

Application Rear Admiral LeRoy Collins, Jr., Temporary Certificate for Active Duty Military and Veterans

Chapter 458.3151, Florida Statutes

This temporary and restricted licensure avenue is for allopathic physicians who are on active duty in the US Armed Forces or served in the US Armed Forces for at least 10 years and received an honorable discharge, and holds an active and valid license to practice in a jurisdiction of the United States. This license is restricted to practice in the following approved areas of critical need:

- County health department;
- Correctional facility;
- Department of Veterans' Affairs clinic;
- A community health center funded by s. 329, s. 330 or s. 340 of the United States Public Service Act;
- another agency or institution approved by the State Surgeon General that provides health care to meet the needs of underserved populations in this state; or
- In an area for a limited time to address critical physician-specialty, demographic or geographic needs for Florida's physician workforce as determined by the State Surgeon General. For a complete list of approved facilities visit: <a href="http://www10.doh.state.fl.us/pub/medicine/Agenda_Info/Public_Information/ACN_Approved_Facilities_List/Ap

Mailing Information: Submit your application, fees, and any supplemental documentation you are sending with your application to the following address: Department of Health, PO Box 6330, Tallahassee, FL 32314-6330. After your application has been received, mail any additional information not included with your application to the following address: Board of Medicine, 4052 Bald Cypress Way, Bin #C03, Tallahassee, FL 32399-3253.

Fees: The application fee and all licensure fees, including Neurological Injury Compensation Assessments (NICA), shall be waived for a physician obtaining a Temporary Certificate to practice in areas of critical need for the purpose of providing volunteer, uncompensated care for low-income residents. Initial Licensure fee for compensation practice: $429.00 submitted with the application. Compensated physicians should visit www.nica.com to determine the fee amount.

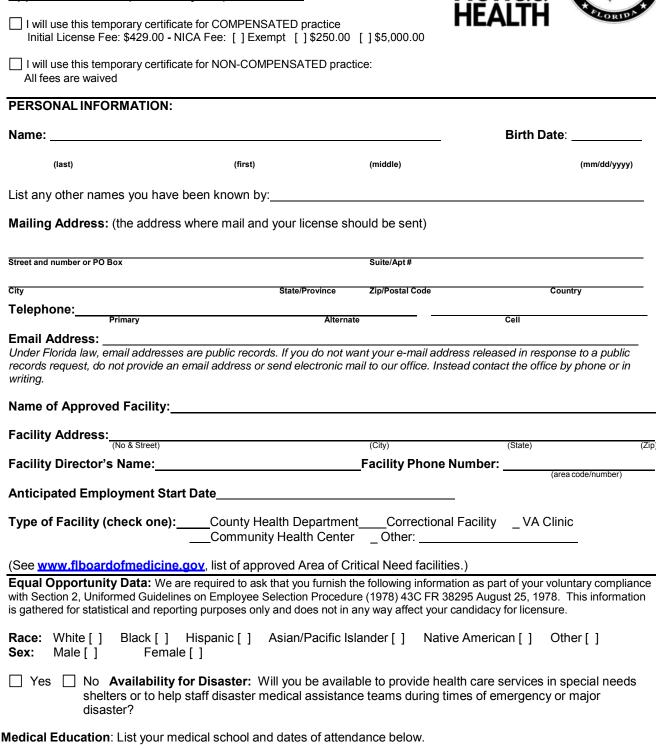

Additional Documentation Needed to Complete the Application Process:

- D Letter Authorizing Practice: If on active duty, a letter from your military command authorizing you to practice medicine at an approved area of critical need facility.
- Military Documentation: Documentation demonstrating that you are currently on active duty as a commissioned medical officer, or that you previously served as a commissioned medical officer in the US Armed Forces for at least 10 years and received an honorable discharge (DD-214 or NGB-22).
- D Affidavit regarding compensation: If you will not receive compensation for any medical service, the agency/institution must submit an affidavit to that effect so that the licensure fees, including the NICA fee, can be waived. (See section 458.3151(5), F.S.)
- National Practitioners Data Bank Self-Query (NPDB): Contact the NPDB at www.npdb-hipdb.gov. Upon receipt of the self-query please send directly to the Board office. NPDB charges a fee for this service
- D Verification of an Active and Valid License: Direct licensure verification directly to the Board office (check www.veridoc.org for states that use the online verification service).
- Background Check: You must undergo a state/national criminal history background check. All fingerprinting is done through a LiveScan provider and all fingerprints are retained by the Florida Department of Law Enforcement. See attached instructions regarding fingerprinting requirements.
- NICA Fee: All physicians licensed in Florida are required to pay into the Florida Birth Related Neurological Injury Compensation Association (NICA) fund unless you qualify for an exemption. Visit www.nica.com for exemption and participation information. Note: if you claim an exemption you must submit proof of exemption qualification to the Board office and NICA.
- D Additional Documents: May be required based on answers to application questions and your particular situation. Those items are listed on the application form with the corresponding questions.
- D Criminal History: If you have been convicted of a crime in any jurisdiction you will be required to submit the following:
 - A self-explanation listing accurate details (including dates, city/state, charges and final results).
 - Final disposition and arrest records for all offenses. The Clerk of the Court in the arresting jurisdiction will provide these documents.

FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF LAW ENFORCEMENT

NOTICE FOR APPLICANTS SUBMITTING FINGERPRINTS WHERE CRIMINAL RECORD RESULTS WILL BECOME PART OF THE CARE PROVIDER BACKGROUND SCREENING CLEARINGHOUSE

NOTICE OF:

- SHARING OF CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD INFORMATION WITH SPECIFIED AGENCIES.
- RETENTION OF FINGERPRINTS.
- PRIVACY POLICY, AND
- RIGHT TO CHALLENGE AN INCORRECT CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD

This notice is to inform you that when you submit a set of fingerprints to the Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE) for the purpose of conducting a search for any Florida and national criminal history records that may pertain to you, the results of that search will be returned to the Care Provider Background Screening Clearinghouse. By submitting fingerprints, you are authorizing the dissemination of any state and national criminal history record that may pertain to you to the Specified Agency or Agencies from which you are seeking approval to be employed, licensed, work under contract, or to serve as a volunteer, pursuant to the National Child Protection Act of 1993, as amended, and Section 943.0542, Florida Statutes. "Specified agency" means the Department of Health, the Department of Children and Family Services, the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation within the Department of Education, the Agency for Health Care Administration, the Department of Elder Affairs, the Department of Juvenile Justice, and the Agency for Persons with Disabilities when these agencies are conducting state and national criminal history background screening on persons who provide care for children or persons who are elderly or disabled. The fingerprints submitted will be retained by FDLE and the Clearinghouse will be notified if FDLE receives Florida arrest information on you.

Your Social Security Number (SSN) is needed to keep records accurate because other people may have the same name and birth date. Disclosure of your SSN is imperative for the performance of the Clearinghouse agencies' duties in distinguishing your identity from that of other persons whose identification information may be the same as or similar to yours.

Licensing and employing agencies are allowed to release a copy of the state and national criminal record information to a person who requests a copy of his or her own record if the identification of the record was based on submission of the person's fingerprints. Therefore, if you wish to review your record, you may request that the agency that is screening the record provide you with a copy. After you have reviewed the criminal history record, if you believe it is incomplete or inaccurate, you may conduct a personal review as provided in s. 943.056, F.S., and Rule 11C-8.001, F.A.C. If national information is believed to be in error, the FBI should be contacted at 304-625-2000. You can receive any national criminal history record that may pertain to you directly from the FBI, pursuant to 28 CFR Sections 16.30-16.34. You have the right to obtain a prompt determination as to the validity of your challenge before a final decision is made about your status as an employee, volunteer, contractor or subcontractor.

Until the criminal history background check is completed, you may be denied unsupervised access to children, the elderly or persons with disabilities.

Privacy Statement

Authority: The FBI's acquisition, preservation and exchange of information requested by this form is generally authorized under 28 U.S.C. 534. Depending on the nature of your application, supplemental authorities include numerous Federal statutes, hundreds of State statutes pursuant to Pub.L.92-544, Presidential executive orders, regulations and/or orders of the Attorney General of the United States, or other authorized authorities. Examples include, but are not limited to: 5 U.S.C. 9101; Pub.L.94-29; Pub.L.101-604; and Executive Orders 10450 and 12968. Providing the requested information is voluntary; however, failure to furnish the information may affect timely completion of approval of your application.

Social Security Account Number (SSAN): Your SSAN is needed to keep records accurate because other people may have the same name and birth date. Pursuant to the Federal Privacy Act of 1974 (5 USC 552a), the requesting agency is responsible for informing you whether disclosure is mandatory or voluntary, by what statutory or other authority your SSAN is solicited, and what uses will be made of it. Executive Order 9397 also asks Federal Agencies to use this number to help identify individuals in agency records.

Principal Purpose: Certain determinations, such as employment, security, licensing and adoption, may be predicated on fingerprint based checks. Your fingerprints and other information contained on (and along with) this form may be submitted to the requesting agency, the agency conducting the application investigation, and/or FBI for the purpose of comparing the submitted information to available records in order to identify other information that may be pertinent to the application. During the processing of this application, and for as long hereafter as may be relevant to the activity for which this application is being submitted, the FBI may disclose any potentially pertinent information to the requesting agency and/or to the agency conducting the investigation. The FBI may also retain the submitted information in the FBI's permanent collection of fingerprints and related information, where it will be subject to comparisons against other submissions received by the FBI. Depending on the nature of your application, the requesting agency and/or the agency conducting the application investigation may also retain the fingerprints and other submitted information for other authorized purposes of such agency or agencies.

Routine Uses: The fingerprints and information reported on this form may be disclosed pursuant to your consent, and may also be disclosed by the FBI without your consent as permitted by the Federal Privacy Act of 1974 (5 USC 552a(b)) and all applicable routine uses as many be published at any time in the Federal Register, including the routine uses for the FBI Fingerprint Identification Records System (Justice, FBI-009) and the FBI's Blanket Routine Uses (Justice/FBI-BRU). Routine uses include, but are not limited to, disclosures to: appropriate governmental authorities responsible for civil or criminal law enforcement counterintelligence, national security or public safety matters to which the information may be relevant; to State and local governmental agencies and nongovernmental entities for application processing as authorized by Federal and State legislation, executive order, or regulation, including employment, security, licensing, and adoption checks; and as otherwise authorized by law, treaty, executive order, regulation, or other lawful authority. If other agencies are involved in processing the application, they may have additional routine uses.

Additional Information: The requesting agency and/or the agency conducting the application investigation will provide you additional information pertinent to the specific circumstances of this application, which may include identification of other authorities, purposes, uses, and consequences of not providing requested information. In addition, any such agency in the Federal Executive Branch has also published notice.
