Identify stanzas and line breaks in poems. Clarifications: Clarification 1: This benchmark can be paired with R.1.1, R.1.2, R.1.3 and R.3.2 for instruction with story poems.
ELA.1.R.2.1:	Use text features including titles, headings, captions, graphs, maps, glossaries, and/or illustrations to demonstrate understanding of texts.
ELA.1.R.2.2:	Identify the topic of and relevant details in a text.
ELA.1.R.2.3:	Explain similarities and differences between information provided in visuals and words in an informational text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: When explaining similarities and differences, students will also explain how the visuals and words help the reader make sense of the topic.  Clarification 2: During instruction, give students opportunities to see visual representations of similarities and differences using tools such as Venn diagrams or T-charts.
ELA.1.R.2.4:	Identify an author’s opinion(s) about the topic.
ELA.1.R.3.1:	Identify and explain descriptive words and phrases in text(s). Clarifications: Clarification 1: Continue to expose students to the academic vocabulary word “adjective.” Discussion should focus on how the descriptive words add meaning to the text.
ELA.1.R.3.2:	Retell a text in oral or written form to enhance comprehension.  a. Use main story elements at the beginning, middle, and end for a literary text. b. Use topic and important details for an informational text.  Clarifications: Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark.
ELA.1.R.3.3:	Compare and contrast two texts on the same topic. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students are being asked to compare and contrast. During instruction, give students opportunities to see visual representations of similarities and differences using tools such as Venn diagrams or T-charts.
ELA.1.V.1.1:	Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, are vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.V.1.2:	Identify and use frequently occurring base words and their common inflections in grade-level content. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Base Words for frequently occurring base words.  Clarification 2: Inflectional endings, the inflections referred to here, are added to the end of a word to add additional information.  Example: Regular verbs add the inflectional ending -ed to indicate the past tense.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.V.1.3:	Identify and use picture clues, context clues, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the meaning of unknown words. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level.  Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships.
	Use knowledge of grade-appropriate phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words.  a. Decode words with variable vowel teams (e.g., oo, ea, ou) and vowel diphthongs (e.g., oi, oy, ow).

- b. Decode regularly spelled two-syllable words with long and short vowels.
- c. Decode words with open (e.g., hi, baby, moment) and closed (e.g., bag, sunshine, chop) syllables and consonant -le (e.g., purple, circle, stumble).
- d. Decode words with common prefixes and suffixes.
- e. Decode words with silent letter combinations (e.g., knight, comb, island, ghost).

ELA.2.F.1.3:

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Phonics refers to the relationship between graphemes (letters or letter combinations) and phonemes (speech sounds).

Clarification 2: Students will decode decodable high frequency words appropriate to the grade level. See 2.F.1.4 and Dolch and Fry word lists. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity.

ELA.2.F.1.4:

Read grade-level texts with accuracy, automaticity, and appropriate prosody or expression.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: See Dolch and Fry word lists.

Clarification 2: Many of the high frequency words at this grade level are either irregularly spelled and therefore not decodable or are temporarily irregular, meaning that students have not yet learned the phonics rule that would enable them to decode the word. Those words that are decodable should be introduced to students using appropriate phonics rules. See 2.F.1.3. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity.

Clarification 3: See Fluency Norms for grade-level norms. Norms are expressed as words correct per minute (WCPM), a measure that combines accuracy with rate.

Clarification 4: Appropriate prosody refers to pausing patterns during oral reading that reflect the punctuation and meaning of a text. See Sample Oral Reading Fluency Rubrics for prosody.

Clarification 5: Grade-level texts, for the purposes of fluency, are those within the grade band on quantitative text complexity measures and appropriate in content and qualitative measures.

ELA.2.R.1.1:

Identify plot structure and describe main story elements in a literary text.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Main story elements for the purpose of this benchmark are the setting, characters, and sequence of events of a story.

Clarification 2: For setting, students will describe where and when the events of the story are happening. The time element of setting will be addressed even when not explicitly indicated in the text.

Clarification 3: For character, student's will describe characters' traits, feelings, and behaviors.

ELA.2.R.1.2:

Identify and explain a theme of a literary text.

ELA.2.R.1.3:

Identify different characters' perspectives in a literary text.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something." The term point of view is used when referring to the person of the narrator. This is to prevent confusion and conflation.

ELA.2.R.1.4:

Identify rhyme schemes in poems.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Students will mark rhyme scheme and recognize rhyme scheme notation. Rhyme scheme notation uses capital letters, starting with A to mark the end of each line, repeating the letter for each line in the poem that rhymes with that line and progressing through the alphabet for each new end rhyme. Lines designated with the same letter all rhyme with each other.

Examples:

I never saw a Purple Cow, A
 I never hope to see one; B
 But I can tell you, anyhow, A
 I'd rather see than be one! B

—Gelett Burgess

Little Miss Muffet A
 Sat on a tuffet, A
 Eating her curds and whey; B
 Along came a spider C
 Who sat down beside her C
 And frightened Miss Muffet away. B

—Traditional Nursery Rhyme

ELA.2.R.2.1:	Explain how text features—including titles, headings, captions, graphs, maps, glossaries, and/or illustrations—contribute to the meaning of texts.
ELA.2.R.2.2:	Identify the central idea and relevant details in a text.
ELA.2.R.2.3:	Explain an author’s purpose in an informational text.
ELA.2.R.2.4:	Explain an author’s opinion(s) and supporting evidence.
ELA.2.R.3.1:	Identify and explain similes, idioms, and alliteration in text(s).
ELA.2.R.3.2:	Retell a text to enhance comprehension. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Use main story elements in a logical sequence for a literary text.</li> <li>b. Use the central idea and relevant details for an informational text.</li> </ul> Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark.
ELA.2.R.3.3:	Compare and contrast important details presented by two texts on the same topic or theme. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: For literary texts, students can compare and contrast story elements such as characters, illustrations, and sequence of events. Clarification 2: The different versions may be of the same or different formats.
ELA.2.V.1.1:	Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.
ELA.2.V.1.2:	Identify and use base words and affixes to determine the meaning of unfamiliar words in grade-level content. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Base Words.
ELA.2.V.1.3:	Identify and use context clues, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the meaning of unknown words. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level. Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships.
ELA.K.F.1.1:	Demonstrate knowledge of the basic concepts of print. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Locate a printed word on a page.</li> <li>b. ELA.K.F.1.3:	Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Phonics refers to the relationship between graphemes (letters or letter combinations) and phonemes (speech sounds). Clarification 2: Students will decode decodable high frequency words appropriate to the grade level. See K.F.1.4 and Dolch and Fry word lists. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.F.1.4:	Recognize and read with automaticity grade-level high frequency words. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Dolch and Fry word lists. Clarification 2: Many of the high frequency words at this grade level are either irregularly spelled and therefore not decodable or are temporarily irregular, meaning that students have not yet learned the phonics rule that would enable them to decode the word. Those words that are decodable should be introduced to students using appropriate phonics rules. See K.F.1.3. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.R.1.1:	Describe the main character(s), setting, and important events in a story. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: In describing the main character, students can describe appearance, actions, feelings, and thoughts of the character. Students will explain what in the text their description is based on.  Clarification 2: For setting, students will discuss where the events of the story are happening. The time element of setting should only be addressed in texts where it is explicitly indicated.  Clarification 3: Descriptions can be oral, either in response to a question or through discussion. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.R.1.3:	Explain the roles of author and illustrator of a story. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Students will explain that the author writes the words and the illustrator creates the pictures, recognizing that sometimes one person does both jobs, as in Dr. Seuss’ Hop on Pop where Dr. Seuss performs both roles.  Clarification 2: Students should also explain that both authors and illustrators contribute to the meaning of the text.
ELA.K.R.1.4:	Identify rhyme in a poem. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: This benchmark builds on the skills from the phonological awareness benchmark ELA.K.F.1.2(b): Identify and produce alliterative and rhyming words. The expectation is that students identify rhyming words in a poem that is read aloud.  Clarification 2: Students will also note where the rhyme is coming, e.g., at the end of a line.
ELA.K.R.2.1:	Use titles, headings, and illustrations to predict and confirm the topic of texts. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: The step of confirming the prediction is essential to mastery of this benchmark. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.R.2.2:	Identify the topic of and multiple details in a text. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: The topic is the general subject of the text, a word or a short phrase describing what the text is about. For example, the main topic of the book Why Should I Recycle? is recycling. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.R.2.4:	Explain the difference between opinions and facts about a topic. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Students will explain which statements are fact and which are opinion within a text.  Clarification 2: Students will orally explain that facts are things that a person knows about something and that can be proven true or false. Students will orally explain that opinions are what a person thinks about something, often related to feelings or beliefs. Opinions cannot be proven true or false. Example: “Dogs need food and water to survive” is a fact. It can be proven to be true. “Dogs are the best pets” is an opinion. It’s what someone may think, but it can’t be proven. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.R.3.1:	Identify and explain descriptive words in text(s). Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Students will explain examples of descriptive words in text and how they add meaning.  Clarification 2: Students will be introduced to the academic vocabulary word “adjective.” However, students are not expected to use the word independently. Discussion should focus on how the descriptive words add meaning to the text. Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Retell a text orally to enhance comprehension: a. Use main character(s), setting, and important events for a story.

ELA.K.R.3.2:	b. Use topic and details for an informational text. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.R.3.3:	Compare and contrast characters' experiences in stories. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Students will orally compare and contrast the experiences that characters have had, comparing them to those experienced by other characters, in the same story or a different story. Those experiences can be expressed as events, feelings, or behaviors.
ELA.K.V.1.1:	Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, are vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.V.1.2:	Ask and answer questions about unfamiliar words in grade-level content.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.V.1.3:	Identify and sort common words into basic categories, relating vocabulary to background knowledge. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level.  Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K12.EE.1.1:	Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning. Clarifications:  K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing.  2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations.  4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they've directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor.  6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation.  9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ.  Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.2.1:	Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently. Clarifications:  See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric.  Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.3.1:	Make inferences to support comprehension. Clarifications:  Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like "Why is the girl smiling?" or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond.  Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.4.1:	Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations. Clarifications:  In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully.  In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: "I think _____ because _____." The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations.  In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence.  Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.5.1:	Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work. Clarifications:  Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work.  Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
	Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing. Clarifications:

ELA.K12.EE.6.1:	In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

This course supports students who are struggling to read and write or speak about what they have read in core instruction. Instruction will use explicit, systematic, and sequential approaches to reading instruction addressing all components of reading including phonological awareness, phonics, vocabulary, fluency, and reading comprehension.

Teachers will use the listed standards that correspond to student need based on diagnostic assessments and adjust according to ongoing progress monitoring data.

Effective instruction matches instruction to the need of the students in the group and provides multiple opportunities to practice the skill and receive feedback. The additional time allotted is in addition to core instruction. The intervention includes materials and strategies designed to supplement core instruction.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. To access an ELL supporting document which delineates performance definitions and descriptors, please click on the following link:
<https://cpalmsmediaproduct.blob.core.windows.net/uploads/docs/standards/eld/la.pdf>

VERSION REQUIREMENTS

Interventions must be evidence-based and correspond to either the district K-12 Evidence-based Comprehensive Reading plan or the reading plan within a school's charter.

QUALIFICATIONS

As well as any certification requirements listed on the course description, the following qualifications may also be acceptable for the course:

Any field when certification reflects a bachelor or higher degree plus Reading Endorsement.

THE READING ENDORSEMENT IS A REQUIREMENT FOR TEACHERS PROVIDING TIER 3 INSTRUCTION.

Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.1.F.1.1:	Locate the title, table of contents, names of author(s) and illustrator(s), and glossary of books. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.F.1.2:	Demonstrate phonological awareness. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Segment spoken words into initial, medial, and final phonemes, including words with digraphs, blends, and trigraphs.</li> <li>Orally blend initial, medial, and final phonemes together to produce a single-syllable word that includes digraphs, blends, or trigraphs.</li> <li>Blend single-syllable spoken words with at least five phonemes.</li> <li>Segment single-syllable spoken words with at least five phonemes.</li> <li>Segment and blend phonemes in multi-syllable spoken words.</li> </ol> Clarifications: Clarification 1: Phonological awareness only refers to what can be done orally at both the sound and syllabic level. This includes isolating sounds, blending sounds, and orally segmenting words based on syllables. It does not involve print or letter knowledge. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.F.1.3:	Use knowledge of grade-appropriate phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words accurately. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Decode words using knowledge of spelling-sound correspondences for common consonant digraphs, trigraphs, and blends.</li> <li>Decode simple words with r-controlled vowels.</li> <li>Decode and encode regularly spelled one-syllable words.</li> <li>Decode words with inflectional endings.</li> <li>Decode two-syllable words with regular patterns by breaking the words into syllables.</li> <li>Decode words that use final –e and vowel teams to make long-vowel sound.</li> </ol> Clarifications: Clarification 1: Phonics refers to the relationship between graphemes (letters or letter combinations) and phonemes (speech sounds). Clarification 2: Students will decode decodable high frequency words appropriate to the grade level. See 1.F.1.4 and Dolch and Fry word lists. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.F.1.4:	Read grade-level texts with accuracy, automaticity, and appropriate prosody or expression. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Recognize and read with automaticity the grade-level sight words.</li> </ol> Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Dolch and Fry word lists. Clarification 2: Many of the high frequency words at this grade level are either irregularly spelled and therefore not decodable or are temporarily irregular, meaning that students have not yet learned the phonics rule that would enable them to decode the word. Those words that are decodable should be introduced to students using appropriate phonics rules. See 1.F.1.3. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity. Clarification 3: See Fluency Norms for grade-level norms. Norms are expressed as words correct per minute (WCPM), a measure that combines accuracy with speed. Clarification 4: “Appropriate prosody” refers to pausing patterns during oral reading that reflect the punctuation and meaning of a text. See Sample Oral Reading Fluency Rubrics for prosody. Clarification 5: Grade-level texts, for the purposes of fluency, are those within the grade band on quantitative text complexity measures and appropriate in content and qualitative measures. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.R.1.1:	Identify and describe the main story elements in a story. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Main story elements for the purpose of this benchmark are the setting, characters, and sequence of events of a story. Clarification 2: In describing the characters, students can describe appearance, actions, feelings, and thoughts of the characters. Students will explain what in the text their description is based on.

Clarification 3: For setting, students will discuss where the events of the story are happening. The time element of setting should only be addressed in texts where it is explicitly indicated.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

ELA.1.R.2.2:

Identify the topic of and relevant details in a text.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

Retell a text in oral or written form to enhance comprehension.

ELA.1.R.3.2:

- a. Use main story elements at the beginning, middle, and end for a literary text.
- b. Use topic and important details for an informational text.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.1.V.1.1:

Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, are vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.1.V.1.2:

Identify and use frequently occurring base words and their common inflections in grade-level content.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: See Base Words for frequently occurring base words.

Clarification 2: Inflectional endings, the inflections referred to here, are added to the end of a word to add additional information.

Example: Regular verbs add the inflectional ending -ed to indicate the past tense.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.1.V.1.3:

Identify and use picture clues, context clues, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the meaning of unknown words.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level.

Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.2.F.1.3:

Use knowledge of grade-appropriate phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words.

- a. Decode words with variable vowel teams (e.g., oo, ea, ou) and vowel diphthongs (e.g., oi, oy, ow).
- b. Decode regularly spelled two-syllable words with long and short vowels.
- c. Decode words with open (e.g., hi, baby, moment) and closed (e.g., bag, sunshine, chop) syllables and consonant -le (e.g., purple, circle, stumble).
- d. Decode words with common prefixes and suffixes.
- e. Decode words with silent letter combinations (e.g., knight, comb, island, ghost).

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Phonics refers to the relationship between graphemes (letters or letter combinations) and phonemes (speech sounds).

Clarification 2: Students will decode decodable high frequency words appropriate to the grade level. See 2.F.1.4 and Dolch and Fry word lists. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.2.F.1.4:

Read grade-level texts with accuracy, automaticity, and appropriate prosody or expression.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: See Dolch and Fry word lists.

Clarification 2: Many of the high frequency words at this grade level are either irregularly spelled and therefore not decodable or are temporarily irregular, meaning that students have not yet learned the phonics rule that would enable them to decode the word. Those words that are decodable should be introduced to students using appropriate phonics rules. See 2.F.1.3. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity.

Clarification 3: See Fluency Norms for grade-level norms. Norms are expressed as words correct per minute (WCPM), a measure that combines accuracy with rate.

Clarification 4: Appropriate prosody refers to pausing patterns during oral reading that reflect the punctuation and meaning of a text. See Sample Oral Reading Fluency Rubrics for prosody.

Clarification 5: Grade-level texts, for the purposes of fluency, are those within the grade band on quantitative text complexity measures and appropriate in content and qualitative measures.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing.

Clarifications:

ELA.2.V.1.1:

Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Identify and use base words and affixes to determine the meaning of unfamiliar words in grade-level content.

Clarifications:

ELA.2.V.1.2:

Clarification 1: See Base Words.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Identify and use context clues, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the meaning of unknown words.

Clarifications:

ELA.2.V.1.3:

Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level.

Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Demonstrate knowledge of the basic concepts of print.

- a. Locate a printed word on a page.
- b. Distinguish letters from words within sentences.
- c. Match print to speech to demonstrate that language is represented by print.
- d. Identify parts of a book (front cover, back cover, title page).
- e. Move top to bottom and left to right on the printed page; returning to the beginning of the next line.
- f. Identify all upper- and lowercase letters of the alphabet.
- g. Recognize that print conveys specific meaning and pictures may support meaning.

ELA.K.F.1.1:

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Matching print to speech involves making a one-to-one correspondence between a spoken word and the print on the page. This can be accomplished by having the child point to each word in a sentence as it is read by an adult.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Demonstrate phonological awareness.

- a. Blend and segment syllables in spoken words.
- b. Identify and produce alliterative and rhyming words.
- c. Blend and segment onset and rimes of single-syllable words.
- d. Identify the initial, medial, and final sound of spoken words.
- e. Add or delete phonemes at the beginning or end of a spoken word and say the resulting word.
- f. Segment and blend phonemes in single-syllable spoken words.

ELA.K.F.1.2:

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Phonological awareness only refers to what can be done orally at the syllable, onset-rime, and phoneme levels. It does not involve print or letter knowledge.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Use knowledge of grade-appropriate phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words accurately.

- a. Demonstrate knowledge of the most frequent sound for each consonant.
- b. Demonstrate knowledge of the short and long sounds for the five major vowels.
- c. Decode consonant-vowel-consonant (CVC) words.
- d. Encode consonant-vowel-consonant (CVC) words.

ELA.K.F.1.3:

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Phonics refers to the relationship between graphemes (letters or letter combinations) and phonemes (speech sounds).

Clarification 2: Students will decode decodable high frequency words appropriate to the grade level. See K.F.1.4 and Dolch and Fry word lists. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Recognize and read with automaticity grade-level high frequency words.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: See Dolch and Fry word lists.

ELA.K.F.1.4:

Clarification 2: Many of the high frequency words at this grade level are either irregularly spelled and therefore not decodable or are temporarily irregular, meaning that students have not yet learned the phonics rule that would enable them to decode the word. Those words that are decodable should be introduced to students using appropriate phonics rules.

See K.F.1.3. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Describe the main character(s), setting, and important events in a story.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: In describing the main character, students can describe appearance, actions, feelings, and thoughts of the character. Students will explain what in the text their description is based on.

Clarification 2: For setting, students will discuss where the events of the story are happening. The time element of setting should only be addressed in texts where it is explicitly indicated.

Clarification 3: Descriptions can be oral, either in response to a question or through discussion.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

ELA.K.R.1.1:

Retell a text orally to enhance comprehension:

a. Use main character(s), setting, and important events for a story.

b. Use topic and details for an informational text.

ELA.K.R.3.2:

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, are vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.K.V.1.1:

Ask and answer questions about unfamiliar words in grade-level content.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.K.V.1.2:

Identify and sort common words into basic categories, relating vocabulary to background knowledge.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level.

Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.K.V.1.3:

Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning.

Clarifications:

K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing.

2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations.

4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they've directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor.

6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation.

9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

ELA.K12.EE.1.1:

Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently.

Clarifications:

See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

ELA.K12.EE.2.1:

Make inferences to support comprehension.

Clarifications:

Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like "Why is the girl smiling?" or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

ELA.K12.EE.3.1:

Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations.

Clarifications:

In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully.

In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: "I think _____ because _____." The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations.

In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

ELA.K12.EE.4.1:

	Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work. Clarifications:
ELA.K12.EE.5.1:	Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
	Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing. Clarifications:
ELA.K12.EE.6.1:	In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

This course is designed for students with a substantial deficiency in reading for whom interventions have not been effective. Instruction will use explicit, systematic, and sequential approaches to reading instruction addressing all components of reading including phonological awareness, phonics, vocabulary, fluency, and reading comprehension.

Teachers will use the listed standards that correspond to student need based on diagnostic assessments and adjust according to ongoing progress monitoring data.

Effective implementation requires the support to be matched to student need and is provided by the most experienced, and/or specialized expert. Instruction is individualized and targeted to the skills that pose the greatest barrier to learning and is characterized by the greatest number of minutes of instruction with the narrowest focus for an individual or a very small group of students. Individualized diagnostic data, as well as instructional time, are in addition to those provided in Basic Skills in Reading K-2 and core instruction. Formative assessments occur more frequently and focus on the learning barriers to success and are based on intensity of needs. The larger the gap, the more frequent the progress monitoring with more extensive opportunities for guided practice, error correction, and feedback. The expected outcome is for the student to achieve grade-level proficiency.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. To access an ELL supporting document which delineates performance definitions and descriptors, please click on the following link: <https://cpalmsmediaproduct.blob.core.windows.net/uploads/docs/standards/eld/la.pdf>

VERSION REQUIREMENTS

Interventions must be evidence-based and correspond to either the district K-12 Evidence-based Comprehensive Reading plan or the reading plan within a school's charter.

QUALIFICATIONS

As well as any certification requirements listed on the course description, the following qualifications may also be acceptable for the course:

Any field when certification reflects a bachelor or higher degree plus Reading Endorsement.

THE READING ENDORSEMENT IS A REQUIREMENT FOR TEACHERS PROVIDING TIER 3 INSTRUCTION.

Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.2.C.1.1:	Demonstrate legible printing skills.
ELA.2.F.1.3:	Use knowledge of grade-appropriate phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Decode words with variable vowel teams (e.g., oo, ea, ou) and vowel diphthongs (e.g., oi, oy, ow).</li> <li>Decode regularly spelled two-syllable words with long and short vowels.</li> <li>Decode words with open (e.g., hi, baby, moment) and closed (e.g., bag, sunshine, chop) syllables and consonant -le (e.g., purple, circle, stumble).</li> <li>Decode words with common prefixes and suffixes.</li> <li>Decode words with silent letter combinations (e.g., knight, comb, island, ghost).</li> </ol>
ELA.2.F.1.3:	Clarifications: Clarification 1: Phonics refers to the relationship between graphemes (letters or letter combinations) and phonemes (speech sounds). Clarification 2: Students will decode decodable high frequency words appropriate to the grade level. See 2.F.1.4 and Dolch and Fry word lists. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity.
ELA.2.F.1.4:	Read grade-level texts with accuracy, automaticity, and appropriate prosody or expression. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Dolch and Fry word lists. Clarification 2: Many of the high frequency words at this grade level are either irregularly spelled and therefore not decodable or are temporarily irregular, meaning that students have not yet learned the phonics rule that would enable them to decode the word. Those words that are decodable should be introduced to students using appropriate phonics rules. See 2.F.1.3. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity.
ELA.2.F.1.4:	Clarification 3: See Fluency Norms for grade-level norms. Norms are expressed as words correct per minute (WCPM), a measure that combines accuracy with rate. Clarification 4: Appropriate prosody refers to pausing patterns during oral reading that reflect the punctuation and meaning of a text. See Sample Oral Reading Fluency Rubrics for prosody. Clarification 5: Grade-level texts, for the purposes of fluency, are those within the grade band on quantitative text complexity measures and appropriate in content and qualitative measures.
ELA.2.R.1.1:	Identify plot structure and describe main story elements in a literary text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Main story elements for the purpose of this benchmark are the setting, characters, and sequence of events of a story. Clarification 2: For setting, students will describe where and when the events of the story are happening. The time element of setting will be addressed even when not explicitly indicated in the text. Clarification 3: For character, student's will describe characters' traits, feelings, and behaviors.
ELA.2.R.1.2:	Identify and explain a theme of a literary text.
ELA.2.R.1.3:	Identify different characters' perspectives in a literary text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something." The term point of view is used when referring to the person of the narrator. This is to prevent confusion and conflation.
ELA.2.R.2.1:	Explain how text features—including titles, headings, captions, graphs, maps, glossaries, and/or illustrations—contribute to the meaning of texts.
ELA.2.R.2.2:	Identify the central idea and relevant details in a text.
ELA.2.R.2.3:	Explain an author's purpose in an informational text.
ELA.2.R.2.4:	Explain an author's opinion(s) and supporting evidence.
	Retell a text to enhance comprehension. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Use main story elements in a logical sequence for a literary text.</li> </ol>

ELA.2.R.3.2:	b. Use the central idea and relevant details for an informational text.
	Clarifications: Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark.
	Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing.
ELA.2.V.1.1:	Clarifications: Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.
ELA.2.V.1.2:	Identify and use base words and affixes to determine the meaning of unfamiliar words in grade-level content. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Base Words.
ELA.2.V.1.3:	Identify and use context clues, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the meaning of unknown words. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level.  Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships.
ELA.3.C.2.1:	Present information orally, in a logical sequence, using nonverbal cues, appropriate volume, and clear pronunciation. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Nonverbal cues appropriate to this grade level are posture, tone, and expressive delivery. Clear pronunciation should be interpreted to mean an understanding and application of phonics rules and sight words as well as care taken in delivery. A student's speech impediment should not be considered as impeding clear pronunciation. This grade level introduces an expectation that the information be presented in a logical sequence. A student may self-correct an error in sequence.  Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Elementary Oral Communication Rubric .
ELA.3.F.1.3:	Use knowledge of grade-level phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words.  a. Decode words with common Greek and Latin roots and affixes. (See benchmark 3.V.1.2) b. Decode words with common derivational suffixes and describe how they turn words into different parts of speech. (e.g., -ful, -less, -est). c. Decode multisyllabic words.  Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Common Greek and Latin Roots 3-5 and Affixes.  Clarification 2: See Affixes and the Parts of Speech They Form.
ELA.3.F.1.4:	Read grade-level texts with accuracy, automaticity, and appropriate prosody or expression. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Fluency Norms for grade-level norms. Norms are expressed as words correct per minute (WCPM), a measure that combines accuracy with rate. Clarification 2: Appropriate prosody refers to pausing patterns during oral reading that reflect the punctuation and meaning of a text. See Sample Oral Reading Fluency Rubrics for prosody. Clarification 3: Grade-level texts, for the purposes of fluency, are those within the grade band on quantitative text complexity measures and appropriate in content and qualitative measures.
ELA.3.R.1.1:	Explain how one or more characters develop throughout the plot in a literary text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: When explaining character development, students will include character traits, feelings, motivations, and responses to situations.
ELA.3.R.1.2:	Explain a theme and how it develops, using details, in a literary text.
ELA.3.R.1.3:	Explain different characters' perspectives in a literary text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something." The term point of view is used when referring to the person of the narrator. This is to prevent confusion and conflation.
ELA.3.R.2.1:	Explain how text features contribute to meaning and identify the text structures of chronology, comparison, and cause/effect in texts.
ELA.3.R.2.2:	Identify the central idea and explain how relevant details support that idea in a text.
ELA.3.R.2.3:	Explain the development of an author's purpose in an informational text.
ELA.3.R.2.4:	Identify an author's claim and explain how an author uses evidence to support the claim.
ELA.3.R.3.2:	Summarize a text to enhance comprehension.  a. Include plot and theme for a literary text. b. Use the central idea and relevant details for an informational text.

	Clarifications: Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark.
ELA.3.R.3.3:	Compare and contrast how two authors present information on the same topic or theme.
ELA.3.V.1.1:	Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.
ELA.3.V.1.2:	Identify and apply knowledge of common Greek and Latin roots, base words, and affixes to determine the meaning of unfamiliar words in grade-level content. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Common Greek and Latin Roots 3-5 and Affixes.
ELA.3.V.1.3:	Use context clues, figurative language, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the meaning of multiple-meaning and unknown words and phrases, appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level. Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships.  Clarification 3: See ELA.3.R.3.1 and Elementary Figurative Language.
ELA.4.C.2.1:	Present information orally, in a logical sequence, using nonverbal cues, appropriate volume, and clear pronunciation. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Nonverbal cues appropriate to this grade level are posture, tone, expressive delivery, focus on the audience, and facial expression. Clear pronunciation should be interpreted to mean an understanding and application of phonics rules and sight words as well as care taken in delivery. A student's speech impediment should not be considered as impeding clear pronunciation.  Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Elementary Oral Communication Rubric.
ELA.4.F.1.3:	Use knowledge of grade-level phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words. a. Apply knowledge of all letter-sound correspondences, syllabication patterns, and morphology to read and write unfamiliar single-syllable and multisyllabic words in and out of context. Clarifications: Clarification 1: At this level of reading, a student who is decoding at the phoneme level (i.e., "e-n-t-er-t-ai-n") may decode a given text but will struggle with fluency and comprehension. As such, phonics instruction should move toward decoding at the syllabication and morpheme level. For example, when a 4th-grader encounters the word "entertain" in text, we want him or her to segment by syllable (i.e., "en-ter-tain") or by morphological structure (i.e., "enter-tain").
ELA.4.F.1.4:	Read grade-level texts with accuracy, automaticity, and appropriate prosody or expression. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Fluency Norms for grade-level norms. Norms are expressed as words correct per minute (WCPM), a measure that combines accuracy with rate.  Clarification 2: Appropriate prosody refers to pausing patterns during oral reading that reflect the punctuation and meaning of a text. See Sample Oral Reading Fluency Rubrics for prosody.  Clarification 3: Grade-level texts, for the purposes of fluency, are those within the grade band on quantitative text complexity measures and appropriate in content and qualitative measures.
ELA.4.R.1.1:	Explain how setting, events, conflict, and character development contribute to the plot in a literary text.
ELA.4.R.1.2:	Explain a stated or implied theme and how it develops, using details, in a literary text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: An explanation of how the theme develops should include how characters respond to situations and how the speaker reflects upon a topic in a literary text.
ELA.4.R.1.3:	Identify the narrator's point of view and explain the difference between a narrator's point of view and character perspective in a literary text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something." The term point of view is used when referring to the person of the narrator. This is to prevent confusion and conflation.
ELA.4.R.1.4:	Explain how rhyme and structure create meaning in a poem.
ELA.4.R.2.1:	Explain how text features contribute to the meaning and identify the text structures of problem/solution, sequence, and description in texts.
ELA.4.R.2.2:	Explain how relevant details support the central idea, implied or explicit.
ELA.4.R.2.3:	Explain an author's perspective toward a topic in an informational text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something."

ELA.4.R.2.4:	Explain an author's claim and the reasons and evidence used to support the claim.
ELA.4.R.3.1:	Explain how figurative language contributes to meaning in text(s).  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Figurative language for the purposes of this benchmark refers to metaphor, simile, alliteration, personification, hyperbole, and idiom. Other examples can be used in instruction. Clarification 2: See Elementary Figurative Language.
ELA.4.R.3.2:	Summarize a text to enhance comprehension. a. Include plot and theme for a literary text.  b. Include the central idea and relevant details for an informational text. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark.
ELA.4.R.3.3:	Compare and contrast accounts of the same event using primary and/or secondary sources.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Introduce the terms "primary sources" and "secondary sources."
ELA.4.V.1.1:	Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.
ELA.4.V.1.2:	Apply knowledge of common Greek and Latin roots, base words, and affixes to determine the meaning of unfamiliar words in grade-level content.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Common Greek and Latin Roots 3-5 and Affixes.
ELA.4.V.1.3:	Use context clues, figurative language, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the meaning of multiple-meaning and unknown words and phrases, appropriate to grade level.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level. Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships. Clarification 3: See ELA.4.R.3.1 and Elementary Figurative Language.
ELA.5.F.1.3:	Use knowledge of grade-appropriate phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words. a. Apply knowledge of all letter-sound correspondences, syllabication patterns, and morphology to read and write unfamiliar single-syllable and multisyllabic words in and out of context.
ELA.5.F.1.4:	Read grade-level texts with accuracy, automaticity, and appropriate prosody or expression.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Fluency Norms for grade-level norms. Norms are expressed as words correct per minute (WCPM), a measure that combines accuracy with rate. Clarification 2: Appropriate prosody refers to pausing patterns during oral reading that reflect the punctuation and meaning of a text. See Sample Oral Reading Fluency Rubrics for prosody. Clarification 3: Grade-level texts, for the purposes of fluency, are those within the grade band on quantitative text complexity measures and appropriate in content and qualitative measures.
ELA.5.R.1.1:	Analyze how setting, events, conflict, and characterization contribute to the plot in a literary text.
ELA.5.R.1.2:	Explain the development of stated or implied theme(s) throughout a literary text.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Where the development of multiple themes is being explained, the themes may come from the same or multiple literary texts.
ELA.5.R.1.3:	Describe how an author develops a character's perspective in a literary text.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something."
ELA.5.R.1.4:	Explain how figurative language and other poetic elements work together in a poem.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Figurative language for the purposes of this benchmark refers to metaphor, simile, alliteration, personification, hyperbole, imagery, and idiom. Other examples can be used in instruction. Clarification 2: Poetic elements to be used for the purposes of this benchmark are form, rhyme, meter, line breaks, and imagery.
ELA.5.R.2.1:	Explain how text structures and/or features contribute to the overall meaning of texts.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: For more information, see Text Structures and Text Features.

ELA.5.R.2.2:	Explain how relevant details support the central idea(s), implied or explicit.
ELA.5.R.2.3:	Analyze an author's purpose and/or perspective in an informational text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something."
ELA.5.R.2.4:	Track the development of an argument, identifying the specific claim(s), evidence, and reasoning. Clarifications: Clarification 1: A claim is a statement that asserts something is true. A claim can either be fact or opinion. Claims can be used alone or with other claims to form a larger argument.
ELA.5.R.3.1:	Analyze how figurative language contributes to meaning in text(s). Summarize a text to enhance comprehension.
ELA.5.R.3.2:	a. Include plot and theme for a literary text. b. Include the central idea and relevant details for an informational text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark.
ELA.5.R.3.3:	Compare and contrast primary and secondary sources related to the same topic.
ELA.5.V.1.1:	Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.
ELA.5.V.1.2:	Apply knowledge of Greek and Latin roots and affixes, recognizing the connection between affixes and parts of speech, to determine the meaning of unfamiliar words in grade-level content. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Common Greek and Latin Roots 3-5.
ELA.5.V.1.3:	Use context clues, figurative language, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the meaning of multiple-meaning and unknown words and phrases, appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level. Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships. Clarification 3: See ELA.5.R.3.1 and Elementary Figurative Language.
ELA.K12.EE.1.1:	Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning. Clarifications: K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing. 2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations. 4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they've directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor. 6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation. 9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ.
ELA.K12.EE.2.1:	Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently. Clarifications: See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric.
ELA.K12.EE.3.1:	Make inferences to support comprehension. Clarifications: Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like "Why is the girl smiling?" or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond.
ELA.K12.EE.4.1:	Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations. Clarifications: In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully. In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: "I think _____ because _____." The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations. In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence.

	Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work. Clarifications:
ELA.K12.EE.5.1:	Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work.
	Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing. Clarifications:
ELA.K12.EE.6.1:	In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts.
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

This course supports students who are struggling to read and write or speak about what they have read in core instruction. Instruction will use explicit, systematic, and sequential approaches to reading instruction addressing all components of reading including phonological awareness, phonics, vocabulary, fluency, and reading comprehension.

Teachers will use the listed standards that correspond to student need based on diagnostic assessments and adjust according to ongoing progress monitoring data.

Effective instruction matches instruction to the need of the students in the group and provides multiple opportunities to practice the skill and receive feedback. The additional time allotted is in addition to core instruction. The intervention includes materials and strategies designed to supplement core instruction.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. To access an ELL supporting document which delineates performance definitions and descriptors, please click on the following link: <https://cpalmsmediaprod.blob.core.windows.net/uploads/docs/standards/eld/la.pdf>

VERSION REQUIREMENTS

Interventions must be evidence-based and correspond to either the district K-12 Evidence-based Comprehensive Reading plan or the reading plan within a school's charter.

QUALIFICATIONS

As well as any certification requirements listed on the course description, the following qualifications may also be acceptable for the course:

Any field when certification reflects a bachelor or higher degree plus Reading Endorsement.

THE READING ENDORSEMENT IS A REQUIREMENT FOR TEACHERS PROVIDING TIER 3 INSTRUCTION.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Course Number: 5010024

Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.1.F.1.1:	Locate the title, table of contents, names of author(s) and illustrator(s), and glossary of books. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.F.1.2:	Demonstrate phonological awareness. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Segment spoken words into initial, medial, and final phonemes, including words with digraphs, blends, and trigraphs.</li> <li>Orally blend initial, medial, and final phonemes together to produce a single-syllable word that includes digraphs, blends, or trigraphs.</li> <li>Blend single-syllable spoken words with at least five phonemes.</li> <li>Segment single-syllable spoken words with at least five phonemes.</li> <li>Segment and blend phonemes in multi-syllable spoken words.</li> </ol> Clarifications: Clarification 1: Phonological awareness only refers to what can be done orally at both the sound and syllabic level. This includes isolating sounds, blending sounds, and orally segmenting words based on syllables. It does not involve print or letter knowledge. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.F.1.3:	Use knowledge of grade-appropriate phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words accurately. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Decode words using knowledge of spelling-sound correspondences for common consonant digraphs, trigraphs, and blends.</li> <li>Decode simple words with r-controlled vowels.</li> <li>Decode and encode regularly spelled one-syllable words.</li> <li>Decode words with inflectional endings.</li> <li>Decode two-syllable words with regular patterns by breaking the words into syllables.</li> <li>Decode words that use final –e and vowel teams to make long-vowel sound.</li> </ol> Clarifications: Clarification 1: Phonics refers to the relationship between graphemes (letters or letter combinations) and phonemes (speech sounds). Clarification 2: Students will decode decodable high frequency words appropriate to the grade level. See 1.F.1.4 and Dolch and Fry word lists. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.F.1.4:	Read grade-level texts with accuracy, automaticity, and appropriate prosody or expression. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Recognize and read with automaticity the grade-level sight words.</li> </ol> Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Dolch and Fry word lists. Clarification 2: Many of the high frequency words at this grade level are either irregularly spelled and therefore not decodable or are temporarily irregular, meaning that students have not yet learned the phonics rule that would enable them to decode the word. Those words that are decodable should be introduced to students using appropriate phonics rules. See 1.F.1.3. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity. Clarification 3: See Fluency Norms for grade-level norms. Norms are expressed as words correct per minute (WCPM), a measure that combines accuracy with speed. Clarification 4: “Appropriate prosody” refers to pausing patterns during oral reading that reflect the punctuation and meaning of a text. See Sample Oral Reading Fluency Rubrics for prosody. Clarification 5: Grade-level texts, for the purposes of fluency, are those within the grade band on quantitative text complexity measures and appropriate in content and qualitative measures. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.R.1.1:	Identify and describe the main story elements in a story. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Main story elements for the purpose of this benchmark are the setting, characters, and sequence of events of a story. Clarification 2: In describing the characters, students can describe appearance, actions, feelings, and thoughts of the characters. Students will explain what in the text their description is based on.

Clarification 3: For setting, students will discuss where the events of the story are happening. The time element of setting should only be addressed in texts where it is explicitly indicated.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.1.R.1.2:	Identify and explain the moral of a story. Clarifications: Clarification 1: This benchmark introduces the moral of a story as a precursor to theme in 2nd grade. A moral is the lesson of a story. During instruction, let students know that not all stories have a lesson by referring to stories read that did not have a moral or a lesson. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.R.1.3:	Explain who is telling the story using context clues. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students will use the term “narrator” to refer to the speaker telling the story. Students will determine if the narrator is a character in the story or a speaker outside of the story. Students will give reasons why they know who is speaking. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.R.2.2:	Identify the topic of and relevant details in a text. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.R.3.1:	Identify and explain descriptive words and phrases in text(s). Clarifications: Clarification 1: Continue to expose students to the academic vocabulary word “adjective.” Discussion should focus on how the descriptive words add meaning to the text. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.R.3.2:	Retell a text in oral or written form to enhance comprehension. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>a. Use main story elements at the beginning, middle, and end for a literary text.</li><li>b. Use topic and important details for an informational text.</li></ul> Clarifications: Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.R.3.3:	Compare and contrast two texts on the same topic. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students are being asked to compare and contrast. During instruction, give students opportunities to see visual representations of similarities and differences using tools such as Venn diagrams or T-charts. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.V.1.1:	Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, are vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.V.1.2:	Identify and use frequently occurring base words and their common inflections in grade-level content. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Base Words for frequently occurring base words.  Clarification 2: Inflectional endings, the inflections referred to here, are added to the end of a word to add additional information.  Example: Regular verbs add the inflectional ending -ed to indicate the past tense.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.V.1.3:	Identify and use picture clues, context clues, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the meaning of unknown words. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level.  Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.F.1.3:	Use knowledge of grade-appropriate phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>a. Decode words with variable vowel teams (e.g., oo, ea, ou) and vowel diphthongs (e.g., oi, oy, ow).</li><li>b. Decode regularly spelled two-syllable words with long and short vowels.</li><li>c. Decode words with open (e.g., hi, baby, moment) and closed (e.g., bag, sunshine, chop) syllables and consonant -le (e.g., purple, circle, stumble).</li><li>d. Decode words with common prefixes and suffixes.</li><li>e. Decode words with silent letter combinations (e.g., knight, comb, island, ghost).</li></ul> Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Phonics refers to the relationship between graphemes (letters or letter combinations) and phonemes (speech sounds).

Clarification 2: Students will decode decodable high frequency words appropriate to the grade level. See 2.F.1.4 and Dolch and Fry word lists. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Read grade-level texts with accuracy, automaticity, and appropriate prosody or expression.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: See Dolch and Fry word lists.

Clarification 2: Many of the high frequency words at this grade level are either irregularly spelled and therefore not decodable or are temporarily irregular, meaning that students have not yet learned the phonics rule that would enable them to decode the word. Those words that are decodable should be introduced to students using appropriate phonics rules. See 2.F.1.3. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity.

ELA.2.F.1.4:

Clarification 3: See Fluency Norms for grade-level norms. Norms are expressed as words correct per minute (WCPM), a measure that combines accuracy with rate.

Clarification 4: Appropriate prosody refers to pausing patterns during oral reading that reflect the punctuation and meaning of a text. See Sample Oral Reading Fluency Rubrics for prosody.

Clarification 5: Grade-level texts, for the purposes of fluency, are those within the grade band on quantitative text complexity measures and appropriate in content and qualitative measures.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.2.V.1.1:

Identify and use base words and affixes to determine the meaning of unfamiliar words in grade-level content.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: See Base Words.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.2.V.1.2:

Identify and use context clues, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the meaning of unknown words.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level.

Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.2.V.1.3:

Use knowledge of grade-level phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words.

- a. Decode words with common Greek and Latin roots and affixes. (See benchmark 3.V.1.2)
- b. Decode words with common derivational suffixes and describe how they turn words into different parts of speech. (e.g., -ful, -less, -est).
- c. Decode multisyllabic words.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: See Common Greek and Latin Roots 3-5 and Affixes.

Clarification 2: See Affixes and the Parts of Speech They Form.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.3.F.1.3:

Read grade-level texts with accuracy, automaticity, and appropriate prosody or expression.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: See Fluency Norms for grade-level norms. Norms are expressed as words correct per minute (WCPM), a measure that combines accuracy with rate.

Clarification 2: Appropriate prosody refers to pausing patterns during oral reading that reflect the punctuation and meaning of a text. See Sample Oral Reading Fluency Rubrics for prosody.

Clarification 3: Grade-level texts, for the purposes of fluency, are those within the grade band on quantitative text complexity measures and appropriate in content and qualitative measures.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.3.F.1.4:

Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.

ELA.3.V.1.1:

	Standard Relation to Course: Major Identify and apply knowledge of common Greek and Latin roots, base words, and affixes to determine the meaning of unfamiliar words in grade-level content.
ELA.3.V.1.2:	Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Common Greek and Latin Roots 3-5 and Affixes. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.3.V.1.3:	Use context clues, figurative language, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the meaning of multiple-meaning and unknown words and phrases, appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level. Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships. Clarification 3: See ELA.3.R.3.1 and Elementary Figurative Language. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.F.1.3:	Use knowledge of grade-level phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words. a. Apply knowledge of all letter-sound correspondences, syllabication patterns, and morphology to read and write unfamiliar single-syllable and multisyllabic words in and out of context. Clarifications: Clarification 1: At this level of reading, a student who is decoding at the phoneme level (i.e., “e-n-t-er-t-ai-n”) may decode a given text but will struggle with fluency and comprehension. As such, phonics instruction should move toward decoding at the syllabication and morpheme level. For example, when a 4th-grader encounters the word “entertain” in text, we want him or her to segment by syllable (i.e., “en-ter-tain”) or by morphological structure (i.e., “enter-tain”). Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.F.1.4:	Read grade-level texts with accuracy, automaticity, and appropriate prosody or expression. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Fluency Norms for grade-level norms. Norms are expressed as words correct per minute (WCPM), a measure that combines accuracy with rate. Clarification 2: Appropriate prosody refers to pausing patterns during oral reading that reflect the punctuation and meaning of a text. See Sample Oral Reading Fluency Rubrics for prosody. Clarification 3: Grade-level texts, for the purposes of fluency, are those within the grade band on quantitative text complexity measures and appropriate in content and qualitative measures. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.V.1.1:	Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.V.1.2:	Apply knowledge of common Greek and Latin roots, base words, and affixes to determine the meaning of unfamiliar words in grade-level content. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Common Greek and Latin Roots 3-5 and Affixes. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.V.1.3:	Use context clues, figurative language, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the meaning of multiple-meaning and unknown words and phrases, appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level. Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships. Clarification 3: See ELA.4.R.3.1 and Elementary Figurative Language. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.F.1.3:	Use knowledge of grade-appropriate phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words. a. Apply knowledge of all letter-sound correspondences, syllabication patterns, and morphology to read and write unfamiliar single-syllable and multisyllabic words in and out of context. Standard Relation to Course: Major Read grade-level texts with accuracy, automaticity, and appropriate prosody or expression. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Fluency Norms for grade-level norms. Norms are expressed as words correct per minute (WCPM), a measure that combines accuracy with rate.

ELA.5.F.1.4:	Clarification 2: Appropriate prosody refers to pausing patterns during oral reading that reflect the punctuation and meaning of a text. See Sample Oral Reading Fluency Rubrics for prosody. Clarification 3: Grade-level texts, for the purposes of fluency, are those within the grade band on quantitative text complexity measures and appropriate in content and qualitative measures. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.V.1.1:	Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.V.1.2:	Apply knowledge of Greek and Latin roots and affixes, recognizing the connection between affixes and parts of speech, to determine the meaning of unfamiliar words in grade-level content. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Common Greek and Latin Roots 3-5. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.V.1.3:	Use context clues, figurative language, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the meaning of multiple-meaning and unknown words and phrases, appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level. Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships. Clarification 3: See ELA.5.R.3.1 and Elementary Figurative Language. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.F.1.2:	Demonstrate phonological awareness. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Blend and segment syllables in spoken words.</li> <li>Identify and produce alliterative and rhyming words.</li> <li>Blend and segment onset and rimes of single-syllable words.</li> <li>Identify the initial, medial, and final sound of spoken words.</li> <li>Add or delete phonemes at the beginning or end of a spoken word and say the resulting word.</li> <li>Segment and blend phonemes in single-syllable spoken words.</li> </ol> Clarifications: Clarification 1: Phonological awareness only refers to what can be done orally at the syllable, onset-rime, and phoneme levels. It does not involve print or letter knowledge. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.F.1.3:	Use knowledge of grade-appropriate phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words accurately. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Demonstrate knowledge of the most frequent sound for each consonant.</li> <li>Demonstrate knowledge of the short and long sounds for the five major vowels.</li> <li>Decode consonant-vowel-consonant (CVC) words.</li> <li>Encode consonant-vowel-consonant (CVC) words.</li> </ol> Clarifications: Clarification 1: Phonics refers to the relationship between graphemes (letters or letter combinations) and phonemes (speech sounds). Clarification 2: Students will decode decodable high frequency words appropriate to the grade level. See K.F.1.4 and Dolch and Fry word lists. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.F.1.4:	Recognize and read with automaticity grade-level high frequency words. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Dolch and Fry word lists. Clarification 2: Many of the high frequency words at this grade level are either irregularly spelled and therefore not decodable or are temporarily irregular, meaning that students have not yet learned the phonics rule that would enable them to decode the word. Those words that are decodable should be introduced to students using appropriate phonics rules. See K.F.1.3. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.R.1.1:	Describe the main character(s), setting, and important events in a story. Clarifications: Clarification 1: In describing the main character, students can describe appearance, actions, feelings, and thoughts of the character. Students will explain what in the text their description is based on. Clarification 2: For setting, students will discuss where the events of the story are happening. The time element of setting

	should only be addressed in texts where it is explicitly indicated. Clarification 3: Descriptions can be oral, either in response to a question or through discussion. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.R.2.1:	Use titles, headings, and illustrations to predict and confirm the topic of texts. Clarifications: Clarification 1: The step of confirming the prediction is essential to mastery of this benchmark. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.R.2.2:	Identify the topic of and multiple details in a text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: The topic is the general subject of the text, a word or a short phrase describing what the text is about. For example, the main topic of the book Why Should I Recycle? is recycling. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.R.3.1:	Identify and explain descriptive words in text(s). Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students will explain examples of descriptive words in text and how they add meaning. Clarification 2: Students will be introduced to the academic vocabulary word “adjective.” However, students are not expected to use the word independently. Discussion should focus on how the descriptive words add meaning to the text. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.R.3.2:	Retell a text orally to enhance comprehension: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Use main character(s), setting, and important events for a story.</li> <li>Use topic and details for an informational text.</li> </ol> Clarifications: Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.R.3.3:	Compare and contrast characters’ experiences in stories. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students will orally compare and contrast the experiences that characters have had, comparing them to those experienced by other characters, in the same story or a different story. Those experiences can be expressed as events, feelings, or behaviors. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.V.1.1:	Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, are vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.V.1.2:	Ask and answer questions about unfamiliar words in grade-level content. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.V.1.3:	Identify and sort common words into basic categories, relating vocabulary to background knowledge. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level. Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K12.EE.1.1:	Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning. Clarifications: K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing. 2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations. 4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they’ve directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor. 6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation. 9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.2.1:	Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently. Clarifications: See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting Make inferences to support comprehension.

ELA.K12.EE.3.1:	Clarifications: Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like “Why is the girl smiling?” or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond.
ELA.K12.EE.4.1:	Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations. Clarifications: In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully. In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: “I think _____ because _____.” The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations. In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence.
ELA.K12.EE.5.1:	Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work. Clarifications: Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work.
ELA.K12.EE.6.1:	Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing. Clarifications: In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts.
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

This course is designed for students with a substantial deficiency in reading and for whom interventions have not been effective. Instruction will use explicit, systematic, and sequential approaches to reading instruction addressing all components of reading including phonological awareness, phonics, vocabulary, fluency, and reading comprehension.

Teachers will use the listed standards that correspond to student need based on diagnostic assessments and adjust according to ongoing progress monitoring data.

Effective implementation requires the support to be matched to student need and is provided by the most experienced, and/or specialized expert. Instruction is individualized and targeted to the skills that pose the greatest barrier to learning and is characterized by the greatest number of minutes of instruction with the narrowest focus for an individual or a very small group of students. Individualized diagnostic data, as well as instructional time, are in addition to those provided in Basic Skills in Reading 3-5 and core instruction. Formative assessments occur more frequently and focus on the learning barriers to success and are based on intensity of needs. The larger the gap, the more frequent the progress monitoring, with more extensive opportunities for guided practice, error correction, and feedback. The expected outcome is for the student to achieve grade-level proficiency.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL’s need for communication and social skills. To access an ELL supporting document which delineates performance definitions and descriptors, please click on the following link: <https://cpalmsmediaprod.blob.core.windows.net/uploads/docs/standards/eld/la.pdf>

VERSION REQUIREMENTS

Interventions must be evidence-based and correspond to either the district K-12 Evidence-based Comprehensive Reading plan or the reading plan within a school's charter.

QUALIFICATIONS

As well as any certification requirements listed on the course description, the following qualifications may also be acceptable for the course:

LAFS.K.W.1.1:	Use a combination of drawing, dictating, and writing to compose opinion pieces in which they tell a reader the topic or the name of the book they are writing about and state an opinion or preference about the topic or book (e.g., My favorite book is...).
LAFS.K.W.1.2:	Use a combination of drawing, dictating, and writing to compose informative/explanatory texts in which they name what they are writing about and supply some information about the topic.
LAFS.K.W.1.3:	Use a combination of drawing, dictating, and writing to narrate a single event or several loosely linked events, tell about the events in the order in which they occurred, and provide a reaction to what happened.
LAFS.K.W.2.5:	With guidance and support from adults, respond to questions and suggestions from peers and add details to strengthen writing as needed.
LAFS.K.W.2.6:	With guidance and support from adults, explore a variety of digital tools to produce and publish writing, including in collaboration with peers.
LAFS.K.W.3.7:	Participate in shared research and writing projects (e.g., explore a number of books by a favorite author and express opinions about them).
LAFS.K.W.3.8:	With guidance and support from adults, recall information from experiences or gather information from provided sources to answer a question.
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

This course may be composed of a multilevel classroom with learners from diverse backgrounds at varying proficiency levels using a standards-based curriculum. This course supports students who are struggling with written and oral communication. Each student's curriculum should be defined using the most appropriate standards from those listed below to meet the individual's needs.

GENERAL NOTES

Special Notes:

Instructional Practices

Teaching from a well-written, grade-level textbook enhances students' content area knowledge and also strengthens their ability to comprehend longer, complex reading passages on any topic for any reason. Using the following instructional practices also helps student learning:

1. Reading assignments from longer text passages as well as shorter ones when text is extremely complex.
2. Making close reading and rereading of texts central to lessons.
3. Asking high-level, text-specific questions and requiring high-level, complex tasks and assignments.
4. Requiring students to support answers with evidence from the text.
5. Providing extensive text-based research and writing opportunities (claims and evidence).

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. ## Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.1.C.1.1:	Print all upper- and lowercase letters. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students should have adequate spacing between letters and/or words. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.C.1.2:	Write narratives that retell two or more appropriately sequenced events, including relevant details and a sense of closure. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.C.1.3:	Write opinions about a topic or text with at least one supporting reason from a source and a sense of closure. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.C.1.4:	Write expository texts about a topic, using a source, providing facts and a sense of closure. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.C.1.5:	With guidance and support from adults, improve writing, as needed, by planning, revising, and editing. Clarifications: Clarification 1: As needed refers to the fact that sometimes instruction will focus on a specific skill or part of the process. In those instances, only the applicable activity will be engaged in. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.C.2.1:	Present information orally using complete sentences and appropriate volume. Clarifications: Clarification 1: For further guidance, see the Elementary Oral Communication Rubric. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Capitalize proper nouns.</li> <li>• Form and use simple verb tenses for regular verbs by adding the affix -ed.</li> <li>• Form and use complete simple sentences.</li> <li>• Use possessives.</li> <li>• Use subject-verb agreement in simple sentences.</li> </ul> Skills to be implemented but not yet mastered are as follows:
ELA.1.C.3.1:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Form plurals -y to -ies.</li> <li>• Conjugate regular and irregular verb tenses.</li> <li>• Form and use regular and frequently occurring irregular plural nouns.</li> <li>• Form and use the past tense of frequently occurring irregular verbs.</li> <li>• Use apostrophes to form contractions.</li> <li>• Appropriately use pronouns.</li> <li>• Use commas in a series.</li> <li>• Use plural possessives.</li> <li>• Use interjections.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.C.4.1:	Participate in research to gather information to answer a question about a single topic. Clarifications: Clarification 1: The question could ask for an explanation or could ask how to do something, where the appropriate response could be to give a sequence of steps or instructions. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.C.4.1:	Use a multimedia element to enhance oral or written tasks. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Multimedia elements may include, but are not limited to, a drawing, picture, artifact, audio or digital

ELA.1.C.5.1:	representation. At this grade level, the element should relate to the task. As long as the student is able to explain how the picture relates, the multimedia element is suitable. The element may be shared at the beginning or added on to the end instead of shared during the course of the task. There is no expectation that the element be integrated into the task. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.C.5.2:	Identify and use digital tools to produce and publish writing individually or with peers and with support from adults. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.F.1.1:	Locate the title, table of contents, names of author(s) and illustrator(s), and glossary of books. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.F.1.2:	Demonstrate phonological awareness. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Segment spoken words into initial, medial, and final phonemes, including words with digraphs, blends, and trigraphs.</li> <li>Orally blend initial, medial, and final phonemes together to produce a single-syllable word that includes digraphs, blends, or trigraphs.</li> <li>Blend single-syllable spoken words with at least five phonemes.</li> <li>Segment single-syllable spoken words with at least five phonemes.</li> <li>Segment and blend phonemes in multi-syllable spoken words.</li> </ol> Clarifications: Clarification 1: Phonological awareness only refers to what can be done orally at both the sound and syllabic level. This includes isolating sounds, blending sounds, and orally segmenting words based on syllables. It does not involve print or letter knowledge. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.F.1.3:	Use knowledge of grade-appropriate phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words accurately. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Decode words using knowledge of spelling-sound correspondences for common consonant digraphs, trigraphs, and blends.</li> <li>Decode simple words with r-controlled vowels.</li> <li>Decode and encode regularly spelled one-syllable words.</li> <li>Decode words with inflectional endings.</li> <li>Decode two-syllable words with regular patterns by breaking the words into syllables.</li> <li>Decode words that use final –e and vowel teams to make long-vowel sound.</li> </ol> Clarifications: Clarification 1: Phonics refers to the relationship between graphemes (letters or letter combinations) and phonemes (speech sounds). Clarification 2: Students will decode decodable high frequency words appropriate to the grade level. See 1.F.1.4 and Dolch and Fry word lists. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.F.1.4:	Read grade-level texts with accuracy, automaticity, and appropriate prosody or expression. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Recognize and read with automaticity the grade-level sight words.</li> </ol> Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Dolch and Fry word lists. Clarification 2: Many of the high frequency words at this grade level are either irregularly spelled and therefore not decodable or are temporarily irregular, meaning that students have not yet learned the phonics rule that would enable them to decode the word. Those words that are decodable should be introduced to students using appropriate phonics rules. See 1.F.1.3. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity. Clarification 3: See Fluency Norms for grade-level norms. Norms are expressed as words correct per minute (WCPM), a measure that combines accuracy with speed. Clarification 4: “Appropriate prosody” refers to pausing patterns during oral reading that reflect the punctuation and meaning of a text. See Sample Oral Reading Fluency Rubrics for prosody. Clarification 5: Grade-level texts, for the purposes of fluency, are those within the grade band on quantitative text complexity measures and appropriate in content and qualitative measures. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.R.1.1:	Identify and describe the main story elements in a story. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Main story elements for the purpose of this benchmark are the setting, characters, and sequence of events of a story. Clarification 2: In describing the characters, students can describe appearance, actions, feelings, and thoughts of the characters. Students will explain what in the text their description is based on. Clarification 3: For setting, students will discuss where the events of the story are happening. The time element of setting should only be addressed in texts where it is explicitly indicated. Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Identify and explain the moral of a story. Clarifications:

ELA.1.R.1.2:	Clarification 1: This benchmark introduces the moral of a story as a precursor to theme in 2nd grade. A moral is the lesson of a story. During instruction, let students know that not all stories have a lesson by referring to stories read that did not have a moral or a lesson. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.R.1.3:	Explain who is telling the story using context clues. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students will use the term “narrator” to refer to the speaker telling the story. Students will determine if the narrator is a character in the story or a speaker outside of the story. Students will give reasons why they know who is speaking. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.R.1.4:	Identify stanzas and line breaks in poems. Clarifications: Clarification 1: This benchmark can be paired with R.1.1, R.1.2, R.1.3 and R.3.2 for instruction with story poems. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.R.2.1:	Use text features including titles, headings, captions, graphs, maps, glossaries, and/or illustrations to demonstrate understanding of texts. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.R.2.2:	Identify the topic of and relevant details in a text. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.R.2.3:	Explain similarities and differences between information provided in visuals and words in an informational text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: When explaining similarities and differences, students will also explain how the visuals and words help the reader make sense of the topic. Clarification 2: During instruction, give students opportunities to see visual representations of similarities and differences using tools such as Venn diagrams or T-charts. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.R.2.4:	Identify an author’s opinion(s) about the topic. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.R.3.1:	Identify and explain descriptive words and phrases in text(s). Clarifications: Clarification 1: Continue to expose students to the academic vocabulary word “adjective.” Discussion should focus on how the descriptive words add meaning to the text. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.R.3.2:	Retell a text in oral or written form to enhance comprehension. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Use main story elements at the beginning, middle, and end for a literary text.</li> <li>b. Use topic and important details for an informational text.</li> </ol> Clarifications: Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.R.3.3:	Compare and contrast two texts on the same topic. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students are being asked to compare and contrast. During instruction, give students opportunities to see visual representations of similarities and differences using tools such as Venn diagrams or T-charts. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.V.1.1:	Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, are vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.V.1.2:	Identify and use frequently occurring base words and their common inflections in grade-level content. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Base Words for frequently occurring base words. Clarification 2: Inflectional endings, the inflections referred to here, are added to the end of a word to add additional information. Example: Regular verbs add the inflectional ending -ed to indicate the past tense. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.V.1.3:	Identify and use picture clues, context clues, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the meaning of unknown words. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level. Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships. Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.2.C.1.1:	Demonstrate legible printing skills. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.C.1.2:	Write personal or fictional narratives using a logical sequence of events, transitions, and an ending. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.C.1.3:	Write opinions about a topic or text with reasons supported by details from a source, use transitions, and provide a conclusion. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.C.1.4:	Write expository texts about a topic, using a source, providing an introduction, facts, transitions, and a conclusion. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.C.1.5:	Improve writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing with guidance and support from adults and feedback from peers. Clarifications: Clarification 1: "As needed" refers to the fact that sometimes instruction will focus on a specific skill or part of the process. In those instances, only the applicable activity will be engaged in. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.C.2.1:	Present information orally using complete sentences, appropriate volume, and clear pronunciation. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Clear pronunciation shows an understanding and application of phonics rules and sight words as well as care taken in delivery. A student's speech impediment should not be considered as impeding clear pronunciation. Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Elementary Oral Communication Rubric. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Form plurals -y to -ies.</li> <li>• Use apostrophes to form contractions.</li> <li>• Appropriately use pronouns.</li> <li>• Use commas in a series.</li> <li>• Use plural possessives.</li> <li>• Use interjections.</li> </ul> Skills to be implemented but not yet mastered are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Conjugate regular and irregular verb tenses.</li> <li>• Form and use regular and frequently occurring irregular plural nouns.</li> <li>• Form and use the past tense of frequently occurring irregular verbs.</li> <li>• Maintain consistent verb tense across paragraphs.</li> <li>• Form and use irregular plural nouns.</li> <li>• Form and use the progressive and perfect verb tenses.</li> <li>• Use simple modifiers.</li> <li>• Use prepositions and prepositional phrases.</li> <li>• Form and use compound sentences.</li> <li>• Use quotation marks with dialogue and direct quotations.</li> <li>• Use commas to indicate direct address.</li> <li>• Use subject-verb agreement with intervening clauses and phrases.</li> <li>• Produce complete sentences, recognizing and correcting inappropriate fragments and run-ons.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.C.4.1:	Participate in research to gather information to answer a question about a single topic using multiple sources. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.C.5.1:	Use one or more multimedia element(s) to enhance oral or written tasks. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Multimedia elements may include, but are not limited to, drawings, pictures, artifacts, and audio or digital representation. At this grade level, the element(s) should relate directly to the task. There is no expectation that the element(s) be integrated into the task. The student can but is not required to use more than one multimedia element. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.C.5.2:	Use digital tools to produce and publish writing individually or with peers and with support from adults. Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Use knowledge of grade-appropriate phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Decode words with variable vowel teams (e.g., oo, ea, ou) and vowel diphthongs (e.g., oi, oy, ow).</li> <li>b. Decode regularly spelled two-syllable words with long and short vowels.</li> <li>c. Decode words with open (e.g., hi, baby, moment) and closed (e.g., bag, sunshine, chop) syllables and consonant -le (e.g., purple, circle, stumble).</li> </ul>

- d. Decode words with common prefixes and suffixes.
- e. Decode words with silent letter combinations (e.g., knight, comb, island, ghost).

ELA.2.F.1.3:

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Phonics refers to the relationship between graphemes (letters or letter combinations) and phonemes (speech sounds).

Clarification 2: Students will decode decodable high frequency words appropriate to the grade level. See 2.F.1.4 and Dolch and Fry word lists. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Read grade-level texts with accuracy, automaticity, and appropriate prosody or expression.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: See Dolch and Fry word lists.

Clarification 2: Many of the high frequency words at this grade level are either irregularly spelled and therefore not decodable or are temporarily irregular, meaning that students have not yet learned the phonics rule that would enable them to decode the word. Those words that are decodable should be introduced to students using appropriate phonics rules. See 2.F.1.3. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity.

ELA.2.F.1.4:

Clarification 3: See Fluency Norms for grade-level norms. Norms are expressed as words correct per minute (WCPM), a measure that combines accuracy with rate.

Clarification 4: Appropriate prosody refers to pausing patterns during oral reading that reflect the punctuation and meaning of a text. See Sample Oral Reading Fluency Rubrics for prosody.

Clarification 5: Grade-level texts, for the purposes of fluency, are those within the grade band on quantitative text complexity measures and appropriate in content and qualitative measures.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Identify plot structure and describe main story elements in a literary text.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Main story elements for the purpose of this benchmark are the setting, characters, and sequence of events of a story.

Clarification 2: For setting, students will describe where and when the events of the story are happening. The time element of setting will be addressed even when not explicitly indicated in the text.

Clarification 3: For character, student's will describe characters' traits, feelings, and behaviors.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.2.R.1.1:

Identify and explain a theme of a literary text.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Identify different characters' perspectives in a literary text.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something." The term point of view is used when referring to the person of the narrator. This is to prevent confusion and conflation.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.2.R.1.3:

Identify rhyme schemes in poems.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Students will mark rhyme scheme and recognize rhyme scheme notation. Rhyme scheme notation uses capital letters, starting with A to mark the end of each line, repeating the letter for each line in the poem that rhymes with that line and progressing through the alphabet for each new end rhyme. Lines designated with the same letter all rhyme with each other.

Examples:

I never saw a Purple Cow, A
 I never hope to see one; B
 But I can tell you, anyhow, A
 I'd rather see than be one! B

ELA.2.R.1.4:

–Gelett Burgess

Little Miss Muffet A
 Sat on a tuffet, A
 Eating her curds and whey; B
 Along came a spider C
 Who sat down beside her C
 And frightened Miss Muffet away. B

–Traditional Nursery Rhyme

ELA.4.C.5.1:	Arrange multimedia elements to create emphasis in oral or written tasks. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Multimedia elements may include, but are not limited to, drawings, pictures, artifacts, and audio or digital representation. At this grade level, students are using more than one element. The elements may be of the same type (for example, two pictures or a picture and an audio recording). The elements should relate directly to the task and emphasize a point made within the task, perhaps by showing examples or data to emphasize a point. The elements should be smoothly integrated. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.C.5.2:	Use digital writing tools individually or collaboratively to plan, draft, and revise writing. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.F.1.3:	Use knowledge of grade-level phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words. a. Apply knowledge of all letter-sound correspondences, syllabication patterns, and morphology to read and write unfamiliar single-syllable and multisyllabic words in and out of context. Clarifications: Clarification 1: At this level of reading, a student who is decoding at the phoneme level (i.e., “e-n-t-er-t-ai-n”) may decode a given text but will struggle with fluency and comprehension. As such, phonics instruction should move toward decoding at the syllabication and morpheme level. For example, when a 4th-grader encounters the word “entertain” in text, we want him or her to segment by syllable (i.e., “en-ter-tain”) or by morphological structure (i.e., “enter-tain”). Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Read grade-level texts with accuracy, automaticity, and appropriate prosody or expression. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Fluency Norms for grade-level norms. Norms are expressed as words correct per minute (WCPM), a measure that combines accuracy with rate.

ELA.4.F.1.4:	Clarification 2: Appropriate prosody refers to pausing patterns during oral reading that reflect the punctuation and meaning of a text. See Sample Oral Reading Fluency Rubrics for prosody. Clarification 3: Grade-level texts, for the purposes of fluency, are those within the grade band on quantitative text complexity measures and appropriate in content and qualitative measures. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.R.1.1:	Explain how setting, events, conflict, and character development contribute to the plot in a literary text. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.R.1.2:	Explain a stated or implied theme and how it develops, using details, in a literary text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: An explanation of how the theme develops should include how characters respond to situations and how the speaker reflects upon a topic in a literary text. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.R.1.3:	Identify the narrator's point of view and explain the difference between a narrator's point of view and character perspective in a literary text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something." The term point of view is used when referring to the person of the narrator. This is to prevent confusion and conflation. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.R.1.4:	Explain how rhyme and structure create meaning in a poem. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.R.2.1:	Explain how text features contribute to the meaning and identify the text structures of problem/solution, sequence, and description in texts. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.R.2.2:	Explain how relevant details support the central idea, implied or explicit. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.R.2.3:	Explain an author's perspective toward a topic in an informational text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something." Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.R.2.4:	Explain an author's claim and the reasons and evidence used to support the claim. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.R.3.1:	Explain how figurative language contributes to meaning in text(s). Clarifications: Clarification 1: Figurative language for the purposes of this benchmark refers to metaphor, simile, alliteration, personification, hyperbole, and idiom. Other examples can be used in instruction. Clarification 2: See Elementary Figurative Language. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.R.3.2:	Summarize a text to enhance comprehension. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Include plot and theme for a literary text.</li> <li>b. Include the central idea and relevant details for an informational text.</li> </ol> Clarifications: Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.R.3.3:	Compare and contrast accounts of the same event using primary and/or secondary sources. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Introduce the terms "primary sources" and "secondary sources." Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.V.1.1:	Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.V.1.2:	Apply knowledge of common Greek and Latin roots, base words, and affixes to determine the meaning of unfamiliar words in grade-level content. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Common Greek and Latin Roots 3-5 and Affixes. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.V.1.3:	Use context clues, figurative language, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the meaning of multiple-meaning and unknown words and phrases, appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level. Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships.

	Clarification 3: See ELA.4.R.3.1 and Elementary Figurative Language. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.C.1.1:	Demonstrate fluent and legible cursive writing skills. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students will use cursive writing to produce legible works within the same timeframe as they would use for writing in print. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.C.1.2:	Write personal or fictional narratives using a logical sequence of events and demonstrating an effective use of techniques such as dialogue, description, and transitional words and phrases. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.C.1.3:	Write to make a claim supporting a perspective with logical reasons, relevant evidence from sources, elaboration, and an organizational structure with varied transitions. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.C.1.4:	Write expository texts about a topic using multiple sources and including an organizational structure, relevant elaboration, and varied transitions. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.C.1.5:	Improve writing by planning, revising, and editing, with guidance and support from adults and feedback from peers. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.C.2.1:	Present information orally, in a logical sequence, using nonverbal cues, appropriate volume, clear pronunciation, and appropriate pacing. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Nonverbal cues appropriate to this grade level are posture, tone, expressive delivery, focus on the audience, and facial expression. Clear pronunciation should be interpreted to mean an understanding and application of phonics rules and sight words as well as care taken in delivery. A student's speech impediment should not be considered as impeding clear pronunciation. This is the initial grade level that introduces appropriate pacing. Appropriate pacing is adhering to the pauses dictated by punctuation and speaking at a rate that best facilitates comprehension by the audience. Too fast a pace will lose listeners and too slow can become monotonous. The element will also help students address the nervousness that may make them speak too fast during presentations. Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Elementary Oral Communication Rubric. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use principal modals to indicate the mood of a verb.</li> <li>• Use appositives, main clauses, and subordinate clauses.</li> <li>• Recognize and correct inappropriate shifts in tense and number.</li> <li>• Use conjunctions correctly to join words and phrases in a sentence.</li> </ul> Skills to be implemented but not yet mastered are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use verbals including gerunds, infinitives, and participial phrases.</li> <li>• Use comparative and superlative forms of adjectives.</li> <li>• Use pronouns correctly with regard to case, number, and person, correcting for vague pronoun reference.</li> <li>• Vary sentence structure.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.C.4.1:	Conduct research to answer a question, organizing information about the topic and using multiple reliable and valid sources. Clarifications: Clarification 1: While the benchmark does require that students consult multiple sources, there is no requirement that they use every source they consult. Part of the skill in researching is discernment—being able to tell which information is relevant and which sources are trustworthy enough to include. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.C.5.1:	Arrange multimedia elements to create emphasis in oral or written tasks. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Multimedia elements may include, but are not limited to, drawings, pictures, artifacts, and audio or digital representation. At this grade level, students are using more than one element. The elements may be of the same type (for example, two pictures or a picture and an audio recording). The elements should relate directly to the task and emphasize or clarify a point made within the task, perhaps by showing examples to clarify a claim or data to emphasize a point. The elements should be smoothly integrated. Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.5.C.5.2:	Use digital writing tools individually or collaboratively to plan, draft, and revise writing. Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Use knowledge of grade-appropriate phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words.
ELA.5.F.1.3:	a. Apply knowledge of all letter-sound correspondences, syllabication patterns, and morphology to read and write unfamiliar single-syllable and multisyllabic words in and out of context. Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Read grade-level texts with accuracy, automaticity, and appropriate prosody or expression. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Fluency Norms for grade-level norms. Norms are expressed as words correct per minute (WCPM), a measure that combines accuracy with rate.
ELA.5.F.1.4:	Clarification 2: Appropriate prosody refers to pausing patterns during oral reading that reflect the punctuation and meaning of a text. See Sample Oral Reading Fluency Rubrics for prosody. Clarification 3: Grade-level texts, for the purposes of fluency, are those within the grade band on quantitative text complexity measures and appropriate in content and qualitative measures. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.R.1.1:	Analyze how setting, events, conflict, and characterization contribute to the plot in a literary text. Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Explain the development of stated or implied theme(s) throughout a literary text. Clarifications:
ELA.5.R.1.2:	Clarification 1: Where the development of multiple themes is being explained, the themes may come from the same or multiple literary texts. Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Describe how an author develops a character's perspective in a literary text. Clarifications:
ELA.5.R.1.3:	Clarification 1: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something." Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Explain how figurative language and other poetic elements work together in a poem. Clarifications:
ELA.5.R.1.4:	Clarification 1: Figurative language for the purposes of this benchmark refers to metaphor, simile, alliteration, personification, hyperbole, imagery, and idiom. Other examples can be used in instruction. Clarification 2: Poetic elements to be used for the purposes of this benchmark are form, rhyme, meter, line breaks, and imagery. Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Explain how text structures and/or features contribute to the overall meaning of texts. Clarifications:
ELA.5.R.2.1:	Clarification 1: For more information, see Text Structures and Text Features. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.R.2.2:	Explain how relevant details support the central idea(s), implied or explicit. Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Analyze an author's purpose and/or perspective in an informational text. Clarifications:
ELA.5.R.2.3:	Clarification 1: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something." Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Track the development of an argument, identifying the specific claim(s), evidence, and reasoning. Clarifications:
ELA.5.R.2.4:	Clarification 1: A claim is a statement that asserts something is true. A claim can either be fact or opinion. Claims can be used alone or with other claims to form a larger argument. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.R.3.1:	Analyze how figurative language contributes to meaning in text(s). Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Summarize a text to enhance comprehension.
ELA.5.R.3.2:	a. Include plot and theme for a literary text. b. Include the central idea and relevant details for an informational text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.R.3.3:	Compare and contrast primary and secondary sources related to the same topic. Standard Relation to Course: Major

	Apply knowledge of Greek and Latin roots and affixes, recognizing the connection between affixes and parts of speech, to determine the meaning of unfamiliar words in grade-level content. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Common Greek and Latin Roots 3-5.
ELA.5.V.1.2:

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Use context clues, figurative language, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the meaning of multiple-meaning and unknown words and phrases, appropriate to grade level.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level.

Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships.

Clarification 3: See ELA.5.R.3.1 and Elementary Figurative Language.

ELA.5.V.1.3:

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Print many upper- and lowercase letters.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Students should attend to spacing between letters.

Clarification 2: Of the many letters students need to be able to print, all vowels must be included. For example, a student who can print 22 letters, both upper- and lowercase, but not "a" or "A" has not mastered the benchmark.

ELA.K.C.1.1:

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Using a combination of drawing, dictating, and/or writing, create narratives with the events in chronological order.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: The product can be written, drawn, dictated, or a combination of all.

Clarification 2: See Writing Types.

ELA.K.C.1.2:

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Using a combination of drawing, dictating, and/or writing, express opinions about a topic or text with at least one supporting reason.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: The product can be written, oral, drawn, dictated, or a combination of all.

Clarification 2: See Writing Types.

ELA.K.C.1.3:

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Using a combination of drawing, dictating, and/or writing, provide factual information about a topic.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: The product can be written, drawn, dictated, or a combination of all.

Clarification 2: Some opinion can be added to the information, but it should mostly be factual. It is important that students understand the difference between writing to explain and writing to express an opinion.

Clarification 3: See Writing Types.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.K.C.1.4:

With guidance and support from adults, improve drawing and writing, as needed, by planning, revising, and editing.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: "As needed" refers to the fact that sometimes instruction will focus on a specific skill or part of the process. For example, a lesson may focus on planning. In those instances, only the planning step would be focused on. By the end of the year, students should have ample opportunities to engage in planning, revising, and editing.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.K.C.1.5:

Present information orally using complete sentences.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: For further guidance, see the Elementary Oral Communication Rubric.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.K.C.2.1:

Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows:

- Begin each sentence with a capital letter and use ending punctuation.
- Capitalize the days of the week, the months of the year, and the pronoun I.
- Form regular plural nouns orally by adding /s/ or /es/.
- Use interrogatives to ask questions.

ELA.K.C.3.1:

Skills to be implemented but not yet mastered are as follows:

- Capitalize proper nouns.
- Form and use simple verb tenses for regular verbs by adding the affix -ed.
- Form and use complete simple sentences.
- Use possessives.
- Use subject-verb agreement in simple sentences.

Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.K.C.4.1:

Recall information to answer a question about a single topic.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Use a multimedia element to enhance oral or written tasks.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Multimedia elements may include, but are not limited to, a drawing, picture, artifact, audio or digital representation.

ELA.K.C.5.1:

Multimedia elements may include, but are not limited to, a drawing, picture, artifact, audio or digital representation. At this grade level, the element should relate to the task but that relationship may be tangential. It does not require but can include the use of computers.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Demonstrate knowledge of the basic concepts of print.

- a. Locate a printed word on a page.
- b. Distinguish letters from words within sentences.
- c. Match print to speech to demonstrate that language is represented by print.
- d. Identify parts of a book (front cover, back cover, title page).
- e. Move top to bottom and left to right on the printed page; returning to the beginning of the next line.
- f. Identify all upper- and lowercase letters of the alphabet.
- g. Recognize that print conveys specific meaning and pictures may support meaning.

ELA.K.F.1.1:

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Matching print to speech involves making a one-to-one correspondence between a spoken word and the print on the page. This can be accomplished by having the child point to each word in a sentence as it is read by an adult.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Demonstrate phonological awareness.

- a. Blend and segment syllables in spoken words.
- b. Identify and produce alliterative and rhyming words.
- c. Blend and segment onset and rimes of single-syllable words.
- d. Identify the initial, medial, and final sound of spoken words.
- e. Add or delete phonemes at the beginning or end of a spoken word and say the resulting word.
- f. Segment and blend phonemes in single-syllable spoken words.

ELA.K.F.1.2:

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Phonological awareness only refers to what can be done orally at the syllable, onset-rime, and phoneme levels. It does not involve print or letter knowledge.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Use knowledge of grade-appropriate phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words accurately.

- a. Demonstrate knowledge of the most frequent sound for each consonant.
- b. Demonstrate knowledge of the short and long sounds for the five major vowels.
- c. Decode consonant-vowel-consonant (CVC) words.
- d. Encode consonant-vowel-consonant (CVC) words.

ELA.K.F.1.3:

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Phonics refers to the relationship between graphemes (letters or letter combinations) and phonemes (speech sounds).

Clarification 2: Students will decode decodable high frequency words appropriate to the grade level. See K.F.1.4 and Dolch and Fry word lists. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Recognize and read with automaticity grade-level high frequency words.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: See Dolch and Fry word lists.

ELA.K.F.1.4:

Clarification 2: Many of the high frequency words at this grade level are either irregularly spelled and therefore not decodable or are temporarily irregular, meaning that students have not yet learned the phonics rule that would enable them to decode the word. Those words that are decodable should be introduced to students using appropriate phonics rules. See K.F.1.3. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Describe the main character(s), setting, and important events in a story.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: In describing the main character, students can describe appearance, actions, feelings, and thoughts of the character. Students will explain what in the text their description is based on.

Clarification 2: For setting, students will discuss where the events of the story are happening. The time element of setting should only be addressed in texts where it is explicitly indicated.

Clarification 3: Descriptions can be oral, either in response to a question or through discussion.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.K.R.1.1:

Explain the roles of author and illustrator of a story.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Students will explain that the author writes the words and the illustrator creates the pictures, recognizing that sometimes one person does both jobs, as in Dr. Seuss' Hop on Pop where Dr. Seuss performs both roles.

ELA.K.R.1.3:

Clarification 2: Students should also explain that both authors and illustrators contribute to the meaning of the text.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Identify rhyme in a poem.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: This benchmark builds on the skills from the phonological awareness benchmark ELA.K.F.1.2(b): Identify and produce alliterative and rhyming words. The expectation is that students identify rhyming words in a poem that is read aloud.

Clarification 2: Students will also note where the rhyme is coming, e.g., at the end of a line.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Use titles, headings, and illustrations to predict and confirm the topic of texts.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: The step of confirming the prediction is essential to mastery of this benchmark.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Identify the topic of and multiple details in a text.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: The topic is the general subject of the text, a word or a short phrase describing what the text is about. For example, the main topic of the book Why Should I Recycle? is recycling.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Explain the difference between opinions and facts about a topic.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Students will explain which statements are fact and which are opinion within a text.

Clarification 2: Students will orally explain that facts are things that a person knows about something and that can be proven true or false. Students will orally explain that opinions are what a person thinks about something, often related to feelings or beliefs. Opinions cannot be proven true or false.

Example: "Dogs need food and water to survive" is a fact. It can be proven to be true. "Dogs are the best pets" is an opinion. It's what someone may think, but it can't be proven.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Identify and explain descriptive words in text(s).

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Students will explain examples of descriptive words in text and how they add meaning.

Clarification 2: Students will be introduced to the academic vocabulary word "adjective." However, students are not expected to use the word independently. Discussion should focus on how the descriptive words add meaning to the text.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Retell a text orally to enhance comprehension:

- a. Use main character(s), setting, and important events for a story.
- b. Use topic and details for an informational text.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Compare and contrast characters' experiences in stories.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Students will orally compare and contrast the experiences that characters have had, comparing them to those experienced by other characters, in the same story or a different story. Those experiences can be expressed as events, feelings, or behaviors.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, are vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Ask and answer questions about unfamiliar words in grade-level content.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Identify and sort common words into basic categories, relating vocabulary to background knowledge.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level.

Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning.

Clarifications:

ELA.K12.EE.1.1:	K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing. 2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations. 4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they've directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor. 6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation. 9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.2.1:	Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently. Clarifications: See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.3.1:	Make inferences to support comprehension. Clarifications: Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like "Why is the girl smiling?" or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.4.1:	Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations. Clarifications: In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully. In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: "I think _____ because _____." The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations. In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.5.1:	Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work. Clarifications: Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. ## General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

This course may be composed of a multilevel classroom with learners from diverse backgrounds at varying proficiency levels using a standards-based curriculum. This course supports students who are struggling with written and oral communication. Each student's curriculum should be defined using the most appropriate standards from those listed below to meet the individual's needs.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Arts is not a discrete set of skills, but a rich discipline with meaningful, significant content, the knowledge of which helps all students actively and fully participate in our society. Standards should not stand alone as a separate focus for instruction, but should be combined purposefully.

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. To access an ELL supporting document which delineates performance definitions and descriptors, please click on the following link: <https://cpalmsmediaproduct.blob.core.windows.net/uploads/docs/standards/eld/la.pdf>

VERSION REQUIREMENTS

One-third of all Kindergarten-5th grade Sample ELA Book List(s) should be used in instruction, with a focus on grade-appropriate texts specific to student needs.

Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.K.C.1.1:	Print many upper- and lowercase letters. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Students should attend to spacing between letters. Clarification 2: Of the many letters students need to be able to print, all vowels must be included. For example, a student who can print 22 letters, both upper- and lowercase, but not “a” or “A” has not mastered the benchmark. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.C.1.2:	Using a combination of drawing, dictating, and/or writing, create narratives with the events in chronological order. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: The product can be written, drawn, dictated, or a combination of all. Clarification 2: See Writing Types. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.C.1.3:	Using a combination of drawing, dictating, and/or writing, express opinions about a topic or text with at least one supporting reason. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: The product can be written, oral, drawn, dictated, or a combination of all. Clarification 2: See Writing Types. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.C.1.4:	Using a combination of drawing, dictating, and/or writing, provide factual information about a topic. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: The product can be written, drawn, dictated, or a combination of all. Clarification 2: Some opinion can be added to the information, but it should mostly be factual. It is important that students understand the difference between writing to explain and writing to express an opinion. Clarification 3: See Writing Types. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.C.1.5:	With guidance and support from adults, improve drawing and writing, as needed, by planning, revising, and editing. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: “As needed” refers to the fact that sometimes instruction will focus on a specific skill or part of the process. For example, a lesson may focus on planning. In those instances, only the planning step would be focused on. By the end of the year, students should have ample opportunities to engage in planning, revising, and editing. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.C.2.1:	Present information orally using complete sentences. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: For further guidance, see the Elementary Oral Communication Rubric. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Begin each sentence with a capital letter and use ending punctuation.</li> <li>• Capitalize the days of the week, the months of the year, and the pronoun I.</li> <li>• Form regular plural nouns orally by adding /s/ or /es/.</li> <li>• Use interrogatives to ask questions.</li> </ul> Skills to be implemented but not yet mastered are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Capitalize proper nouns.</li> <li>• Form and use simple verb tenses for regular verbs by adding the affix -ed.</li> <li>• Form and use complete simple sentences.</li> <li>• Use possessives.</li> <li>• Use subject-verb agreement in simple sentences.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K.C.4.1:	Recall information to answer a question about a single topic. Standard Relation to Course: Major

Use a multimedia element to enhance oral or written tasks.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Multimedia elements may include, but are not limited to, a drawing, picture, artifact, audio or digital representation.

ELA.K.C.5.1:

Multimedia elements may include, but are not limited to, a drawing, picture, artifact, audio or digital representation. At this grade level, the element should relate to the task but that relationship may be tangential. It does not require but can include the use of computers.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Demonstrate knowledge of the basic concepts of print.

- a. Locate a printed word on a page.
- b. Distinguish letters from words within sentences.
- c. Match print to speech to demonstrate that language is represented by print.
- d. Identify parts of a book (front cover, back cover, title page).
- e. Move top to bottom and left to right on the printed page; returning to the beginning of the next line.
- f. Identify all upper- and lowercase letters of the alphabet.
- g. Recognize that print conveys specific meaning and pictures may support meaning.

ELA.K.F.1.1:

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Matching print to speech involves making a one-to-one correspondence between a spoken word and the print on the page. This can be accomplished by having the child point to each word in a sentence as it is read by an adult.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Demonstrate phonological awareness.

- a. Blend and segment syllables in spoken words.
- b. Identify and produce alliterative and rhyming words.
- c. Blend and segment onset and rimes of single-syllable words.
- d. Identify the initial, medial, and final sound of spoken words.
- e. Add or delete phonemes at the beginning or end of a spoken word and say the resulting word.
- f. Segment and blend phonemes in single-syllable spoken words.

ELA.K.F.1.2:

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Phonological awareness only refers to what can be done orally at the syllable, onset-rime, and phoneme levels. It does not involve print or letter knowledge.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Use knowledge of grade-appropriate phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words accurately.

- a. Demonstrate knowledge of the most frequent sound for each consonant.
- b. Demonstrate knowledge of the short and long sounds for the five major vowels.
- c. Decode consonant-vowel-consonant (CVC) words.
- d. Encode consonant-vowel-consonant (CVC) words.

ELA.K.F.1.3:

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Phonics refers to the relationship between graphemes (letters or letter combinations) and phonemes (speech sounds).

Clarification 2: Students will decode decodable high frequency words appropriate to the grade level. See K.F.1.4 and Dolch and Fry word lists. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Recognize and read with automaticity grade-level high frequency words.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: See Dolch and Fry word lists.

ELA.K.F.1.4:

Clarification 2: Many of the high frequency words at this grade level are either irregularly spelled and therefore not decodable or are temporarily irregular, meaning that students have not yet learned the phonics rule that would enable them to decode the word. Those words that are decodable should be introduced to students using appropriate phonics rules. See K.F.1.3. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Describe the main character(s), setting, and important events in a story.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: In describing the main character, students can describe appearance, actions, feelings, and thoughts of the character. Students will explain what in the text their description is based on.

Clarification 2: For setting, students will discuss where the events of the story are happening. The time element of setting should only be addressed in texts where it is explicitly indicated.

Clarification 3: Descriptions can be oral, either in response to a question or through discussion.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.K.R.1.1:

Explain the roles of author and illustrator of a story.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Students will explain that the author writes the words and the illustrator creates the pictures, recognizing that sometimes one person does both jobs, as in Dr. Seuss' Hop on Pop where Dr. Seuss performs both roles.

ELA.K.R.1.3:

Clarification 2: Students should also explain that both authors and illustrators contribute to the meaning of the text.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Identify rhyme in a poem.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: This benchmark builds on the skills from the phonological awareness benchmark ELA.K.F.1.2(b): Identify and produce alliterative and rhyming words. The expectation is that students identify rhyming words in a poem that is read aloud.

Clarification 2: Students will also note where the rhyme is coming, e.g., at the end of a line.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Use titles, headings, and illustrations to predict and confirm the topic of texts.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: The step of confirming the prediction is essential to mastery of this benchmark.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Identify the topic of and multiple details in a text.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: The topic is the general subject of the text, a word or a short phrase describing what the text is about. For example, the main topic of the book Why Should I Recycle? is recycling.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Explain the difference between opinions and facts about a topic.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Students will explain which statements are fact and which are opinion within a text.

Clarification 2: Students will orally explain that facts are things that a person knows about something and that can be proven true or false. Students will orally explain that opinions are what a person thinks about something, often related to feelings or beliefs. Opinions cannot be proven true or false.

Example: “Dogs need food and water to survive” is a fact. It can be proven to be true. “Dogs are the best pets” is an opinion. It’s what someone may think, but it can’t be proven.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Identify and explain descriptive words in text(s).

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Students will explain examples of descriptive words in text and how they add meaning.

Clarification 2: Students will be introduced to the academic vocabulary word “adjective.” However, students are not expected to use the word independently. Discussion should focus on how the descriptive words add meaning to the text.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Retell a text orally to enhance comprehension:

- a. Use main character(s), setting, and important events for a story.
- b. Use topic and details for an informational text.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Compare and contrast characters’ experiences in stories.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Students will orally compare and contrast the experiences that characters have had, comparing them to those experienced by other characters, in the same story or a different story. Those experiences can be expressed as events, feelings, or behaviors.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, are vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Ask and answer questions about unfamiliar words in grade-level content.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Identify and sort common words into basic categories, relating vocabulary to background knowledge.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level.

Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning.

Clarifications:

ELA.K12.EE.1.1:	K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing. 2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations. 4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they've directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor. 6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation. 9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.2.1:	Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently. Clarifications: See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.3.1:	Make inferences to support comprehension. Clarifications: Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like "Why is the girl smiling?" or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.4.1:	Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations. Clarifications: In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully. In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: "I think _____ because _____." The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations. In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.5.1:	Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work. Clarifications: Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.6.1:	Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing. Clarifications: In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

This course defines what students should understand and be able to do by the end of kindergarten. The standards emphasize explicit, systematic phonics instruction as the foundation of literacy. Decoding and fluency are essential to creating proficient readers. Knowledge acquisition should be the primary purpose of any reading approach as systematic building of a wide range of knowledge across domains is a prerequisite to higher literacy.

The benchmarks in this course are mastery goals that students are expected to attain by the end of the year. To build mastery, students will continue to review and apply earlier grade-level benchmarks and expectations.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Arts is not a discrete set of skills, but a rich discipline with meaningful, significant content, the knowledge of which helps all students actively and fully participate in our society.

Standards should not stand alone as a separate focus for instruction, but should be combined purposefully.

The texts students read should be meaningful and thought-provoking, preparing them to be informed, civic-minded members of their community.

Curricular content for all subjects must integrate critical-thinking, problem-solving, and workforce-literacy skills; communication, reading, and writing skills; mathematics skills; collaboration skills; contextual and applied-learning skills; technology-literacy skills; information and media-literacy skills; and civic-engagement skills.

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. To access an ELL supporting document which delineates performance definitions and descriptors, please click on the following link:
<https://cpalmsmediaproduct.blob.core.windows.net/uploads/docs/standards/eld/la.pdf>.

VERSION REQUIREMENTS

Build background knowledge in K-5 with a balance of approximately 50% informational texts and 50% literary texts

Approximately one-third of the titles from the Kindergarten Sample Book List should be used in instruction.

ELA.1.C.4.1:	Participate in research to gather information to answer a question about a single topic. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: The question could ask for an explanation or could ask how to do something, where the appropriate response could be to give a sequence of steps or instructions.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.C.5.1:	Use a multimedia element to enhance oral or written tasks. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Multimedia elements may include, but are not limited to, a drawing, picture, artifact, audio or digital representation. At this grade level, the element should relate to the task. As long as the student is able to explain how the picture relates, the multimedia element is suitable. The element may be shared at the beginning or added on to the end instead of shared

during the course of the task. There is no expectation that the element be integrated into the task.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.1.C.5.2:

Identify and use digital tools to produce and publish writing individually or with peers and with support from adults.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.1.F.1.1:

Locate the title, table of contents, names of author(s) and illustrator(s), and glossary of books.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Demonstrate phonological awareness.

- a. Segment spoken words into initial, medial, and final phonemes, including words with digraphs, blends, and trigraphs.
- b. Orally blend initial, medial, and final phonemes together to produce a single-syllable word that includes digraphs, blends, or trigraphs.
- c. Blend single-syllable spoken words with at least five phonemes.
- d. Segment single-syllable spoken words with at least five phonemes.
- e. Segment and blend phonemes in multi-syllable spoken words.

ELA.1.F.1.2:

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Phonological awareness only refers to what can be done orally at both the sound and syllabic level. This includes isolating sounds, blending sounds, and orally segmenting words based on syllables. It does not involve print or letter knowledge.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Use knowledge of grade-appropriate phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words accurately.

- a. Decode words using knowledge of spelling-sound correspondences for common consonant digraphs, trigraphs, and blends.
- b. Decode simple words with r-controlled vowels.
- c. Decode and encode regularly spelled one-syllable words.
- d. Decode words with inflectional endings.
- e. Decode two-syllable words with regular patterns by breaking the words into syllables.
- f. Decode words that use final –e and vowel teams to make long-vowel sound.

ELA.1.F.1.3:

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Phonics refers to the relationship between graphemes (letters or letter combinations) and phonemes (speech sounds).

Clarification 2: Students will decode decodable high frequency words appropriate to the grade level. See 1.F.1.4 and Dolch and Fry word lists. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Read grade-level texts with accuracy, automaticity, and appropriate prosody or expression.

- a. Recognize and read with automaticity the grade-level sight words.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: See Dolch and Fry word lists.

Clarification 2: Many of the high frequency words at this grade level are either irregularly spelled and therefore not decodable or are temporarily irregular, meaning that students have not yet learned the phonics rule that would enable them to decode the word. Those words that are decodable should be introduced to students using appropriate phonics rules. See 1.F.1.3. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity.

Clarification 3: See Fluency Norms for grade-level norms. Norms are expressed as words correct per minute (WCPM), a measure that combines accuracy with speed.

Clarification 4: “Appropriate prosody” refers to pausing patterns during oral reading that reflect the punctuation and meaning of a text. See Sample Oral Reading Fluency Rubrics for prosody.

Clarification 5: Grade-level texts, for the purposes of fluency, are those within the grade band on quantitative text complexity measures and appropriate in content and qualitative measures.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Identify and describe the main story elements in a story.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Main story elements for the purpose of this benchmark are the setting, characters, and sequence of events of a story.

ELA.1.R.1.1:

Clarification 2: In describing the characters, students can describe appearance, actions, feelings, and thoughts of the characters. Students will explain what in the text their description is based on.

Clarification 3: For setting, students will discuss where the events of the story are happening. The time element of setting should only be addressed in texts where it is explicitly indicated.

Standard Relation to Course: Major

Identify and explain the moral of a story.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: This benchmark introduces the moral of a story as a precursor to theme in 2nd grade. A moral is the lesson of a story. During instruction, let students know that not all stories have a lesson by referring to stories read that did not have a moral or a lesson.

ELA.1.R.1.2:

Standard Relation to Course: Major

ELA.1.R.1.3:	Explain who is telling the story using context clues. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students will use the term “narrator” to refer to the speaker telling the story. Students will determine if the narrator is a character in the story or a speaker outside of the story. Students will give reasons why they know who is speaking. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.R.1.4:	Identify stanzas and line breaks in poems. Clarifications: Clarification 1: This benchmark can be paired with R.1.1, R.1.2, R.1.3 and R.3.2 for instruction with story poems. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.R.2.1:	Use text features including titles, headings, captions, graphs, maps, glossaries, and/or illustrations to demonstrate understanding of texts. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.R.2.2:	Identify the topic of and relevant details in a text. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.R.2.3:	Explain similarities and differences between information provided in visuals and words in an informational text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: When explaining similarities and differences, students will also explain how the visuals and words help the reader make sense of the topic. Clarification 2: During instruction, give students opportunities to see visual representations of similarities and differences using tools such as Venn diagrams or T-charts. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.R.2.4:	Identify an author’s opinion(s) about the topic. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.R.3.1:	Identify and explain descriptive words and phrases in text(s). Clarifications: Clarification 1: Continue to expose students to the academic vocabulary word “adjective.” Discussion should focus on how the descriptive words add meaning to the text. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.R.3.2:	Retell a text in oral or written form to enhance comprehension. a. Use main story elements at the beginning, middle, and end for a literary text. b. Use topic and important details for an informational text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.R.3.3:	Compare and contrast two texts on the same topic. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students are being asked to compare and contrast. During instruction, give students opportunities to see visual representations of similarities and differences using tools such as Venn diagrams or T-charts. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.V.1.1:	Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, are vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.V.1.2:	Identify and use frequently occurring base words and their common inflections in grade-level content. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Base Words for frequently occurring base words. Clarification 2: Inflectional endings, the inflections referred to here, are added to the end of a word to add additional information. Example: Regular verbs add the inflectional ending -ed to indicate the past tense. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.1.V.1.3:	Identify and use picture clues, context clues, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the meaning of unknown words. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level. Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships. Standard Relation to Course: Major

consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing.

2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations.

ELA.K12.EE.1.1:

4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they've directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor.

6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation.

9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

ELA.K12.EE.2.1:

Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently.

Clarifications:

See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

ELA.K12.EE.3.1:

Make inferences to support comprehension.

Clarifications:

Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like "Why is the girl smiling?" or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

ELA.K12.EE.4.1:

Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations.

Clarifications:

In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully.

In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: "I think _____ because _____." The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations.

In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

ELA.K12.EE.5.1:

Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work.

Clarifications:

Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

ELA.K12.EE.6.1:

Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing.

Clarifications:

In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:

English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.

Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:

English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

This course defines what students should understand and be able to do by the end of 1st grade. The standards emphasize explicit, systematic phonics instruction as the foundation of literacy. Decoding and fluency are essential to creating proficient readers. Knowledge acquisition should be the primary purpose of any reading approach as systematic building of a wide range of knowledge across domains is a prerequisite to higher literacy.

The benchmarks in this course are mastery goals that students are expected to attain by the end of the year. To build mastery, students will continue to review and apply earlier grade-level benchmarks and expectations.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Arts is not a discrete set of skills, but a rich discipline with meaningful, significant content, the knowledge of which helps all students actively and fully participate in our society.

Standards should not stand alone as a separate focus for instruction, but should be combined purposefully.

The texts students read should be meaningful and thought-provoking, preparing them to be informed, civic-minded members of their community.

Curricular content for all subjects must integrate critical-thinking, problem-solving, and workforce-literacy skills; communication, reading, and writing skills; mathematics skills; collaboration skills; contextual and applied-learning skills; technology-literacy skills; information and media-literacy skills; and civic-engagement skills.

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. ### VERSION REQUIREMENTS

Build background knowledge in K-5 with a balance of approximately 50% informational texts and 50% literary texts

Approximately one-third of the titles from the 1st Grade Sample Book List should be used in instruction.

Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.2.C.1.1:	Demonstrate legible printing skills. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.C.1.2:	Write personal or fictional narratives using a logical sequence of events, transitions, and an ending. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.C.1.3:	Write opinions about a topic or text with reasons supported by details from a source, use transitions, and provide a conclusion. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.C.1.4:	Write expository texts about a topic, using a source, providing an introduction, facts, transitions, and a conclusion. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.C.1.5:	Improve writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing with guidance and support from adults and feedback from peers. Clarifications: Clarification 1: "As needed" refers to the fact that sometimes instruction will focus on a specific skill or part of the process. In those instances, only the applicable activity will be engaged in. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.C.2.1:	Present information orally using complete sentences, appropriate volume, and clear pronunciation. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Clear pronunciation shows an understanding and application of phonics rules and sight words as well as care taken in delivery. A student's speech impediment should not be considered as impeding clear pronunciation.  Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Elementary Oral Communication Rubric. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Form plurals -y to -ies.</li> <li>• Use apostrophes to form contractions.</li> <li>• Appropriately use pronouns.</li> <li>• Use commas in a series.</li> <li>• Use plural possessives.</li> <li>• Use interjections.</li> </ul> Skills to be implemented but not yet mastered are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Conjugate regular and irregular verb tenses.</li> <li>• Form and use regular and frequently occurring irregular plural nouns.</li> <li>• Form and use the past tense of frequently occurring irregular verbs.</li> <li>• Maintain consistent verb tense across paragraphs.</li> <li>• Form and use irregular plural nouns.</li> <li>• Form and use the progressive and perfect verb tenses.</li> <li>• Use simple modifiers.</li> <li>• Use prepositions and prepositional phrases.</li> <li>• Form and use compound sentences.</li> <li>• Use quotation marks with dialogue and direct quotations.</li> <li>• Use commas to indicate direct address.</li> <li>• Use subject-verb agreement with intervening clauses and phrases.</li> <li>• Produce complete sentences, recognizing and correcting inappropriate fragments and run-ons.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.C.4.1:	Participate in research to gather information to answer a question about a single topic using multiple sources. Standard Relation to Course: Major  Use one or more multimedia element(s) to enhance oral or written tasks.

ELA.2.C.5.1:	Clarifications: Clarification 1: Multimedia elements may include, but are not limited to, drawings, pictures, artifacts, and audio or digital representation. At this grade level, the element(s) should relate directly to the task. There is no expectation that the element(s) be integrated into the task. The student can but is not required to use more than one multimedia element. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.C.5.2:	Use digital tools to produce and publish writing individually or with peers and with support from adults. Standard Relation to Course: Major Use knowledge of grade-appropriate phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Decode words with variable vowel teams (e.g., oo, ea, ou) and vowel diphthongs (e.g., oi, oy, ow).</li> <li>Decode regularly spelled two-syllable words with long and short vowels.</li> <li>Decode words with open (e.g., hi, baby, moment) and closed (e.g., bag, sunshine, chop) syllables and consonant -le (e.g., purple, circle, stumble).</li> <li>Decode words with common prefixes and suffixes.</li> <li>Decode words with silent letter combinations (e.g., knight, comb, island, ghost).</li> </ol>
ELA.2.F.1.3:	Clarifications: Clarification 1: Phonics refers to the relationship between graphemes (letters or letter combinations) and phonemes (speech sounds). Clarification 2: Students will decode decodable high frequency words appropriate to the grade level. See 2.F.1.4 and Dolch and Fry word lists. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.F.1.4:	Read grade-level texts with accuracy, automaticity, and appropriate prosody or expression. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Dolch and Fry word lists. Clarification 2: Many of the high frequency words at this grade level are either irregularly spelled and therefore not decodable or are temporarily irregular, meaning that students have not yet learned the phonics rule that would enable them to decode the word. Those words that are decodable should be introduced to students using appropriate phonics rules. See 2.F.1.3. Students will read grade-level appropriate high frequency words, decodable or not, with automaticity. Clarification 3: See Fluency Norms for grade-level norms. Norms are expressed as words correct per minute (WCMP), a measure that combines accuracy with rate. Clarification 4: Appropriate prosody refers to pausing patterns during oral reading that reflect the punctuation and meaning of a text. See Sample Oral Reading Fluency Rubrics for prosody. Clarification 5: Grade-level texts, for the purposes of fluency, are those within the grade band on quantitative text complexity measures and appropriate in content and qualitative measures. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.R.1.1:	Identify plot structure and describe main story elements in a literary text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Main story elements for the purpose of this benchmark are the setting, characters, and sequence of events of a story. Clarification 2: For setting, students will describe where and when the events of the story are happening. The time element of setting will be addressed even when not explicitly indicated in the text. Clarification 3: For character, student's will describe characters' traits, feelings, and behaviors. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.R.1.2:	Identify and explain a theme of a literary text. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.R.1.3:	Identify different characters' perspectives in a literary text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something." The term point of view is used when referring to the person of the narrator. This is to prevent confusion and conflation. Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Identify rhyme schemes in poems. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students will mark rhyme scheme and recognize rhyme scheme notation. Rhyme scheme notation uses capital letters, starting with A to mark the end of each line, repeating the letter for each line in the poem that rhymes with that line and progressing through the alphabet for each new end rhyme. Lines designated with the same letter all rhyme with each other. Examples: I never saw a Purple Cow, A  I never hope to see one; B  But I can tell you, anyhow, A

ELA.2.R.1.4:	I'd rather see than be one! B –Gelett Burgess Little Miss Muffet                    A  Sat on a tuffet,                    A  Eating her curds and whey;        B  Along came a spider                C  Who sat down beside her         C  And frightened Miss Muffet away. B –Traditional Nursery Rhyme Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.R.2.1:	Explain how text features—including titles, headings, captions, graphs, maps, glossaries, and/or illustrations—contribute to the meaning of texts. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.R.2.2:	Identify the central idea and relevant details in a text. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.R.2.3:	Explain an author's purpose in an informational text. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.R.2.4:	Explain an author's opinion(s) and supporting evidence. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.R.3.1:	Identify and explain similes, idioms, and alliteration in text(s). Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.R.3.2:	Retell a text to enhance comprehension. a. Use main story elements in a logical sequence for a literary text.  b. Use the central idea and relevant details for an informational text. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.R.3.3:	Compare and contrast important details presented by two texts on the same topic or theme. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: For literary texts, students can compare and contrast story elements such as characters, illustrations, and sequence of events.  Clarification 2: The different versions may be of the same or different formats. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.V.1.1:	Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.V.1.2:	Identify and use base words and affixes to determine the meaning of unfamiliar words in grade-level content. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Base Words. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.2.V.1.3:	Identify and use context clues, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the meaning of unknown words. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level.  Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K12.EE.1.1:	Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning. Clarifications:  K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing.  2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations.  4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they've directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor.

6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation.

9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Arts is not a discrete set of skills, but a rich discipline with meaningful, significant content, the knowledge of which helps all students actively and fully participate in our society.

Standards should not stand alone as a separate focus for instruction, but should be combined purposefully.

The texts students read should be meaningful and thought-provoking, preparing them to be informed, civic-minded members of their community.

Curricular content for all subjects must integrate critical-thinking, problem-solving, and workforce-literacy skills; communication, reading, and writing skills; mathematics skills; collaboration skills; contextual and applied-learning skills; technology-literacy skills; information and media-literacy skills; and civic-engagement skills.

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. LAFS.3.L.3.4:	Determine or clarify the meaning of unknown and multiple-meaning word and phrases based on grade 3 reading and content, choosing flexibly from a range of strategies. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Use sentence-level context as a clue to the meaning of a word or phrase.</li> <li>Determine the meaning of the new word formed when a known affix is added to a known word (e.g., agreeable/disagreeable, comfortable/uncomfortable, care/careless, heat/preheat).</li> <li>Use a known root word as a clue to the meaning of an unknown word with the same root (e.g., company, companion).</li> <li>Use glossaries or beginning dictionaries, both print and digital, to determine or clarify the precise meaning of key words and phrases.</li> </ol>
LAFS.3.L.3.5:	Demonstrate understanding of word relationships and nuances in word meanings. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Distinguish the literal and nonliteral meanings of words and phrases in context (e.g., take steps).</li> <li>Identify real-life connections between words and their use (e.g., describe people who are friendly or helpful).</li> <li>Distinguish shades of meaning among related words that describe states of mind or degrees of certainty (e.g., knew, believed, suspected, heard, wondered).</li> </ol>
LAFS.3.L.3.6:	Acquire and use accurately conversational, general academic, and domain specific words and phrases as found in grade appropriate texts, including those that signal spatial and temporal relationships (e.g., After dinner that night we went looking for them).
	Know and apply grade-level phonics and word analysis skills in decoding words.

LAFS.3.RF.3.3:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Identify and know the meaning of the most common prefixes and derivational suffixes.</li> <li>b. Decode words with common Latin suffixes.</li> <li>c. Decode multisyllable words.</li> <li>d. Read grade-appropriate irregularly spelled words.</li> </ul>
LAFS.3.RF.4.4:	Read with sufficient accuracy and fluency to support comprehension. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Read on-level text with purpose and understanding.</li> <li>b. Read on-level prose and poetry orally with accuracy, appropriate rate, and expression on successive readings.</li> <li>c. Use context to confirm or self-correct word recognition and understanding, rereading as necessary.</li> </ul>
LAFS.3.RI.1.1:	Ask and answer questions to demonstrate understanding of a text, referring explicitly to the text as the basis for the answers.
LAFS.3.RI.1.2:	Determine the main idea of a text; recount the key details and explain how they support the main idea.
LAFS.3.RI.1.3:	Describe the relationship between a series of historical events, scientific ideas or concepts, or steps in technical procedures in a text, using language that pertains to time, sequence, and cause/effect.
LAFS.3.RI.2.4:	Determine the meaning of general academic and domain-specific words and phrases in a text relevant to a grade 3 topic or subject area.
LAFS.3.RI.2.5:	Use text features and search tools (e.g., key words, sidebars, hyperlinks) to locate information relevant to a given topic efficiently.
LAFS.3.RI.2.6:	Distinguish their own point of view from that of the author of a text.
LAFS.3.RI.3.7:	Use information gained from illustrations (e.g., maps, photographs) and the words in a text to demonstrate understanding of the text (e.g., where, when, why, and how key events occur).
LAFS.3.RI.3.8:	Describe the logical connection between particular sentences and paragraphs in a text (e.g., comparison, cause/effect, first/second/third in a sequence).
LAFS.3.RI.3.9:	Compare and contrast the most important points and key details presented in two texts on the same topic.
LAFS.3.RI.4.10:	By the end of the year, read and comprehend informational texts, including history/social studies, science, and technical texts, at the high end of the grades 2–3 text complexity band independently and proficiently.
LAFS.3.RL.1.1:	Ask and answer questions to demonstrate understanding of a text, referring explicitly to the text as the basis for the answers.
LAFS.3.RL.1.2:	Recount stories, including fables, folktales, and myths from diverse cultures; determine the central message, lesson, or moral and explain how it is conveyed through key details in the text.
LAFS.3.RL.1.3:	Describe characters in a story (e.g., their traits, motivations, or feelings) and explain how their actions contribute to the sequence of events.
LAFS.3.RL.2.4:	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, distinguishing literal from nonliteral language.
LAFS.3.RL.2.5:	Refer to parts of stories, dramas, and poems when writing or speaking about a text, using terms such as chapter, scene, and stanza; describe how each successive part builds on earlier sections.
LAFS.3.RL.2.6:	Distinguish their own point of view from that of the narrator or those of the characters.
LAFS.3.RL.3.7:	Explain how specific aspects of a text's illustrations contribute to what is conveyed by the words in a story (e.g., create mood, emphasize aspects of a character or setting).
LAFS.3.RL.3.9:	Compare and contrast the themes, settings, and plots of stories written by the same author about the same or similar characters (e.g., in books from a series).
LAFS.3.RL.4.10:	By the end of the year, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poetry, at the high end of the grades 2–3 text complexity band independently and proficiently.
LAFS.3.SL.1.1:	Engage effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with diverse partners on grade 3 topics and texts, building on others' ideas and expressing their own clearly. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Come to discussions prepared, having read or studied required material; explicitly draw on that preparation and other information known about the topic to explore ideas under discussion.</li> <li>b. Follow agreed-upon rules for discussions (e.g., gaining the floor in respectful ways, listening to others with care, speaking one at a time about the topics and texts under discussion).</li> <li>c. Ask questions to check understanding of information presented, stay on topic, and link their comments to the remarks of others.</li> <li>d. Explain their own ideas and understanding in light of the discussion.</li> </ul>
LAFS.3.SL.1.2:	Determine the main ideas and supporting details of a text read aloud or information presented in diverse media and formats, including visually, quantitatively, and orally.
LAFS.3.SL.1.3:	Ask and answer questions about information from a speaker, offering appropriate elaboration and detail.
LAFS.3.SL.2.4:	Report on a topic or text, tell a story, or recount an experience with appropriate facts and relevant, descriptive details, speaking clearly at an understandable pace.
LAFS.3.SL.2.5:	Demonstrate fluid reading at an understandable pace, adding visual displays and engaging audio recordings when appropriate to emphasize or enhance certain facts or details.
LAFS.3.SL.2.6:	Speak in complete sentences when appropriate to task and situation in order to provide requested detail or clarification.
	Write opinion pieces on topics or texts, supporting a point of view with reasons. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Introduce the topic or text they are writing about, state an opinion, and create an organizational structure that lists</li> </ul>

LAFS.3.W.1.1:	reasons. b. Provide reasons that support the opinion. c. Use linking words and phrases (e.g., because, therefore, since, for example) to connect opinion and reasons. d. Provide a concluding statement or section.
LAFS.3.W.1.2:	Write informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas and information clearly. a. Introduce a topic and group related information together; include illustrations when useful to aiding comprehension. b. Develop the topic with facts, definitions, and details. c. Use linking words and phrases (e.g., also, another, and, more, but) to connect ideas within categories of information. d. Provide a concluding statement or section.
LAFS.3.W.1.3:	Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, descriptive details, and clear event sequences. a. Establish a situation and introduce a narrator and/or characters; organize an event sequence that unfolds naturally. b. Use dialogue and descriptions of actions, thoughts, and feelings to develop experiences and events or show the response of characters to situations. c. Use temporal words and phrases to signal event order. d. Provide a sense of closure.
LAFS.3.W.2.4:	With guidance and support from adults, produce writing in which the development and organization are appropriate to task and purpose. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in standards 1–3 above.)
LAFS.3.W.2.5:	With guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing.
LAFS.3.W.2.6:	With guidance and support from adults, use technology to produce and publish writing (using keyboarding skills) as well as to interact and collaborate with others.
LAFS.3.W.3.7:	Conduct short research projects that build knowledge about a topic.
LAFS.3.W.3.8:	Recall information from experiences or gather information from print and digital sources; take brief notes on sources and sort evidence into provided categories.
LAFS.3.W.4.10:	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.
HE.3.B.3.1:	Locate resources from home, school, and community that provide valid health information. Clarifications: Internet, media, television, radio, brochures, books, professional interviews, hospital, and Department of Health.
HE.3.B.3.2:	Describe criteria for selecting health information, resources, products, and services. Clarifications: Directions on packaging and, consumer safety, television, radio, telephone, and reputable websites.
HE.3.B.4.1:	Identify effective verbal and nonverbal communication skills to enhance health. Clarifications: Listing the effects of facial expressions, body language, verbal cues, sign language, braille, and asking questions seeking further clarification/understanding.
HE.3.B.4.2:	Demonstrate refusal skills that avoid or reduce health risks. Clarifications: Making clear statements, expressing feelings, asking for help, and learning how to say "no."
HE.3.B.4.3:	Demonstrate nonviolent strategies to manage or resolve conflict. Clarifications: Role playing, age-appropriate skills for conflict resolution, mediation, and assertive-communication skills.
HE.3.B.4.4:	Explain ways to ask for assistance to enhance personal health. Clarifications: Group discussions, ask orally, and ask in writing.
HE.3.B.5.1:	Recognize circumstances that can help or hinder healthy decision making. Clarifications: Media health messages, practices of family and peers, and knowledge of topic.
HE.3.C.1.3:	Describe ways a safe, healthy classroom can promote personal health. Clarifications: Frequent hand washing, access to water fountains, area clear of clutter and organized, proper use and disposal of tissues, proper use of hand sanitizers, no sharing of food, and respect for others.
HE.3.C.2.5:	Discuss the positive and negative impacts media may have on health. Clarifications: Positives: choosing healthy foods, exercising, being physically active and not using drugs, acceptance of cultural diversity. Negatives: unhealthy fast foods, "couch potato" inactivity, media messages about body shape and size, violence in the media, violent video/computer games, and too much screen time.
SC.3.N.1.3:	Keep records as appropriate, such as pictorial, written, or simple charts and graphs, of investigations conducted.
SC.3.N.1.4:	Recognize the importance of communication among scientists.
SC.3.N.1.5:	Recognize that scientists question, discuss, and check each other's evidence and explanations.
SC.3.N.1.6:	Infer based on observation.
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.

ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.
SS.3.C.1.2:	Describe how government gains its power from the people.
SS.3.C.2.1:	Identify group and individual actions of citizens that demonstrate civility, cooperation, volunteerism, and other civic virtues. Clarifications: Examples are food drives, book drives, community, clean-up, voting.

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

This course description defines what students should understand and be able to do by the end of Grade 3.

GENERAL NOTES

Special Notes:

Instructional Practices

Teaching from well-written, grade-level instructional materials enhances students' content area knowledge and also strengthens their ability to comprehend longer, complex reading passages on any topic for any reason. Using the following instructional practices also helps student learning:

1. Reading assignments from longer text passages as well as shorter ones when text is extremely complex.
2. Making close reading and rereading of texts central to lessons.
3. Asking high-level, text-specific questions and requiring high-level, complex tasks and assignments.
4. Requiring students to support answers with evidence from the text.
5. Providing extensive text-based research and writing opportunities (claims and evidence).

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. ## Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.3.C.1.1:	Write in cursive all upper- and lowercase letters. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.3.C.1.2:	Write personal or fictional narratives using a logical sequence of events, appropriate descriptions, dialogue, a variety of transitional words or phrases, and an ending. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.3.C.1.3:	Write opinions about a topic or text, include reasons supported by details from one or more sources, use transitions, and provide a conclusion. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.3.C.1.4:	Write expository texts about a topic, using one or more sources, providing an introduction, facts and details, some elaboration, transitions, and a conclusion. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.3.C.1.5:	Improve writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing with guidance and support from adults and feedback from peers. Clarifications: Clarification 1: As needed refers to the fact that sometimes instruction will focus on a specific skill or part of the process. In those instances, only the applicable activity will be engaged in. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.3.C.2.1:	Present information orally, in a logical sequence, using nonverbal cues, appropriate volume, and clear pronunciation. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Nonverbal cues appropriate to this grade level are posture, tone, and expressive delivery. Clear pronunciation should be interpreted to mean an understanding and application of phonics rules and sight words as well as care taken in delivery. A student's speech impediment should not be considered as impeding clear pronunciation. This grade level introduces an expectation that the information be presented in a logical sequence. A student may self-correct an error in sequence.  Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Elementary Oral Communication Rubric . Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.3.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Conjugate regular and irregular verb tenses.</li> <li>• Form and use regular and frequently occurring irregular plural nouns.</li> <li>• Form and use the past tense of frequently occurring irregular verbs. • Maintain consistent verb tense across paragraphs.</li> <li>• Form and use irregular plural nouns.</li> <li>• Form and use the progressive and perfect verb tenses.</li> <li>• Use simple modifiers.</li> <li>• Use prepositions and prepositional phrases.</li> <li>• Form and use compound sentences.</li> <li>• Use quotation marks with dialogue and direct quotations. • Use commas to indicate direct address.</li> </ul> Skills to be implemented but not yet mastered are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use subject-verb agreement with intervening clauses and phrases.</li> <li>• Produce complete sentences, recognizing and correcting inappropriate fragments and run-ons.</li> <li>• Use conjunctions.</li> <li>• Use principal modals to indicate the mood of a verb.</li> <li>• Use appositives, main clauses, and subordinate clauses.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information. Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Conduct research to answer a question, organizing information about the topic from multiple sources.

ELA.3.C.4.1:	Clarifications:  Clarification 1: While the benchmark does require that students consult multiple sources, there is no requirement that they use every source they consult. Part of the skill in researching is discernment—being able to tell which information is relevant and which sources are trustworthy enough to include.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.3.C.5.1:	Use two or more multimedia elements to enhance oral or written tasks.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Multimedia elements may include, but are not limited to, drawings, pictures, artifacts, and audio or digital representation. At this grade level, the elements should relate directly to the presentation. The elements can reinforce or complement the information being shared. There is no expectation that the elements be fully integrated into the presentation.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.3.C.5.2:	Use digital writing tools individually or collaboratively to plan, draft, and revise writing.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.3.F.1.3:	Use knowledge of grade-level phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Decode words with common Greek and Latin roots and affixes. (See benchmark 3.V.1.2)</li> <li>Decode words with common derivational suffixes and describe how they turn words into different parts of speech. (e.g., -ful, -less, -est).</li> <li>Decode multisyllabic words.</li> </ol> Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Common Greek and Latin Roots 3-5 and Affixes.  Clarification 2: See Affixes and the Parts of Speech They Form.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.3.F.1.4:	Read grade-level texts with accuracy, automaticity, and appropriate prosody or expression.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Fluency Norms for grade-level norms. Norms are expressed as words correct per minute (WCPM), a measure that combines accuracy with rate.  Clarification 2: Appropriate prosody refers to pausing patterns during oral reading that reflect the punctuation and meaning of a text. See Sample Oral Reading Fluency Rubrics for prosody.  Clarification 3: Grade-level texts, for the purposes of fluency, are those within the grade band on quantitative text complexity measures and appropriate in content and qualitative measures.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.3.R.1.1:	Explain how one or more characters develop throughout the plot in a literary text.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: When explaining character development, students will include character traits, feelings, motivations, and responses to situations.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.3.R.1.2:	Explain a theme and how it develops, using details, in a literary text.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.3.R.1.3:	Explain different characters' perspectives in a literary text.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something." The term point of view is used when referring to the person of the narrator. This is to prevent confusion and conflation.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.3.R.1.4:	Identify types of poems: free verse, rhymed verse, haiku, and limerick.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: For examples of these forms, see Appendix B.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.3.R.2.1:	Explain how text features contribute to meaning and identify the text structures of chronology, comparison, and cause/effect in texts.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.3.R.2.2:	Identify the central idea and explain how relevant details support that idea in a text.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.3.R.2.3:	Explain the development of an author's purpose in an informational text.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.3.R.2.4:	Identify an author's claim and explain how an author uses evidence to support the claim.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.3.R.3.1:	Identify and explain metaphors, personification, and hyperbole in text(s).  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: In addition to the types of figurative language listed in this benchmark, students are still working with types from previous grades such as simile, alliteration, and idiom. Other examples can be used in instruction.  Clarification 2: See Elementary Figurative Language.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.3.R.3.2:	Summarize a text to enhance comprehension. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Include plot and theme for a literary text.</li> <li>Use the central idea and relevant details for an informational text.</li> </ol>

	Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.3.R.3.3:	Compare and contrast how two authors present information on the same topic or theme.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.3.V.1.1:	Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.3.V.1.2:	Identify and apply knowledge of common Greek and Latin roots, base words, and affixes to determine the meaning of unfamiliar words in grade-level content.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Common Greek and Latin Roots 3-5 and Affixes.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.3.V.1.3:	Use context clues, figurative language, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the meaning of multiple-meaning and unknown words and phrases, appropriate to grade level.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level.  Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships.    Clarification 3: See ELA.3.R.3.1 and Elementary Figurative Language.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K12.EE.1.1:	Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning.  Clarifications:  K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing.    2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations.    4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they've directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor.    6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation.    9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ.  Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.2.1:	Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently.  Clarifications:  See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric.  Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.3.1:	Make inferences to support comprehension.  Clarifications:  Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like "Why is the girl smiling?" or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond.  Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.4.1:	Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations.  Clarifications:  In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully.    In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: "I think _____ because _____." The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations.    In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence.  Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.5.1:	Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work.  Clarifications:  Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work.  Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
	Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing.  Clarifications:

ELA.K12.EE.6.1:	In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

This course defines what students should understand and be able to do by the end of 3rd grade. The standards emphasize explicit, systematic phonics instruction as the foundation of literacy. Decoding and fluency are essential to creating proficient readers. Knowledge acquisition should be the primary purpose of any reading approach as systematic building of a wide range of knowledge across domains is a prerequisite to higher literacy.

The benchmarks in this course are mastery goals that students are expected to attain by the end of the year. To build mastery, students will continue to review and apply earlier grade-level benchmarks and expectations.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Arts is not a discrete set of skills, but a rich discipline with meaningful, significant content, the knowledge of which helps all students actively and fully participate in our society.

Standards should not stand alone as a separate focus for instruction, but should be combined purposefully.

The texts students read should be meaningful and thought-provoking, preparing them to be informed, civic-minded members of their community.

Curricular content for all subjects must integrate critical-thinking, problem-solving, and workforce-literacy skills; communication, reading, and writing skills; mathematics skills; collaboration skills; contextual and applied-learning skills; technology-literacy skills; information and media-literacy skills; and civic-engagement skills.

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. LAFS.4.RF.3.3:	Know and apply grade-level phonics and word analysis skills in decoding words. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Use combined knowledge of all letter-sound correspondences, syllabication patterns, and morphology (e.g., roots and affixes) to read accurately unfamiliar multi-syllabic words in context and out of context.</li> </ol>
	Read with sufficient accuracy and fluency to support comprehension.

LAFS.4.RF.4.4:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Read on-level text with purpose and understanding.</li> <li>b. Read on-level prose and poetry orally with accuracy, appropriate rate, and expression on successive readings.</li> <li>c. Use context to confirm or self-correct word recognition and understanding, rereading as necessary.</li> </ul>
LAFS.4.RI.1.1:	Refer to details and examples in a text when explaining what the text says explicitly and when drawing inferences from the text.
LAFS.4.RI.1.2:	Determine the main idea of a text and explain how it is supported by key details; summarize the text.
LAFS.4.RI.1.3:	Explain events, procedures, ideas, or concepts in a historical, scientific, or technical text, including what happened and why, based on specific information in the text.
LAFS.4.RI.2.4:	Determine the meaning of general academic and domain-specific words or phrases in a text relevant to a grade 4 topic or subject area .
LAFS.4.RI.2.5:	Describe the overall structure (e.g., chronology, comparison, cause/effect, problem/solution) of events, ideas, concepts, or information in a text or part of a text.
LAFS.4.RI.2.6:	Compare and contrast a firsthand and secondhand account of the same event or topic; describe the differences in focus and the information provided.
LAFS.4.RI.3.7:	Interpret information presented visually, orally, or quantitatively (e.g., in charts, graphs, diagrams, time lines, animations, or interactive elements on Web pages) and explain how the information contributes to an understanding of the text in which it appears.
LAFS.4.RI.3.8:	Explain how an author uses reasons and evidence to support particular points in a text.
LAFS.4.RI.3.9:	Integrate information from two texts on the same topic in order to write or speak about the subject knowledgeably.
LAFS.4.RI.4.10:	By the end of year, read and comprehend informational texts, including history/social studies, science, and technical texts, in the grades 4–5 text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range.
LAFS.4.RL.1.1:	Refer to details and examples in a text when explaining what the text says explicitly and when drawing inferences from the text.
LAFS.4.RL.1.2:	Determine a theme of a story, drama, or poem from details in the text; summarize the text.
LAFS.4.RL.1.3:	Describe in depth a character, setting, or event in a story or drama, drawing on specific details in the text (e.g., a character’s thoughts, words, or actions).
LAFS.4.RL.2.4:	Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including those that allude to significant characters found in mythology (e.g., Herculean).
LAFS.4.RL.2.5:	Explain major differences between poems, drama, and prose, and refer to the structural elements of poems (e.g., verse, rhythm, meter) and drama (e.g., casts of characters, settings, descriptions, dialogue, stage directions) when writing or speaking about a text.
LAFS.4.RL.2.6:	Compare and contrast the point of view from which different stories are narrated, including the difference between first- and third-person narrations.
LAFS.4.RL.3.7:	Make connections between the text of a story or drama and a visual or oral presentation of the text, identifying where each version reflects specific descriptions and directions in the text.
LAFS.4.RL.3.9:	Compare and contrast the treatment of similar themes and topics (e.g., opposition of good and evil) and patterns of events (e.g., the quest) in stories, myths, and traditional literature from different cultures.
LAFS.4.RL.4.10:	By the end of the year, read and comprehend literature, including stories, dramas, and poetry, in the grades 4–5 text complexity band proficiently, with scaffolding as needed at the high end of the range.
LAFS.4.SL.1.1:	Engage effectively in a range of collaborative discussions (one-on-one, in groups, and teacher-led) with diverse partners on grade 4 topics and texts, building on others’ ideas and expressing their own clearly. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Come to discussions prepared, having read or studied required material; explicitly draw on that preparation and other information known about the topic to explore ideas under discussion.</li> <li>b. Follow agreed-upon rules for discussions and carry out assigned roles.</li> <li>c. Pose and respond to specific questions to clarify or follow up on information, and make comments that contribute to the discussion and link to the remarks of others.</li> <li>d. Review the key ideas expressed and explain their own ideas and understanding in light of the discussion.</li> </ul>
LAFS.4.SL.1.2:	Paraphrase portions of a text read aloud or information presented in diverse media and formats, including visually, quantitatively, and orally.
LAFS.4.SL.1.3:	Identify the reasons and evidence a speaker provides to support particular points.
LAFS.4.SL.2.4:	Report on a topic or text, tell a story, or recount an experience in an organized manner, using appropriate facts and relevant, descriptive details to support main ideas or themes; speak clearly at an understandable pace.
LAFS.4.SL.2.5:	Add audio recordings and visual displays to presentations when appropriate to enhance the development of main ideas or themes.
LAFS.4.SL.2.6:	Differentiate between contexts that call for formal English (e.g., presenting ideas) and situations where informal discourse is appropriate (e.g., small-group discussion); use formal English when appropriate to task and situation.
LAFS.4.W.1.1:	Write opinion pieces on topics or texts, supporting a point of view with reasons and information. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Introduce a topic or text clearly, state an opinion, and create an organizational structure in which related ideas are grouped to support the writer’s purpose.</li> <li>b. Provide reasons that are supported by facts and details.</li> <li>c. Link opinion and reasons using words and phrases (e.g., for instance, in order to, in addition).</li> <li>d. Provide a concluding statement or section related to the opinion presented.</li> </ul>

Write informative/explanatory texts to examine a topic and convey ideas and information clearly.

LAFS.4.W.1.2:	a. Introduce a topic clearly and group related information in paragraphs and sections; include formatting (e.g., headings), illustrations, and multimedia when useful to aiding comprehension. b. Develop the topic with facts, definitions, concrete details, quotations, or other information and examples related to the topic. c. Link ideas within categories of information using words and phrases (e.g., another, for example, also, because). d. Use precise language and domain-specific vocabulary to inform about or explain the topic. e. Provide a concluding statement or section related to the information or explanation presented.
LAFS.4.W.1.3:	Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, descriptive details, and clear event sequences. a. Orient the reader by establishing a situation and introducing a narrator and/or characters; organize an event sequence that unfolds naturally. b. Use dialogue and description to develop experiences and events or show the responses of characters to situations. c. Use a variety of transitional words and phrases to manage the sequence of events. d. Use concrete words and phrases and sensory details to convey experiences and events precisely. e. Provide a conclusion that follows from the narrated experiences or events.
LAFS.4.W.2.4:	Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development and organization are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in standards 1–3 above.)
LAFS.4.W.2.5:	With guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing.
LAFS.4.W.2.6:	With some guidance and support from adults, use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing as well as to interact and collaborate with others; demonstrate sufficient command of keyboarding skills to type a minimum of one page in a single sitting.
LAFS.4.W.3.7:	Conduct short research projects that build knowledge through investigation of different aspects of a topic.
LAFS.4.W.3.8:	Recall relevant information from experiences or gather relevant information from print and digital sources; take notes and categorize information, and provide a list of sources.
LAFS.4.W.3.9:	Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research. a. Apply grade 4 Reading standards to literature (e.g., “Describe in depth a character, setting, or event in a story or drama, drawing on specific details in the text [e.g., a character’s thoughts, words, or actions].”). b. Apply grade 4 Reading standards to informational texts (e.g., “Explain how an author uses reasons and evidence to support particular points in a text”).
LAFS.4.W.4.10:	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.
HE.4.B.3.1:	Describe characteristics of valid health information, products, and services. Clarifications: Professional certification, components of proper labeling, complete directions for use, source, and date.
HE.4.B.3.2:	Construct criteria for selecting health resources, products, services, and reputable technologies. Clarifications: Asking if health resources are safe, affordable, and available.
HE.4.B.4.1:	Explain effective verbal and nonverbal communication skills to enhance health. Clarifications: Practicing assertive, aggressive, and passive response; and demonstrating empathy for individuals affected by diseases or disabilities.
HE.4.B.4.2:	Identify refusal skills and negotiation skills that avoid or reduce health risks. Clarifications: Expressing feelings, offering alternatives, and reporting danger.
HE.4.B.4.3:	Discuss nonviolent strategies to manage or resolve conflict. Clarifications: Talking to the resource officer, “cool-off” period; physical activities; quiet time; compromise; and rock, paper, scissors.
HE.4.B.4.4:	Demonstrate ways to ask for assistance to enhance personal health. Clarifications: Verbalize, write, text, email, and draw.
HE.4.B.5.1:	Identify circumstances that can help or hinder healthy decision making. Clarifications: Lack of knowledge, lack of support, and cultural norms.
HE.4.C.1.3:	Describe ways a safe, healthy school environment can promote personal health. Clarifications: Safety patrols, school crossing guards, hand-washing supplies in restrooms, healthy snack choices, school-wide expectations, be prepared, punctual, and problem solving.
HE.4.C.2.5:	Explain how media influences personal thoughts, feelings, and health behaviors. Clarifications: Insidious marketing/product placement, branding, and anti-drug campaigns.
SC.4.N.1.3:	Explain that science does not always follow a rigidly defined method (“the scientific method”) but that science does involve the use of observations and empirical evidence.
SC.4.N.1.4:	Attempt reasonable answers to scientific questions and cite evidence in support.

SC.4.N.1.5:	Compare the methods and results of investigations done by other classmates.
SC.4.N.1.6:	Keep records that describe observations made, carefully distinguishing actual observations from ideas and inferences about the observations.
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.
SS.4.C.1.1:	Describe how Florida's constitution protects the rights of citizens and provides for the structure, function, and purposes of state government.
SS.4.C.2.3:	Explain the importance of public service, voting, and volunteerism.

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

This course description defines what students should understand and be able to do by the end of Grade 4.

GENERAL NOTES

Special Notes:

Instructional Practices: Teaching from well-written, grade-level instructional materials enhances students' content area knowledge and also strengthens their ability to comprehend longer, complex reading passages on any topic for any reason. Using the following instructional practices also helps student learning:

1. Reading assignments from longer text passages as well as shorter ones when text is extremely complex.
2. Making close reading and rereading of texts central to lessons.
3. Asking high-level, text-specific questions and requiring high-level, complex tasks and assignments.
4. Requiring students to support answers with evidence from the text.
5. Providing extensive text-based research and writing opportunities (claims and evidence).

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. ## Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.4.C.1.1:	Demonstrate legible cursive writing skills. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Students will produce cursive writing that can be consistently read by others.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.C.1.2:	Write personal or fictional narratives using a logical sequence of events and demonstrating an effective use of techniques such as descriptions and transitional words and phrases. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Students were introduced to dialogue in 3rd grade. Although it is not mentioned specifically in this benchmark, students should continue to practice the technique and receive instruction in it. Dialogue is included for mastery in the 5th grade benchmark.  Clarification 2: See Writing Types.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.C.1.3:	Write to make a claim supporting a perspective with logical reasons, using evidence from multiple sources, elaboration, and an organizational structure with transitions. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.C.1.4:	Write expository texts about a topic, using multiple sources, elaboration, and an organizational structure with transitions. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.C.1.5:	Improve writing by planning, revising, and editing, with guidance and support from adults and feedback from peers.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.C.2.1:	Present information orally, in a logical sequence, using nonverbal cues, appropriate volume, and clear pronunciation. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Nonverbal cues appropriate to this grade level are posture, tone, expressive delivery, focus on the audience, and facial expression. Clear pronunciation should be interpreted to mean an understanding and application of phonics rules and sight words as well as care taken in delivery. A student's speech impediment should not be considered as impeding clear pronunciation.  Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Elementary Oral Communication Rubric.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use subject-verb agreement with intervening clauses and phrases.</li> <li>• Produce complete sentences, recognizing and correcting inappropriate fragments and run-ons.</li> <li>• Use conjunctions.</li> </ul> Skills to be implemented but not yet mastered are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use principal modals to indicate the mood of a verb.</li> <li>• Use appositives, main clauses, and subordinate clauses.</li> <li>• Recognize and correct inappropriate shifts in tense and number.</li> <li>• Use conjunctions correctly to join words and phrases in a sentence.</li> <li>• Use verbals including gerunds, infinitives, and participial phrases.</li> <li>• Use pronouns correctly with regard to case, number, and person, correcting for vague pronoun reference.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.C.4.1:	Conduct research to answer a question, organizing information about the topic, using multiple valid sources. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: While the benchmark does require that students consult multiple sources, there is no requirement that they use every source they consult. Part of the skill in researching is discernment—being able to tell which information is relevant and which sources are trustworthy enough to include.            Standard Relation to Course: Major Arrange multimedia elements to create emphasis in oral or written tasks.

ELA.4.C.5.1:	Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Multimedia elements may include, but are not limited to, drawings, pictures, artifacts, and audio or digital representation. At this grade level, students are using more than one element. The elements may be of the same type (for example, two pictures or a picture and an audio recording). The elements should relate directly to the task and emphasize a point made within the task, perhaps by showing examples or data to emphasize a point. The elements should be smoothly integrated.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.C.5.2:	Use digital writing tools individually or collaboratively to plan, draft, and revise writing.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Use knowledge of grade-level phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words. a. Apply knowledge of all letter-sound correspondences, syllabication patterns, and morphology to read and write unfamiliar single-syllable and multisyllabic words in and out of context.
ELA.4.F.1.3:	Clarifications:  Clarification 1: At this level of reading, a student who is decoding at the phoneme level (i.e., “e-n-t-er-t-ai-n”) may decode a given text but will struggle with fluency and comprehension.  As such, phonics instruction should move toward decoding at the syllabication and morpheme level. For example, when a 4th-grader encounters the word “entertain” in text, we want him or her to segment by syllable (i.e., “en-ter-tain”) or by morphological structure (i.e., “enter-tain”).  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.F.1.4:	Read grade-level texts with accuracy, automaticity, and appropriate prosody or expression.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Fluency Norms for grade-level norms. Norms are expressed as words correct per minute (WCPM), a measure that combines accuracy with rate.  Clarification 2: Appropriate prosody refers to pausing patterns during oral reading that reflect the punctuation and meaning of a text. See Sample Oral Reading Fluency Rubrics for prosody.  Clarification 3: Grade-level texts, for the purposes of fluency, are those within the grade band on quantitative text complexity measures and appropriate in content and qualitative measures.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.R.1.1:	Explain how setting, events, conflict, and character development contribute to the plot in a literary text.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.R.1.2:	Explain a stated or implied theme and how it develops, using details, in a literary text.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: An explanation of how the theme develops should include how characters respond to situations and how the speaker reflects upon a topic in a literary text.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.R.1.3:	Identify the narrator’s point of view and explain the difference between a narrator’s point of view and character perspective in a literary text.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: The term perspective means “a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something.” The term point of view is used when referring to the person of the narrator. This is to prevent confusion and conflation.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.R.1.4:	Explain how rhyme and structure create meaning in a poem.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.R.2.1:	Explain how text features contribute to the meaning and identify the text structures of problem/solution, sequence, and description in texts.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.R.2.2:	Explain how relevant details support the central idea, implied or explicit.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.R.2.3:	Explain an author’s perspective toward a topic in an informational text.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: The term perspective means “a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something.”  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.R.2.4:	Explain an author’s claim and the reasons and evidence used to support the claim.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.R.3.1:	Explain how figurative language contributes to meaning in text(s).  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Figurative language for the purposes of this benchmark refers to metaphor, simile, alliteration, personification, hyperbole, and idiom. Other examples can be used in instruction.  Clarification 2: See Elementary Figurative Language.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.R.3.2:	Summarize a text to enhance comprehension. a. Include plot and theme for a literary text.  b. Include the central idea and relevant details for an informational text. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark.

	Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.R.3.3:	Compare and contrast accounts of the same event using primary and/or secondary sources. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Introduce the terms “primary sources” and “secondary sources.” Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.V.1.1:	Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.V.1.2:	Apply knowledge of common Greek and Latin roots, base words, and affixes to determine the meaning of unfamiliar words in grade-level content. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Common Greek and Latin Roots 3-5 and Affixes. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.4.V.1.3:	Use context clues, figurative language, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the meaning of multiple-meaning and unknown words and phrases, appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level. Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships. Clarification 3: See ELA.4.R.3.1 and Elementary Figurative Language. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K12.EE.1.1:	Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning. Clarifications: K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing. 2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations. 4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they’ve directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor. 6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation. 9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.2.1:	Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently. Clarifications: See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.3.1:	Make inferences to support comprehension. Clarifications: Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like “Why is the girl smiling?” or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.4.1:	Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations. Clarifications: In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully. In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: “I think _____ because _____.” The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations. In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.5.1:	Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work. Clarifications: Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
	Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing.

ELA.K12.EE.6.1:	Clarifications: In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting. Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

This course defines what students should understand and be able to do by the end of 4th grade. The standards emphasize explicit, systematic phonics instruction as the foundation of literacy. Decoding and fluency are essential to creating proficient readers. Knowledge acquisition should be the primary purpose of any reading approach as systematic building of a wide range of knowledge across domains is a prerequisite to higher literacy.

The benchmarks in this course are mastery goals that students are expected to attain by the end of the year. To build mastery, students will continue to review and apply earlier grade-level benchmarks and expectations.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Arts is not a discrete set of skills, but a rich discipline with meaningful, significant content, the knowledge of which helps all students actively and fully participate in our society.

Standards should not stand alone as a separate focus for instruction, but should be combined purposefully.

The texts students read should be meaningful and thought-provoking, preparing them to be informed, civic-minded members of their community.

Curricular content for all subjects must integrate critical-thinking, problem-solving, and workforce-literacy skills; communication, reading, and writing skills; mathematics skills; collaboration skills; contextual and applied-learning skills; technology-literacy skills; information and media-literacy skills; and civic-engagement skills.

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. ### VERSION REQUIREMENTS

Build background knowledge in K-5 with a balance of approximately 50% informational texts and 50% literary texts

Approximately one-third of the titles from the 4th Grade Sample Book List should be used in instruction.

Use concrete words and phrases and sensory details to convey experiences and events precisely.</li> <li>e. Provide a conclusion that follows from the narrated experiences or events.</li> </ul>
LAFS.5.W.2.4:	Produce clear and coherent writing in which the development and organization are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience. (Grade-specific expectations for writing types are defined in standards 1–3 above.)
LAFS.5.W.2.5:	With guidance and support from peers and adults, develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach.
LAFS.5.W.2.6:	With some guidance and support from adults, use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing as well as to interact and collaborate with others; demonstrate sufficient command of keyboarding skills to type a minimum of two pages in a single sitting.
LAFS.5.W.3.7:	Conduct short research projects that use several sources to build knowledge through investigation of different aspects of a topic.
LAFS.5.W.3.8:	Recall relevant information from experiences or gather relevant information from print and digital sources; summarize or paraphrase information in notes and finished work, and provide a list of sources.
LAFS.5.W.3.9:	Draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Apply grade 5 Reading standards to literature (e.g., “Compare and contrast two or more characters, settings, or events in a story or a drama, drawing on specific details in the text [e.g., how characters interact]”).</li> <li>b. Apply grade 5 Reading standards to informational texts (e.g., “Explain how an author uses reasons and evidence to support particular points in a text, identifying which reasons and evidence support which point[s]”).</li> </ul>
LAFS.5.W.4.10:	Write routinely over extended time frames (time for research, reflection, and revision) and shorter time frames (a single sitting or a day or two) for a range of discipline-specific tasks, purposes, and audiences.
HE.5.B.3.1:	Discuss characteristics of valid health information, products, and services. Clarifications: Reliable source, current information, and medically accurate information.
HE.5.B.3.2:	Evaluate criteria for selecting health resources, products, and services. Clarifications: Function, directions for use, competence of the provider, and costs.
HE.5.B.4.1:	Illustrate techniques of effective verbal and nonverbal communication skills to enhance health. Clarifications: Written or verbal communication, body language, and conflict- resolution skills.
HE.5.B.4.2:	Discuss refusal skills and negotiation skills that avoid or reduce health risks. Clarifications: States desires clearly, offer alternative, use “I” messages, and role play.
HE.5.B.4.3:	Illustrate effective conflict resolution strategies. Clarifications: Expressing emotions, listening, and using body language.
HE.5.B.4.4:	Determine ways to ask for assistance to enhance the health of self and others. Clarifications: Verbalize, write, and draw.
HE.5.B.5.1:	Describe circumstances that can help or hinder healthy decision making. Clarifications: Peer pressure, bullying, substance abuse, and stress.
HE.5.C.1.3:	Explain ways a safe, healthy home and school environment promote personal health. Clarifications: Smoke-free environment, clean/orderly environment, behavior rules, and availability of fresh produce.
HE.5.C.2.5:	Determine how media influences family health behaviors and the selection of health information, products, and services. Clarifications: Severe-weather alerts, health- product commercials, television cooking shows, and public service announcements.
SC.5.N.1.3:	Recognize and explain the need for repeated experimental trials.
SC.5.N.1.4:	Identify a control group and explain its importance in an experiment.
SC.5.N.1.5:	Recognize and explain that authentic scientific investigation frequently does not parallel the steps of “the scientific method.”
SC.5.N.1.6:	Recognize and explain the difference between personal opinion/interpretation and verified observation.
SS.5.C.1.1:	Explain how and why the United States government was created.
SS.5.C.1.3:	Explain the definition and origin of rights. Clarifications:

	Examples are John Locke's "state of nature" philosophy, natural rights: rights to life, liberty, property.
SS.5.C.1.5:	Describe how concerns about individual rights led to the inclusion of the Bill of Rights in the U.S. Constitution.
ELD.K.12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.
ELD.K.12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.

General Course Information and Notes

VERSION DESCRIPTION

This course description defines what students should understand and be able to do by the end of Grade 5.

GENERAL NOTES

Special Notes:

Instructional Practices: Teaching from well-written, grade-level instructional materials enhances students' content area knowledge and also strengthens their ability to comprehend longer, complex reading passages on any topic for any reason. Using the following instructional practices also helps student learning:

1. Reading assignments from longer text passages as well as shorter ones when text is extremely complex.
2. Making close reading and rereading of texts central to lessons.
3. Asking high-level, text-specific questions and requiring high-level, complex tasks and assignments.
4. Requiring students to support answers with evidence from the text.
5. Providing extensive text-based research and writing opportunities (claims and evidence).

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. ## Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.5.C.1.1:	Demonstrate fluent and legible cursive writing skills. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Students will use cursive writing to produce legible works within the same timeframe as they would use for writing in print.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.C.1.2:	Write personal or fictional narratives using a logical sequence of events and demonstrating an effective use of techniques such as dialogue, description, and transitional words and phrases. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.C.1.3:	Write to make a claim supporting a perspective with logical reasons, relevant evidence from sources, elaboration, and an organizational structure with varied transitions. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.C.1.4:	Write expository texts about a topic using multiple sources and including an organizational structure, relevant elaboration, and varied transitions. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.C.1.5:	Improve writing by planning, revising, and editing, with guidance and support from adults and feedback from peers.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.C.2.1:	Present information orally, in a logical sequence, using nonverbal cues, appropriate volume, clear pronunciation, and appropriate pacing. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Nonverbal cues appropriate to this grade level are posture, tone, expressive delivery, focus on the audience, and facial expression. Clear pronunciation should be interpreted to mean an understanding and application of phonics rules and sight words as well as care taken in delivery. A student's speech impediment should not be considered as impeding clear pronunciation. This is the initial grade level that introduces appropriate pacing. Appropriate pacing is adhering to the pauses dictated by punctuation and speaking at a rate that best facilitates comprehension by the audience. Too fast a pace will lose listeners and too slow can become monotonous. The element will also help students address the nervousness that may make them speak too fast during presentations. Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Elementary Oral Communication Rubric.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use principal modals to indicate the mood of a verb.</li> <li>• Use appositives, main clauses, and subordinate clauses.</li> <li>• Recognize and correct inappropriate shifts in tense and number.</li> <li>• Use conjunctions correctly to join words and phrases in a sentence.</li> </ul> Skills to be implemented but not yet mastered are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use verbals including gerunds, infinitives, and participial phrases.</li> <li>• Use comparative and superlative forms of adjectives.</li> <li>• Use pronouns correctly with regard to case, number, and person, correcting for vague pronoun reference.</li> <li>• Vary sentence structure.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information.            Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.C.4.1:	Conduct research to answer a question, organizing information about the topic and using multiple reliable and valid sources. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: While the benchmark does require that students consult multiple sources, there is no requirement that they use every source they consult. Part of the skill in researching is discernment—being able to tell which information is relevant and which sources are trustworthy enough to include.

	Standard Relation to Course: Major Arrange multimedia elements to create emphasis in oral or written tasks. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Multimedia elements may include, but are not limited to, drawings, pictures, artifacts, and audio or digital representation. At this grade level, students are using more than one element. The elements may be of the same type (for example, two pictures or a picture and an audio recording). The elements should relate directly to the task and emphasize or clarify a point made within the task, perhaps by showing examples to clarify a claim or data to emphasize a point. The elements should be smoothly integrated.
ELA.5.C.5.1:	Standard Relation to Course: Major Use digital writing tools individually or collaboratively to plan, draft, and revise writing.
ELA.5.C.5.2:	Standard Relation to Course: Major Use knowledge of grade-appropriate phonics and word-analysis skills to decode words.
ELA.5.F.1.3:	a. Apply knowledge of all letter-sound correspondences, syllabication patterns, and morphology to read and write unfamiliar single-syllable and multisyllabic words in and out of context. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.F.1.4:	Read grade-level texts with accuracy, automaticity, and appropriate prosody or expression. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Fluency Norms for grade-level norms. Norms are expressed as words correct per minute (WCPM), a measure that combines accuracy with rate.  Clarification 2: Appropriate prosody refers to pausing patterns during oral reading that reflect the punctuation and meaning of a text. See Sample Oral Reading Fluency Rubrics for prosody.  Clarification 3: Grade-level texts, for the purposes of fluency, are those within the grade band on quantitative text complexity measures and appropriate in content and qualitative measures. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.R.1.1:	Analyze how setting, events, conflict, and characterization contribute to the plot in a literary text. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.R.1.2:	Explain the development of stated or implied theme(s) throughout a literary text. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Where the development of multiple themes is being explained, the themes may come from the same or multiple literary texts. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.R.1.3:	Describe how an author develops a character's perspective in a literary text. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something." Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.R.1.4:	Explain how figurative language and other poetic elements work together in a poem. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Figurative language for the purposes of this benchmark refers to metaphor, simile, alliteration, personification, hyperbole, imagery, and idiom. Other examples can be used in instruction. Clarification 2: Poetic elements to be used for the purposes of this benchmark are form, rhyme, meter, line breaks, and imagery. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.R.2.1:	Explain how text structures and/or features contribute to the overall meaning of texts. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: For more information, see Text Structures and Text Features. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.R.2.2:	Explain how relevant details support the central idea(s), implied or explicit. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.R.2.3:	Analyze an author's purpose and/or perspective in an informational text. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something." Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.R.2.4:	Track the development of an argument, identifying the specific claim(s), evidence, and reasoning. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: A claim is a statement that asserts something is true. A claim can either be fact or opinion. Claims can be used alone or with other claims to form a larger argument. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.R.3.1:	Analyze how figurative language contributes to meaning in text(s). Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.R.3.2:	Summarize a text to enhance comprehension. a. Include plot and theme for a literary text.  b. Include the central idea and relevant details for an informational text. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark. Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.R.3.3:	Compare and contrast primary and secondary sources related to the same topic. Standard Relation to Course: Major
	Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing.

ELA.5.V.1.1:	Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.V.1.2:	Apply knowledge of Greek and Latin roots and affixes, recognizing the connection between affixes and parts of speech, to determine the meaning of unfamiliar words in grade-level content.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Common Greek and Latin Roots 3-5.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.5.V.1.3:	Use context clues, figurative language, word relationships, reference materials, and/or background knowledge to determine the meaning of multiple-meaning and unknown words and phrases, appropriate to grade level.  Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Instruction for this benchmark should include text read-alouds and think-alouds aimed at building and activating background knowledge. Review of words learned in this way is critical to building background knowledge and related vocabulary. Texts read aloud can be two grade levels higher than student reading level.  Clarification 2: See Context Clues and Word Relationships.  Clarification 3: See ELA.5.R.3.1 and Elementary Figurative Language.  Standard Relation to Course: Major
ELA.K12.EE.1.1:	Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning.  Clarifications:  K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing.  2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations.  4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they've directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor.  6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation.  9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ.  Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.2.1:	Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently.  Clarifications:  See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric.  Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.3.1:	Make inferences to support comprehension.  Clarifications:  Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like "Why is the girl smiling?" or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond.  Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.4.1:	Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations.  Clarifications:  In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully.  In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: "I think _____ because _____." The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations.  In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence.  Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.5.1:	Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work.  Clarifications:  Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work.  Standard Relation to Course: Supporting
ELA.K12.EE.6.1:	Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing.  Clarifications:  In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts.  Standard Relation to Course: Supporting

VERSION DESCRIPTION

This course defines what students should understand and be able to do by the end of 5th grade. The standards emphasize explicit, systematic phonics instruction as the foundation of literacy. Decoding and fluency are essential to creating proficient readers. Knowledge acquisition should be the primary purpose of any reading approach as systematic building of a wide range of knowledge across domains is a prerequisite to higher literacy.

The benchmarks in this course are mastery goals that students are expected to attain by the end of the year. To build mastery, students will continue to review and apply earlier grade-level benchmarks and expectations.

GENERAL NOTES

English Language Arts is not a discrete set of skills, but a rich discipline with meaningful, significant content, the knowledge of which helps all students actively and fully participate in our society.

Standards should not stand alone as a separate focus for instruction, but should be combined purposefully.

The texts students read should be meaningful and thought-provoking, preparing them to be informed, civic-minded members of their community.

Curricular content for all subjects must integrate critical-thinking, problem-solving, and workforce-literacy skills; communication, reading, and writing skills; mathematics skills; collaboration skills; contextual and applied-learning skills; technology-literacy skills; information and media-literacy skills; and civic-engagement skills.

English Language Development ELD Standards Special Notes Section:

Teachers are required to provide listening, speaking, reading and writing instruction that allows English language learners (ELL) to communicate information, ideas and concepts for academic success in the content area of Language Arts. For the given level of English language proficiency and with visual, graphic, or interactive support, students will interact with grade level words, expressions, sentences and discourse to process or produce language necessary for academic success. The ELD standard should specify a relevant content area concept or topic of study chosen by curriculum developers and teachers which maximizes an ELL's need for communication and social skills. To access an ELL supporting document which delineates performance definitions and descriptors, please click on the following link:
<https://cpalmsmediaproduct.blob.core.windows.net/uploads/docs/standards/eld/la.pdf>.

VERSION REQUIREMENTS

Build background knowledge in K-5 with a balance of approximately 50% informational texts and 50% literary texts

Approximately one-third of the titles from the 5th Grade Sample Book List should be used in instruction.

ELA.K.C.4.1:	Recall information to answer a question about a single topic.
ELA.K.C.5.1:	Use a multimedia element to enhance oral or written tasks. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Multimedia elements may include, but are not limited to, a drawing, picture, artifact, audio or digital representation. Multimedia elements may include, but are not limited to, a drawing, picture, artifact, audio or digital representation. At this grade level, the element should relate to the task but that relationship may be tangential. It does not require but can include

the use of computers.

Describe the main character(s), setting, and important events in a story.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: In describing the main character, students can describe appearance, actions, feelings, and thoughts of the character. Students will explain what in the text their description is based on.

Clarification 2: For setting, students will discuss where the events of the story are happening. The time element of setting should only be addressed in texts where it is explicitly indicated.

Clarification 3: Descriptions can be oral, either in response to a question or through discussion.

ELA.K.R.1.1:

Identify rhyme in a poem.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: This benchmark builds on the skills from the phonological awareness benchmark ELA.K.F.1.2(b): Identify and produce alliterative and rhyming words. The expectation is that students identify rhyming words in a poem that is read aloud.

Clarification 2: Students will also note where the rhyme is coming, e.g., at the end of a line.

ELA.K.R.1.4:

Identify the topic of and multiple details in a text.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: The topic is the general subject of the text, a word or a short phrase describing what the text is about. For example, the main topic of the book Why Should I Recycle? is recycling.

Explain the difference between opinions and facts about a topic.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Students will explain which statements are fact and which are opinion within a text.

Clarification 2: Students will orally explain that facts are things that a person knows about something and that can be proven true or false. Students will orally explain that opinions are what a person thinks about something, often related to feelings or beliefs. Opinions cannot be proven true or false.

Example: "Dogs need food and water to survive" is a fact. It can be proven to be true. "Dogs are the best pets" is an opinion. It's what someone may think, but it can't be proven.

ELA.K.R.2.2:

ELA.K.R.2.4:

Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing.

Clarifications:

Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, are vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.

ELA.K.V.1.1:

Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning.

Clarifications:

K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing.

2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations.

4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they've directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor.

6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation.

9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ.

ELA.K12.EE.1.1:

Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently.

Clarifications:

See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric.

ELA.K12.EE.2.1:

Make inferences to support comprehension.

Clarifications:

Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like "Why is the girl smiling?" or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond.

ELA.K12.EE.3.1:

Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations.

Clarifications:

In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully.

In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: "I think _____ because _____." The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations.

In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence.

ELA.K12.EE.4.1:

Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work.

ELA.K12.EE.5.1:	Clarifications: Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work.
	Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing.
ELA.K12.EE.6.1:	Clarifications: In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts.
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.

Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.1.C.1.2:	Write narratives that retell two or more appropriately sequenced events, including relevant details and a sense of closure. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types.
ELA.1.C.1.3:	Write opinions about a topic or text with at least one supporting reason from a source and a sense of closure. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types.
ELA.1.C.1.4:	Write expository texts about a topic, using a source, providing facts and a sense of closure. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types.
ELA.1.C.1.5:	With guidance and support from adults, improve writing, as needed, by planning, revising, and editing. Clarifications: Clarification 1: As needed refers to the fact that sometimes instruction will focus on a specific skill or part of the process. In those instances, only the applicable activity will be engaged in.
ELA.1.C.2.1:	Present information orally using complete sentences and appropriate volume. Clarifications: Clarification 1: For further guidance, see the Elementary Oral Communication Rubric.
ELA.1.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Capitalize proper nouns.</li> <li>• Form and use simple verb tenses for regular verbs by adding the affix -ed.</li> <li>• Form and use complete simple sentences.</li> <li>• Use possessives.</li> <li>• Use subject-verb agreement in simple sentences.</li> </ul> Skills to be implemented but not yet mastered are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Form plurals -y to -ies.</li> <li>• Conjugate regular and irregular verb tenses.</li> <li>• Form and use regular and frequently occurring irregular plural nouns.</li> <li>• Form and use the past tense of frequently occurring irregular verbs.</li> <li>• Use apostrophes to form contractions.</li> <li>• Appropriately use pronouns.</li> <li>• Use commas in a series.</li> <li>• Use plural possessives.</li> <li>• Use interjections.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information.
ELA.1.C.4.1:	Participate in research to gather information to answer a question about a single topic. Clarifications: Clarification 1: The question could ask for an explanation or could ask how to do something, where the appropriate response could be to give a sequence of steps or instructions.
ELA.1.C.5.1:	Use a multimedia element to enhance oral or written tasks. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Multimedia elements may include, but are not limited to, a drawing, picture, artifact, audio or digital representation. At this grade level, the element should relate to the task. As long as the student is able to explain how the picture relates, the multimedia element is suitable. The element may be shared at the beginning or added on to the end instead of shared during the course of the task. There is no expectation that the element be integrated into the task.
ELA.1.R.1.1:	Identify and describe the main story elements in a story. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Main story elements for the purpose of this benchmark are the setting, characters, and sequence of events of a story. Clarification 2: In describing the characters, students can describe appearance, actions, feelings, and thoughts of the characters. Students will explain what in the text their description is based on.

Clarification 3: For setting, students will discuss where the events of the story are happening. The time element of setting should only be addressed in texts where it is explicitly indicated.

	Identify and explain the moral of a story. Clarifications:
ELA.1.R.1.2:	Clarification 1: This benchmark introduces the moral of a story as a precursor to theme in 2nd grade. A moral is the lesson of a story. During instruction, let students know that not all stories have a lesson by referring to stories read that did not have a moral or a lesson.
	Explain who is telling the story using context clues. Clarifications:
ELA.1.R.1.3:	Clarification 1: Students will use the term “narrator” to refer to the speaker telling the story. Students will determine if the narrator is a character in the story or a speaker outside of the story. Students will give reasons why they know who is speaking.
	Identify stanzas and line breaks in poems. Clarifications:
ELA.1.R.1.4:	Clarification 1: This benchmark can be paired with R.1.1, R.1.2, R.1.3 and R.3.2 for instruction with story poems.
ELA.1.R.2.1:	Use text features including titles, headings, captions, graphs, maps, glossaries, and/or illustrations to demonstrate understanding of texts.
ELA.1.R.2.2:	Identify the topic of and relevant details in a text.
	Explain similarities and differences between information provided in visuals and words in an informational text. Clarifications:
ELA.1.R.2.3:	Clarification 1: When explaining similarities and differences, students will also explain how the visuals and words help the reader make sense of the topic.  Clarification 2: During instruction, give students opportunities to see visual representations of similarities and differences using tools such as Venn diagrams or T-charts.
ELA.1.R.2.4:	Identify an author’s opinion(s) about the topic.
	Identify and explain descriptive words and phrases in text(s). Clarifications:
ELA.1.R.3.1:	Clarification 1: Continue to expose students to the academic vocabulary word “adjective.” Discussion should focus on how the descriptive words add meaning to the text.
	Retell a text in oral or written form to enhance comprehension.
ELA.1.R.3.2:	a. Use main story elements at the beginning, middle, and end for a literary text. b. Use topic and important details for an informational text.  Clarifications: Clarification 1: Most grade-level texts are appropriate for this benchmark.
	Compare and contrast two texts on the same topic. Clarifications:
ELA.1.R.3.3:	Clarification 1: Students are being asked to compare and contrast. During instruction, give students opportunities to see visual representations of similarities and differences using tools such as Venn diagrams or T-charts.
	Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing. Clarifications:
ELA.1.V.1.1:	Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, are vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.
	Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning. Clarifications:
ELA.K12.EE.1.1:	K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing.  2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations.  4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they’ve directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor.  6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation.  9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ.
	Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently. Clarifications:
ELA.K12.EE.2.1:	See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric.  Make inferences to support comprehension. Clarifications:

ELA.K12.EE.3.1:	Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like “Why is the girl smiling?” or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond.
	Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations. Clarifications: In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully.
ELA.K12.EE.4.1:	In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: “I think _____ because _____.” The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations.  In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence.
	Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work. Clarifications:
ELA.K12.EE.5.1:	Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work.
	Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing. Clarifications:
ELA.K12.EE.6.1:	In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts.
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.

Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.2.C.1.2:	Write personal or fictional narratives using a logical sequence of events, transitions, and an ending. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types.
ELA.2.C.1.3:	Write opinions about a topic or text with reasons supported by details from a source, use transitions, and provide a conclusion. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types.
ELA.2.C.1.4:	Write expository texts about a topic, using a source, providing an introduction, facts, transitions, and a conclusion. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types.
ELA.2.C.1.5:	Improve writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing with guidance and support from adults and feedback from peers. Clarifications: Clarification 1: "As needed" refers to the fact that sometimes instruction will focus on a specific skill or part of the process. In those instances, only the applicable activity will be engaged in.
ELA.2.C.2.1:	Present information orally using complete sentences, appropriate volume, and clear pronunciation. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Clear pronunciation shows an understanding and application of phonics rules and sight words as well as care taken in delivery. A student's speech impediment should not be considered as impeding clear pronunciation.  Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Elementary Oral Communication Rubric.
ELA.2.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Form plurals -y to -ies.</li> <li>• Use apostrophes to form contractions.</li> <li>• Appropriately use pronouns.</li> <li>• Use commas in a series.</li> <li>• Use plural possessives.</li> <li>• Use interjections.</li> </ul> Skills to be implemented but not yet mastered are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Conjugate regular and irregular verb tenses.</li> <li>• Form and use regular and frequently occurring irregular plural nouns.</li> <li>• Form and use the past tense of frequently occurring irregular verbs.</li> <li>• Maintain consistent verb tense across paragraphs.</li> <li>• Form and use irregular plural nouns.</li> <li>• Form and use the progressive and perfect verb tenses.</li> <li>• Use simple modifiers.</li> <li>• Use prepositions and prepositional phrases.</li> <li>• Form and use compound sentences.</li> <li>• Use quotation marks with dialogue and direct quotations.</li> <li>• Use commas to indicate direct address.</li> <li>• Use subject-verb agreement with intervening clauses and phrases.</li> <li>• Produce complete sentences, recognizing and correcting inappropriate fragments and run-ons.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information.
ELA.2.C.4.1:	Participate in research to gather information to answer a question about a single topic using multiple sources.
ELA.2.C.5.1:	Use one or more multimedia element(s) to enhance oral or written tasks. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Multimedia elements may include, but are not limited to, drawings, pictures, artifacts, and audio or digital representation. At this grade level, the element(s) should relate directly to the task. There is no expectation that the element(s) be integrated into the task. The student can but is not required to use more than one multimedia element.
ELA.2.C.5.2:	Use digital tools to produce and publish writing individually or with peers and with support from adults. Identify plot structure and describe main story elements in a literary text.

ELA.2.R.1.1:	Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Main story elements for the purpose of this benchmark are the setting, characters, and sequence of events of a story.  Clarification 2: For setting, students will describe where and when the events of the story are happening. The time element of setting will be addressed even when not explicitly indicated in the text.  Clarification 3: For character, student's will describe characters' traits, feelings, and behaviors.
ELA.2.R.1.2:	Identify and explain a theme of a literary text.
ELA.2.R.1.3:	Identify different characters' perspectives in a literary text. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something." The term point of view is used when referring to the person of the narrator. This is to prevent confusion and conflation.
ELA.2.R.1.4:	Identify rhyme schemes in poems. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Students will mark rhyme scheme and recognize rhyme scheme notation. Rhyme scheme notation uses capital letters, starting with A to mark the end of each line, repeating the letter for each line in the poem that rhymes with that line and progressing through the alphabet for each new end rhyme. Lines designated with the same letter all rhyme with each other. Examples: I never saw a Purple Cow, A  I never hope to see one; B  But I can tell you, anyhow, A  I'd rather see than be one! B –Gelett Burgess Little Miss Muffet                    A  Sat on a tuffet,                    A  Eating her curds and whey;        B  Along came a spider                C  Who sat down beside her          C  And frightened Miss Muffet away. B –Traditional Nursery Rhyme
ELA.2.R.2.1:	Explain how text features—including titles, headings, captions, graphs, maps, glossaries, and/or illustrations—contribute to the meaning of texts.
ELA.2.R.2.2:	Identify the central idea and relevant details in a text.
ELA.2.R.2.3:	Explain an author's purpose in an informational text.
ELA.2.R.2.4:	Explain an author's opinion(s) and supporting evidence.
ELA.2.V.1.1:	Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.
ELA.K12.EE.1.1:	Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning. Clarifications:  K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing. 2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations. 4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they've directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor. 6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation. 9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ.
ELA.K12.EE.2.1:	Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently. Clarifications:  See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric.
ELA.K12.EE.3.1:	Make inferences to support comprehension. Clarifications:  Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like "Why is the girl smiling?" or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond.

	Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations. Clarifications: In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully.
ELA.K12.EE.4.1:	In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: "I think _____ because _____." The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations.  In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence.
ELA.K12.EE.5.1:	Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work. Clarifications: Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work.
ELA.K12.EE.6.1:	Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing. Clarifications: In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts.
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.

Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.3.C.1.2:	Write personal or fictional narratives using a logical sequence of events, appropriate descriptions, dialogue, a variety of transitional words or phrases, and an ending. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types.
ELA.3.C.1.3:	Write opinions about a topic or text, include reasons supported by details from one or more sources, use transitions, and provide a conclusion. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types.
ELA.3.C.1.4:	Write expository texts about a topic, using one or more sources, providing an introduction, facts and details, some elaboration, transitions, and a conclusion. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques.
ELA.3.C.1.5:	Improve writing as needed by planning, revising, and editing with guidance and support from adults and feedback from peers. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: As needed refers to the fact that sometimes instruction will focus on a specific skill or part of the process. In those instances, only the applicable activity will be engaged in.
ELA.3.C.2.1:	Present information orally, in a logical sequence, using nonverbal cues, appropriate volume, and clear pronunciation. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Nonverbal cues appropriate to this grade level are posture, tone, and expressive delivery. Clear pronunciation should be interpreted to mean an understanding and application of phonics rules and sight words as well as care taken in delivery. A student’s speech impediment should not be considered as impeding clear pronunciation. This grade level introduces an expectation that the information be presented in a logical sequence. A student may self-correct an error in sequence. Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Elementary Oral Communication Rubric.
ELA.3.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Conjugate regular and irregular verb tenses.</li> <li>• Form and use regular and frequently occurring irregular plural nouns.</li> <li>• Form and use the past tense of frequently occurring irregular verbs. • Maintain consistent verb tense across paragraphs.</li> <li>• Form and use irregular plural nouns.</li> <li>• Form and use the progressive and perfect verb tenses.</li> <li>• Use simple modifiers.</li> <li>• Use prepositions and prepositional phrases.</li> <li>• Form and use compound sentences.</li> <li>• Use quotation marks with dialogue and direct quotations. • Use commas to indicate direct address.</li> </ul> Skills to be implemented but not yet mastered are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use subject-verb agreement with intervening clauses and phrases.</li> <li>• Produce complete sentences, recognizing and correcting inappropriate fragments and run-ons.</li> <li>• Use conjunctions.</li> <li>• Use principal modals to indicate the mood of a verb.</li> <li>• Use appositives, main clauses, and subordinate clauses.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information.
ELA.3.C.4.1:	Conduct research to answer a question, organizing information about the topic from multiple sources. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: While the benchmark does require that students consult multiple sources, there is no requirement that they use every source they consult. Part of the skill in researching is discernment—being able to tell which information is relevant and which sources are trustworthy enough to include.
	Use two or more multimedia elements to enhance oral or written tasks. Clarifications:

ELA.3.C.5.1:	Clarification 1: Multimedia elements may include, but are not limited to, drawings, pictures, artifacts, and audio or digital representation. At this grade level, the elements should relate directly to the presentation. The elements can reinforce or complement the information being shared. There is no expectation that the elements be fully integrated into the presentation.
ELA.3.C.5.2:	Use digital writing tools individually or collaboratively to plan, draft, and revise writing.
ELA.3.R.1.1:	Explain how one or more characters develop throughout the plot in a literary text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: When explaining character development, students will include character traits, feelings, motivations, and responses to situations.
ELA.3.R.1.2:	Explain a theme and how it develops, using details, in a literary text.
ELA.3.R.1.3:	Explain different characters' perspectives in a literary text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something." The term point of view is used when referring to the person of the narrator. This is to prevent confusion and conflation.
ELA.3.R.1.4:	Identify types of poems: free verse, rhymed verse, haiku, and limerick. Clarifications: Clarification 1: For examples of these forms, see Appendix B.
ELA.3.R.2.1:	Explain how text features contribute to meaning and identify the text structures of chronology, comparison, and cause/effect in texts.
ELA.3.R.2.2:	Identify the central idea and explain how relevant details support that idea in a text.
ELA.3.R.2.3:	Explain the development of an author's purpose in an informational text.
ELA.3.R.2.4:	Identify an author's claim and explain how an author uses evidence to support the claim.
ELA.3.V.1.1:	Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.
ELA.K12.EE.1.1:	Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning. Clarifications: K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing.  2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations.  4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they've directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor.  6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation.  9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ.
ELA.K12.EE.2.1:	Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently. Clarifications: See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric.
ELA.K12.EE.3.1:	Make inferences to support comprehension. Clarifications: Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like "Why is the girl smiling?" or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond.
ELA.K12.EE.4.1:	Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations. Clarifications: In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully.  In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: "I think _____ because _____." The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations.  In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence.
ELA.K12.EE.5.1:	Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work. Clarifications: Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work.
ELA.K12.EE.6.1:	Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing. Clarifications: In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts.

ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.

Introduction to Debate Grade 4 (#5010104) 2022 - And Beyond

Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.4.C.1.1:	Demonstrate legible cursive writing skills. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students will produce cursive writing that can be consistently read by others.
ELA.4.C.1.2:	Write personal or fictional narratives using a logical sequence of events and demonstrating an effective use of techniques such as descriptions and transitional words and phrases. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students were introduced to dialogue in 3rd grade. Although it is not mentioned specifically in this benchmark, students should continue to practice the technique and receive instruction in it. Dialogue is included for mastery in the 5th grade benchmark.  Clarification 2: See Writing Types.
ELA.4.C.1.3:	Write to make a claim supporting a perspective with logical reasons, using evidence from multiple sources, elaboration, and an organizational structure with transitions. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques.
ELA.4.C.1.4:	Write expository texts about a topic, using multiple sources, elaboration, and an organizational structure with transitions. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques.
ELA.4.C.1.5:	Improve writing by planning, revising, and editing, with guidance and support from adults and feedback from peers.
ELA.4.C.2.1:	Present information orally, in a logical sequence, using nonverbal cues, appropriate volume, and clear pronunciation. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Nonverbal cues appropriate to this grade level are posture, tone, expressive delivery, focus on the audience, and facial expression. Clear pronunciation should be interpreted to mean an understanding and application of phonics rules and sight words as well as care taken in delivery. A student's speech impediment should not be considered as impeding clear pronunciation.  Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Elementary Oral Communication Rubric.
ELA.4.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use subject-verb agreement with intervening clauses and phrases.</li> <li>• Produce complete sentences, recognizing and correcting inappropriate fragments and run-ons.</li> <li>• Use conjunctions.</li> </ul> Skills to be implemented but not yet mastered are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use principal modals to indicate the mood of a verb.</li> <li>• Use appositives, main clauses, and subordinate clauses.</li> <li>• Recognize and correct inappropriate shifts in tense and number.</li> <li>• Use conjunctions correctly to join words and phrases in a sentence.</li> <li>• Use verbals including gerunds, infinitives, and participial phrases.</li> <li>• Use pronouns correctly with regard to case, number, and person, correcting for vague pronoun reference.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information.
ELA.4.C.4.1:	Conduct research to answer a question, organizing information about the topic, using multiple valid sources. Clarifications: Clarification 1: While the benchmark does require that students consult multiple sources, there is no requirement that they use every source they consult. Part of the skill in researching is discernment—being able to tell which information is relevant and which sources are trustworthy enough to include.
ELA.4.C.5.1:	Arrange multimedia elements to create emphasis in oral or written tasks. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Multimedia elements may include, but are not limited to, drawings, pictures, artifacts, and audio or digital representation. At this grade level, students are using more than one element. The elements may be of the same type (for example, two pictures or a picture and an audio recording). The elements should relate directly to the task and emphasize a point made within the task, perhaps by showing examples or data to emphasize a point. The elements should be smoothly integrated.

ELA.4.C.5.2:	Use digital writing tools individually or collaboratively to plan, draft, and revise writing.
ELA.4.R.1.1:	Explain how setting, events, conflict, and character development contribute to the plot in a literary text.
ELA.4.R.1.2:	Explain a stated or implied theme and how it develops, using details, in a literary text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: An explanation of how the theme develops should include how characters respond to situations and how the speaker reflects upon a topic in a literary text.
ELA.4.R.1.3:	Identify the narrator's point of view and explain the difference between a narrator's point of view and character perspective in a literary text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something." The term point of view is used when referring to the person of the narrator. This is to prevent confusion and conflation.
ELA.4.R.1.4:	Explain how rhyme and structure create meaning in a poem.
ELA.4.R.2.1:	Explain how text features contribute to the meaning and identify the text structures of problem/solution, sequence, and description in texts.
ELA.4.R.2.2:	Explain how relevant details support the central idea, implied or explicit.
ELA.4.R.2.3:	Explain an author's perspective toward a topic in an informational text. Clarifications: Clarification 1: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something."
ELA.4.R.2.4:	Explain an author's claim and the reasons and evidence used to support the claim.
ELA.4.V.1.1:	Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.
ELA.K12.EE.1.1:	Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning. Clarifications: K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing. 2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations. 4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they've directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor. 6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation. 9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ.
ELA.K12.EE.2.1:	Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently. Clarifications: See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric.
ELA.K12.EE.3.1:	Make inferences to support comprehension. Clarifications: Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like "Why is the girl smiling?" or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond.
ELA.K12.EE.4.1:	Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations. Clarifications: In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully. In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: "I think _____ because _____." The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations. In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence.
ELA.K12.EE.5.1:	Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work. Clarifications: Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work.
ELA.K12.EE.6.1:	Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing. Clarifications: In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts.

ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.

Course Standards

Name	Description
ELA.5.C.1.1:	Demonstrate fluent and legible cursive writing skills. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Students will use cursive writing to produce legible works within the same timeframe as they would use for writing in print.
ELA.5.C.1.2:	Write personal or fictional narratives using a logical sequence of events and demonstrating an effective use of techniques such as dialogue, description, and transitional words and phrases. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types.
ELA.5.C.1.3:	Write to make a claim supporting a perspective with logical reasons, relevant evidence from sources, elaboration, and an organizational structure with varied transitions. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques.
ELA.5.C.1.4:	Write expository texts about a topic using multiple sources and including an organizational structure, relevant elaboration, and varied transitions. Clarifications: Clarification 1: See Writing Types and Elaborative Techniques.
ELA.5.C.1.5:	Improve writing by planning, revising, and editing, with guidance and support from adults and feedback from peers.
ELA.5.C.2.1:	Present information orally, in a logical sequence, using nonverbal cues, appropriate volume, clear pronunciation, and appropriate pacing. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Nonverbal cues appropriate to this grade level are posture, tone, expressive delivery, focus on the audience, and facial expression. Clear pronunciation should be interpreted to mean an understanding and application of phonics rules and sight words as well as care taken in delivery. A student's speech impediment should not be considered as impeding clear pronunciation. This is the initial grade level that introduces appropriate pacing. Appropriate pacing is adhering to the pauses dictated by punctuation and speaking at a rate that best facilitates comprehension by the audience. Too fast a pace will lose listeners and too slow can become monotonous. The element will also help students address the nervousness that may make them speak too fast during presentations.  Clarification 2: For further guidance, see the Elementary Oral Communication Rubric.
ELA.5.C.3.1:	Follow the rules of standard English grammar, punctuation, capitalization, and spelling appropriate to grade level. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Skills to be mastered at this grade level are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use principal modals to indicate the mood of a verb.</li> <li>• Use appositives, main clauses, and subordinate clauses.</li> <li>• Recognize and correct inappropriate shifts in tense and number.</li> <li>• Use conjunctions correctly to join words and phrases in a sentence.</li> </ul> Skills to be implemented but not yet mastered are as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Use verbals including gerunds, infinitives, and participial phrases.</li> <li>• Use comparative and superlative forms of adjectives.</li> <li>• Use pronouns correctly with regard to case, number, and person, correcting for vague pronoun reference.</li> <li>• Vary sentence structure.</li> </ul> Clarification 2: See Convention Progression by Grade Level for more information.
ELA.5.C.4.1:	Conduct research to answer a question, organizing information about the topic and using multiple reliable and valid sources. Clarifications: Clarification 1: While the benchmark does require that students consult multiple sources, there is no requirement that they use every source they consult. Part of the skill in researching is discernment—being able to tell which information is relevant and which sources are trustworthy enough to include.
ELA.5.C.5.1:	Arrange multimedia elements to create emphasis in oral or written tasks. Clarifications: Clarification 1: Multimedia elements may include, but are not limited to, drawings, pictures, artifacts, and audio or digital representation. At this grade level, students are using more than one element. The elements may be of the same type (for example, two pictures or a picture and an audio recording). The elements should relate directly to the task and emphasize or clarify a point made within the task, perhaps by showing examples to clarify a claim or data to emphasize a point. The elements should be smoothly integrated.

ELA.5.C.5.2:	Use digital writing tools individually or collaboratively to plan, draft, and revise writing.
ELA.5.R.1.1:	Analyze how setting, events, conflict, and characterization contribute to the plot in a literary text.
ELA.5.R.1.2:	Explain the development of stated or implied theme(s) throughout a literary text. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Where the development of multiple themes is being explained, the themes may come from the same or multiple literary texts.
ELA.5.R.1.3:	Describe how an author develops a character's perspective in a literary text. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something." Explain how figurative language and other poetic elements work together in a poem. Clarifications:
ELA.5.R.1.4:	Clarification 1: Figurative language for the purposes of this benchmark refers to metaphor, simile, alliteration, personification, hyperbole, imagery, and idiom. Other examples can be used in instruction. Clarification 2: Poetic elements to be used for the purposes of this benchmark are form, rhyme, meter, line breaks, and imagery.
ELA.5.R.2.1:	Explain how text structures and/or features contribute to the overall meaning of texts. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: For more information, see Text Structures and Text Features.
ELA.5.R.2.2:	Explain how relevant details support the central idea(s), implied or explicit.
ELA.5.R.2.3:	Analyze an author's purpose and/or perspective in an informational text. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: The term perspective means "a particular attitude toward or way of regarding something."
ELA.5.R.2.4:	Track the development of an argument, identifying the specific claim(s), evidence, and reasoning. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: A claim is a statement that asserts something is true. A claim can either be fact or opinion. Claims can be used alone or with other claims to form a larger argument.
ELA.5.V.1.1:	Use grade-level academic vocabulary appropriately in speaking and writing. Clarifications:  Clarification 1: Grade-level academic vocabulary consists of words that are likely to appear across subject areas for the current grade level and beyond, vital to comprehension, critical for academic discussions and writing, and usually require explicit instruction.
ELA.K12.EE.1.1:	Cite evidence to explain and justify reasoning. Clarifications:            K-1 Students include textual evidence in their oral communication with guidance and support from adults. The evidence can consist of details from the text without naming the text. During 1st grade, students learn how to incorporate the evidence in their writing. 2-3 Students include relevant textual evidence in their written and oral communication. Students should name the text when they refer to it. In 3rd grade, students should use a combination of direct and indirect citations. 4-5 Students continue with previous skills and reference comments made by speakers and peers. Students cite texts that they've directly quoted, paraphrased, or used for information. When writing, students will use the form of citation dictated by the instructor or the style guide referenced by the instructor. 6-8 Students continue with previous skills and use a style guide to create a proper citation. 9-12 Students continue with previous skills and should be aware of existing style guides and the ways in which they differ.
ELA.K12.EE.2.1:	Read and comprehend grade-level complex texts proficiently. Clarifications:            See Text Complexity for grade-level complexity bands and a text complexity rubric.
ELA.K12.EE.3.1:	Make inferences to support comprehension. Clarifications:            Students will make inferences before the words infer or inference are introduced. Kindergarten students will answer questions like "Why is the girl smiling?" or make predictions about what will happen based on the title page. Students will use the terms and apply them in 2nd grade and beyond.
ELA.K12.EE.4.1:	Use appropriate collaborative techniques and active listening skills when engaging in discussions in a variety of situations. Clarifications:            In kindergarten, students learn to listen to one another respectfully. In grades 1-2, students build upon these skills by justifying what they are thinking. For example: "I think _____ because _____." The collaborative conversations are becoming academic conversations. In grades 3-12, students engage in academic conversations discussing claims and justifying their reasoning, refining and applying skills. Students build on ideas, propel the conversation, and support claims and counterclaims with evidence.
	Use the accepted rules governing a specific format to create quality work. Clarifications:

ELA.K12.EE.5.1:	Students will incorporate skills learned into work products to produce quality work. For students to incorporate these skills appropriately, they must receive instruction. A 3rd grade student creating a poster board display must have instruction in how to effectively present information to do quality work.
ELA.K12.EE.6.1:	Use appropriate voice and tone when speaking or writing. Clarifications: In kindergarten and 1st grade, students learn the difference between formal and informal language. For example, the way we talk to our friends differs from the way we speak to adults. In 2nd grade and beyond, students practice appropriate social and academic language to discuss texts.
ELD.K12.ELL.LA.1:	English language learners communicate information, ideas and concepts necessary for academic success in the content area of Language Arts.
ELD.K12.ELL.SI.1:	English language learners communicate for social and instructional purposes within the school setting.
