Reporting period:

Florida law requires dealers to report rental car surcharge by the county where the surcharge is "attributed." This is defined as the county where the lessee picks up the for-hire passenger motor vehicle for lease or rental.

- Enter, by county, the rental car surcharge attributed to each Florida county.
- Add up all the county surcharge amounts to provide the Total Rental Car Surcharge.
- Enter this total amount on the bottom of the schedule (Form DR-15SWS).
- Bring that same total from the bottom of the schedule and enter it on Line 4 on the back of your (DR-15SW) tax return.
