Section 1: Application Type

- New application – Complete Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, and 6
- Renewal application – Complete Sections 2, 3, 5, 6, and 7

Section 2: Purpose of Application (Check and Fill Out Any Parts that Apply)

- Public exhibition of live Conditional species
Facilities and caging must pass inspection and meet the standards set forth in Chapter 68-5, F.A.C., for possessing Conditional species.
- Public exhibition of live Prohibited species
Facilities and caging must pass inspection and meet the standards set forth in Chapter 68-5, F.A.C., for possessing Prohibited species. Drainage plans for aquatic species enclosures must be included with application submission.

Limited exceptions are in place for exhibitors who possessed tegus or green iguanas prior to their listing as Prohibited species under a valid License to Possess Class III Wildlife for Exhibition or Public Sale (ESC) and do not otherwise meet the eligibility requirements for exhibition of Prohibited species. To qualify for a limited exception, applicants must have had a valid ESC on June 30, 2020 and either documented tegus and/or green iguanas in their inventory or documented that they planned to possess tegus or green iguanas on their 2018 or 2019 ESC license applications.

ESC license number, if applying for tegus or green iguanas under limited exception: _____

Public exhibition of sea snakes also requires a License to Possess or Exhibit Venomous Reptiles and/or Reptiles of Concern (VRC) and the required letter of credit.

VRC license number, if applying for sea snakes: _____

Section 3: Critical Incident and Disaster Plan

A completed Critical Incident and Disaster Plan (FWCDLE 619 6/09) Part A must be submitted with this application. Part B must be maintained at the location where the animals are housed and made available upon request from Commission personnel.

Section 4: Documentation of Educational Exhibition

Permits to possess Conditional and/or Prohibited species for exhibition use may only be issued to qualifying public exhibitors providing educational exhibits.

A public exhibitor is defined in Rule 68-5.002(9), F.A.C., as a permanent, fixed facility in which Conditional and/or Prohibited species are confined in such a manner that the general public is able to view them during regularly scheduled business hours, either through scheduled tours or general admission, with or without a fee.

An educational exhibit is defined in Rule 68-5.002(3), F.A.C., as an organized presentation or display of a nonnative fish or wildlife species along with a selection of educational materials to include interpretive signs, presentations, brochures, handouts, or other materials which impart knowledge about the displayed species. Such materials shall include information about the species' range, habitat, biology, and threats the species poses to Florida's ecology, economy, or human health and safety.

Please include with this application proof of business hours and copies or photos of any educational materials to be used.

Section 7: Reporting Requirements

For renewal applications, a report of the status and disposition of any species possessed must be submitted.

For Conditional snakes and lizards, the required Reptile Inventory Report Form \(FWC DLE 620IV-R\) must be completed and submitted with this application.

For Prohibited reptiles, the required Prohibited Reptile Inventory Report Form \(FWC WIM 06 \(12/20\)\) must be completed and submitted with this application.

For other Conditional and Prohibited species, the required information may be documented either in the table below or by attaching a separate report detailing this information.
