WHO NEEDS A VACATION RENTAL OR TIMESHARE PROJECT LICENSE?

If you are planning to operate a public lodging establishment in Florida, you will need a license from the Department of Business and Professional Regulation, Division of Hotels and Restaurants. Use these forms to apply for a public lodging establishment license as a vacation rental or timeshare project. According to state law:

“Vacation rental” means any unit or group of units in a condominium, cooperative or any individually or collectively owned single-family, two-family, three-family, or four-family house or dwelling unit that is also a transient public lodging establishment but that is not a timeshare project. [§ 509.242(1)(c), Florida Statutes (FS)]

“Timeshare project” means a timeshare property, as defined in chapter 721, that is located in this state and that is also a transient public lodging establishment. [§ 509.242(1)(g), Florida Statutes (FS)]

“Condominium” means that form of ownership of real property created pursuant to chapter 718, FS, which is comprised entirely of units that may be owned by one or more persons, and in which there is, appurtenant to each unit, an undivided share in common elements. [§ 718.103(11), FS]

“Cooperative” means that form of ownership of real property wherein legal title is vested in a corporation or other entity and the beneficial use is evidenced by an ownership interest in the association and a lease or other muniment of title or possession granted by the association as the owner of all the cooperative property. [§ 719.103(12), FS]

“Timeshare property” means one or more timeshare units subject to the same timeshare instrument, together with any other property or rights to property appurtenant to those timeshare units. [§ 721.05(40), FS]

“Timeshare unit” means an accommodation of a timeshare plan which is divided into timeshare periods. Any timeshare unit in which a door or doors connecting two or more separate rooms are capable of being locked to create two or more private dwellings shall only constitute one timeshare unit for purposes of this chapter, unless the timeshare instrument provides that timeshare interests may be separately conveyed in such locked-off portions. [§ 721.05(41), FS]

“Licensed Agent” means the operator of a management company that has been licensed by the dwelling or unit owner, through a rental agreement or contract between the two parties, to hold out the dwelling or unit for rent on a transient basis. A licensed agent is not required to hold a license from the Division of Real Estate. [§ 61C-1.002(4)(a), Florida Administrative Code (FAC)]

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING THE APPLICATION

SECTION 1 – LICENSE TYPE

Choose one box that most closely describes the planned establishment. Section 509.242(2), FS, states: If 25 percent or more of the units in any public lodging establishment fall within a classification different from the classification under which the establishment is licensed, such establishment shall obtain a separate license for the classification representing the 25 percent or more units which differ from the classification under which the establishment is licensed. The definitions of vacation rentals and timeshare projects are provided on the first page of this application packet.

Vacation Rentals: Vacation rentals are licensed as condominiums or dwellings, as defined in Rule 61C-1.002, FAC. Check the license type that best describes the establishment.

- Condominium – A unit or group of units in a condominium or cooperative.
- Dwelling – A single-family house, a townhouse, or a unit or group of units in a duplex, triplex, quadruplex, or other dwelling unit that has four or less units collectively.

- Single -- A single license is a license issued by the division to an individual person or entity, but not a licensed agent. A single license may include one single-family house or townhouse, or a unit or group of units within a single building that are owned and operated by the same individual person or entity. In the case of a single license, the owner of the unit or dwelling is responsible for all violations of sanitation and safety codes.
- Group -- A group license is a license issued by the division to a licensed agent to cover all units within a building or group of buildings in a single complex. A group license only covers those units held out to the public as places regularly rented to guests as defined in Chapter 509, F.S. In the case of a group license, the licensed agent is responsible for all violations of sanitation and safety codes.
- Collective -- A collective license is a license issued by the division to a licensed agent who represents a collective group of houses or units found on separate locations. A collective license may not be issued for more than 75 houses or units per license and is restricted to counties within one district.
